FCASM Transmittal Letters
In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) section 106.03 each state agency is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. The purpose of a five-year rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule’s scope and purpose. The rules have been reviewed and revised with the collaboration of an external workgroup comprised of various adoption assistance county partners across Ohio. The following rules were recently reviewed and amended to provide clarity as part of a five-year rule review. The rules and forms will be effective August 1, 2019.

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-49-01 entitled "Administration of the Title IV-E Adoption Assistance (AA) Program" outlines the AA administrative requirements for public children services agencies (PCSA). This rule also contains requirements for private child placing agencies (PCPAs). Changes include updates to revision dates in paragraphs (B), (F) and (I); correction to form name in paragraph (F)(2)(b)(i); clarification in paragraph (E)(2)(c) regarding agency responsibility has been amended to placement and care/custody; paragraph (G) approval or denial of an eligibility determination application request has been changed from thirty working days to thirty days; and language has been stricken in (H)(1) referencing CRIS-E as a source of verification and information to determine eligibility. This can now be done by launching the Ohio Integrated Eligibility System (OIES) interface in the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS). The JFS 06612 "Health Insurance Information Sheet" is no longer available on the JFS Form Central website. The form is available through the Ohio Department of Medicaid, Medicaid Forms Listing website which can be accessed through JFS Forms Central. The title to the rule has been amended. The title to the rule has been amended. The JFS 01453 "Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Agreement" has been amended to incorporate the changes made to rule 5101:2-49-17 of the Administrative Code.

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-49-21 entitled "Reimbursement of Title Nonrecurring Adoption Expenses for a child with Special Needs" outlines the requirements for eligibility for nonrecurring adoption expenses and the reimbursement of the nonrecurring adoption expenses. Changes were made to clearly explain requirements. Language was added to paragraph (M)(1) to clarify that the application for reimbursement of nonrecurring adoption expenses, the JFS 01421 entitled "Application for Reimbursement of Nonrecurring Adoption Expenses," to the Public Children Services Agency (PCSA) that holds permanent custody, or the case of an independent adoption is submitted in the county that the adoptive

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Kimberly Hall, Director

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) section 106.03 each state agency is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. The purpose of a five-year rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule's scope and purpose. The rules have been reviewed and revised with the collaboration of an external workgroup comprised of various adoption assistance county partners across Ohio. The following rules were recently reviewed and amended to provide clarity as part of a five-year rule review.

This rule was developed in accordance with the guidance set forth in the Child Welfare Policy Manual (CWPM), §8.2A, Question and Answer #2. New language was added to the rule in paragraph (F) to notify the Public Children Services Agency (PCSA) that an AA payment cannot automatically be amended if the adopted child is placed under the responsibility and care of the PCSA. TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Kimberly Hall, Director

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) section 106.03 each state agency is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. The purpose of a five-year rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule's scope and purpose. The rules have been reviewed and revised with the collaboration of an external workgroup comprised of various adoption assistance county partners across Ohio. The following rules were recently reviewed and amended to provide clarity as part of a five-year rule review. The rules and forms will be effective July 1, 2019.

SUBJECT: Implementation of Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-20-02, and Amendments to Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-20-04

This letter transmits new and amended Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules governing the adult protective services (APS) program that are being implemented as a result of the passage of HB 64. The following is a brief explanation of the changes.

OAC rule 5101:2-20-02 entitled “Ohio database for adult protective services (ODAPS)” sets forth the requirements for county departments of job and family services (CDJFSs) or their designated agencies to enter information into the Ohio database for adult protective services, including all elder abuse, neglect, or exploitation referrals received by the CDJFS or its designated agency. This rule also outlines the process and requirements for obtaining access to ODAPS. The rule replaces rule 5101:9-14-02 of the Administrative Code.

OAC rule 5101:2-20-04 entitled “Adult protective services case records” sets forth the requirements for the development of a permanent case record for each adult who is the subject of a referral related to abuse, neglect, or exploitation. This rule has been amended to require a CDJFS, or its designated agency to record all referrals of abuse, neglect, and exploitation received by the agency, including the screening decision for each referral. Amendments to the rule direct the CDJFS, or its designated agency, to document all case activity in the case record which is maintained in the ODAPS system.

This letter is a follow up to previously published FCASMTL 386 and 386-A which will be archived.

This letter transmits amendments to the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules which address the PCSA requirements for intake and the assessment/investigation of accepted reports. These rules have been amended in accordance with the Joint Commission on Agency Rule Review 5-year review requirement. In addition, changes were made to include the requirements outlined in the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act of 2016.

The following OAC rules have been amended: 5101:2-36-01, 5101:2-36-03, 5101:2-36-04, 5101:2-36-05, 5101:2-36-06, 5101:2-36-07, 5101:2-36-08, 5101:2-36-09, 5101:2-36-10, 5101:2-36-11, 5101:2-36-12, 5101:2-36-13, 5101:2-36-14, 5101:2-36-20. These rules will become effective June 17, 2018.

The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes to each rule.

Chapter 5101:2-36

OAC rule 5101:2-36-01 entitled Intake and screening procedures for child abuse, neglect, dependency and family in need of services reports; and information and/or referral intakes outlines the PCSA response to gathering information from a referent. This rule includes the PCSA responsibilities in recording referral information, categorizing referral information, completing a screening decision with referral information in the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS), and assigning a report to a pathway. The addition of “legal substance abuse” has been added into this rule as previously only “illegal substance abuse or withdrawal symptoms resulting from prenatal” were referenced. Substance abuse exposure has been referenced as the definition has been added to 5101:2-1-01. Specific guidelines have been added regarding how a PCSA shall gather information regarding a plan of safe care, as referenced in CARA, at the time a referral is called into the agency. PCSA’s are instructed to gather this information to determine if the substance exposed infants plan of safe care is sufficient to meet the needs of both the infant and their caregivers. These additions satisfy the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act of 2016 (CARA). At the time of original filing of this rule package on October 1, 2017, the sentence “The PCSA shall not contact collateral sources prior to screening the referral in as a report” was added into paragraph (I). This sentence has since been removed and paragraph (I) remains as it was in its original form with no changes being made.

OAC rule 5101:2-36-03 entitled PCSA requirements for intra-familial child abuse and/or neglect assessment/investigations outlines the PCSA requirements for responding to accepted reports of intra-familial child abuse and neglect. Clarification has been added for PCSA’s regarding not needing to interview a child if certain documentation is in the case record. Criteria has been added to reflect the requirements needed for infants identified as affected by legal or illegal substance abuse at the time a report is received as defined by the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act of 2016 (CARA). The requirements of a plan of safe care have been added which shall be gathered at the time a report is received by a PCSA. Referrals of all infants born and identified as affected by both legal or illegal substance abuse, withdrawal symptoms or fetal alcohol spectrum disorder must all be referred to Help Me Grow, not just infants identified as affected by illegal substance abuse as previously required. All participants involved in the plan of safe care will need to be notified of final case decision has been added as a requirement. Restructuring the order of the paragraphs have occurred throughout the rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-36-04 entitled PCSA requirements for conducting a specialized assessment/investigation sets forth the PCSA requirements for conducting a specialized assessment/investigation of abuse or neglect. The word “setting” to has been added to “out-of-home care” for clarification purposes. Institution has been changed to “organization” as it is defined in 2151.011 of the Administrative Code throughout this rule. Wording has been changed to provide clarification of the needed documentation for when a child is not needed to be interviewed. The addition of “legal substance abuse” has been added into this rule as previously only “illegal substance abuse or withdrawal symptoms resulting from prenatal” were referenced. Criteria has been added to reflect the requirements needed for infants identified as affected by legal or illegal substance abuse at the time a report is received as defined by the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act of 2016 (CARA). The requirements of a plan of safe care have been added which shall be gathered at the time a report is received by a PCSA. All participants involved in the plan of safe care will need to be notified of final case decision has been added as a requirement. Restructuring the order of paragraphs have occurred throughout the rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-36-06 entitled PCSA requirements for a deserted child assessment/investigation sets forth the PCSA requirements for conducting a deserted child assessment/investigation. Requirements have been added to reflect the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act of 2016 (CARA) when screening a report of child abuse and/or neglect in for an assessment/investigation when an infant is identified as affected by legal or illegal substance abuse as defined in 5101:2-1-01. Restructuring the order of paragraphs and amendments to requirements for consistent understanding have occurred throughout the rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-36-07 entitled PCSA requirement for conducting an assessment/investigation of the alleged withholding of medically indicated treatment from a disabled infant with life-threatening conditions sets forth the PCSA requirements for conducting an assessment/investigation regarding the medical neglect of a disabled infant with life-threatening conditions. Minor grammatical changes were made to this rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-36-08 entitled PCSA requirements for involving a third party in the assessment/investigation of a child abuse or neglect report addresses when a PCSA shall involve a third party in the assessment/investigation of child abuse or neglect. Wording has been modified to reflect a type B family day care home should be referenced as a “child” care home. These organizations are licensed by “Ohio” department of job and family services (ODJFS), previously the rule stated they were licensed by a “county” department of job and family services.

OAC rule 5101:2-36-09 entitled Requirements for dependent child assessments sets forth the PCSA requirements for conducting a dependent child assessment. An amendment was made to refer any child zero to three years of age to “Help Me Grow” if a developmental delay is suspected. Previously infants born identified as being affected by illegal substance abuse or withdrawal symptoms resulting from prenatal drug exposure were only referenced in this rule as being referred to “Help Me Grow.”

For clarification purposes, a grammatical change has been made to reflect “foster care” licensing versus “children services.”

OAC 5101:2-36-13 entitled Intrastate and interstate referral procedures for children's protective services addresses when a PCSA shall make intrastate and interstate referrals and the procedures the PCSA is to follow. Minor grammatical changes were made to this rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-36-20 entitled Public children services agencies assessment requirements for child abuse and neglect reports in alternative response outlines the PCSA requirements for responding to accepted reports of intra-familial child abuse and neglect in the alternative response pathway. Reference to alternative response implementation and approval for PCSA’s to utilize this pathway have been deleted from rule as all counties have been approved to utilize alternative response pathway. Requirements have been added to reflect the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act (CARA) of 2016 when screening a report of child abuse and/or neglect in for an assessment/investigation when an infant is identified as affected by legal or illegal substance abuse as defined in 5101:2-1-01. Referrals of all infants born and identified as affected by both legal or illegal substance abuse, withdrawal symptoms or fetal alcohol spectrum disorder must all be referred to Help Me Grow, not just infants identified as affected by illegal substance abuse as previously required. This letter transmits six amended rules reflecting updates to the foster care and adoption rules as a result of feedback from public and private agencies, as well as a review of federal statutes. The rules will be effective 8/1/2017. The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-5-13, entitled "Required agency policies, plans and procedures" provides guidance to agencies regarding the policies and practices they are required to have in place. Paragraphs (A) and (B) were amended to allow agencies ninety days to submit any revised plans or policies to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS). The reference to the Multiethnic Placement Act in paragraph (A)(2) was updated. Paragraph (A)(7) was revised to more accurately describe the notification requirements. Paragraph (E) was added to align with the language in the adoption policy rule 5101:2-48-05.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-05, entitled "Agency adoption policy and recruitment plan" provides guidance to agencies regarding the policies they are required to have in place. A new section was added to paragraph (B)(3) regarding notification requirements. This requirement was previously only in the foster care policy rule, and was added to this rule for clarity. Paragraph (B)(14) was amended to add and clarify policy requirements in relation to state and federal adoption assistance. Paragraph (B)(18) was removed as it was not consistent with current law. The reference to the Multiethnic Placement Act in paragraph (C) was updated. Paragraphs (E) and (H) were amended to allow agencies ninety days to submit any revised plans or policies to ODJFS. Paragraph (I) was amended to state that the fee schedule must not discriminate against adoptive applicants or approved adoptive parents. Paragraph (J) was amended to align with the child-specific recruitment requirements in rule 5101:2-48-16.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-09, entitled "Application process and preservice training" provides guidance to agencies related to application and training requirements for those interested in adopting. The reference to the Multiethnic Placement Act in paragraph (N) was updated.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-12, entitled "Completion of the adoption homestudy" provides guidance to assessors regarding the requirements for an adoption homestudy. The reference to the Multiethnic Placement Act in paragraph (F)(1) was updated.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-13, entitled "Non-discrimination requirements for adoptive placements" provides guidance to agencies regarding the actions they can and cannot take in making a decision for an adoptive placement. The reference to the Multiethnic Placement Act in paragraph (B) was revised. Paragraph (I) was revised for clarity.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-24, entitled "Agency adoption review procedures" provides guidance to agencies regarding the procedures for reviewing complaints from adoptive applicants and adoptive families. Paragraph (E) was removed because it was an inaccurate directive. Adoptive families do not have a right to a state hearing if they believe they were denied a placement due to geographic location, however they may request an agency review.

This letter transmits one amended rule reflecting updates to the adoption matching process as well as revisions to three forms. The revisions are a result of stakeholder feedback and the efforts of an adoption workgroup formed to effect positive changes in adoption practice. The rule and forms will be effective 9/1/2017. The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-48-16, entitled "Adoption preplacement and placement procedures" provides guidance to agencies in regards to the matching and placement requirements for children in their permanent custody. Clarifying language was added to paragraph (C) regarding assessor visits with the child in permanent custody. Paragraphs (F) and (M) were revised to clarify that pre-adoptive staffings and matching conferences may be held prior to the birth of the child in a private agency infant adoption. Paragraph (H) now states that the prospective adoptive family shall be invited to the pre-adoptive staffing, if the PCSA or PCPA deems it to be appropriate. Language concerning distribution of the JFS 01690 was revised in paragraph (J). Paragraph (N) was revised to clarify invitations for kin who have applied to adopt the child less than fourteen days prior to the matching conference, as well as require the agency to invite any child focused recruiters to the matching who are assigned to the child, and allow the agency to invite the child to the matching if appropriate. Paragraph (O) was revised to stress the importance of the matching conferences and not delay permanency for waiting children, and require any child focused or child specific recruiter to participate in the matching conference. Paragraphs (O) and (R) were both revised to allow for flexibility with technology. The child study inventory was added to paragraph (U) as one of the factors in making the matching decision. The requirement that an adult non-relative must have been named by the biological parent in order to be considered for placement has been removed from paragraph (V). The requirement for updating the JFS 01690 pre-adoptive staffing prior to every subsequent matching conference was removed from paragraph (W). The pre-adoptive staffing meeting will now be a one-time only occurrence. Paragraph (X) was revised to allow for more flexibility in regards to permanency options other than adoption. Paragraph (Y) was revised to clarify that the JFS 01654 Adoptive Placement Agreement is not complete unless it includes all applicable signatures and the adoptive placement date. The reference to the Multiethnic Placement Act in paragraph (KK) was updated. All other changes made were not substantive.

The JFS 01654 "Adoptive Placement Agreement" was revised to clarify that the custodial agency shall supervise the adoptive placement unless the adoptive family lives in another state. Reporting requirements of the adoptive parents were also revised to align with current OAC rules. The elements regarding subsidies and foster care maintenance were separated for clarification. The last statement was added to highlight the importance of finalizing the adoption and not causing undue delay in establishing permanency for the child. All other changes were not substantive.

The JFS 01689 "Documentation of the Placement Decision-making Process" was revised to provide clarity to those involved in the decision making process. Language was revised in order to simplify the rating system and formatting changes were completed to make the form easier to read. Language was added to the form to include recruitment activities in the event no families were matched with the child. All other changes were not substantive.

The JFS 01690 "Documentation of the Pre-adoptive Staffing" was revised and reformatted to include language regarding transition requirements, such as the child study inventory, the child's lifebook, and goodbye visits. Additional language was revised to clarify that the document is now completed only one time, and no updates are required going forward. All other changes were not substantive.

This letter transmits amended rule 5101:2-42-18. The amended rule incorporates the recommendations of an established Children and Family Services Plan workgroup charged with exploring and developing a statewide kinship home assessment. This rule will become effective 07/01/2017. The following is a brief explanation of the changes.

OAC 5101:2-42-18, "PCSA and PCPA approval of placements with relative and nonrelative substitute caregivers" sets forth requirements for the assessment of relative and nonrelative (kinship) caregivers for the placement of children who are unable to remain in their own homes. This rule has been amended to provide clear timelines for the initiation and completion of the assessment, as well as notification of approval or denial to the caregiver. Additionally, language regarding disqualifying offenses and rehabilitation standards has been amended in an effort to allow public children services agencies (PCSAs) and private child placing agencies (PCPAs) more flexibility when assessing kinship caregivers who might otherwise not meet more stringent requirements applied to licensed foster and adoptive caregivers. The amended rule has been edited to require PCSAs and PCPAs to use the JFS 01447 "Assessment of relative or nonrelative substitute caregiver."

This letter also transmits revisions to the JFS 01447, "Assessment of relative or nonrelative substitute caregiver" as well as a new form JFS 01447-I "Instructions for completing JFS 01447, Assessment of relative or nonrelative substitute caregiver." The JFS 01447 has been edited to reflect amendments to rule 5101:2-42-18 of the Ohio Administrative Code. The JFS 01447-I has been created to provide PCSAs and PCPAs with guidance when completing the JFS 01447.

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 377

March 22, 2017

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) section 106.03, each state is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. To the extent possible, unnecessary paperwork will be eliminated, and local agencies will be given increased flexibility. The purpose of a rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule’s scope and purpose. The following rules were recently reviewed and amended to provide clarity, with an effective date of April 15, 2017.

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-47-03.1 "Qualified and Disqualified Alien Eligibility for Foster Care Maintenance and Independent Living Services," this rule outlines the foster care maintenance (FCM) eligibility requirements for qualified aliens. This rule has been edited to provide clarification.

OAC 5101:2-47-04 entitled "Intercounty and interstate case management responsibility for foster care maintenance" describes the case management responsibilities for FCM when a case is transferred to another county. A minor grammatical error was fixed.

OAC 5101:2-47-15 entitled "Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: authorization for foster care maintenance and auxiliary payment reimbursements" outlines the process to receive reimbursement for FCM, difficulty of care auxiliary reimbursements. Paragraph (E) was amended to include residential parenting facilities as a type of FCM reimbursable setting and minor edits to paragraph (J) for clarity.

No changes were made to the following rule:

OAC 5101:2-47-07 entitled "Notice of Rights to a Hearing for Foster Care Maintenance" describes the hearing rights for Title IV-E agencies.

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

SUBJECT: Amendment to Ohio Administrative Code Rules

This letter is to inform private child placing agencies (PCPAs) of changes to the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules governing the case plan and review.

A new rule 5101:2-38-04 was developed to outline the PCPA responsibilities regarding semiannual administrative review of the case plan. Previously, the PCSA and PCPA requirements for completing the semiannual administrative review were contained in rule 5101:2-38-10 Requirements for Completing the Semiannual Administrative Review.

The following is a brief explanation of the changes.

OAC rule 5101:2-38-04 entitled PCPA semiannual review of the case plan is a new rule and identifies the requirements that apply to PCPAs for completing the semiannual review. This rule was developed to outline the PCPA SAR requirements separate and apart from the PCSA requirements as both PCSAs and PCPAs were previously addressed in rule 5101:2-38-10. The PCPA requirements in relation to completing the case review are addressed.

OAC rule 5101:2-38-07 entitled PCPA case plan identifies the requirements that apply to the PCPA for completing the case plan. A substantive change reflects that youth ages 14 and older are to be invited to participate in the case planning. Additionally, the youth may elect to include two individuals who are a support to the youth, but are not the foster parent or caseworker to be invited to develop, implement and review the case plan. This Federal requirement is now reflected in the rule. Another substantive revision is that the parties to the case plan are now identified in the rule. Lastly, the identification of the parties to the SAR is now reflected in the rule.

INSTRUCTIONS: The following chart identifies the material that needs to be removed from and inserted into the Family Children and Adult Service Manual (FCASM).

This letter is to inform public children services agencies (PCSA) of changes to the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules governing the case plan and review.

The following is a brief explanation of the changes.

OAC rule 5101:2-38-01 entitled Requirements for PCSA Case Plan for In-Home Supportive Services without Court Order identifies the requirements for PCSAs for completing an in-home voluntary case plan. Language was added regarding the documentation of contacts.

OAC rule 5101:2-38-05 entitled PCSA case plan for children in custody or under court ordered protective supervision identifies the requirements that apply to the PCSA for completing the case plan. A substantive change reflects that youth ages 14 and older are to be invited to participate in the development, implementation and review of the case plan. Additionally, the youth may elect to include two individuals who are a support to the youth, to be invited to participate in the development, implementation and review of the case plan. These Federal requirements are now reflected in the rule. Lastly, the identification of the parties to the case plan is now contained within the rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-38-09 entitled PCSA Requirements for Completing the Case Review identifies the requirements that apply to the PCSA for completing the case review. The trigger dates were amended to mirror OAC rule 5101:2-38-10. The language as to the purpose of the case review was stricken as it is reflected in the case review tool. The language concerning documentation and supervisory approval of the assessment of safety was clarified.

OAC rule 5101:2-38-10 PCSA Requirements for Completing the Semiannual Administrative Review was revised to address only PCSAs. The PCPA requirements can now be found in rule 5101:2-38-04. The list of individuals to be invited to the SAR was expanded per the Federal requirements. Parties to the SAR were identified for clarity.

Paragraph (B)(269) was amended to add a private, nonprofit therapeutic wilderness camp as a type of residential facility. Paragraph (B)(324) was amended to comply with federal language lowering the age of a child from sixteen to fourteen as part of the "treatment team."

OAC rule 5101:2-5-02, entitled "Application for an agency to perform specific functions; amended applications," provides guidance to agencies on the requirements for requesting agency certification for functions related to foster care. Paragraph (I)(6) was amended to remove the timeframe of sixty days for the request of approval for implementing a change in a residential facility. The facility must now request the approval from ODJFS prior to implementing a change. This paragraph was also amended to include private, nonprofit therapeutic wilderness camps as a type of residential facility.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-03, entitled "Certification of an agency to perform specific functions," provides guidance to agencies on the types of certifications that foster care agencies may be certified for. Paragraph (D) was amended to include private, nonprofit therapeutic wilderness camps as a type of residential facility. Two grammatical changes were made to paragraph (F).

OAC rule 5101:2-5-13, entitled "Required agency policies, plans and procedures," provides guidance to agencies on all policies a foster care agency is to implement. Paragraph (A)(28) was amended to require the recommending agency to notify the custodial agency immediately, but no later than twenty-four hours from the time the agency is notified of an unauthorized absence of a foster child. Paragraph (A)(29) was amended to clarify that the psychotropic medication policy is required for PCSAs only. A new paragraph (A)(30) was added to ensure the required agency policies in section 5103.50 of the Revised Code for private, nonprofit therapeutic wilderness camps were addressed.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-18, entitled "Waivers and variances," provides guidance to agencies on the guidelines and procedures of requesting a waiver and the longevity of pre-existing variances. A new paragraph (A)(3) was added to allow a private, nonprofit therapeutic wilderness camp to request a waiver.

OAC rule 5101:2-9-40, entitled "Private, nonprofit therapeutic wilderness camps," provides guidance to agencies on the specific regulations of a wilderness camp. As a result of the passage of Amended Substitute House Bill Number 64 of the 131st General Assembly, this rule was created due to new legislation requiring ODJFS to draft rules for the operation and licensure of private, nonprofit therapeutic wilderness camps.

SUBJECT: Amendments to Adoption Rules 5101:2-48-05 and 5101:2-48-16

This letter transmits two amended rules reflecting updates as a result of aligning the foster care and adoption recruitment plan requirements, as well as feedback from public and private agencies regarding matching procedures that were contradictory and in need of alignment. The rules will be effective December 1, 2015. The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

- OAC rule 5101:2-48-05, entitled "Agency adoption policy and recruitment plan" provides guidance to agencies regarding the policies they are required to have, including their adoption recruitment plan. Paragraph (B)(2)(g) was revised to clarify when a large family assessment is due, in alignment with a change to rule 5101:2-48-12 of the Administrative Code. Paragraph (B)(4) was revised to remove private noncustodial agencies from the requirement, as they would not be requesting a homestudy for matching purposes. Paragraph (B)(9) was revised to simply refer agencies to rule 5101:2-48-16 of the Administrative Code in creating their matching policy, in an effort to alleviate any discrepancies. Paragraph (B)(10) was revised to accentuate the preference to keep siblings together whenever possible and in their best interests. The language in paragraph (F) was added to paragraph (E). The language in paragraph (I) was added to paragraph (G). Paragraphs (L) and (M) were taken from the requirements located in rule 5101:2-48-16 for foster care policies, in a continued effort to align the two programs. All other revisions were not substantive and were for grammar purposes or for the ease of the reader.

- OAC rule 5101:2-48-16, entitled "Adoption preplacement and placement procedures" provides guidance to agencies regarding what is required between the time of permanent custody and the time of adoption. Language was added to paragraph (H) to ensure that the appropriate individuals who are required to be invited to the pre-adoptive staffing are given appropriate notice to the meeting, or any changes or cancelations to the meeting. Identical language was added to paragraph (N) for the purposes of the matching conferences. The language in paragraph (U)(5) was taken from the stricken language in rule 5101:2-48-05 of the Administrative Code. Paragraph (V) was revised to clarify, in one rule, what the matching preference order is when all possible placement options are in the best interest of the child. Language was added to paragraph (AA) to require a specific timeframe for when information must be given to other agencies after a matching conference. Private noncustodial agencies were removed from paragraph (DD) as a noncustodial agency is not to be placing children out of state in adoptive homes, and private child placing agencies were added to the paragraph as they are permitted to place out of state. Paragraphs (II) and (JJ) were added to the language in paragraphs (LL) through (NN). All other revisions were not substantive and were for grammar purposes or for the ease of the reader.

Paragraphs (Q), (R), and (S) were added requiring the custodial agency to provide the JFS 01677 "Foster Youth Rights Handbook" to every child being placed in substitute care, age fourteen and older.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-15, entitled "Provision of information to a prospective adoptive parent matched with a specific child" provides guidance to custodial agencies regarding the documentation that is required to be given to a prospective adoptive parent prior to the adoptive placement of a child. A new paragraph (D) was added to ensure that when a child is receiving pre-planned respite care services or is a short term direct placement on a recurring schedule addressed in the case plan, the discharge summary is required at six month intervals or at the conclusion of the service, whichever occurs sooner.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-22, entitled "Recommendations for initial foster home certification", provides guidance to agencies on the requirements for submission of a recommendation for certification of a foster home. Paragraphs (A) and (B) were amended for clarity. Paragraph (F) was removed because it is required in other rules and is duplicative.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-25, entitled "Changing the certification of a foster caregiver from one type of foster home to another", provides guidance to agencies on how to upgrade or downgrade a certification type for a foster home. Paragraph (D) was amended for clarity and paragraph (E) was amended to remove an outdated reference.
OAC rule 5101:2-9-02, entitled "Staffing requirements", provides guidance to agencies on staff ratios and other staffing issues in a residential facility. A new paragraph (K) was added to ensure a facility has at least one staff on site that is trained and authorized to apply the reasonable and prudent parent standard as required by H.R. 4980 of the 113th Congress.

OAC rule 5101:2-9-03, entitled "Staff development and evaluation", provides guidance to agencies on residential staff training and experience. Paragraph (D) was amended to require training in the prudent parent standard for existing staff. New paragraphs (I)(12), (I)(13) and (I)(14) were added to require new topics for orientation training for residential staff. These additions were the direct result of legislation.

SUBJECT: Amendment to Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) Rules 5101:2-33-03 and 5101:2-33-11

This letter transmits Ohio Administrative Code rules governing MEPA that are being amended as a result of the Five Year Rule Review and recent policy updates as a result of the Partners for Ohio's Families (PFOF) initiative. The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-33-03 entitled "Procedure for complaints of alleged discriminatory acts, policies or practices in the foster care or adoption process that involve race, color or national origin" has been updated to include the Bureau of Civil Rights. The revision date on the JFS 02333 "Discrimination Complaint Form" was updated, and the reference to OAC rule 5101:2-33-04 was removed, due to the rescission of the rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-11 entitled "Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA) agency administrative requirements" has been updated to require the MEPA Corrective Action and Resolution Plan Data to be submitted by March first of every even numbered year. The revision dates of the forms in the rule were also updated.

The JFS 01420 "Multiethnic Placement Act Corrective Action and Resolution Plan Data Collection Requirements" form was updated.

This letter transmits one amended rule reflecting adoption updates as a result of the Five Year Review. This rule will be effective September 1, 2015. The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-48-08, entitled "Adoption inquiry" provides guidance to agencies on the response required when community members call to express interest in adopting. Paragraph (B) was removed for clarity, and the same requirement was expressed through each subsequent paragraph in the rule. The new paragraph (B)(1) was revised to allow agencies to give inquirers the link for the JFS 01675 "Ohio Adoption Guide: Handbook for Prospective Adoptive Families" (rev. 5/2014) rather than sending the hard copy, allowing the agency to save resources. Paragraph (B)(2), (B)(5), (B)(6), and (B)(7) were removed because they are each described in detail in the JFS 01675, which is required to be given to the inquirer. Paragraph (D) was revised for clarity. Paragraph (F) was added to ensure agencies that have access to the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) know that requirements of this rule must be captured in the SACWIS system. All changes are a result of the Partners For Ohio's Families rule review process that included public and private agencies, as well as foster and adoptive parents.

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director
SUBJECT: Amendments to Foster Care and Adoption OAC Rules in Chapters 5101:2-5 and 5101:2-48.

This letter transmits one rescinded rule, 8 rules to be rescinded and replaced as new, and one amended rule surrounding foster care and adoption updates as a result of the Five Year Review and the alignment of the foster care and adoption homestudy processes. These rules will be effective November 1, 2015. Many of the rules were rescinded and replaced with new rules because of the number of changes involved. These changes primarily involve moving requirements to different paragraphs, rather than actually requiring anything new of agencies. The concept of aligning the foster care and adoption rules was a recommendation of the Partners for Ohio's Families rule review process, as well as continued efforts to streamline the processes for agencies required by Section 3107.033 of the Revised Code. The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-5-21, entitled "Agency assessment of an initial application for a foster home certificate" is being rescinded. The rule was largely duplicative of requirements found in other rules. The requirements that were not located in other rules were added to OAC rule 5101:2-5-20.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-20, entitled "Initial application for child placement in foster care" has been rescinded and replaced with a new rule of the same number entitled "Initial application and completion of the foster care homestudy." This rule provides guidance to agencies regarding the foster care application and homestudy process. For the most part, language was changed and moved to different paragraphs to align with adoption and flow with the homestudy process. New requirements include obtaining references from any agency the applicant has previously applied to for foster care or adoption and obtaining references from adult children of the applicants. Another new foster care requirement is that, as with adoption, the homestudy process cannot begin until the receipt of a fully completed JFS 01691 application. A caveat was added to both foster care and adoption rules, however, that if an applicant decides to add the other program (a foster applicant decides to add adoption, or vice versa) then they will not be required to duplicate documentation or training simply because there is a new application date. These changes were based on recommendations from the Partners for Ohio's Families (PFOF) rule review process that included many public and private agency partners, as well as foster and adoptive parents. Revisions were also completed based on feedback from external and internal stakeholders who made comments during the clearance process.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-24, entitled "Foster Home Recertification Procedure" has been rescinded and replaced with a new rule of the same number entitled "Foster Home Recertifications." This rule provides guidance to agencies regarding the requirements of recertifying a foster home. For the most part, language was changed and moved to different paragraphs to align foster care and adoption rules, and flow better with the recertification and update process. Paragraph (C) now allows agencies to send out the JFS 01331 up to 150 days prior to the expiration of the current foster care certificate. This change will allow agencies and families additional time to meet the requirements of the recertification. Paragraph (E)(4) was added to align with adoption, but simply requires the agency to review the most current financial statement, and allows the agency to require a new statement if there have been significant financial changes. Paragraph (E)(8) was revised to clarify when criminal background checks are required for existing residents of the household who turn 18, including children placed in the home. Language in paragraphs (G) and (H) were changed to remove the ability for a lapse in licenses and to clarify that the caregiver must submit the reapplication at least 30 days prior to expiration of the certificate or approval. If the family reapplies less than 30 days prior, the agency is able to complete the recertification or update if they are able to, but are not required to. This change will allow agencies the time necessary to complete the assessment of the family and not wait until the last minute in case the family reapplies late. Paragraph (I) of the foster care rule allows a thirty day lapse in the foster care certifications only for those due within 90 days of the effective date of the rule, in order to allow agencies and families time to implement the new standards. Paragraph (J) was brought over from the homestudy rule, as it should be applicable the entire time a home is licensed for foster care.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-30, entitled "Change in Household Occupancy; Change in Marital Status; Change of Address" has been rescinded and replaced with a new rule of the same number entitled "Foster Home Amendments," and gives guidance to agencies when there have been changes in the home of the foster parent, such as a new household member or change of address. The vast majority of the changes made to the rule were for paragraph and language alignment between foster care and adoption, as well as clarification and ease of the reader. One change across the rule was to allow agencies more time to complete requirements if the agency was not notified of the change in a timely manner. New language was added to paragraph (C) regarding how the agency processes the amendment. This is not a new requirement in regards to practice, but it was not previously explicit in rule. Paragraph (D) was changed to align with initial homestudy requirements for a new household member or spouse.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-31, entitled "Sharing or Transfer of a Foster Home" has been rescinded and replaced with a new rule of the same number entitled "Sharing or Transferring a Foster Home." This rule gives agencies guidance on the requirements for sharing or transferring a foster home. Changes made to this rule were a result of paragraph and language alignment between foster care and adoption. Paragraph (B) was added to this rule to align it with the adoption requirements. New language was added to paragraph (G) to specify that the most recent alleged perpetrator check of child abuse and neglect must be shared with the new agency, along with the rest of the foster care file. This change is a result of guidance from our legal staff, to ensure that a complete copy of the file is shared. New language was added to paragraph (H) to specify that new references must be received for adult children of the foster parents, as references are not to be shared with the receiving agency. Language in paragraph (K) was revised to reflect current practice and allow for agencies to complete the transfer process in the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) when SACWIS allows them to.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-11.1, entitled "Foster Caregiver Adoption of a Foster Child who has Resided with the Caregiver for at Least Six Consecutive Months" has been amended and retitled "Foster Caregiver Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group who has Resided with the Caregiver for at Least Six Consecutive Months." The change in title, as well as the changes throughout the rule were made to clarify that one JFS 01692 could be used for more than one foster child, as long as the children were siblings and placed with the caregiver for at least six months. Paragraphs (C),(E), and (F) were revised to align with similar requirements in other rules in this transmittal letter. Paragraph (J) was revised to clarify that the information listed is to be reviewed as part of the adoption assessment, rather than having a new requirement placed on the foster caregiver, in conjunction with ORC 3107.012. Paragraph (K) was added to align with the requirement in 5101:2-48-11 regarding timelines for forwarding required documentation to the agency completing the adoption homestudy approval.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-12, entitled "Completion of the Homestudy has been rescinded and replaced with a new rule of the same number entitled "Completion of the Adoption Homestudy." The rule gives guidance to agencies on how to complete an adoption homestudy. For the most part, language was changed and moved to different paragraphs to align foster care and adoption and flow with the homestudy process. Paragraph (D) is a new requirement for adoption and was brought over to align with the existing foster care requirement. The caveat in paragraph (G)(3) was added to both foster care and adoption rules that if an applicant decides to add the other program (a foster applicant decides to add adoption, or vice versa) then they will not be required to duplicate documentation or training simply because there is a new application date. Paragraph (M) was revised for clarity, and the request for information on third party investigations was removed. Paragraph (N) was revised to specify that the PCSA that receives the notification letter must respond, even if they have no relevant information. Paragraph (P) was expanded to include that if the agency determines the applicant knowingly provided false information for the application, the homestudy, or any document during the homestudy process they need to follow the procedures outlined in 5101:2-33-13. Paragraph (Q)(4) was revised to allow for when private agencies obtain access to SACWIS, and the language regarding the summary report was removed as this was an ODJFS requirement. Paragraph (Q)(6) was revised to clarify when the Large Family Assessment is required to be completed. Paragraph (Q)(7)(d) was added to align with foster care requirements. (Q)(10) includes a new requirement to obtain references from any agency the applicant has previously applied to for foster care or adoption and obtain references from adult children of the applicants. Paragraph (Q)(13) was revised to align with foster care in that a well inspection is required for well water. Paragraph (S) was added to align with foster care requirements. A timeframe was added to paragraph (V) in response to an internal comment received from monitoring staff. Many of these changes were recommendations from the Partners for Ohio's Families' (PFOF) rule review process that included many public and private agency partners, as well as foster and adoptive parents.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-12.1, entitled "Completion of Adoption Homestudy Updates" has been rescinded and replaced with a new rule of the same number entitled "Adoption Homestudy Updates" and provides guidance to agencies regarding how to update the adoption homestudy every two years. For the most part, language was changed and moved to different paragraphs to align foster care and adoption and flow with the homestudy update process. Paragraph (C) now allows agencies to send out the JFS 01331 up to 150 days prior to the expiration of the current adoption homestudy approval. This change will allow agencies and families additional time to meet the requirements of the update. Paragraph (E)(7) was added to ensure that if the large family assessment had not already been required when the original homestudy was completed, and is required at the time of update, then the agency shall complete the JFS 01530 at the time of update. This paragraph also requires that if the family's situation has changed significantly since the previous JFS 01530, a new one shall be completed at the time of update. Paragraph (E)(8) was aligned with foster care to specify that agencies must complete the safety audit within six months prior to the update. Paragraph (E)(9) was revised for clarity regarding when background checks are to be completed on existing household residents who turn eighteen. Paragraph (E)(10) was revised to specify that it is only required if the family is only approved for adoption, and not also foster parents. Paragraph (G) was revised to clarify that the adoptive family must send in the re-application timely in order for the agency to have ample time to complete the update.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-12.2, entitled "Completion of Adoption Homestudy Amendments" has been rescinded and replaced with a new rule of the same number entitled "Required Notification and Adoption Homestudy Amendments" and gives guidance to adoptive families regarding when they need to notify the agency of certain changes, and gives guidance to agencies regarding how to complete amendments. For the most part, language was changed and moved to different paragraphs to align foster care and adoption and to flow better with the amendment process. One change across the rule was to allow agencies more time to complete requirements if the agency was not notified of the change in a timely manner. New language was added to paragraph (D) regarding how the agency processes the amendment. This is not a new requirement in regards to practice, but it was not previously explicit in rule. Paragraph (E) was changed to align with initial homestudy requirements for a new household member or spouse. Paragraph (G) is a new requirement that aligns with the homestudy approval and update approval process. The rule states that agencies shall provide written notice to adoptive parents of the approval or denial of the amendment. This allows agencies the opportunity to deny an amendment and end the homestudy approval span if the change that occurred in the family calls for such an action.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-19, entitled "Sharing and Transferring Adoptive Homestudies" has been rescinded and replaced with a new rule of the same number entitled "Sharing and Transferring an Adoptive Homestudy" and gives agencies guidance on how to share homestudies and process the transfer of an adoptive homestudy approval. For the most part, language was changed and moved to different paragraphs to align foster care and adoption and to flow better with the transfer process. Paragraphs (D) and (F) include new language that if a supporting document contains a false statement knowingly made by the adoptive parent, then the agency shall not release a copy of it to another agency or consider that homestudy in a matching conference or transfer. Paragraph (E) includes new language that the most recent alleged perpetrator check of child abuse and neglect must be shared with the new agency, along with the rest of the adoptive parent file. This change is a result of guidance from our legal staff, to ensure that a complete copy of the file is shared. Paragraph (H) includes the new requirement that adult children of the adoptive parent must be contacted for a reference. Paragraphs (I) and (J) were revised to align with foster care transfer requirements. Language in (K) was revised to reflect current practice and allow for agencies to complete the transfer process in SACWIS when SACWIS allows them to.

FCASMTL 348 (Amendments to Adoption OAC Rule 5101:2-48-02)

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 348

July 29, 2015

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

SUBJECT: Amendments to Adoption OAC Rule 5101:2-48-02.

This letter transmits one amended rule reflecting updates as a result of the passage of substitute Senate Bill 250, which was effective March 23, 2015. The bill puts forth changes regarding the timeframes for putative fathers to register with the Ohio Putative Father Registry. This rule will be effective August 3, 2015. The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

- OAC rule 5101:2-48-02, entitled "Putative Father Registry" provides guidance to agencies regarding the Ohio Putative Father Registry, established to assist putative fathers in securing their parental rights in an adoption. In paragraph (B), the form name and effective date for the JFS 01694 were corrected. Paragraph (D) was revised to reflect the law change from thirty days to fifteen days after birth for the putative father to register. Paragraph (E) was revised to correctly mirror the language in the law, as well as update the effective date of the JFS 01695. Paragraph (F) was revised to reflect the change in law allowing a final search to be completed of the registry no sooner than sixteen days after the birth of the child. Paragraphs (G), (H), and (I) were revised to reflect the corrected language in paragraph (E).

This letter also transmits revisions to three forms that are utilized in connection with the Ohio Putative Father Registry (OPFR). Input regarding formatting and other updates was provided by the program area responsible for the registry. The following forms were reviewed and updated in response to the law change:

- The JFS 01694, "Ohio Putative Father Registry – Registration for Fathers" was renamed to accurately reflect the purpose of the form. The requirement for fathers to submit registration was revised to within fifteen days after the child's birth. A request for father's email address was added to assist OPFR staff in contacting putative fathers when there are questions concerning the registration form. The contact information for the Office of Child Support Enforcement was updated, as well as the contact information for submitting the forms to OPFR.

- The JFS 01694I, "Instructions for Completing the JFS 01694, Ohio Putative Father Registry – Registration for Fathers" was revised to reflect the changes to the JFS 01694, such as the timeframes for registration and the contact information for the OPFR. The website link was also added to the form as an option for fathers wanting to register online.

- The JFS 01695, "Application for Search of Ohio Putative Father Registry" was revised to update the contact information for the OPFR, correcting the address as well as adding a fax number and email address. The instructions at the top of the form were also revised to more accurately reflect the policy and practice of conducting a search of the OPFR. A section was added requesting an email address for the party requesting the search of the registry. This section was also reformatted and reworded for ease of the user and to more accurately reflect the law.

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 342
October 31, 2014

To: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
From: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director
Subject: Amendment of rule 5101:2-33-70 of the Ohio Administrative Code.

This letter transmits the amendment of the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule which address access to the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS). This rule has been revised through the Partnership for Ohio's Families (PFOF) Rule Review initiative. The rule is a product of the collaborative partnership between ODJFS and PCSAs. The presenting rule amendments were developed through the Monitoring, Administration, SACWIS and Documentation Rule Review Team and approved by the PFOF Rule Review Coordination Board.

The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes to the rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-70 entitled Statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) sets forth the requirements for staff to access, utilize and be trained on the confidential information contained within SACWIS. This rule is currently promulgated under Chapter 111.15 of the Ohio Revised Code. The Chapter 111.15 rule will be rescinded. The rule is being introduced as a new rule utilizing the same rule number to incorporate the statutory authority of Chapter 119. of the Ohio Revised Code.

Additionally, the rule has been streamlined to improve the flow of the information. Language has been modified to address the information contained in SACWIS as child welfare information as a result of the expansion of access to private child placing agencies (PCPA), private non-custodial agency (PNA) and a juvenile court that is a sub grantee with ODJFS for the purposes of Title IV-E financial reimbursement. Language has been added to address SACWIS access for prosecuting attorneys and interns. Language was added to this rule regarding the entry of case notes and dictation, which was previously contained in the case record rule.

SUBJECT: Amendments to Adoption OAC Chapter 5101:2-48.

This letter transmits ten amended rules surrounding adoption updates as a result of the Five Year Review. These rules will be effective October 1, 2014. The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-48-02, entitled "Putative father registry," provides guidance regarding the procedures of registering with the Putative Father Registry and completing a check of the registry. Paragraph (A) was removed because it is duplicative and also found in rule 5101:2-1-01. Paragraphs (C),(G),(L) and (N) were removed because they outlined the responsibilities of ODJFS. New paragraphs (B),(C) and (E) were revised to add the registry website as a source of information and also a venue to register or request a search electronically. All other changes were made as a result of the Partners for Ohio Families rule review for clarity and ease of the reader.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-03, entitled "Requirement of social and medical history," provides guidance to agencies regarding the requirement to obtain historical information from birth families prior to the adoption of a child. The only change to this rule was to update the revision date of the JFS 01616 "Social and Medical History" form.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-06, entitled "Assessor roles and responsibilities for foster care and adoption," provides guidance to agencies, attorneys, and courts that employ or contract with assessors to provide specific foster care and adoption services. The rule was amended to add in courts that contract with assessors for adoption purposes and to clarify that those workers completing certain foster care services must also be assessors. Other changes were made for clarity as a result of the Partners for Ohio Families rule review.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-09, entitled "Application process and preservice training," gives agencies guidance regarding the process and training required for persons seeking adoption approval. Paragraphs (A) and (B) were revised for clarification purposes. Paragraph (C) was revised to better align with foster care requirements. Paragraph (H) was removed as it was unnecessary due to the requirement in (G). The new paragraph (I) was revised because it listed a requirement that ODJFS is responsible for. The new paragraph (N) was revised to align adoption and foster care training requirements. Foster care training rule revisions will be forthcoming. All other changes were the result of discussion and review of the Partners for Ohio Families rule review process.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-10, entitled "Restrictions concerning provision of adoption services," provides guidance to agencies regarding the criminal records check requirement for adoption approval. No substantive changes were made to this rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-11, entitled "Approval of a foster home for adoption placement," provides guidance to agencies for persons wanting to add adoption approval to an existing foster care certification. All changes made to this rule were for the clarification and ease of the reader, as a result of the Partners for Ohio Families rule review process.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-17, entitled "Assessor visits and contacts with children in adoptive homes prior to finalization," provides guidance to agencies regarding prefinalization visits with adoptive families. Paragraph (E) was revised to refer all adoptive placements outside Ohio to the Interstate Compact for the Placement of Children (ICPC) rules located in Chapter 5101:2-52 of the Administrative Code. All other changes made to this rule were for the clarification and ease of the reader, as a result of the Partners for Ohio Families rule review process.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-18, entitled "Postfinalization services," gives agencies guidance regarding their policies on the postfinalization adoption services they will provide, and what procedures to follow in the event they do not provide a service that is requested or needed by an adoptive family. A clarification was made to paragraph (A) regarding the definition of agency for the purpose of this specific rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-20, entitled "Release of identifying and nonidentifying information," provides guidance to agencies regarding the information that is able to be shared with adopted children and adoptive parents at different times. The changes made for this rule were for clarification purposes.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-21, entitled "Child study inventory," provides guidance to agencies regarding the collective information about the child to be adopted. The only change made to this rule was to update the revision date of the JFS 01616 "Social and Medical History" form.

SUBJECT: Amendments to Children Services Licensing Rules in Chapter 5101:2-5.

This letter transmits four amended rules surrounding foster care updates as a result of the five year review and legislative changes made to the Ohio Revised Code pursuant to Amended Substitute House Bill number fifty-nine of the 130th General Assembly. These rules will be effective July 7, 2014.

The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-5-04, entitled "Recertification of an agency to perform specific functions" provides guidance to agencies for the requirements the agency needs to meet in order to be recertified. Paragraph (A)(3) was amended due to a legislative update that changes the required audit type for the first agency audit from "government auditing standards" to "American institute of certified public accountants" standards. Paragraph (A)(4) was amended to change the required audit type for subsequent agency audits from "government auditing standards" to "American institute of certified public accountants" standards. Paragraph (A)(5) was amended to define "American institute of certified public accountants" standards. New paragraphs (B), (C) and (D) were created to establish a fiscal watch period for agencies that cannot readily show they are fiscally accountable. Paragraph (E) was amended to ensure the agency submits the required documentation electronically to ODJFS.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-09.1, entitled "Criminal records check required for certain prospective employees and certified foster caregivers" provides guidance to agencies for the requirements the agency needs to conduct criminal record checks for prospective employees and foster caregivers. Paragraph (Q) about the criminal record check being valid for one year was removed. ODJFS feels that this is a parameter for BCII to establish, not ODJFS. Paragraph (U) was also removed due to the language being removed from statute. Several other paragraphs were re-arranged for clarification. No other substantive changes were made.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-11, entitled "Complaint handling" provides guidelines to agencies on how ODJFS investigates complaints made against the agency. Paragraph (A) was amended to give ODJFS discretion on when to begin to conduct an investigation.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-18, entitled "Waivers and variances" provides guidance to agencies on how and when they can request a waiver for foster home requirements. Paragraph (A)(1) was removed regarding a waiver for the fingerprint requirements for a criminal record check for persons that were physically unable to be fingerprinted. The removal was a result of a legislative change.

Paragraph (A)(2) was amended to remove the two year update timeframe for the completion of the Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA) plan. The MEPA plan can remain as written until an update occurs. Paragraph (A)(10) was amended for clarity. No substantive changes were made. Paragraph (A)(16) was added to require an agency that operates a residential facility to have a policy for admissions. Paragraphs (A)(24) and (A)(25) were removed because they are duplicative and can be found in rule 5101:2-48-05 of the Administrative Code. A new paragraph (A)(28) was added to require an agency to have a policy for monitoring the appropriate use of psychotropic medications for children and youth in foster care. This was added due to a federal mandate in section 422(b) (15)(A) of 42 U.S.C. 622.

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 327
May 27, 2014

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) section 119.03, each state agency is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. To the extent possible, unnecessary paperwork will be eliminated, and local agencies will be given increased flexibility. The purpose of a rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule's scope and purpose. These rules have been amended to provide clarity. All of the rules have been revised through the Partnership for Ohio's Families (PFOF) Rule review initiative and are a product of the collaborative partnership between the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS), public children services agencies (PCPA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), adoptive parents and other stakeholders.

OAC 5101:2-49-09 "Title IV-E adoption assistance post-finalization application" outlines the criteria for determining Adoption Assistance (AA) eligibility and entering into an AA agreement after the adoption finalization. Organizational changes were made to the rule to provide clarity. Language was added to paragraph (D) to allow agencies to process the AA application if the agency determines the child is eligible for the post-finalization.

OAC 5101:2-49-09.1 "Retroactive adoption assistance payment process" outlines the process for retroactive adoption assistance payments. This rule replaces rule 5101:2-49-15 of the Ohio Administrative Code.

TRANSMITTAL LETTERS | FCASMTL No. 327
TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) section 119.03, each state agency is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. To the extent possible, unnecessary paperwork will be eliminated, and local agencies will be given increased flexibility. The purpose of a rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule's scope and purpose. These rules have been amended to provide clarity. All of the rules have been revised through the Partnership for Ohio's Families (PFOF) rule review initiative and are a product of the collaborative partnership between the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS), public children services agencies (PCSA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), adoptive parents and other stakeholders. These rules will be effective July 1, 2014.

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-49-01 "Administration of the Adoption Assistance program" outlines the Adoption Assistance (AA) administrative requirements for public children services (PCSA) agencies. The title of the rule has been amended, paragraph (A) has been added to include the responsibilities of the Title IV-E agency in the administration of the AA program. The JFS 01451 "Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Application" (rev. 1/2014) has been revised to add a separate section for the signature(s) of the adoptive parent and the revision date will be updated.

OAC 5101:2-49-02 "Adoption assistance eligibility criteria" sets forth the eligibility criteria for the adoption assistance program. The proposed rule contains the requirements for applicable and non-applicable children to be eligible for the adoption assistance program. The JFS 01448 "Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Non-AFDC Relatedness Eligibility Determination" (rev. 4/2010) has been eliminated. The Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS) has been revised to include all eligibility requirements for an applicable and non-applicable child and shall be used to determine eligibility. The rule has been rescinded and filed as new to clearly explain the requirements.

OAC 5101:2-49-02.1 "Title IV-E Adoption Assistance AFDC-Relatedness Eligibility Criteria" outlines the AFDC-relatedness requirements to determine a special needs child's eligibility for Title IV-E adoption assistance. This rule was rescinded as the AFDC-relatedness requirements have been added to rule 5101:2-49-02 of the Administrative Code.

OAC 5101:2-49-03 "Special needs criteria for Adoption Assistance" sets forth the criteria for a child with special needs to be eligible for the Adoption assistance program. In paragraph (A)(2)(e) the requirement that the child has been in the home of the prospective adoptive parent(s) was changed from twelve to six consecutive months. Paragraph (A)(2)(g) "licensed" has been added to marriage and family therapist, "licensed social worker who is under the direct supervision of a licensed professional clinical counselor" was added to the list of qualified professionals. "Mental retardation" was removed as it is considered a developmental disability. The documentation from the qualified professional must include a written statement, supported by an assessment or evaluation within the last twelve months of application. The rule has been rescinded and filed as new to clearly explain the special needs requirements for adoption assistance eligibility.

OAC 5101:2-49-04 "Requirement for Adoption Assistance past age eighteen" outlines the requirements for adoption assistance for children with an existing adoption assistance agreement that are past the age of eighteen. To be eligible for adoption assistance past age eighteen, the child must have a documented mental or physical disability that is verified annually. The title to the rule has been revised; the rule has been rescinded and filed as new to clearly explain the requirements.

OAC 5101:2-49-05 "Determination of the adoption assistance monthly payment amount" outlines how to determine the monthly payment amount for adoption assistance. ODJFS has set a statewide maximum for the adoption assistance program based on foster care expenditure data. If an agency chooses to exceed the statewide maximum the agency must request a waiver by completing the JFS 01471 "Waiver request to exceed the Title IV-E Monthly Adoption Assistance Statewide Maximum"(rev. 1/2014) and submitting it to the email address MAASM@jfs.ohio.gov. This rule also explains the option and procedure for adoptive parent(s) to request a state mediation conference if the agency and adoptive parent(s) cannot mutually agree on an adoption assistance monthly payment amount within thirty calendar days of negotiation by submitting the JFS 01470 "Adoption assistance state mediation conference request"(rev. 1/2014) to state hearings. The rule has been rescinded and filed as new to clearly explain the requirements.

OAC 5101:2-49-06 "Adoption assistance agreement and duration: provision for financial support and services" outlines the criteria of the AA agreement and the duration of the agreement. Minor grammatical changes were made to provide clarity.

OAC 5101:2-49-07 "Adoption assistance agreement only with no payment" outlines the conditions and procedures for completing an AA agreement with no payment option. Language was added to clarify that a child with an AA agreement with no payment is eligible for Title XIX (Medicaid) coverage including a child with special need who is determined to only be at substantial risk as described in OAC 5101:2-49-03. A child with an existing AA agreement that was determined to be eligible for adoption assistance with no payment prior to the effective date of this rule will be eligible for Title XIX as of the effective date of the rule.

OAC 5101:2-49-08 "Adoption assistance monthly payments" outlines the procedures for determining when a monthly AA payment shall begin. Grammatical changes were made to this rule.

JFS 01448 "Title IV-E adoption assistance non-adc relatedness eligibility determination" has been removed as these requirements are incorporated in SACWIS adoption assistance eligibility determination.

JFS 01451 "Title IV-E adoption assistance application" has been revised to separate Section V: Health Insurance from the signature section of the form.

JFS 01451-A "Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Eligibility Determination" has being removed as these requirements are incorporated in SACWIS adoption assistance eligibility determination.

JFS 1453 "Adoption assistance agreement" is being revised. The word "modified" has been removed to be consistent with changes made to the rules in this package. Completion of the JFS 01451-B has been included in Article II: Obligations of Adoptive Parents in accordance with revisions made OAC 5101:2-49-10 and language was removed from Article V: Medical Care to allow children with the special need of "substantial risk" to be eligible for Medicaid as long as the adoption assistance agreement is in effect.

JFS 1470 "Adoption assistance state mediation conference request" has been developed as an option for the adoptive parent(s) to request a state mediation conference with the Office of state hearings when the adoptive parent(s) and the Title IV-E agency can't reach an agreement on the initial adoption assistance amount.

JFS 1471 "Waiver request to exceed the Title IV-E adoption assistance statewide maximum" has been developed for Title IV-E agencies to request a waiver to exceed the state wide adoption assistance amount in an adoption agreement.

The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-52-04 entitled "PCSA Responsibilities for Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children" has been amended to be entitled "PCSA responsibilities for the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children." The rule outlines the procedures and responsibilities for public agencies receiving and sending children for placement across state lines. Changes were made to the rule as part of the Partnership for Ohio's Families (PFOF) Rule Review rule review process and to bring it into compliance with new regulations of the AAICPC. Language from the new regulations was added to outline all documentation needed for a PCSA to make an ICPC request, conditions for priority requests, and responsibilities when a PCSA receives an ICPC request.

OAC rule 5101:2-52-06 entitled "Responsibilities Applicable to Interstate Placement of Children when a PCPA, PNA, or Court is the Sending or Receiving Agency" has been amended to be entitled "Requirements applicable to interstate placement of children when the PCPA, PNA, or court is the receiving agency." The rule outlines the procedures and responsibilities for private agencies and courts receiving children for placement across state lines. Significant changes were made to the rule as part of the PFOF rule review process and to better reflect regulations of the AAICPC. Language regarding the requirements for sending an ICPC request has been removed from this rule and placed in 5101:2-52-08 and 5101:2-52-10. Language outlining the documentation required when approving a home through an ICPC request and detailing the requirements for submission of progress reports was added.

OAC rule 5101:2-52-08, entitled "Interstate Placement Requirements for Ohio Parents or Legal Guardians when Placing Their Child into Another State or Territory" has been amended to be entitled "Interstate placement requirements for Ohio parents, legal guardians, or private entities when placing a child into another state or territory for adoption." The rule outlines the procedures and responsibilities for parents, legal guardians and private entities placing children in adoptive homes across state lines. Significant changes were made to the rule as part of the PFOF rule review process and to better reflect regulations of the AAICPC. All language regarding placements other than adoptive placements was removed from the rule and placed in rule 5101:2-52-10. The definition of "visit", as defined in the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children was added. Language from the new regulations in the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children was added to outline the documentation required when requesting to make an adoptive placement across state lines.

OAC rule 5101:2-52-10, entitled "Interstate placement requirements for Ohio courts, parents, or legal guardians, when placing a child in a residential placement in another state or territory" has been created to outline the procedures and responsibilities for parents, legal guardians or courts when placing children in residential facilities across state lines. The requirements in this rule are not new, but were previously listed under other rules and have been separated out for better clarity.

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 317

May 27, 2014

From: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

This letter transmits the amendment and/or rescission of the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules which address the public children services agencies (PCSA) administrative, monitoring, confidentiality and SACWIS requirements. All of the rules have been revised through the Partnership for Ohio's Families (PFOF) Rule Review initiative. The rules are a product of the collaborative partnership between ODJFS and PCSAs. The presenting rule amendments were developed through the Monitoring, Administration, SACWIS and Documentation Rule Review Team and approved by the PFOF Rule Review Coordination Board. The following OAC rules have been amended: 5101:2-33-20, 5101:2-33-21, 5101:2-33-23, 5101:2-33-26 and 5101:2-33-28. The following OAC rules have been rescinded: 5101:2-33-05, 5101:2-33-22 and 5101:2-33-24.

The following is a brief explanation of the changes to each rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-20 entitled PCSA complaint review and report disposition appeal policy outlines the PCSA requirement to develop and implement written policies for receiving, reviewing and resolving complaints concerning the provision of services and report disposition appeals by alleged perpetrators. Language has been added for clarity and to correct grammar. Paragraphs have been combined for clarity and to improve flow of the rule.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-21 entitled Confidentiality and dissemination of information relating to child abuse or neglect outlines the confidential nature of child abuse and neglect reports and specifies when release of such information is required or permissible. The rule has been streamlined to improve the flow of the information and remove redundancies within the rule and across the chapter 5101:2-33 rules. This rule has been amended to address the release of all confidential child welfare information within one rule. Rule 5101:2-33-22, which previously addressed some confidentiality issues, will be rescinded as a result of this modification. Rule 5101:2-33-24 will also be rescinded, as the requirements for the release of information for the purpose of a background check have been added to this rule.

Language has also been included to identify all report types contained in rule 5101:2-36-01 as confidential child welfare information; address the release of information pertaining to notification of the case decision to open or close a case within the alternative response pathway; include a recent federal interpretation regarding the requirements to release information to the public regarding the findings or information about a case of child abuse or neglect that resulted in a fatality or near fatality; and address the dissemination of child welfare information for the purposes of research.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-23 entitled Case records for children services sets forth the PCSA requirements for recording and maintaining child welfare case record information. The rule has been streamlined to improve the flow of the information and remove redundancies within the rule and across other program rules. Documentation requirements have been incorporated within the rules that outline the PCSA requirements and captured in this rule by referencing each chapter of rules. Requirements that are not specifically addressed within other rules have been maintained within the case record rule to avoid duplicating a requirement in multiple rules.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-26 entitled The county child abuse and neglect memorandum of understanding (MOU) requires that PCSAs develop a document that sets forth the normal operating procedures to be employed by all concerned officials in the execution of their respective responsibilities in conducting child abuse and neglect investigations/assessments. The rule has been amended to include language to clarify that if an individual required to sign the MOU has changed, the MOU must be amended and new signatures obtained. Language has also been included to clarify alleged victims of human trafficking are alleged victims of child abuse and neglect and should be addressed within the standards and procedures outlining the PCSA and law enforcement activities for conducting joint assessment/investigations. Language was amended to reflect the change of the timeframe to conduct an assessment/investigation from 45 days to 60 days.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-28 entitled Joint planning and sharing of information among the PCSA and CDJFS sets forth the PCSA requirements regarding joint planning and sharing of information with the county departments of job and family services (CDJFS) to coordinate services to children and families. The rule was amended to include language previously captured within the case record rule to require PCSAs to request a copy of the Ohio works first (OWF) self-sufficiency contract from the CDJFS if joint planning or sharing of child welfare information occurs between the PCSA and CDJFS. Rule language was also amended to reflect the current legislative service commission standard.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-05 entitled Family and children services information system (FACSIS) reporting requirements outlines the PCSA, PCPA and PNA requirement to enter applicable children services information required by federal or state statute and/or Administrative Code into the family and children services information system. This rule is being rescinded as the FACSIS system is now obsolete.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-22 entitled Access/confidentiality of child abuse and neglect information contained in the uniform statewide automated child welfare information system outlines the confidentiality of information contained in SACWIS and access to such information by a children services agency, a person conducting research, and others authorized to request a search regarding a subject of a report of child abuse and neglect. This rule is being rescinded as the requirements were duplicative of information contained within rules 5101:2-33-21 and 5101:2-33-70 of the Administrative Code.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-24 entitled Access to child abuse and neglect reports for background checks outlines the PCSA requirements for utilizing child abuse and neglect report dispositions for the purposes of a background check for child care certification, foster care licensure and an adoption home study. This rule is being rescinded as the requirements are now contained within rule 5101:2-33-21 of the Administrative Code, which addresses the release of all confidential child welfare information.

This letter transmits the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules governing Management and Administration that are being amended as a result of the Five Year Review, recent policy updates, and as the result of the Partners for Ohio Families (PFOF) initiative. The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes:

OAC 5101:2-44-03 entitled "Public children services agency (PCSA) administration of the state adoption maintenance subsidy program" outlines the PCSA's responsibilities for administering and determining eligibility for the state adoption subsidy. This rule was amended to add the word "maintenance" to the title, to update the revision date of the forms referenced, and to remove duplicate language captured in another rule.

OAC 5101:2-44-05.1 entitled "Covered families and children (CFC) medicaid eligibility: Children with special needs" outlines the medicaid eligibility for special needs children. This rule was amended to change "special needs children" to "children with special needs" in the title and to remove the words "mental retardation."

OAC 5101:2-44-05.2 entitled "Covered families and children (CFC) Medicaid eligibility for state adoption subsidy recipient moving from or to Ohio" outlines the Medicaid eligibility requirements for an adoptive child in receipt of a state adoption subsidy moving from or to Ohio. This rule was amended to change references from "working" days to "business" days. The revision dates of the forms referenced in this rule were updated and language was added requiring adoptive parents to notify the agency of their new address and phone number within ten days of relocating.

OAC 5101:2-44-08 entitled "Redetermination and amendment of a state adoption maintenance subsidy" outlines the procedures for the redetermination and amendment of a state adoption maintenance subsidy. This rule was reorganized and is being filed as new due to the number of changes. The language regarding redeterminations and amendments have been separated out and are addressed individually. The timeframes listed in this rule have been extended to give the agency and the adoptive parent additional time to complete necessary actions. The term "anniversary date" has been changed to "redetermination date" for clarity. The rule now includes a list of reasons why an adoptive parent may request an amendment.

OAC 5101:2-44-09 entitled "Requirements for the state adoption special services subsidy program approved before July 1, 2004" outlines the procedures and requirements for the state adoption special services subsidy program for those agencies that still provide this subsidy. The title of this rule was amended to include "approved before July 1, 2004". The word "calendar" has been removed when referring to days and the revision dates of the forms referenced in this rule have been updated.

OAC 5101:2-44-10 entitled "Suspension of a state adoption maintenance subsidy" outlines the requirements for suspending a state adoption maintenance subsidy. This rule was amended to remove the list of conditions that "may" cause suspension. All conditions now listed in the rule shall cause the subsidy to be suspended. The timeframe for notification of the suspension has been changed from fifteen to thirty days.

OAC 5101:2-44-11 entitled "Termination of a state adoption maintenance subsidy" outlines requirements for terminating a state adoption subsidy. This rule was amended to add the word "maintenance" to the title, to define what "financially supporting" a child means, and to change the term "physically handicapped" to "physically disabled".

OAC 5101:2-44-12 entitled "State adoption maintenance subsidy records" outlines what information must be contained in each state adoption maintenance subsidy record. This rule was amended to add the word "maintenance" to the title and to add language stating that a copy of the Title IV-E adoption assistance denial must be included in the file. The revision dates of the forms referenced in this rule have also been updated.

FORMS: JFS 01615 "Approval for State Adoption Maintenance Subsidy" removes the words "amended agreement" and "redetermination" from this form. JFS 01615-I "Instructions for Completing the Approval for State Adoption Maintenance Subsidy" is a new form that provides instructions on how to complete the JFS 01615.

JFS 01614 "Redetermination or Amendment of a State Adoption Maintenance Subsidy" is a new form that will be used to complete a redetermination or amendment of a state adoption maintenance subsidy. JFS 01614-I "Instructions for Completing the Redetermination or Amendment of a State Adoption Maintenance Subsidy" gives instructions on how to complete the JFS 01614.

April 2, 2014

To: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

From: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

This letter transmits amended rules for Title IV-E foster care maintenance. These rules have been amended through a collaborative partnership between ODJFS, public children services agencies (PCSAs), private child placing agencies (PCPAs) and private noncustodial agencies (PNAs). All of the rules have been approved by the Partnership for Ohio's Families (PFOF) Rule Review initiative. Rules 5101:2-33-29, 5101:2-47-17, 5101:2-47-18 and 5101:2-47-19 was part of a five year review. The rules will be effective May 1, 2014.

OAC 5101:2-33-29 entitled Verification of United States citizenship and immigration status for all children in foster care. This rule explains what can be used to verify citizenship for all children in foster care. There were minor changes to the rule to add clarity.

OAC 5101:2-47-01 entitled Administration of the Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Program. This rule sets forth the objectives, goals and responsibilities for the administration of the Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance (FCM) program. In paragraph (B) language was changed to better clarify the intent. The words, "initial and continued", were deleted from paragraph (C)(2) and language was added to paragraph (C)(3) to clarify a child that is in the legal responsibility of the Title IV-E agency. The words, "to ensure eligibility and assist the family in obtaining other needed assistance", was deleted from paragraph (C)(5). In paragraph (D) language was changed to add clarity. The reference to rule 5101:2-47-21 was removed as the rule no longer exists. A typo was deleted in paragraph (E).

OAC 5101:2-47-16 entitled Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: Reimbursable placement settings. This rule outlines the requirements for placement settings that are eligible for foster care maintenance reimbursement. In paragraph (A)(9), alternative care setting is explained as a family foster home at the same level of care as the current foster home for a child temporarily placed into for at least twenty-four hours, but for no more than fourteen days as long as the child returns to the original family foster home by the end of the fourteen days. Language was added to paragraph (B) to add clarity regarding reimbursement for payments made to hold a bed for a child on leave.

OAC 5101:2-47-17 entitled Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: Reimbursements for FCM and child care for public foster homes, relative homes, and pre-finalized adoptive homes.

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) section 119.03, each state agency is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. To the extent possible, unnecessary paperwork will be eliminated, and local agencies will be given increased flexibility. The purpose of a rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule's scope and purpose. The following rules were recently reviewed and amended, with an effective date of June 1, 2013.

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-47-05 "Title XIX Medicaid coverage for Title IV-E foster care maintenance (FCM) recipients in accordance with the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA)" outlines the foster care maintenance (FCM) eligibility requirements for COBRA. The rule has been rescinded and filed as new to clearly explain the requirements.

OAC 5101:2-47-09 "Case record requirements for foster care maintenance (FCM)" sets forth the case record responsibilities for FCM. Minor changes were made to provide clarity. Language was added to require initial court orders placing a child in detention to be in the FCM case record file. The FCM case record may be integrated into the child's case record once the child is no longer in the care and placement of the Title IV-E agency.

OAC 5101:2-47-12 "Foster care maintenance: Initial determination of program eligibility and reimbursability" outlines the requirements for determining FCM eligibility and reimbursement. Language was added to inform Title IV-E agencies that initial eligibility can be corrected, if it was done in error. Agencies can continue FCM to age nineteen if they have documentation from educational providers that FCM eligible children are reasonably expected to graduate by age nineteen. Language was also added to determine when a child is no longer reimbursable.

OAC 5101:2-47-13 "Foster care maintenance program eligibility: Legal responsibility requirements" sets forth the legal responsibility requirements for FCM. Changes were made to include the initial court order that removes a child and places the child in detention.

OAC 5101:2-47-14 "Foster care maintenance program eligibility: ADC-relatedness" outlines the aid to dependent children (ADC) program requirements for foster care maintenance. Language was added to clearly define the eligibility month based on the way a child enters care, references to specified relative instead of home of removal.

OAC 5101:2-47-14.1 "Title IV-E eligibility under the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996" outlines that the ADC relatedness requirements for FCM eligibility are based on the ADC relatedness eligibility requirements that were in effect on July 16, 1996. These rules are contained in appendix A of this rule. References to the JFS 01452 "Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Determination" were removed because all FCM eligibility determinations are made in the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS).

OAC 5101:2-47-20 "Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: Supplemental reimbursement for the cost of care for the child of a Title IV-E recipient parent" outlines the process to receive reimbursement for a child of a minor parent that is not in the custody of a Title IV-E agency. Paragraphs (F) and (G) were removed to delete duplication of rules since these requirements are in the Family, Children and Adult Services Manual, Social Services section.
OAC 5101:2-47-22 "Reasonable efforts requirements for foster care maintenance" outlines the federal requirements regarding reasonable efforts for foster care maintenance eligibility. The rule has been rescinded and filed as new to clearly explain the requirements. It was reorganized to provide clarity and eliminate duplication.

OAC 5101:2-47-23 "Beginning date of reimbursability for foster care maintenance" outlines the requirements to begin reimbursement for FCM. The rule has been rescinded and filed as new to clearly explain the requirements. It was reorganized to provide clarity and eliminate duplication.

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) Section 119.03, each state agency is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. To the extent possible, unnecessary paperwork will be eliminated, and local agencies will be given increased flexibility. The purpose of a rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule's scope and purpose. The following rules were recently reviewed and amended, with a proposed effective date of June 1, 2012.

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-47-03.1 "Qualified and Disqualified Alien Eligibility for Foster Care Maintenance and Independent Living Services," this rule outlines the foster care maintenance (FCM) eligibility requirements for qualified aliens. Minor changes were made to provide clarity.

OAC 5101:2-47-04 "Intercounty and interstate case management responsibility for foster care maintenance" describes the case management responsibilities for FCM when a case is transferred to another county. Minor changes were made to provide clarity.

OAC 5101:2-47-07 "Notice of Right to a Hearing for Foster Care Maintenance" describes the hearing rights for Title IV-E agencies. There are no amendments to this rule as part of the five year rule review.

OAC 5101:2-47-08 "Required application/update for Title IV-D (child support) services and referrals to Title IV-A (public assistance); healthchek; third party insurance; and supplemental security income (SSI)", describes all the required referrals that a Title IV-E agency is responsible for. The rule has been rescinded and filed as new to clearly explain the requirements. The time frame for submitting the JFS 01435 has changed to within sixty business days from the date the Title IV-E agency obtains legal responsibility for the care and placement of the child. Language was also added to clarify that the assignment of child support to the Title IV-E agency begins the first day of the calendar month in which all Title IV-E eligibility are met and ends on the last day of the calendar month in which the agency's temporary custody of a child terminates.

OAC 5101:2-47-15 "Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: authorization for foster care maintenance and auxiliary payment reimbursements" outlines the process to receive reimbursement for FCM, difficulty of care auxiliary reimbursements. References to the FACSIS, the JFS 01659 and JFS 01925 have been removed because all reimbursement is authorized through the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS).

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 287

From: Michael B. Colbert, Director

Subject: Revisions to Ohio Administrative Code Rules as a result of the Five Year Rule Review Process

The following is a brief explanation of the rule changes.

OAC 5101:2-33-21, "Confidentiality and dissemination of information related to child abuse or neglect." This rule outlines the confidential nature of child abuse and neglect reports and specifies when release of such information is required or permissible. The rule has been revised as part of the five year rule review process. Changes include addressing the release of child welfare information to the superintendent of public instruction when a report involves a person who holds a license issued by the state board of education where the public children services agency has determined that child abuse or neglect occurred, and that the abuse or neglect is related to the person's duties and responsibilities under the license. Additionally, revisions were made to format the paragraphs within the rule consistently.

OAC 5101:2-33-23, "Case records for children services," outlines the requirements for PCSAs regarding preparation, maintenance, and retention of child welfare records on cases that come to the attention of the PCSA. Additionally, documentation requirements are addressed. The only change to the rule was the addition of clarifying language that, to the extent possible, case information shall be recorded in the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS).

OAC 5101:2-33-28, "Joint planning and sharing of information among the PCSA and CDJFS," sets forth the requirements that apply to county departments of job and family services and public children services agencies in joint planning and sharing of information to coordinate services to children and families. Minor grammatical changes were made to the rule.

OAC 5101:2-35-16, "Submittal of central registry reports on child abuse or neglect." This rule outlines the PCSA requirement to submit child abuse and neglect information and a report disposition to the central registry. This rule is being rescinded as part of a five year rule review process as child abuse and neglect information is contained within the SACWIS and entry of such information is addressed within the Chapter 5101:2-36 rules of the Administrative Code.

OAC 5101:2-35-19, "Expunction of identifying information from the central registry." This rule outlines the criteria for expunging alleged perpetrator case dispositions or case resolutions of child abuse and neglect reports from the central registry. The rule was rescinded.

OAC 5101:2-33-24, "Access to child abuse and neglect reports for background checks." This is a new rule that outlines the PCSA requirements for utilizing child abuse and neglect report dispositions for the purposes of a background check for child care certification, foster care licensure and an adoption homestudy.

This letter transmits fourteen amended rules and one rescinded rule surrounding foster care updates as a result of the five year review. These rules will be effective October 1, 2011.

The following is a brief explanation of the rule changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-5-06, entitled "Corrective action plans" provides guidance to agencies when an agency has been found to be out of compliance with rule. The rule was amended to correct punctuation. No substantive changes were made.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-08, entitled "PCPA and PNA governance and administration" provides guidance to agencies for the governing body and administrator. The rule was amended for clarity. No substantive changes were made.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-09.1, entitled "Criminal records check required for certain prospective employees and certified foster caregivers" provides guidance to agencies on the conducting of criminal record check for employees and foster caregivers. The rule was amended to add paragraph (U). This paragraph references a waiver of the fingerprint requirement in section 2151.86 of the Revised Code.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-17, entitled "Discharge summary" provides guidance to agencies on how to prepare a written discharge summary for a child who is to be discharged from a residential facility or specialized foster home. Paragraph (A) was amended to specify that the discharge summary must be provided within ten days after discharge to the person or agency who placed the child.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-18, entitled "Waivers" provides guidance for agencies requesting to waive a rule located in chapters 5101:2-1, 5101:2-5, 5101:2-7, 5101:2-9, 5101:2-39, and 5101:2-42 of the Administrative Code. The title of the rule was changed to "Waivers and Variances." Paragraph (B) was amended to limit waiver requests to relative foster homes only. A new paragraph (E) was added to require agencies to request a foster home waiver through the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) if the agency has access to the system. If an agency does not have access to the system, the agency must request a waiver on the JFS 01317 form. A new paragraph (G) was added to allow waivers for the fingerprint requirement of a criminal records check for a foster home. Paragraph (H) eliminates variances. Paragraph (I) was added to allow previously approved variances to still be valid as long as the parameters surrounding the original approval have not changed.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-19, entitled "Variances" provides guidance for variance requests from foster care agencies. This rule is being rescinded.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-20, entitled "Initial application for child placement in foster care" provides guidance to agencies on what needs to be completed to initially certify a prospective foster caregiver. Paragraph (E) was amended to update the rule in accordance with the latest central registry procedure. Paragraph (H) was amended to extend the JFS 01653 Medical Statement to one year prior to initial recommendation of the foster home. Paragraph (P) was amended to extend the fire inspection to one year prior to initial certification of the foster home.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-24, entitled "Foster home recertification procedure" provides guidance to agencies on the process for recertifying a foster home. Paragraphs (J) and (K) were amended to update the rule in accordance with the latest central registry procedure.
OAC rule 5101:2-5-26, entitled "Revocation, denial of initial certification or denial of recertification of a foster home certificate" provides guidance to agencies about the process on revocation and denial of certification for foster homes. Paragraph (F) was added to allow agencies with access to the SACWIS system to recommend denials and revocations through the system rather than using the JFS 01317 form.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-31, entitled "Sharing or transfer of a foster home" provides guidance to agencies on the sharing of a foster home as well as the transfer process for a foster home. The rule was amended for clarity. Paragraph (B) was amended to allow a foster home to transfer to another agency within the first year of certification, if both agencies agree to the transfer. The paragraph was also amended to clarify that a foster caregiver can only transfer to another agency one time during their certification period.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-31, entitled "Occupancy limitations and accessibility" provides guidance to agencies on the capacity of children allowed in foster homes. A new paragraph (D) was added to clarify that a foster home may exceed the capacity limit of five foster children if one additional sibling group is added to a foster home.

OAC rule 5101:2-5-35, entitled "Children's rights" provides guidance to agencies on the rights of children in foster care. Paragraph (A) (1) was amended to add that a foster child has a right to abstain from the practice of religion.

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) Section 119.032, each state agency is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. To the extent possible, unnecessary paperwork will be eliminated, and local agencies will be given increased flexibility. The purpose of a rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule's scope and purpose. The following rules were recently reviewed and amended, with a proposed effective date of August 20, 2011.

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-47-09 "Administrative Procedure: Case Record Requirements for Foster Care Maintenance," describes the case record requirements for Title IV-E foster care maintenance. The list of documents in paragraph (B)(2) and (B)(3) were revised to add clarity. Additional changes to the rule include deleting paragraph (B)(5) the citizenship documentation requirements which are referenced in rule 5101:2-33-29 of the Administrative Code. Language was also added to paragraph (C) regarding difficulty of care payments, repayment of ineligible reimbursements and documentation of reimbursements for clothing, graduation and personal incidentals.

OAC 5101:2-47-12 "Foster care maintenance: Initial determination of program eligibility and reimbursability," this rule outlines the requirements for initial eligibility determination for foster care maintenance. Effective April 1, 2010, a redetermination of ADC relatedness is not required. OAC 5101:2-47-21 will be rescinded and some of that language has been added to explain the age criteria when children are no longer program eligible.

OAC 5101:2-47-16 "Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: Reimbursable placement settings," this rule outlines the reimbursable placements for foster care maintenance. New language has been added to allow for reimbursement for alternative care providers that are licensed, certified or approved. Also, if the alternative care placement is 14 days or less and the child returns to the original placement this alternative care will not count as a placement change for the Adoption and Foster Care Analysis Reporting System (AFCARS). Language has been added to allow for reimbursement when a child is absent without leave (AWOL), in the hospital, on a trial home visit, camp or vacation, if the absence does not exceed 14 days and the child returns to the same placement. A child on leave for respite will not be reimbursed.

OAC 5101:2-47-21 "Foster Care Maintenance (FCM): Redetermination of Program Eligibility and Reimbursability," is being rescinded. Effective April 1, 2010 annual redetermination for Aid for Dependent Children (ADC) is no longer federally required.

OAC 5101:2-47-26.2 "Cost Report 'Agreed Upon Procedures' Engagement," describes the requirements for public and private agencies to complete a cost report annually. The rule revision date of the JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" was changed from July 2009 to July 2011. Paragraph (C) was revised to separate the requirements. Sentence two and three were moved to the new paragraph (D). Sentence four was moved to paragraph (E) and the last sentence and subparagraph were moved to paragraph (F).

This letter transmits amendments to Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-40-04 "Kinship Permanency Incentive Program." This rule is being amended as a result of Am. Sub. The following is a brief explanation of the changes.

OAC 5101:2-36-01, "Intake and screening procedures for child abuse, neglect, dependency and family in need of services reports; and information and/or referral intakes" outlines the PCSA requirements for referrals of suspected child abuse and neglect. This rule includes the PCSA responsibilities in recording referral information, categorizing referral information, and completing a screening decision with referral information in the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS). This rule is being amended to include language permitting a PCSA with approval from the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services to assign screened in child abuse and neglect reports to alternative response assessment. The rule also includes criteria for screened in child abuse and neglect reports that are required to be assigned to an assessment/investigation. Additionally, a family in need of services report category of alternative response required non-lead PCSA contacts was included.

OAC 5101:2-36-20, "Public children services agencies assessment requirements for child abuse and neglect reports in alternative response" sets forth the PCSA requirements for responding to accepted child abuse and neglect reports assigned to the alternative response pathway.

OAC 5101:2-38-20, "Public children services agencies requirements for child abuse and neglect reports receiving on-going services in alternative response" sets forth the PCSA requirements for cases receiving on-going services within the alternative response pathway.

FORMS:

The JFS 01418, "Alternative Response Family Service Plan" is utilized by the PCSA to document concerns, activities, and services when there is agreement between the PCSA and a family for service provision through the alternative response pathway. The form was revised to identify whether the family service plan was developed after the assessment of safety or after completion of the Family Assessment. Additionally, the language within the form was modified to enhance clarity for both caseworkers and the family regarding the services to be provided and the expected outcome of the service provision.

The JFS 01418-I, "Alternative Response Family Service Plan" is being revised to incorporate and address revisions made to the JFS 01418.

The JFS 01417, "Alternative Response Family Service Plan Review" is utilized by the PCSA to review services and activities within the Family Service Plan to determine if they are effective in addressing concerns and increasing family strengths and/or supports. The form was revised to identify each activity or service contained within the Family Service Plan and document the family's progress or any known barriers in completing the activity or services. A risk reassessment of child abuse and neglect was also added to examine changes the service provision may have had on the level of risk within the family. Additionally, a section was included for the worker to document the case decision to continue providing services or to close the case, and the rationale to support this decision.

The JFS 01417-I, "Alternative Response Family Service Plan Review" is being revised to incorporate and address revisions made to the JFS 01417.
The JFS 01422, "Alternative Response Case Closure" is being rescinded. The reassessment of risk is now included in the JFS 01417, "Family Service Plan Review" and case closure will be documented utilizing existing SACWIS functionality.

The JFS 01422-I, "Alternative Response Case Closure" is being rescinded along with the JFS 01422.

- Practitioner of behavior science - added this term to the rule.

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) Section 119.032, each state agency is required to review its rules a minimum of once every five years. The intent of the law is to ensure that rules are clearly written and that program requirements are accurate, up-to-date and clearly expressed. To the extent possible, unnecessary paperwork will be eliminated, and local agencies will be given increased flexibility. The purpose of a rule review is to determine whether a rule should be continued without amendment, be amended or be rescinded, taking into consideration each rule's scope and purpose.

The following rules were recently reviewed and amended, with a proposed effective date of March 1, 2011.

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) Rule 5101:2-9-11, "Admissions and admissions log," provides guidance for agencies admitting children into foster care residential facilities. Paragraph (A) was amended to require residential facilities to have written admissions policies. Paragraph (B) was added to allow facilities to admit children who do not meet their age limitation. Facilities must admit children in conjunction with a court. Paragraph (C) was added to allow facilities to house residents who are older than 18 but who are expected to graduate prior to their 19th birthdays.

OAC Rule 5101:2-9-14, "Medications," provides guidance for distributing medications to children living in residential facilities. Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 4729.01, paragraph (B) was amended to allow a "licensed health professional authorized to prescribe medications" to consult with the facility and prescribe medications as necessary for the children in care.

This letter transmits the amendment of Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-36-08. These changes will become effective March 1, 2011. The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes.

OAC 5101:2-36-08, "PCSA requirements for involving a third party in the assessment/investigation of a child abuse or neglect report," outlines the requirements for public children services agencies when they are assessing/investigating accepted reports of child abuse and neglect when conflicts of interest exist. This rule is being amended to include language permitting public children services agencies to use in-house assessment/investigation units in these circumstances if the report does not involve an agency employee or allege a criminal offense. The in-house unit must work independently of all other units within the agency. The agency must have written internal policies and procedures for the review and approval of the in-house unit's assessments/investigations.

SUBJECT: Revisions to OAC 5101:2-48-02, JFS 01694, JFS 01694-I and JFS 01695

This letter transmits revisions to Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-48-02 "Putative father registry" and forms JFS 01694 "Application for Search of Ohio Putative Father Registry," JFS 01694-I "Instructions for Registration Form for Fathers" and the JFS 01695 "Application for Search of Ohio Putative Father Registry." These changes will be effective March 1, 2011.

The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC 5101:2-48-02, "Putative father registry" outlines the procedures for requesting a search of the Ohio putative father registry. The revised date on the forms referenced in this rule has been updated.

JFS 01694, "Application for Search of Ohio Putative Father Registry (Registration Form for Fathers)" is a registration form used by putative fathers who want to be notified in the event their child may be placed for adoption. Putative fathers will no longer be required to have this form notarized so the notarization section of this form has been removed.

JFS 01694-I, "Instructions for Registration Form for Fathers" outlines the procedures for completing the JFS 01694. Paragraph I has been revised to remove the notarization requirement.

JFS 01695, "Application for Search of Ohio Putative Father Registry" is the form used by the birth mother, Public Children Services Agency (PCSA), Private Child Placing Agency (PCPA) or attorney arranging a child's adoption to request a search of the putative father registry. Section IV of this form has been revised to include language that the public children services agency (PCSA), private child placing agency (PCPA) or attorney representing the PCSA or PCPA is requesting the search for the purpose of adoption only. A new Section V has been added which requires the PCSA to indicate the reason they are searching the registry (termination of parental rights hearing or permanent custody hearing).

OAC 5101:2-33-22, "Access/confidentiality of Child Abuse and Neglect Information Contained in the Uniform Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS)." This rule outlines the confidentiality of information contained in SACWIS and access to such information by a children services agency, a person conducting research, and others authorized to request a search regarding a subject of a report of child abuse and neglect. This amendment will be effective January 15, 2011.

This rule is being amended to include language permitting an individual to submit a request to inquire whether his or her name has been placed within SACWIS as the subject of a report of alleged child abuse or neglect. Language has been removed to permit the release of confidential identifying information for the purpose of research with the approval of the United States Department of Health and Human Services or the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services. Additionally, language has been clarified regarding the process for a private child placing agency, private non-custodial agency or a children services agency to submit a request for a search of SACWIS to assist in the completion of a prospective foster or adoptive parent seeking licensure, certification, or approval.

Additional language changes have been made for clarity and consistency, and the revision dates of forms have been updated.

OAC 5101:2-38-08, "Child's education and health information" sets forth the requirements that apply to documenting a child's education and health information. This rule is being amended to require documentation of efforts to maintain a child in the same school the child was attending at the time of placement or reasons why remaining in the same school is not in the child's best interest. New language was added to require documentation of efforts to ensure that the child is enrolled in an educational setting appropriate to the child's needs. Additional language changes have been made for clarity and consistency, and the revision dates of forms have been updated.

OAC 5101:2-38-10, "Requirements for completing the semiannual administrative review" sets forth the requirements that apply to a PCSA and a private child placing agency (PCPA) for completing the semiannual administrative review. This rule is being amended to require documentation of ongoing efforts to identify a potential relative or kin placement for children in substitute care and to update the revision dates of forms.

OAC 5101:2-39-01, "Removal of a child from his or her own home" sets forth the requirements that apply to the PCSA and PCPA for removing a child from his or her home. This rule is being amended to include new language requiring efforts to place siblings jointly, to require written visitation plans for siblings removed from their home and not jointly placed, and to ensure that reasonable efforts are made to maintain a child in the same school the child was attending at the time of placement.

OAC 5101:2-39-10, "PCPA case plan for children in custody or under court-ordered protective supervision" sets forth the requirements that apply to PCPA case plans for children in custody or under protective supervision. This rule is being amended to include new language requiring efforts to place siblings jointly and to require written visitation plans for siblings removed from their home and not jointly placed. INSTRUCTIONS:

The following chart identifies the material that needs to be removed from the Family, Children and Adult Services Manual (FCASM) and the material that should be added.
This letter transmits twenty-four amended rules surrounding foster care updates as a result of the five year review. These rules will be effective December 1, 2010.

The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-5-09, entitled "Personnel and prohibited convictions for employment" provides guidance for personnel and prohibited convictions for employees of agencies. Paragraph B was amended to require the written references to be provided prior to hire. There were two additional requirements for the employee's file listed in paragraph (O).

OAC rule 5101:2-9-02, entitled "Staffing requirements" describes staffing requirements for residential facilities. Language was added to paragraph (C) to require child care staff to provide supervision within sight or sound of a child pursuant to the level of supervision specified in the child's service plan. Language was added to paragraph (F) to prohibit the presence of daytime guests of staff members in the living unit where children reside. In paragraph (J), two additional requirements must be met prior to allowing newly hired child care staff to be left unsupervised with residents: The agency must have received and reviewed the results of the criminal records check of the employee and ensured that the employee has met the requirements in paragraph (H) of rule 5101:2-5-09 of the Administrative Code; and the employee must possess current certification in first aid and cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

OAC rule 5101:2-9-03, entitled "Staff development and evaluation" outlines training requirements and ongoing professional development and evaluation for staff in a residential facility. Paragraph (E) was inserted to allow for child care staff who separated from employment with an agency but returned within one year to be exempt from the new orientation training requirements. Paragraph (F) allows for employees who have not met training requirements due to specified reasons to continue to work in the facility. Paragraph (G) lists restrictions on the employee who has not met training requirements and agency requirements for documenting the situation and ensuring the employee's ultimate compliance with the training requirements. Requirements for the initial orientation of new child care staff were clarified in paragraph (H). Language was inserted into paragraph (I) to clarify that the type of cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) training required is dependent upon the age and size of the children being served in the facility. Additionally, language was added to specify that child care staff of a residential parenting facility and a children's crisis care facility are required to be certified in infant, adult, and child CPR. Paragraph (I) also allows for exceptions to the requirement that first aid and CPR certifications be maintained current. Paragraph (J) was inserted to specify that a child care staff person who does not have current certifications in first aid and CPR is not permitted to work with children without another staff who does have current certifications in first aid and CPR. It also prohibits the child care staff person whose certifications have been expired for more than ninety days from working in the facility until the certifications have been updated. Paragraph (N) was added to require the facility to train child care staff on any revisions in policy pertaining to children or child care staff within thirty days of the revision. Language in paragraph (Q) clarifies that physical restraint may be used by child care staff to protect a child from imminent harm.

OAC rule 5101:2-9-05, entitled "Requirements for residential parenting facility furniture, materials and equipment; diaper changing" describes the requirements for a residential parenting and crisis care facility's furniture, materials and equipment, and diaper changing procedures. The term "crisis care facility" was added to the title of the rule and to paragraphs (A) and (M) to include this type of facility. Language was added to paragraph (C) to require that cleaning equipment, cleaning agents, aerosol cans, or other chemical substances be locked in a cabinet, drawer or room when not in use. Paragraph (J) was amended to require that potty chairs be washed after being emptied and prior to being rinsed and disinfected after each use.
Paragraph (L) was amended to require that all washable equipment and furniture be cleaned with soap and water at least once per month. Paragraph (M) requires that a person caring for a child who wears diapers wash his/her hands with soap and water before and after each diaper change. Also in paragraph (M) language was amended to clarify that when a central diaper changing station is used, a disposable separation material is required to be placed between the child and the changing surface, and this material must be discarded after each use. The remaining language in paragraph (M) was reworded to mirror language regarding diaper changing procedures that is located in child care regulations.

OAC rule 5101:2-9-06, entitled "General safety" provides guidance regarding general safety in a residential facility. Paragraph (D) was amended to clarify that all workshop or outdoor power-driven equipment used be operated in accordance with manufacturer's instructions. Paragraph (E) prohibits smoking in the presence of a child. Paragraph (F) clarifies that all stairways containing more than four steps within or on the grounds of a residential facility that are accessible to children be equipped with a railing. The term "crisis care facility" was also added in the second sentence of this paragraph to include that type of facility which requires safety gates on all stairways accessible to children. Paragraph (I) requires that pet vaccinations for any pets or animals on the premises of a residential facility be maintained current at all times. Paragraph (N) was added to require that stationary or portable outdoor recreational equipment designated for climbing, and swings and slides be anchored or stable and all recreational equipment is required to be appropriate to the age and functioning level of the residents. Paragraph (O) was added to require that all outdoor recreational equipment designated for climbing, and swings and slides be surrounded by a protective, resilient surface. This paragraph lists appropriate materials to be used for such a fall zone.

OAC rule 5101:2-9-08, entitled "Fire safety" provides requirements for fire safety. Language was added to paragraph (E) to require a residential facility that has a combined smoke detector and fire alarm system to have a fire alarm inspection conducted by a company approved to test such equipment at least twice annually, unless approved by a local or state fire inspector. The facility is also required to obtain annual alarm system testing and maintain documentation of the testing. Paragraph (F) requires a residential facility to have fire extinguishers in locations required by the fire inspector and that the fire extinguishers be inspected as required by the fire inspector. The facility is required to maintain documentation of the inspections. Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 270

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director
SUBJECT: Amendments to OAC rules 5101:2-44-06, 5101:2-49-21 and the JFS 01615

This letter amends Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules 5101:2-44-06, 5101:2-49-21 and the JFS 01615. These rules and form will be effective June 1, 2010.

The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC rule 5101:2-44-06 "Eligibility of adoptive family and adoptive child for the state adoption maintenance subsidy program" outlines the eligibility requirements for the state adoption maintenance subsidy (SAMS) program. The rule was amended to add the requirement that at the beginning of each state fiscal year, the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) shall issue a procedure letter that identifies the maximum monthly funding level for SAMS. The rule also adds the requirement that if a Public Children Services Agency (PCSA) negotiates a SAMS payment in excess of the maximum SAMS payment identified in the procedure letter, the PCSA shall enter into a separate county agreement with the adoptive parent for a county adoption maintenance subsidy (CAMS).

OAC rule 5101:2-49-21 "Reimbursement of nonrecurring adoption expenses for a child with special needs" outlines the procedures for reimbursement of adoption related expenses. The rule was amended to remove the reference to the homestudy for international adoptions. Children adopted internationally are not eligible for reimbursement of nonrecurring expenses as outlined in the Fostering Connections to Success and Increasing Adoptions Act of 2008.

The JFS 01615 "Approval for state adoption maintenance subsidy" is used by the PCSA to enter into a legal agreement between the PCSA and the adoptive parent(s) for SAMS payments. The form was revised to include language that the state may reduce the SAMS payment in the event of judicial, executive, or legislative action reducing the appropriation.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director

The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

OAC 5101:2-33-18 entitled, Administration of the Title IV-E adoption assistance program, outlines components of the Title IV-E adoption assistance (AA) program and addresses the public children services agency's responsibilities for its administration. The rule is being proposed for rescission because the provisions of the rule are included in other rules within chapter 5101:2-49 of the Administrative Code.

OAC 5101:2-49-01 entitled, Adoption assistance criteria and application process, outlines the application process for Title IV-E Adoption Assistance (AA). This rule removes duplicate language regarding reasonable efforts to place a child without adoption assistance; clarifies when the Public Children Services Agency (PCSA) shall require the adoptive parents to submit the JFS 06612 "Health Insurance Information Sheet;" and makes changes to punctuation and grammar. The reformatted and updated JFS 1451A "Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Application" provides more clarification of AA eligibility.

OAC 5101:2-49-02 entitled, Adoption assistance eligibility requirements, outlines the process for establishing eligibility for the AA program. This rule is being rescinded and filed new. The rule removes certain language related to the JFS 01666 "Permanent Surrender;" and revises eligibility criteria related to AFDC relatedness to be in compliance with the Fostering Connections to Success and Increasing Adoptions Act of 2008 effective October 1, 2009. The rule also adds the requirement for a completed homestudy and makes changes to punctuation and grammar. A new form JFS 01448 "Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Non-AFDC-relatedness Eligibility Determination" is for use by the PCSA when determining the child eligible by delinking the child from AFDC relatedness.

OAC 5101:2-49-02.1 entitled, Adoption assistance AFDC-relatedness eligibility criteria, is a new rule, that outlines the AFDC-relatedness requirements to determine whether a special needs child is eligible for Title IV-E adoption assistance. The rule includes language removed from rule 5101:2-49-02 to clarify the eligibility requirement for a child who is determined eligible for AA as it relates to AFDC-relatedness. It also clarifies the method used to determine a child eligible for AA when the child is voluntarily placed with a PCSA or voluntary relinquished to a PCSA or private non profit agency.

OAC 5101:2-49-03 entitled, Special needs criteria for adoption assistance, outlines the criteria for the PCSA to use to determine that a child is special needs and eligible for AA. This rule is being rescinded and filed new. The rule adds language allowing a child who has a medical condition making him or her hard to place, to be determined eligible for AA. The rule removes the requirement to post a child on the Ohio Adoption Photo Listing (OAPL) as documentation for reasonable effort to place the child without adoption assistance. The rule clarifies the criteria for "reasonable efforts" to place the child without adoption assistance and clarifies the federal requirement that the contrary to welfare statement must be in the first court ruling, including the temporary ruling.
OAC 5101:2-49-04 entitled, Age requirement for adoption assistance, outlines the age requirement for a child to be considered eligible for AA. The rule has been amended to clarify the eligibility criteria for a child to continue receiving AA past the age of 18. The rule defines a qualified professional and includes a licensed counselor as outlined in section 4757.23 of the Revised Code. The rule replaces the term "medical doctor" with "physician." The rule also makes changes to punctuation and grammar.

OAC 5101:2-49-06 entitled, Adoption assistance agreement and duration: provision for financial support and services, outlines the criteria of the adoption assistance agreement and the duration of the agreement. This amended rule clarifies information that shall be contained in the AA agreement relating to provisions for financial support and services. The JFS 01453 "Adoption Assistance Agreement" to add language regarding the special needs criteria "substantial risk" was updated to remove language that required the AA agreement to be suspended if the adoptive parent did not return the JFS 01451-B in a timely manner. Changes were also made to punctuation and grammar.

This letter transmits amendments to Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Rules in Chapter 5101:2-47 of the Administrative Code as a result of the five year rule review. The effective date for these rules will be September 1, 2009.

The following is a brief explanation of the proposed rule changes.

OAC 5101:2-47-01 entitled Administration of the Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Program. This rule sets forth the objectives, goals and responsibilities for the administration of the Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance (FCM) program. The old rule is being rescinded and filed as new. Language from rule 5101:2-47-02 has been incorporated in the rule. Public Law 110-351 Fostering Connections to Success and Increasing Adoptions Act establishes a new Title IV-E requirement to assure that each child receiving Title IV-E FCM reimbursement is a full-time student or is incapable of attending school due to a documented medical condition. The definition of Foster Care Maintenance was amended to include reasonable travel costs for the child to remain in the school where the child is enrolled at the time of placement in accordance with PL 110-351. All references to adoption assistance have been removed from this rule and are now contained in rule 5101:2-33-18 of the OAC.

OAC 5101:2-47-02 entitled Foster Care Maintenance Program. This rule is being rescinded as the requirements have been incorporated into rule 5101:2-47-01 of the OAC.

OAC 5101:2-47-11 entitled Reimbursement for Foster Care Maintenance Costs for Children’s Residential Centers, Group Homes, Maternity Homes, Residential Parenting Facilities, and Purchased Foster Care Homes. This rule outlines the reimbursement criteria for FCM children. The word "payment" has been changed to "reimbursement" throughout this rule to clarify that foster care maintenance is not a payment but rather a reimbursement to Title IV-E agencies for services they have provided on behalf of a FCM eligible child.

OAC 5101:2-47-19 entitled Foster Care Maintenance Program Reimbursability: Reimbursements, Graduation Expenses and Personal Incidentals. This rule outlines the requirements for reimbursements for graduation expenses and personal incidentals. Reimbursement ceilings for personal incidentals will be added to the Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter that publishes the results of the JFS 01975 Annual foster care maintenance and adoption assistance survey. Funeral expenses have been removed from the list of allowable personal incidentals.

OAC 5101:2-47-23 entitled Beginning Date of Reimbursability for Foster Care Maintenance. This rule sets forth the criteria that must be met before reimbursement back to the first day in the month of placement can be sought. The rule, as amended, allows reimbursement retroactive to the first day in the month of the actual placement provided that all other FCM eligibility and reimbursability criteria are met.

OAC 5101:2-47-24 entitled ODJFS Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceiling Amount- Approval System. This rule is being rescinded as the requirements have been incorporated into a procedure letter.

OAC 5101:2-47-26 entitled Title IV-E Agencies, Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPA), Private Noncustodial Agencies (PNA): Penalties for Failure to Comply with Fiscal Accountability Procedures. This rule outlines the penalties for failure to comply with fiscal accountability procedures set forth in Chapter 5101:2-47 of the Administrative Code. Only formatting changes were made to this rule.

OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 entitled Public Children Services Agencies (PCSA), Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPA), Private Noncustodial Agencies (PNA): Title IV-E Cost Report Filing Requirements, Record Retention Requirements and Related Party Disclosure Requirements. This rule clarifies the cost report filing requirements, the deadlines for filing the cost report, and record retention requirements. Formatting changes were also made.

SUBJECT: Amendment of Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-42-18

This letter transmits the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule governing the home assessment and approval process of substitute care placements with relative and nonrelative caregivers. A number of Public Children Services Agencies (PCSA) have requested clarification on the prohibited offenses and rehabilitation considerations for relative / non-relative caregivers due to the statutory references in the rule. In response, the Department has made revisions to the rule to clarify this information.

OAC 5101:2-42-18 entitled PCSA and PCPA approval of placements with relative and nonrelative substitute caregivers sets forth the overall requirements of the PCSA or PCPA having custody of a child to consider approving and placing a child with a relative or nonrelative if the placement is determined to be in the child's best interest. SUBJECT: Amendments to Substitute Care Rule 5101:2-42-65 "Caseworker visits and contacts with children in substitute care."

This letter transmits amendments to the OAC rule governing the visitation of children in the custody of the Public Children Services Agency (PCSA). The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes.

OAC 5101:2-42-65 entitled Caseworker visits and contacts with children in substitute care outlines the provisions regarding agency visits and contacts with a child in its custody and placed in a substitute care setting. This rule is being amended as a result of feedback received from the video conference held on August 26 and 27, 2008 with all PCSAs. There were several changes made to the rule based on the feedback given from the PCSAs while meeting the federal and state requirements and the adoption and foster care reform efforts over the past several years. An open internal meeting was held among Office of Families and Children program areas, field offices, SACWIS, and data reporting staff regarding final revisions and the provision of technical assistance to agencies regarding implementation and data reporting. Revisions have been made to reflect who is responsible for making the visit with the child in the substitute care setting and to define the frequency of visits.

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director

This letter transmits the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules governing the requirements for placements that must go through the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC). These rules have been amended and rescinded as a result of decentralizing the functions that the Ohio Office for ICPC performs at the state level on behalf of Ohio's public children services agencies (PCSAs). These rules do not affect the Department's retention of the functions it currently performs for private agencies, courts, and parents nor its role in policy oversight. The Department surveyed PCSAs about decentralization of the functions for PCSAs and received positive feedback from agency directors.

The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes.

OAC 5101:2-52-02 entitled General requirements applicable to interstate placements of children sets forth the overall requirements that apply to all ICPC requests. This rule is being rescinded as requirements have been incorporated into OAC 5101:2-52-04 and 5101:2-52-06 respectively.

OAC 5101:2-52-04 entitled PCSA responsibilities for the interstate compact on the placement of children sets forth the requirements for PCSAs when placing or supervising children placed across state lines. The old rule is being rescinded and being replaced by this rule which outlines requirements for PCSAs. PCSAs will no longer send or receive ICPC cases through ODJFS. PCSAs will interact directly with Compact or Deputy Compact Administrators in other states. Each PCSA Director (or his or her designee) would serve as the Assistant Deputy Compact Administrator for his or her respective county and have the authority to receive and send requests directly with other state ICPC Offices, or if the other state is decentralized, with the local entity in that state.

OAC 5101:2-52-06 entitled PCPA, PNA and court requirements for the interstate compact on the placement of children sets forth the requirements for private agencies and courts when placing or supervising children placed across state lines. OAC 5101:2-52-06 is being rescinded and being replaced by this rule which outlines all sending and receiving requirements that must be done through the Ohio ICPC office.

FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director
SUBJECT: Amendment to Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) Rules in Chapter 5101:2-48 Related to the Multi-Ethnic Placement Act, As Amended (MEPA)

This letter transmits three amended Ohio Administrative Code rules governing adoption services and two Ohio Department of Job and Family Services forms. The amendments are being made to provide clarity and to outline a non-discriminatory procedure for narrowing the number of families who must be presented at the matching conference. The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes. These rules will be effective on May 15, 2009.

OAC 5101:2-42-18.1 entitled Non-discriminatory requirements for foster care placements was amended for re-formatting purposes and to provide clarity regarding the timeframe and circumstances for completing an additional JFS 01688 "Individualized Child Assessment." The rule was amended to include the geographical location of the prospective family whenever geography is being used as a proxy for the race or ethnic composition of the neighborhood. Additional language was added to the rule to clarify the demography of the neighborhood, and presence or lack of significant number of persons of a particular RCNO in the neighborhood.

The rule was also amended to clarify that a licensed professional shall not complete an assessment until the PCSA, PCPA, or PNA has provided the licensed professional with a copy of the JFS "MEPA Educational Materials," a copy of the JFS "Non-discriminatory Requirements for Foster Care and Adoptive Placement," a copy of the OAC rule 5101:2-48-13 and a copy of the OAC rule 5102-48-16 of the Administrative Code.

The rule was amended also to clarify when it has been determined that RCNO should be a factor considered in the child's placement, an updated JFS 01688 and assessment shall be completed prior to the twelve month expiration date.

OAC 5101:2-48-05 entitled Agency adoption policy and recruitment plan was amended. The rule was reformatted to re-organize and categorize information that shall be contained within the agency's adoption policy and adoption recruitment plan. The rule outlines non-discriminatory procedures for identifying how approved adoptive families accepting of the child's characteristics will be considered for possible presentation at a matching conference. This rule also provides examples of non-discriminatory methods for narrowing the number of families who will be selected and presented at the matching conference.

The rule has been amended to provide the minimum recruitment that all agencies must do to provide for a search of families if the agency elects not to search SACWIS. The rule has been amended to assure that the preferences for relatives and foster parents are clearly stated. Also, the rule has been amended to indicate if a relative of foster parents has expressed interest in a child, the agency does not have to hold a matching conference or include other families in the matching conference. Also, the rule was amended to indicate that when two or more families are presented the preferential order is for the relative or foster family.

OAC 5101: 2-48-13 entitled Non-discriminatory requirements for adoptive placements was amended for re-formatting purposes and to provide clarity regarding the timeframe and circumstances for completing an additional JFS 01688.

JFS 01607 entitled MEPA Educational Materials was amended to update the Non-discriminatory Requirements for Foster Care and Adoptive Placements and to include the revised OAC rules 5101:2-42-18.1, 5101:2-48-13 and 5101:2-48-16.

New language has been added to this rule to indicate that agencies must notify the PCSA of initiation of a homestudy in accordance with the procedures outlined in rule 5101:2-48-12, search SACWIS in accordance with the procedures outlined in rule 5101:2-48-09 and notify the PCSA of impending placement in accordance with the procedures outlined in rule 5101:2-48-12.

5101:2-48-12 entitled Completion of the homestudy report outlines the homestudy process for prospective adoptive applicants, the procedures for approving an applicant as an adoptive parent or denying the adoption application and who may conduct adoptive homestudies. This rule was amended to include the definition for "commencement of a homestudy," remove the requirement and procedures for conducting a search of SACWIS, new language that indicates agencies must search SACWIS in accordance with the procedures outlined in rule 5101:2-48-09 and new requirements for the bureau of criminal identification and investigation (BCII) criminal background checks. Additional amendments include clarification of the language regarding notice of initiation of an adoptive homestudy and notice of impending placement and clarification of what information must be contained in the notification letter. Final amendments to this rule include clarification on what documents must be attached to the JFS 01673 "Assessment for Child Placement (Homestudy)" and what professionals must sign off on the JFS 01653 "Medical Statement for Foster Care/Adoptive Applicant and All Household Members."

5101:2-48-12.1 entitled Completion of adoption homestudy updates and amendments outlines the requirements for completing an update or amendment to an adoptive homestudy. This rule was amended to clarify when homestudy updates are due, exempt international-only adoptions from using the JFS 01385 "Ohio Department of Job and Family Services Assessment for Child Placement Update," clarify what documents must be completed and attached to the JFS 01385, and mandate use of the JFS 01200 "Fire Inspection Report for Residential Facilities Certified by ODJFS" for a fire inspection of a prospective adoptive parent's home. This rule was also amended to include the new requirements for BCII criminal background checks, the process for criminal background checks at the time of update and a timeframe for completion of criminal background checks for new adult household members. Final revisions to this rule include a timeframe for completion of the JFS 01653 "Medical Statement for Foster Care/Adoptive Applicant and All Household Members" for new household members, including children, and the requirement that when any member of the household reaches the age of eighteen a BCII check must be completed within ten days of that person's eighteenth birthday.

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 221

July 24, 2008

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director

This letter transmits one new rule and one amended rule requiring public children services agencies (PCSAs) to develop a county specific disaster preparedness plan in cooperation with key community stakeholders and service providers (e.g., caregivers, families, shelters, courts, law enforcement and other agencies). OAC rule 5101:2-5-13.1 has been created and rule 5101:2-33-26 has been amended to address the issue of disaster preparedness. These rules will be effective August 25, 2008.

Because Ohio is a state supervised, county administered system, plans to ensure continuity of critical direct services (e.g., assessment/investigation, substitute care and in-home supportive services to children and families, etc.) interrupted by natural or man made disasters, will have to be developed by county PCSAs in collaboration with their local stakeholders and service providers. In addition, licensed private child placing agencies (PCPAs) holding custody of children placed in substitute care and private non-custodial agencies (PNAs) supervising licensed substitute care providers, will also be required to develop disaster preparedness plans to ensure continuity of critical services for children and families. The National Child Welfare Information Gateway's website (http://www.childwelfare.gov/highlights/disaster) provides a direct link to the guide, Coping with Disasters and Strengthening Systems: A Framework for Child Welfare Agencies, published by the National Child Welfare Resource Center for Organizational Improvement, as well as other helpful guidance to assist in plan development.

5101:2-5-13.1 Disaster Preparedness Plan Requirements. This new rule was created to ensure agencies develop and implement a disaster preparedness plan.

5101:2-33-26 The county child abuse and neglect memorandum of understanding. This rule was revised to provide clarity as to the delineation of the respective duties and requirements of all involved in the assessment/investigation of child abuse and/or neglect as specified in the memorandum of understanding (MOU). Additionally, the types of cases where a joint investigation may be undertaken was expanded. Also, the requirement to add a statement to the MOU regarding the types of situations where the assistance of law enforcement is routinely requested by the PCSA has been included in the rule. The rule amendments include addressing the issues related to disaster preparedness as outlined in 5101:2-5-13.1 within the county MOU. Lastly, grammatical changes were made for the sake of clarity.

This letter transmits the changes to Ohio Administrative Code rules 5101:2-47-12; 5101:2-47-13; 5101:2-47-14; 5101:2-47-16; 5101:2-47-17; 5101:2-47-18; 5101:2-47-20 and 5101:2-47-21 as part of the five year rule review process. These rules will be effective August 25, 2008.

OAC 5101:2-47-12 entitled Foster care maintenance: Initial determination of program eligibility and reimbursability. The rule has been amended to identify foster care maintenance (FCM) eligibility determinations will be completed in the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) instead of the JFS 01452 once SACWIS is implemented in each agency.

OAC 5101:2-47-13 entitled Foster care maintenance program eligibility: Legal responsibility requirements. The timeframe for obtaining a judicial determination to the effect that continuation in the home is contrary to the best interest of the child or that the placement is in the best interest of the child was changed from one hundred and eight one days to one hundred and eighty. New language has been added to this rule to clarify that affidavits, amendments and nunc pro tunc orders will not be accepted as verification documentation to meet the judicial determinations of contrary to the welfare and reasonable efforts.

OAC 5101:2-47-14 entitled Foster care maintenance program eligibility: ADC-relatedness. This rule has been amended to clarify that each ADC eligibility criteria, including deprivation, need and resources criteria must be met in the month of, but prior to, the child’s removal from the home.

OAC 5101:2-47-16 entitled Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: Reimbursable placement facilities. Minor changes were made to this rule including the word "payment" was changed to "reimbursement", acronyms were defined and the correct reference to Chapter 52 was added.

OAC 5101:2-47-17 entitled Foster care maintenance (FCM) program reimbursability: Reimbursements for FCM and child care for public foster homes, relative homes, and pre-finalized adoptive homes. The word "payment" has been changed to "reimbursement" throughout this rule to clarify that foster care maintenance is not a payment but rather a reimbursement to Title IV-E agencies for services they have provided on behalf of a FCM eligible child.

OAC 5101:2-47-18 entitled Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: Reimbursements related to difficulty of care needs of a child placed in a foster home, relative home, or pre-finalized adoptive home. The word "payment" has been changed to "reimbursement" throughout this rule to clarify that foster care maintenance is not a payment but rather a reimbursement to Title IV-E agencies for services they have provided on behalf of a FCM eligible child.

OAC 5101:2-47-20 entitled Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: Supplemental reimbursements for the cost of care for the child of a title IV-E recipient parent. The word "payment" has been changed to "reimbursement" throughout this rule.

OAC 5101:2-47-21 entitled Foster care maintenance (FCM): Redetermination of program eligibility and reimbursability. Minor changes were made to this rule to identify that foster care maintenance (FCM) eligibility redeterminations will be completed in the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) instead of the JFS 01452A once SACWIS is implemented in each agency.

SUBJECT: STATE ADOPTION MAINTENANCE SUBSIDY (SAMS) AND POST ADOPTION SPECIAL SERVICES SUBSIDY (PASSS) PROGRAMS

This letter transmits amendments to Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules 5101:2-44-06 "Eligibility of adoptive family and adoptive child for the state adoption maintenance subsidy program," 5101:2-44-13 "Public children services agency (PCSA) administration of the post adoption special services subsidy (PASSS) program," 5101:2-44-13.1 "Eligibility and application process for the post adoption special services subsidy (PASSS) program," revised form JFS 01050 "Application for a post adoption special services subsidy" and new form JFS 01052 "Credentials for Providers of PASSS Funded Therapeutic Services and Memorandum of Understanding." These rules and forms will be effective July 1, 2008.

A brief explanation of the rule changes appears below:

OAC 5101:2-44-06 outlines the eligibility requirements for the state adoption maintenance subsidy program. This rule was amended to include the change in the revised maximum payment amount from two hundred and fifty dollars to three hundred dollars per month per child for an approved state adoption maintenance subsidy.

OAC 5101:2-44-13 outlines the procedures the PCSA must follow when issuing a post adoption special services subsidy. This rule was amended to introduce the new JFS 01052 "Credentials for Providers of PASSS Funded Therapeutic Services and Memorandum of Understanding" form. As part of the approval process, the adoptive parent is responsible for having this form completed by the therapist who will be providing the approved PASSS services. Other amendments to this rule include clarification on payment amounts to a provider when a service is or is not covered under Medicaid.

OAC 5101:2-44-13.1 outlines the eligibility and application process for adoptive parents. This rule was amended to clarify the language regarding when an agency is required to enter into a PASSS agreement with a family, and require treatment plans within 30 days of the child's initial visit for therapeutic intervention(s) that will be provided and require families to include a copy of the JFS 01052 when submitting a JFS 01050 "Application for a Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy." New language has been added to this rule to indicate that all surgical, psychiatric, psychological and counseling services must be determined to be medically necessary by a qualified professional and that providers of residential treatment and therapeutic foster care must be licensed by the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) or the Department of Mental Health. Other amendments include a definition for "respite care services," an increase in the amount of respite that can be approved per child per state fiscal year, language that the providers of therapeutic services must comply with OAC Chapter 5122 and clarification and revisions to the list of services that shall not be approved for PASSS funds.

A brief explanation of each form change appears below:

JFS 01050 has been revised to include a section for the additional respite that an agency may approve and sections for the name of the residential treatment, therapeutic foster care or in-patient hospitalization facility, whom the facilities are licensed by and the name of the non-traditional therapeutic techniques being requested. Also, Section VI of the JFS 01050 has been revised to indicate that as a condition of continued eligibility for PASSS, a treatment plan must be submitted to the agency within 30 days of a child's initial visit to the provider. The instructions page (JFS 01050-I) has been created.

JFS 01052 is a new form that requires providers of services approved with PASSS funds to identify their credentials, licensing board, professional experience and type of therapy they will be providing. This form also requires the provider to indicate that the therapeutic interventions they will be providing comply with all treatment aspects contained in OAC Chapter 5122.
Please note these forms will be available online at http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inter.asp (internet) or at http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inner.asp (ODJFS innerweb).

SUBJECT: VERIFICATION OF UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION STATUS FOR ALL CHILDREN IN FOSTER CARE

This letter transmits the proposed new rule 5101:2-33-39 of the Administrative Code in response to the federal requirements under the Health Care and Tax Relief Act of 2006. The Program Instructions from the Department of Health and Human Services on February 21, 2007 requires the social services agency to verify United States citizenship or immigration status for all children in foster care whether a Title IV-E foster care maintenance payment is made or not. This rule will be effective March 15, 2008.

OAC 5101:2-33-29 entitled Verification of United States citizenship and immigration status for all children in foster care. This rule sets forth the acceptable documentation to verify a child’s citizenship or immigration status when the child is in foster care. This is a new rule which will replace language in OAC 5101:2-47-09 that speaks to citizenship verification and immigration status requirements for all children in foster care and are being determined whether the child is Title IV-E eligible.

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 212

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director

SUBJECT: Amendments to Substitute Care Rule 5101:2-42-65 "Caseworker Visits and Contacts with Children in Substitute Care."

This letter transmits amendments to the OAC rule governing the visitation of children in the custody of the Public Children Services Agency (PCSA). The following is a brief explanation of the proposed change. This rule will be effective February 17, 2008.

OAC 5101:2-42-65 entitled Caseworker visits and contacts with children in substitute care outlines the provisions regarding agency visits and contacts with a child in its custody and placed in a substitute care setting. This rule was amended to ensure Ohio's visitation policies promote child safety and well-being while the child is in substitute care and that they meet the requirements of the federal legislation. The Child and Family Services Improvement Act of 2006 added new performance standards related to visitation of children in substitute care by the caseworker. States are required to set targets for improvement, and meet the goal of visiting at least 90 percent of the children in substitute care on at least a monthly basis, with the majority of the visits occurring within the child's residence by 2011.

This letter transmits amendments to the OAC rule governing the Kinship Permanency Incentive (KPI) program. The rule will be effective September 30, 2007. The rule changes are being made to address the following statutory changes that resulted from the budget bill:

- Removal of the requirement that the child must be adjudicated by the juvenile court as being abused, neglected, dependent, or unruly.
- Removal of the best interest language as part of the requirement for the court order awarding legal custody or guardianship to the kinship caregiver.
- Removal of the requirement that the child must be determined as "special needs".
- Amending the guidelines governing the gross income of the caregiver's family, including the child, 200% of the federal poverty guidelines to 300%.

The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes.

OAC 5101:2-40-04 entitled Kinship permanency incentive program outlines the provisions that govern eligibility, the administration and application process for the KPI program. The rule allows the public children services agency (PCSA) to provide incentive payments to kinship caregivers to promote permanency. In this rule, a few changes were made regarding the kinship caregiver's income. Gross income was defined in the definition section of the rule and language was added to the eligibility requirements. The new language addresses limited exclusions of reported income that are to be deducted from the gross income such as up to one-hundred dollars of child support in response to allowances under the Deficit Reduction Act. It also clarifies individuals whose income must be considered for this program. Language was added to clarify that the rule does not prohibit a PCSA or PCPA from completing a home assessment on behalf of caregivers with whom a child was already directly placed by a court or relative.

JFS 01501 "Application for Kinship Permanency Incentive" is the form used by the kinship caregiver(s) when applying for the KPI program. This form is also used by the PCSA when entering data into the KPI web tool. Revisions to the form include deleting all questions and information regarding the child's adjudication, special needs, and best interest statement. Other revisions to the form include minor grammatical and formatting issues, adding the "relationship to caregiver" to the Child Information section, and changing the language in the Affirmation section to mirror the rule.

JFS 01502 "Notice of Incomplete Kinship Permanency Incentive Application" is the form used by the PCSA to inform applicants the reason(s) that the application can not be processed and what the applicant must do to complete the application process. The form was updated to reflect the amended eligibility requirements and rule. The request for the child's adjudication, special needs and best interest statement were deleted from the checklist of items needed to complete the application.

SUBJECT: REVISIONS TO TITLE IV-E FOSTER CARE MAINTENANCE RULES 5101:2-47-05; 5101:2-47-09; 5101:2-47-14.1 and 5101:2-47-22.

The above mentioned rules are being processed as part of the five year rule review. These rules are effective October 8, 2007.

OAC 5101:2-47-05 entitled Title XIX Medicaid coverage for Title IV-E foster care maintenance recipients in accordance with the "Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act" (COBRA). This rule requires the county agency that has the legal responsibility for the care and placement of a child to transfer Title XIX Medicaid coverage for a IV-E eligible child who is placed in another state. The rule details the information necessary for an Ohio agency to authorize Title XIX Medicaid coverage for a child from another state placed in Ohio. The rule explains the requirement to explore other Title XIX Medicaid coverage for a child placed out of state who may have lost their IV-E eligibility. The rule is being rescinded and a new rule will replace it with changes that include combining information within paragraphs (A) and (B) for clarity. The information within the paragraphs has not changed. The acronym PCSA has been changed to Title IV-E agency. The statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) has been used in place of FACSIS/SIS.

OAC 5101:2-47-09 entitled Administrative procedure: Case record requirements for foster care maintenance. This rule sets forth case record requirements for Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance program. Each Title IV-E agency is required to maintain a separate record for eligibility documentation. The specific requirements for determining eligibility which is detailed in division 2 in chapter 47 of the Administrative Code, is to be contained in a file outside of the child's case record. Included in the file is the eligibility determination documentation, court orders, placement log, foster care license(s), ADC related documentation and citizenship verification. The citizenship verification requirement and immigration status for all children in foster care has been added. Revision dates of forms has been included. The wording "giving the Title IV-E agency legal responsibility" has been added to paragraph (B).

OAC 5101:2-47-14.1 entitled Title IV-E eligibility under the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The rule defines "public agency" and the time frame for determining Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance IV-E eligibility. The rule is authorized by the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 which defines the Aid to Dependent Child relatedness in order to the federal requirement under the Social Security Act to be eligible for Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance. The timeframe for completing the eligibility determination was changed from thirty to sixty days in paragraph (C).

OAC 5101:2-47-22 entitled Foster care maintenance: reasonable efforts requirements. This rule sets forth the requirement under the Social Security Act. Section 471(a)(15) of the Act requires the State agency to make reasonable efforts to prevent the child's removal from his/her home, to reunify the child and family, and to make and finalize an alternate permanent placement when the child and family cannot be reunited. The requirements for judicial determinations regarding reasonable efforts are title IV-E eligibility criteria. If the eligibility criteria are not satisfied, the child is not eligible for title IV-E funding. The rule dictates the timeframes for when the reasonable efforts requirement is to be met in order to meet eligibility and to continue eligibility for Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance. The word "placement" was changed to "removal" in paragraphs (A), (B) and (C). Paragraph (F) was reorganized with wording changes and the addition of the wording "which has legal responsibility for a child."

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director
SUBJECT: Revisions to Title IV-E Rules

This letter transmits revisions to Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules 5101:2-33-19, 5101:2-47-19, and 5101:2-47-23.1, the Sample Contract, Sample Invoice and Sample Individual Child Care Agreement (ICCA) as well as the creation of a Sample ICCA Amendment. These changes are effective January 1, 2007.

An explanation of the rule revisions appears below:

OAC rule 5101:2-47-19 Foster care maintenance program reimbursability: Clothing payments and graduation expenses sets forth the manner in which payments for reimbursable clothing and graduation expenses shall be claimed. The rule title has been amended to include clothing payments, graduation expenses, and personal incidentals. The rule has been revised to include clarifying language regarding supplemental payments for cost categories, clothing and graduation expenses, as well as to provide a federally approved list of allowable personal incidental expenses. The rule provides guidance on processing auxiliary payments and reimbursements dependent upon the type of expense, placement setting, and whether the cost is directly incurred by the Title IV-E agency or a payment to the foster care provider.

OAC rule 5101:2-47-23.1 Title IV-E Agency Contracting and Contract Monitoring requirements sets forth the minimum requirements for the establishment of contracts and the monitoring of those contracts for Title IV-E agencies purchasing foster care services from private providers. This rule is amended to retract all references to rescinded rules, to clarify invoicing procedures and contract monitoring language, and to specifically identify what shall be included in contract notifications.

OAC rule 5101:2-47-26 Title IV-E agencies, private child placing agencies (PCPA), private noncustodial agencies (PNA): penalties for failure to comply with fiscal accountability procedures sets forth the penalties ODJFS may enforce against PCPAs, PNAs, and PCSAs for failure to comply with the fiscal accountability procedures outlined in OAC Chapter 5101:2-47. This rule is being rescinded from Chapter 5101:2-33, revised, and enacted as OAC rule 5101:2-47-26. The rule has been amended to retract and replace the term PCSA with Title IV-E agency, change the time frame for corrective action plan to be completed, change the presentation order of fiscal accountability penalties and other sanctions within the rule, and to add language specifying how the untimely or inaccurate filing of the single cost report shall impact the reimbursement ceiling effective period.

The JFS 01700 "Individual Child Care Agreement" (ICCA) sets forth a template for counties to relay information required in OAC rule 5101:2-42-90 entitled Information to be provided to caregivers, school districts and juvenile courts; information to be included in the individual child care agreement. Changes to the sample ICCA include a complete transformation of the manner in which information is presented with the addition of addendums for child behavior and juvenile court information. The sample has also been automated.

The JFS 01701 "Individual Child Care Agreement Amendment" sets forth a template for counties to use to amend information contained in the ICCA. This form was created to alleviate the need for a new ICCA when there are changes to the original ICCA.

The JFS 01702 "Invoice" sets forth an invoicing template for counties to use for placement services. Changes to the sample invoice include updating invoicing procedures to mirror those set forth in OAC rule 5101:2-47-23.1 and automating the document.

The JFS 01703 "Contract for Title IV-E Agencies and Providers for the Provision of Child Placement and Related Services" sets forth a template for counties to use for the provision of child placement and related services. Changes to the sample include the removal of references to rescinded rules, the clarification of provider and agency responsibilities, and revisions to invoicing requirements. Language was clarified throughout.

This letter transmits revisions to Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-1-01 Children Services Definition of Terms. These changes will become effective on January 1, 2007.

This new rule is substantially the same as the rule it is replacing. This rule was reviewed pursuant to the requirements for the Five Year Review and it was determined that the structure of the rule needed to be changed before other content amendments are made. Although the majority of the changes at this time are for structural purposes, changes were made to the definitions of the following: "Adoption Assistance"; "Assessor"; "Professional treatment staff"; and "Treatment team leader".

The following terms were added: "Commencement/Initiation of a Homestudy"; "Dissolution"; "Initiation/Commencement of a Homestudy"; "Matching Conference"; "Multiple Child Assessment"; "Pre-Adoptive Staffing"; and "Relevant Information". These terms were all added as a result of Substitute Senate Bill 238 of the 126th General Assembly.

The definition of "Adoption Assistance" was amended because the rules for that program have been revised and transferred from Chapter 5101:2-47 to Chapter 5101:2-49 which is referenced in the current definition.

The definition of the "Assessor" was amended to replace "education programs" with "training". This change is a result of Substitute Senate Bill 238 of the 126th General Assembly.

The definitions of "Professional treatment staff" and "Treatment team leader" are amended to include "contractors" as employees.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director
SUBJECT: Revisions to Children Services Licensing Rules in OAC Chapters 5101:2-5, 5101:2-7 and 5101:2-9 to Clarify Policy

This letter transmits amended Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules governing children services licensing in OAC Chapters 5101:2-5, 5101:2-7 and 5101:2-9 that are being made as a result of a policy clarification process in order to clarify existing rule content. These changes are effective December 11, 2006.

OAC 5101:2-5-02 Application for an agency to perform specific functions; amended applications. Adds a new paragraph (B) to clarify how ODJFS will treat a local public entity that is not a PCSA for the purposes of compliance with ODJFS certification. This new language codifies a long standing practice of ODJFS to treat such entities in the same manner as a private noncustodial agency with a few exceptions. Generally, a local public entity that is not a PCSA would be a court-operated facility or program. Clarifying amendments are made to paragraphs (C), (D), (E), (K), (L), (M) and (O). A new paragraph (P) specifies when an amended application is required. A new paragraph (Q) prohibits an agency to operate any function that requires certification by ODJFS without proper certification including an office or residential facility that is not listed on the most current JFS 01290 "Application for Certification of Agency Functions" on file. A new paragraph (R) requires an agency to post their certificate to operate in a prominent place for viewing by visitors. A new paragraph (S) would prohibit an agency from expanding a temporarily certified function, or expanding to operate a new function when another function is under temporary certification and expands regulations concerning amending the application.

OAC 5101:2-5-04 Recertification of an agency to perform specific functions. Changes in the second and third paragraphs of paragraph (B) clarify when an independent audit is to be completed according to government auditing standards and is to be submitted to ODJFS, and clarifies that this requirement does not apply to a PCSA or to a local public entity that is not a PCSA. Other non-substantive technical changes are made throughout the rule.

OAC 5101:2-5-07 Denial or revocation of an agency's certificate or certification to perform specific functions. Clarifying amendment to paragraph (A)(4). A change in paragraph (E) would prohibit an agency whose operating certificate has been denied or revoked, and those parties identified as principals, from eligibility for any ODJFS children services license or certification for a 5 year period. A new paragraph (F) has been added regarding issues surrounding the issuance of a temporary certificate to an agency by ODJFS. A temporary certificate will not be issued for an initial certification and the certificate will be effective for less than one year. The rule also specifies that the word "Temporary" will appear on the certificate in contrasting color.

OAC 5101:2-5-08 PCPA and PNA governance and administration. Changes in (A) to clarify how a local public entity that is not a PCSA is to satisfy the requirements of this rule.

OAC 5101:2-5-13 Required agency policies, plans and procedures. Changes to title; changes in (A)(3) to conform with MEPA requirements; clarifying amendments to paragraphs (A)(38), (39) and (40).

OAC 5101:2-5-16 Consideration to be given to child's religion. Changes to title, and (A) to conform with MEPA; clarifying language is added to paragraph (B) regarding the practice of religion.

OAC 5101:2-5-20 Initial Application for child placement. Language added to paragraph (B) clarifies that an applicant wishing to become a foster caregiver must be a legal resident of the United States. A change in paragraph (F) sets an 18 month maximum time frame for preplacement training prior to recommending a foster home for certification. Other minor clarifying changes are made throughout the rule. A change in paragraph (H) eliminates the use of the JFS 01349 "Family Home Study" to initiate homestudies effective January 1, 2007.
OAC 5101:2-5-21 Agency assessment of an initial application for a foster home certificate. A change is made in paragraph (A) to conform with MEPA requirements; changes throughout the rule would eliminate the use of the JFS 01349. All homestudies will now be required to be completed using the JFS 01673 "Assessment for Child Placement". A change in paragraph (E) requires a foster home homestudy to be completed within 180 days of the date the agency received the application, which is the same time frame required for adoptive homestudies. New paragraphs (K) (L) (M) and (N), are added to clarify and avoid conflicts of interest when a person seeking to become a foster caregiver is an employee or board member of an agency.

OAC 5101:2-5-25 Phase-in period for specialized foster homes: Changing the certification of a foster caregiver from one type of foster home to another. Rule title changed to reflect end of phase-in period for specialized foster homes; a change in paragraph (A) clarifies that children placed on or prior to March 31, 2005 may remain in current placements; (B) eliminated to reflect end of phase-in period for specialized foster homes; outdated language is removed from paragraph (E)(8).

OAC 5101:2-5-31 Sharing or transfer of a foster home. Due to the enactment of HB 332 in 2000, ODJFS now reimburses agencies providing foster care and the Ohio Child Welfare Training Program for the cost of providing foster caregiver training and paying stipends to foster caregivers for obtaining the training required by ODJFS rules. This new funding stream merits reconsideration of the policy that has allowed local agencies to determine whether foster caregivers should be allowed to transfer their certificate from one agency to another. The new policy proposed here would allow a limited portability of a foster care certificate and put the onus of the decision of whether to accept a transfer of a foster caregiver on the receiving agency, but only after the receiving agency has all the facts with which to make an informed decision about the transfer.

OAC 5101:2-5-40 Preplacement and continuing training programs. The rule sets forth changes to make the rule applicable to prospective foster caregivers.

OAC 5101:2-7-10 Care of a foster child under age two. Language was added to this rule to allow an agency to approve a foster caregiver to allow a child under the age of two to sleep in a toddler bed or standard bed if the child is posing a danger to himself by climbing out of the crib.

OAC 5101:2-7-13 Foster home certificate. Language was added to include the department of alcohol and drug addiction as an entity with which a foster caregiver can not be licensed/certified and still be a foster caregiver. Added paragraph (G) to require transfers of a foster home certificate to be in compliance with rule 5101:2-5-31 of the OAC.

OAC 5101:2-9-28 Bedrooms. Corrected a typographical error in paragraph (H). No other changes.

OAC 5101:2-9-36 Additional requirements for children's crisis care facilities. The rule sets forth licensing requirements for children's crisis care facilities. This is a new rule.

JFS 01290 "Application for Certification of Agency Functions". Signature page moved to page one. Added Crisis Care facility as a type of facility to the form as a result of SB 238. Clarifications to section VII. There is a new section VIII.

This letter transmits changes to Ohio Administrative Code rules in Chapter 5101:2-48 and to rules 5101:2-33-11 and 5101:2-33-13. All revised, rescinded and filed new rules contain language that has been added or changed to provide clarity to the rules and includes the date forms referenced in the rules were created or revised. The changes are a result of Sub. Senate Bill 238 of the 126th General Assembly and the Multiethnic Placement Act as amended by Section 1808 of the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996, requirements. These rules will be effective on December 11, 2006.

A brief explanation of the changes appears below:

OAC rule 5101:2-33-11 entitled Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA) agency administrative requirements. This rule sets forth the requirements of the PCSAs and PCPAs to designate a MEPA monitor, and the PNAs to refer cases to the child's custodial agency for assessment when race, color, or national origin (RCNO) may be a factor in the placement decision. This rule also requires PCSAs, PCPAs, and PNAs to complete the JFS 01668 "MEPA Biennial Comprehensive Self-Assessment Report" and develop written standards of conduct that will govern the performance of employees and contractors. The rule also states that no PCSA, PCPA, or PNA shall require workers to justify a proposed placement based on RCNO of the child or foster caregiver/adoptive family involved. This rule has been amended to include the revision dates of the ODJFS forms referenced.

This rule has been amended to identify the review period for the PCSAs, PCPAs and PNAs when completing the JFS 01668. The rule was also amended to clarify that the PCSA and PCPA MEPA monitors shall review and monitor foster care and adoptive placement decisions when the current JFS 01688 "Individualized Child Assessment" is in effect. In addition, PCSAs and PCPAs will be required to collect aggregate data using the JFS 01420 "Multiethnic Placement Act Corrective Action and Resolution Plan Data Collection Requirements" on children being accepted or rejected by families for which they were matched for adoptive placement, and time frames for reporting that data.

OAC rule 5101:2-33-13 entitled Adoption administrative falsification procedures. This rule is being filed as new and it outlines the procedures the agency shall follow when an applicant(s) knowingly makes a false statement during the application or homestudy processes.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-03 entitled Requirement of social and medical history. This rule has been amended to ensure that the most current version of forms referenced in the rule are being used, if applicable.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-05 entitled Agency adoption policy and recruitment plan. This rule requires public children services agencies (PCSAs), private child placing agencies (PCPAs), and the private non-custodial agencies (PNAs) operating an adoption program to include the following information in their adoption policy: non-discrimination requirements for foster care and adoptive placements, a procedure to provide access to approved homestudies and related documents, a procedure for maintaining approved homestudies received from other agencies in the same manner that other adoptive homestudies that were approved by the receiving agency, statements of assurance indicating the agency will comply with the provisions of the Adoption and Safe Families Act of 1997, the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, the Multiethnic Placement Act as amended by Section 1808 of the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996, and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

This rule also requires agencies to submit annual recruitment plans May first of each year and to establish a complaint process pursuant to Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-33-03 and standards of conduct pursuant to OAC rule 5101:2-33-11.
This rule has been amended to include additional criteria for matching adoptive parents to available children, to include language that agencies will be notified within sixty days when their adoption and recruitment policies are found to be in compliance.

In addition, this rule is amended to require agencies to include procedures for:

- Reporting when an applicant in the homestudy process falsifies information;
- Searching the statewide automated child welfare information system when the system becomes available;
- Conducting multiple children/large family assessments;
- Notifying PCSAs of impending adoptive placements;
- Notifying PCSAs of the initiation of a homestudy; and
- County agency reviews.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-06 entitled Agency adoption staffing. This rule sets forth the requirements of an assessor and for completion of Tier 1 and Tier 2 training. This rule has been amended to revise the requirements for a new assessor to complete Tier 1 within one year of the date the individual started Tier 1 training sessions instead of completing Tier 1 from the date of hire, to add ongoing training requirements for assessors after the completion of Tier 2, and to indicate that as of July 1, 2009, an individual supervising a student must be an assessor, to indicate that a copy of the JFS 01680 "Verification of Assessor Qualifications" will be provided to the assessor, and to indicate that the employing agency shall notify ODJFS when an assessor who is in their employ or under contract ends their employment/contract with the agency.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-09 entitled Application process and preservice training. This rule sets forth the requirements for the application process and the topics that must be covered in preservice training. This rule has been amended to include the procedures for reporting when an applicant falsifies information contained in the application.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-11 entitled Approval of a foster home for adoptive placement. This rule outlines the process and procedures when a foster caregiver(s) who has not been approved through the joint homestudy process is interested in being approved as an adoptive parent(s). This rule has been amended to include use of the JFS 01673-A "Child Characteristics Checklist for Foster Care and/or Adoption" and the JFS 01530 "Multiple Children/Large Family Assessment," as applicable. The amendments also incorporate the course of actions that shall be taken by an assessor when an applicant knowingly falsifies information during the homestudy process and the process to conduct a search of the Central Registry and the statewide automated child welfare information system.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-11.1 entitled Foster caregiver adoption of a foster child who has resided with the caregiver for at least twelve consecutive months. This rule sets forth the procedures for conducting a foster caregiver homestudy when a foster caregiver expresses interest in adopting a child who has been in the foster caregiver's home for at least twelve consecutive months. This rule is being amended to include use of the JFS 01673-A "Child Characteristics Checklist for Foster Care and/or Adoption" and the JFS 01530, "Multiple Children/Large Family Assessment," as applicable. The amendments also incorporate the course of actions that shall be taken by an assessor when an applicant knowingly falsifies information during the homestudy process and the process to conduct a search of the Central Registry and the statewide automated child welfare information system.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-12 entitled Completion of the homestudy report. This rule sets forth the requirements for the completion of adoption homestudies for special needs and non-special needs children by PCSAs, PCPAs, and PNs. This rule specifies that agencies are prohibited from using race, color or national origin (RCNO) in making adoptive placements and prohibited from approving or disapproving a family's homestudy based upon an applicant's disability. In addition, timeframes are required for commencing and completing homestudies and agencies are required to provide written documentation when those timeframes are not met. This rule requires agencies to provide a detailed explanation of the reason for denial of a homestudy by explaining all of the reasons upon which the denial was based and requires use of the JFS 01609 "Family Permanency Planning Data Summary." This rule has been amended to include use of the JFS 01673-A "Child Characteristics Checklist for Foster Care and/or Adoption," and the JFS 01530, "Multiple Children/Large Family Assessment", as applicable. The amendments also incorporate the course of actions that shall be taken by an assessor when an applicant knowingly falsifies information during the homestudy process and the process to conduct a search of the Central Registry and the statewide automated child welfare information system.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-12.1 entitled Completion of homestudy updates and amendments. This new rule is being proposed to outline the procedures the agency shall follow when updating or amending an adoption homestudy. In addition, the rule revises the dates that an update should be completed to every two years after the initial approval. The rule introduces the term "amendment" and indicates when amendments to the homestudy should be completed.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-13 entitled Non-discrimination requirements for adoptive placements. This rule outlines the policy on non-discrimination in the adoptive placement process. The rule includes requirements for handling certain negative comments made by a prospective adoptive family member living in the household or any other person living in the household reflecting a negative perspective regarding the RCNO of a child for whom the family has expressed an interest in adopting. Licensed professionals completing the JFS 01688 "Individualized Child Assessment" must receive the JFS 01607 "MEPA Educational Materials" pertaining to federal legislation and the opportunity to receive technical assistance regarding those materials prior to conducting such assessments and the JFS 01688 remains in effect for one year from the date it was signed by the custodial agency. This rule includes language that prohibits intimidation or retaliation against any person who has filed any oral or written complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in the investigation of any alleged violation of federal statutes prohibiting discrimination based upon race, color, or national origin. This rule has been amended to clarify the process when a child over twelve years of age does not consent to an adoption. Also, this rule specifies that agencies are required to document any verbal comments regarding RCNO made by any member of the adoptive family household and states that the matching committee shall consider this information to determine whether it will impact the placement. In addition, this rule includes language to indicate that the JFS 01608 be maintained by the agency and attached to each JFS 01688.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-16 entitled Pre-adoptive staffing, matching and placement procedures. Due to the reorganization of the sections of this rule and the new language that is being incorporated, this rule is being filed as new. This rule outlines the matching process and requires a pre-adoptive staffing within forty-five days after the execution of the permanent surrender or of the file stamp date of the permanent custody order of a child. This rule also requires custodial agencies to invite certain individuals to pre-adoptive staffings and matching conferences and specifies that matching conferences must occur every ninety days for all children in permanent custody who have not been matched with a family. This rule requires documentation pertaining to the pre-adoptive staffing be completed on the new JFS 01690 "Documentation of the Pre-adoptive Staffing and Updates." This rule requires that an assessor be assigned to a case within forty-five days from execution of the permanent surrender or of the file stamp date of the permanent custody order and requires agencies to develop written procedures on the structured decision making process to select the most appropriate family to be matched with the child and to address how all families accepting of the child's characteristics shall be considered by the agency to be presented in the matching conference. In addition, this rule requires and strengthens the use of the JFS 01689 "Documentation of the Placement Decision-Making Process" and requires the use of the JFS 01609 "Family Permanency Planning Data Summary" and the JFS 01610 "Child's Permanency Planning Data Summary." This rule has been amended to include use of the JFS 01673-A "Child Characteristics Checklist for Foster Care and/or Adoption." This rule clarifies that the previous caseworker is invited to the first matching conference only and adds the MEPA monitor as an individual who must be invited to the matching conference. Also, this rule requires that matching conferences be held prior to placement of a child and outlines when subsequent matching conferences are not required. Language has been added that requires agencies to search for potential families in the statewide automated child welfare information system when no families have been identified for the child at any matching conference after the initial conference. Agencies must also consider the multiple child assessment during the pre-adoptive staffing and the matching conference, if applicable.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-17 entitled Prefinalization services. This rule is rescinded and filed new to state the visitation requirements regarding time frames for face to face contact with adoptive parent(s), child, adult children not residing in the adoptive parent(s) home and other member(s) of the adoptive parent(s) home. This rule also contains procedures for sharing of relevant information and evaluation of the progress of the adoptive placement. This rule also excludes stepparent(s).

OAC rule 5101:2-48-19 entitled Soliciting and releasing adoptive homestudies and related material for consideration of placement. This rule outlines the policy on releasing an approved homestudy. This rule has been amended to indicate the procedures that must be followed if it is determined the homestudy contains knowingly false information.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-22 entitled Adoptive family case record. This rule states the type of documentation that must be filed in the adoptive family case record. This rule has been amended to include the JFS 01530, Multiple Children/Large Family Assessment”.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-23 entitled Preservation of adoptive child case record. This rule states the type of documentation that must be filed in the adoptive child case record. This rule has been amended to ensure that the most current version of forms referenced in the rule is being used, if applicable.

OAC rule 5101:2-48-24 entitled Agency adoption review procedures. This rule clarifies procedures to be used for the PCSA, PCPA and PNA adoption agency review process. This rule has been amended to outline the procedures for applicant(s) or other household members who knowingly make false statements on the child placement application or during the homestudy process.

A brief explanation of each form change appears below:

Please note these forms will be available online at http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inter.asp (ODJFS internet) or at http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inner.asp (ODJFS innerweb). These are agency reproduced forms.

JFS 01331 "Notice of Expiration and Reappplication for a Foster Home Certificate or Adoption Homestudy Update/Amendment". This form has been revised to include the notification for adoptive applicants.

JFS 01385 "Ohio Department of Job and Family Services Assessment for Child Placement Update". This form has been revised only to meet the ODJFS standards for formatting of forms.

JFS 01530 "Multiple Children/Large Family Assessment" This is a new form which is completed when an applicant(s) applies to adopt and will have five or more children reside in the home when the child is placed for adoption.

JFS 01673-A."Ohio Department of Job and Family Services Child Characteristics Checklist for Foster Care and/or Adoption". This form has been revised to add the statement which indicates a person seeking to provide foster care or to adopt a minor who knowingly makes a false statement that is included in the written report of a home study conducted pursuant to Section 3107.02 or Section 5103.03 of the Revised Code is guilty of the offense of falsification under Section 2921.13 of the Revised Code. A home study with a knowingly false statement shall not be filed with the court and if filed may be struck from the court's records.

JFS 01680 "Verification of Assessor Qualifications". This form has been revised to capture the revised requirements for documenting when Tier 1 is completed, to document the completing of the additional six hours of training required every two years after Tier 2 is completed and to allow for an assessor to indicate when he/she is no longer qualified to be an assessor.

JFS 01688 "Individualized Child Assessment Form". This form is completed when documentation in the file indicates that there may be compelling reasons to consider needs a child may have regarding RCNO as a factor in a foster or adoptive placement. This form has been revised to require the child's custodial agency to include a description of the compelling reasons documented in the case file that led the agency to request an Individualized Child Assessment.

JFS 01689 "Documentation of the Placement Decision-Making Process". This form is completed for each child or sibling group who are being considered to be matched for placement in the same adoptive family. The section regarding "pre-adoptive staffing" has been removed from this form and made into a separate form.

JFS 01690 "Documentation of the Pre-adoptive Staffing and Updates." This is a new form that must be completed at the pre-adoptive staffing and 30 days prior to each of the required 90 day matching conferences. This form was previously part of the JFS 01689 and was removed in order that it may be updated separately.

JFS 01691 "Application for Child Placement". This form has been revised to add the statement which indicates a person seeking to provide foster care or to adopt a minor who knowingly makes a false statement that is included in the written report of a home study conducted pursuant to Section 3107.02 or Section 5103.03 of the Revised Code is guilty of the offense of falsification under Section 2921.13 of the Revised Code. A home study with a knowingly false statement shall not be filed with the court and if filed may be struck from the court's records.

JFS 01692 "Application for Adoption of a Foster Child". This form has been revised to add the statement which indicates a person seeking to provide foster care or to adopt a minor who knowingly makes a false statement that is included in the written report of a home study conducted pursuant to Section 3107.02 or Section 5103.03 of the Revised Code is guilty of the offense of falsification under Section 2921.13 of the Revised Code. A home study with a knowingly false statement shall not be filed with the court and if filed may be struck from the court's records.

JFS 01699 "Prefinalization Adoption Assessment Report." This form is used to provide an assessment to the court on how an adoption placement is progressing. Currently, the "Marital Status" section of this form asks whether or not the adoptive parents are legal residents and U.S. citizens and this question is answered for the adoptive parents as a whole. This form has been revised to allow that this question be answered for "Parent #1" and "Parent #2" individually in the event that one of the parents is a legal resident and the other is not. Additional revisions include adding space to list out contacts with the adoptive parents and the child during the placement period.

The new rule was developed as a result of an amendment to section 5101.72 (B) of the Ohio Revised Code. The rule will require that each county department of job and family services or their designee collect and submit data to the Ohio department of job and family services on information pertaining to adult protective services.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director

This letter transmits revisions to the Agreed Upon Procedures contained in Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-47-26.2. These revisions will be presented to CPAs in upcoming regional training sessions. The changes are effective August 4, 2006.

An explanation of the rule and appendix revisions appears below:

OAC 5101:2-47-26.2 Cost Report Agreed Upon Procedure engagement rule sets forth the requirement for an annual audit of cost reports completed by public children service agencies, Title IV-E agencies, private child placing agencies (PCPA), and private non-custodial agencies (PNA). The only change to the rule was to update the revision date of the JFS02911I Single Cost Report Instructions to be used in completing the cost report. Changes to the JFS02911 Single Cost Report will be presented in a separate clearance.

Appendix A of rule 5101:2-47-26.2 sets forth the procedures to be performed by CPAs to verify the accuracy of costs reported by private agencies. Changes to the Agreed Upon Procedures include the addition and clarification of steps to be performed during the engagement.

This letter transmits OAC rules and forms governing the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) process that are being amended as a result of the five year rule review process. Following is a brief explanation of each proposed change.

OAC 5101:2-52-02 entitled General requirements applicable to interstate placements of children sets forth the overall requirements that apply to all ICPC requests. With the rescission of OAC rule 5101:2-42-23, a paragraph on the requirements for foreign-born children proposed for adoptive placement into Ohio by a U.S. adoption agency, has been put into this rule. The title of this rule was changed to better reflect the contents of the rule. This rule will replace OAC rule 5101:2-42-20.

OAC 5101:2-52-04 entitled Requirements applicable to interstate placement of children when an Ohio PCSA, PCPA or court is the sending agency sets forth the requirements that are required when a PCSA, PCPA or court is placing a child into another state or territory. This rule specifically outlines all requirements of the PCSA, PCPA or court sending procedures. Priority Placements, which are Regulation 7’s with the Compact, were added to this rule. The title of this rule was also changed to better reflect the contents of the rule. This rule will replace parts of OAC rule 5101:2-42-20 and OAC rule 5101:2-42-21.

OAC 5101:2-52-06 entitled Requirements applicable to interstate placement of children when the PCSA, PCPA, or PNA is the receiving agency sets forth the requirements that are required when another state or territory places a child into Ohio. This rule specifically outlines all requirements of the PCSA, PCPA or PNA receiving procedures. In addition, Priority Placements, which are Regulation 7’s with the Compact, were added to this rule. The title of this rule was also changed to better reflect the contents of the rule. This rule will replace parts of OAC rule 5101:2-42-20 and of OAC rule 5101:2-42-21.

OAC 5101:2-52-08 entitled Interstate placement requirements for parents or legal guardians in Ohio when placing their child into another state or territory sets forth the requirements when parents or legal guardians independently place their child into another state or territory. This new title of this rule accurately describes the purpose of the rule. This rule will replace OAC rule 5101:2-42-22.

OAC 5101:2-42-64 entitled Preplacement services sets forth the requirements that the PCSA or PCPA shall provide or arrange preplacement services to the child and his parent, guardian, or custodian when substitute care placement of the child is to occur. This rule is being proposed for amendment to change the reference to the ICPC rule from the old chapter to the new chapter.

JFS 01660 "Guaranty Regarding Placing a Child into the State of Ohio" is the written notification of Ohio's intention to make an interstate placement and request for a homestudy with a state or territory that is not part of the Interstate Compact. This form has been updated to a JFS form instead of a DHS form and also has formatting changes made.

JFS 01661 "Interstate Compact Placement Request (ICPC 100A)" is the formal written notice to the receiving state of Ohio's intention to make an interstate placement and a request for a homestudy. This form has been updated by changing the ODJFS address, adding a financial status section, and adding monthly as a choice under the supervisory reports section.

JFS 01661I "Instructions for Completing JFS 01661 Interstate Compact Placement Request" provides a narrative on how to fill out the JFS 01661. This form has been updated to a JFS form instead of a DHS form.

JFS 01662 "Interstate Compact Report on Child's Placement Status (ICPC 100B)" is used to inform a state or territory that a placement has been made or a placement has discontinued. This form has been updated to a JFS form instead of a DHS form and also has formatting changes made.
JFS 01663 "Sending State's Priority Home Study Request (ICPC 101)" is a newly developed form that is used when a court has ordered priority placement of a child with a parent or relative.

JFS 01674 "Statement of Assurance" is used by the courts, PCPA or parent/legal guardian to show who has financial responsibility of a child for whom a placement request has been made. This form has been updated by changing all of the Ohio Department of Human Services statements to Ohio Department of Job and Family Services statements.

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 179
April 6, 2006

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director

This letter transmits Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules regarding Children's Protective Services which have been changed as a result of the five year rule review process. These rules will become effective on April 17, 2006.

A brief explanation of the changes appears below:

Rule 5101:2-33-04, entitled PCSA grievance review policy, requires that the public children services agency (PCSA) establish a practice to receive and process grievances from the population served and sets forth the procedures for PCSAs to conduct the grievance review hearings. Changes to the rule include: requirements for notifying the alleged perpetrator of his/her right to appeal, time frame for the PCSA grievance review, and who can conduct the review hearings. Some punctuation changes were made and the acronym, PCSA, was defined.

Rule 5101:2-33-26 entitled, The county child abuse and neglect memorandum of understanding, is replacing rule 5101:2-34-71 The child abuse and neglect memorandum of understanding. This rule requires that PCSAs have a county child abuse and neglect memorandum of understanding pursuant to section 2151.421 of the Revised Code. The new rule is substantially the same as the rule that it is replacing. Changes include the addition of two entities that must sign the memorandum, the county humane society and in accordance with Senate Bill 66 of the 125th General Assembly, Children's Advocacy Centers, if appropriate. There is also a new requirement that the PCSAs submit copies of the memorandums to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services. Each PCSA must submit a copy of it's current memorandum of understanding to it's respective ODJFS field office by July 14, 2006.

Rule 5101:2-34-06 entitled, Screening child abuse and neglect reports, sets forth the requirements for PCSAs for intake and screening child abuse and neglect referrals. Changes to the rule include defining the acronym, PCSA. Punctuation corrections were made.

Rule 5101:2-34-33 entitled, PCSA requirements for conducting intra-familial child abuse and neglect family assessments, sets forth the requirements for the PCSA to complete a risk assessment in response to allegations of child abuse or neglect. The rule outlines the risk elements to be assessed. This rule did not undergo substantive changes. The acronym, PCSA, was defined and language was added to reference the current form and revision date. Punctuation corrections were made.

Rule 5101:2-34-34 entitled, PCSA requirements for conducting out of home care and third party investigations, sets forth the procedures for the PCSA to follow when conducting an out-of-home care or a third party investigation in response to a child abuse and/or neglect report. The rule was reviewed but no substantive changes were made. The acronyms, ODJFS and PCSA, were defined and punctuation corrections were made.

Rule 5101:2-34-35 entitled, PCSA requirements for cross-referring reports of child abuse and neglect, outlines the requirements for the PCSA to cross-refer reports of child abuse and neglect. New language was added in paragraph (C) to comply with the requirements of section 2151.426 of the Revised Code authorizing counties to establish advocacy centers to perform functions, activities, and provide services regarding certain types of abuse of a child.

Rule 5101:2-34-36 entitled, PCSA requirements for conducting out of home perpetrator investigations and alleged child victims assessments sets forth the requirements for PCSAs to conduct an investigation when an alleged criminal act of assault or sexual activity against a child has occurred when the perpetrator is a stranger. Changes to the rule include defining the acronym, PCSA. Punctuation corrections were made.
Rule 5101:2-34-37 entitled, PCSA requirements for completing the "Family Risk Assessment Model: Safety Plan for Children," outlines the procedures for implementing a safety plan (JFS 01510). It provides guidance to the PCSA regarding when a safety plan should be completed, what should be assessed to determine the degree of intervention, and who should sign the safety plan. It also includes involvement of families in safety planning, development of the least restrictive and disruptive safety strategies, and methods for monitoring the safety plan. Formatting changes were made to this rule.

Rule 5101:2-34-38 entitled, Confidentiality and dissemination of information relating to child abuse or neglect establishes that each report and investigation of alleged child abuse or neglect is confidential and may be shared only when dissemination is authorized by this rule. New language was added to comply with Senate Bill 66. The addition of child advocacy centers was added under the entities to which the PCSA can release confidential information. Additionally, the requirement that a PCSA release information to a county department of job and family services (CDJFS) regarding applicants seeking licensure or renewal as a type A family day-care home or certification or recertification as a type B family day care home. Lastly, the rule outlines what information cannot be released to the CDJFS.

Rule 5101:2-34-38.1, entitled Access/confidentiality of information contained in child abuse and neglect central registry addresses the release of central registry information. The rule provides guidance to PCSAs as to when the release of confidential information is appropriate and allowable per the requirements outlined in the body of the rule. Acronyms were defined and punctuation corrections were made. There were no substantive changes made to this rule.

Rule 5101:2-35-16 entitled, Submittal of central registry reports on child abuse or neglect, outlines what information a PCSA shall submit to the central registry within twenty-four hours or the next working day from the date the report was received. There were no substantive changes to this rule. The acronyms, ODJFS and PCSA, were defined and corrections to punctuation were made.

Rule 5101:2-35-19, entitled Expunction of identifying information, outlines the process and timeframes for expunging reports meeting the criteria listed in the rule. There were no substantive changes to this rule. Acronyms were defined and punctuation corrections were made.

Rule 5101:2-35-62, entitled Interstate referral procedures for children's protective services, sets forth the requirements for the public children services agency to notify and receive notification that a child residing in another state, or from another state, and residing in Ohio is in need of protective or supportive services. Rule revisions include minor grammar changes.

Rule 5101:2-35-67, entitled Protective service alerts, sets forth the requirements for the PCSA to notify other county public children services agencies, and states, of the suspicion that a family has moved outside of the county or state and their whereabouts are unknown. Rule revisions include minor grammar and form number changes. The JFS 01440 "Children's Protective Service Alert" has been updated.

Rule 5101:2-35-77, entitled Procedures for intervening in cases involving alleged withholding of appropriate nutrition, hydration, medication, or medically indicated treatment from disabled infants with life-threatening conditions, sets forth the requirements of the PCSAs to intervene in cases of withholding medically indicated treatment from disabled infants with life-threatening conditions. Paragraph (D)(3) has been added to allow PCSAs to pursue any legal remedies necessary to prevent the withholding of medically indicated treatment from the disabled infant with life-threatening conditions.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director
SUBJECT: Implementation of the Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - Interim Solution and SACWIS

This letter transmits the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules and forms which have been developed for implementation of the Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - Interim Solution (CAPMIS) and the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS). These rules will be effective on March 1, 2006, but in accordance with OAC 5101:2-33-99, the rules will not become effective for individual public children services agencies (PCSAs) until the time that the PCSA implements SACWIS unless the agency decides to implement CAPMIS after receiving training, prior to SACWIS implementation.

CAPMIS is a structured process to support and document critical decisions involving children and their families. The development of a safety assessment protocol was to assist Ohio in complying with the safety requirements of the Adoption and Safe Families Act of 1997 (ASFA) and to provide PCSA staff with a system to assist them in the determination of child safety. The family assessment, which contains an actuarial risk assessment, assists workers in determining the scope and types of services and interventions needed to resolve safety threats and reduce risk within a family. The case review is a review process which assists workers to re-evaluate safety, risk, and a family's strengths and needs and review the degree to which services have led to desired case outcomes so that decisions regarding the status of the case can be made. The reunification assessment helps workers make decisions of whether, when, and how to reunite children with their families.

CAPMIS is the assessment system which has been built into SACWIS. Each PCSA will have the opportunity to be trained on CAPMIS prior to roll out of SACWIS in their agency. Once an agency has been trained in CAPMIS, the agency may implement CAPMIS policies, procedures, and hard-copy tools prior to that agency's roll-out of SACWIS. Otherwise, an agency will begin utilization of CAPMIS at the time SACWIS is implemented in the agency.

As part of these rule revisions, chapters of the OAC and the rules associated with each chapter were reorganized. Rules have been placed into chapters associated with the topic of the rule. For example, all rules associated with assessment/investigations are in Chapter 5101:2-36 and all procedures and protocols associated with assessment tools (e.g., Safety Assessment or Family Assessment) are in Chapter 5101:2-37.

These rules outline the policies and procedures for screening in intakes, for completing CAPMIS tools, and for implementing SACWIS. The following list summarizes the content and revisions for each OAC rule:

Rule 5101:2-33-20, entitled PCSA grievance review hearing policies, requires that the PCSAs establish a practice to receive and process grievances from the population served and sets forth the procedures for PCSAs to conduct the grievance review hearings. This rule will be replacing 5101:2-33-04 for PCSAs that are implementing CAPMIS. It is substantially the same as the rule it is replacing. A new paragraph (E) requires the PCSAs to update the statewide automated child welfare database.

Rule 5101:2-33-21, entitled Confidentiality and dissemination of information relating to child abuse or neglect, sets forth the criteria and procedures for the PCSAs to release and provide information regarding substantiated cases of abuse and neglect to identified persons. This rule will be replacing rule 5101:2-34-38 for PCSAs that are implementing CAPMIS. It is substantially the same as the rule it is replacing. Additional persons and entities have been identified for the purpose of instructing the PCSA to whom the PCSA may release information. More specificity has also been added to clarify the type of information a PCSA may not release.

Rule 5101:2-33-22, entitled Access/confidentiality of information contained in the statewide automated child welfare database, sets forth the criteria and procedures for PCSAs and children services agencies (CSAs) to request and receive information regarding a report of child abuse or neglect housed within the statewide automated child welfare database. This rule will be replacing rule 5101:2-34-38.1 for PCSAs that are implementing CAPMIS. Changes include replacing the central registry with the statewide automated child welfare database, allowing PCSAs to now access the statewide automated child welfare database, and making them responsible for providing children services agencies with the information prescribed in this rule. Also, all employees of the PCSAs are now required to sign a confidentiality form in order to access and release information from the statewide automated child welfare database. Procedures and guidelines are established regarding research projects and data analysis utilizing information housed within the statewide automated child welfare database. Instruction for individuals to request information from the central registry when they are the subject of a report of alleged child abuse and/or neglect has been removed.

Rule 5101:2-33-23, entitled Case records for children services, sets forth the requirements for PCSAs to prepare and maintain permanent case records and identifies the required information to be documented in the case record. This rule will be replacing 5101:2-39-02 for PCSAs that are implementing CAPMIS. It is substantially the same as the rule it is replacing.

Rule 5101:2-33-28, entitled Joint planning and sharing information among the PCSA and CDJFS, sets forth the procedures for PCSAs to share information and plan services with county departments of job and family services (CDJFS). Language incorporating the use of the CAPMIS tools has been included in this rule.

It contains the requirements for categorizing information received, screening information criteria, and requirements of recording screened out information. This rule will be replacing rule 5101:2-34-06 for PCSAs that are implementing CAPMIS.

Rule 5101:2-36-03, entitled PCSA requirements for intra-familial child abuse and/or neglect assessment/investigations, sets forth the procedures for conducting an intra-familial child abuse and/or neglect assessment/investigation. This rule will be replacing rule 5101:2-34-32 for PCSAs that are implementing CAPMIS. In addition to the requirements contained in the rule being replaced, this rule contains new requirements related to the interview of the alleged child victim without parental consent. Also, this rule specifies when the agency may request the assistance of law enforcement. Language incorporating the use of the CAPMIS tools has been incorporated throughout this rule.

Rule 5101:2-36-05, entitled PCSA requirements for conducting stranger danger investigations, sets forth the requirements for PCSAs to conduct an investigation when an alleged criminal act of assault or sexual activity against a child has occurred when the perpetrator is a stranger. This rule will be replacing rule 5101:2-34-36

The significant change is the title of the rule and the authority of the public children services agencies to pursue any legal remedies necessary to prevent withholding of medically indicated treatment to disabled infants with life threatening conditions as identified in paragraph (D)(3)of this rule.

A requirement that referrals of reports of child abuse to children's advocacy centers be made by PCSAs that have a memorandum of understanding with a children's advocacy center has been added.

Rule 5101:2-36-13, entitled Intrastate and interstate referral procedures for children's protective services, sets forth the requirements for PCSAs to notify and receive notification if a child who is residing in another state or is from another state, and residing in Ohio, is in need of protective or support services. This letter transmits information regarding revisions to the JFS 01452 "Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Application for Initial Eligibility" and JFS 01452A "Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Redetermination Form", and their instructions, which are used pursuant to OAC Chapter 5101:2-47 to determine eligibility for federal Title IV-E funds.

The JFS 01452 "Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Application for Initial Eligibility" is used to determine a child's initial program eligibility for foster care maintenance. The JFS 01452A "Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Redetermination Form" is used to determine a child's continued eligibility for foster care maintenance. These forms have been converted to Microsoft Excel. There have been no content changes to either form. There have been revisions to some of the cell formulas to make the automated forms easier to use. Since the forms are automated, they are not being included with this letter, but can be accessed at:

http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inter.asp

The revised instructions to both forms are included with this letter.

All agencies that have been converted to Windows XP should use the Microsoft Excel format. Previous Quattro Pro versions of the forms should only be used by agencies that cannot use the Microsoft Excel format.

For questions regarding this transmittal, please contact the Office for Children and Families Help Desk at (866) 886-3537 (Option 4) or via e-mail at help-desk-ocf@odjfs.state.oh.us.

SUBJECT: Revisions to the JFS 01668 "MEPA Biennial Comprehensive Self-Assessment Report"

This letter transmits a revised JFS 01668 "MEPA Biennial Comprehensive Self-Assessment Report". Federal laws and guidance pursuant to the Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994 (MEPA) and the Inter-Ethnic Adoption Provision of the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996 (Section 1808) (IEP) have been reviewed and the form has been revised and expanded to match the "Internal Evaluation Instrument" jointly disseminated on July 10, 2003 by the Office of Civil Rights and the Administration on Children, Youth and Families. These revisions will better assist agencies to maintain compliance with MEPA-IEP.

The revised form must be used for the report that is required to be submitted to the department by March 1, 2006, as specified in the Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-33-11 Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA) agency administrative requirements.

An explanation of the revisions to the JFS 01668 appears below:

The format has been changed to capture more information on the child and prospective adoptive parents pertinent to MEPA and Title VI requirements. This form is divided into seven different sections: Recruitment of Foster Caregivers and Adoptive Parents; Screening, Orientation, Preparation and Assessment of Prospective Foster Caregivers and Adoptive Parents; Foster Caregiver/Adoptive Parent and Staff Training; Licensing/approval of Foster caregivers and Adoptive Parents; Assessment of Foster and Adoptive Children; Selection Process and Placement of Foster and Adoptive Children; and Quality Assurance and Compliance Monitoring. It also references OAC rule 5101:2-33-11 and has been changed to include a signature page for staff responsible for completing and submitting the completed JFS 01668 to ODJFS. In addition, it now includes a federal website address which can be used as a reference when completing this form. The JFS 01668 contains more detailed questions and the form also now includes the date identifying when the completed JFS 01668 must be submitted to ODJFS.

The JFS 01668 will be available on line at: http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inter.asp

It will not be available in hardcopy from the ODJFS warehouse.

Four (4) public children services agencies (PCSAs) are participating in this pilot. These PCSAs are Greene County Children Services Board, Hancock County Department of Job and Family Services, Lorain County Children Services Board, and Muskingum County Children Services Board.

OAC Rule 5101:2-33-98, entitled Implementation of pilot protocols for public children services agencies participating in the "Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - Interim Solution" pilot program outlines the specific requirements deemed necessary for the effective administration of the CAPMIS pilot. Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules 5101:2-39-08, Requirements for PCSA case plan for in-home supportive services (no court order), and 5101:2-39-08.1, PCSA case plan for children in custody or under court-ordered protective supervision have been amended. These rules were amended in response to the Child and Family Services Review findings and have been addressed in the Program Improvement Plan. The amendments provide procedural requirements for agency worker contact with family members involved in case plan services. They have been amended as a five year review. The JFS 01443 "Child's Education and Health Information" has been updated to meet department format specifications and instructions were developed. These changes are effective September 19, 2005.

Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-39-08 details the requirements for PCSA case plan for in-home supportive services (no court order). The amendment adds the requirement for monthly face-to-face contact with each parent, guardian, or custodian, and child listed on the JFS 01444. Additionally, at least one contact every two months must be made in the child's home. The amendment requires that if the attempt to make face-to-face contact with each parent, guardian, or custodian, or, if applicable, pre-finalized adoptive parent listed on the JFS 01444 is unsuccessful, the PCSA shall make a minimum of two additional attempts of face-to-face contact within the calendar month. This amendment also clarifies the procedures for case closing. This rule replaces references to the ODJFS 01444 with JFS 01444 and clarifies language throughout.

Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-39-08.1 outlines requirements for the PCSA case plan for children in custody or under court-ordered protective supervision. The amendment requires that if the attempt to make face-to-face contact with each parent, guardian, or custodian, or, if applicable, pre-finalized adoptive parent listed on the JFS 01444 is unsuccessful, the PCSA shall make a minimum of two additional attempts of face-to-face contact within the calendar month. This amendment outlines procedures regarding suspension of agency home visits with the parent, guardian, or custodian of a child when conducting the visits presents a threat to the safety of the caseworker. It includes the criteria which must be addressed in the written justification, and requires the PCSA to complete monthly face-to-face visits in a location which assists in ensuring the safety of the caseworker. This amendment also clarifies the procedures for case closing. This rule replaces references to the ODJFS 01444 with JFS 01444 and clarifies language throughout.

SUBJECT: Revisions to JFS 01673 "Assessment for Child Placement (Homestudy)"

This letter transmits a revised JFS 01673 "Assessment for Child Placement (Homestudy)" and a revised JFS 01673I "JFS 01673 Instructions for Assessment Narrative". This letter also transmits a new JFS 01673-A "Child Characteristic Checklist for Foster Care and/or Adoption," which replaces the section of the home study that has been removed from the JFS 01673. Agencies should begin using these forms for all new applications received on or after September 6, 2005.

The "Child Characteristics Checklist" was separated from the JFS 01673 because it is completed by applicants, not the adoption assessor. Applicants must now specifically indicate whether they will or will not consider a child who has certain characteristics that are identified on the JFS 01673-A. The terms in the revised JFS 01673-A mirror the checklist data that will be contained in the upcoming Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS) and will assist in accurate matching of children with families.

The JFS 01673I "JFS 01673 Instructions for Assessment Summary Narrative" was revised to require agencies to specifically address any home education situations.

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 164

July 19, 2005

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director

SUBJECT: Revisions to Children Services Licensing Rules Due to the Enactment of HB 117 of the 125th General Assembly

This letter transmits eight amended Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules governing children services licensing that are being made as a result of the enactment of HB 117 of the 125th General Assembly. OAC 5101:2-5-38 will become effective August 1, 2005. The effective date for all other rules contained in this letter is August 22, 2005.

A brief explanation of the changes appears below:

OAC 5101:2-5-09: Personnel and prohibited convictions for employment. Paragraph (D) was deleted and a new paragraph (R) added to make it clear that this rule does not apply to foster caregivers. Non-substantive technical changes were made in several paragraphs. Changes in (J)(1) and the appendix add arson and aggravated arson to the list of prohibited crimes for employees of all agencies.

OAC 5101:2-5-11: Complaint handling. Clarifying language has been added to paragraph (A). New paragraphs (G) and (H) add language to notify agencies of the situations in which ODJFS may seek injunctive relief for operating without a certificate when one is required or to prevent an agency from receiving additional children into care or removing children from the agency's care when the life, health, or safety of one or more children in the care of the agency is at imminent risk but only if ODJFS has issued a proposed adjudication order pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to deny renewal of or revoke the agency's certificate.

OAC 5101:2-5-32: Occupancy limitations and accessibility. Changes were made in paragraph (B) and new paragraphs (C) and (D) were added to clarify when the number of foster children may exceed the statutory limit of five.

OAC 5101:2-5-33: Foster caregiver preplacement and continuing training. Continuing training topics are now suggested, not mandated; CPR and first aid training removed from preplacement training for pre-adoptive infant and family foster homes, but required during the first certification period or as soon as possible after a placement, if agency determines need; restraint training changes for preplacement and continuing training for specialized homes; surrogate parent training deleted and replaced by education advocacy; video trainings and training waivers clarified.

OAC 5101:2-5-38: Payment of foster caregiver training stipends; reimbursement of training allowances to recommending agencies. This rule has been revised to make it clear that a recommending agency is solely responsible for any foster caregiver stipend payment due if it exceeds the amount reimbursable to the recommending agency under section 5103.0314 of the Revised Code. Another change requires a recommending agency to defer the payment of stipend payments for preplacement training until the foster caregiver is certified. Additionally, continuing training is now conducted over the duration of the foster caregiver's two year certification period, rather than on an annual basis.

OAC 5101:2-5-40: Preplacement and continuing training programs. Continuing training topics are now suggested, not mandated; CPR and first aid training removed from preplacement training for pre-adoptive infant and family foster homes; restraint training changes for preplacement and continuing training for specialized homes; surrogate parent training deleted and replaced by a course in education advocacy; a PCPA, PNA or the Ohio child welfare training program may condition the enrollment of a foster caregiver in a training program based on availability of space in the training program or payment of an instruction or registration fee for the foster caregiver.

OAC 5101:2-7-16: Additional requirements for a treatment foster caregiver and a treatment foster home. Continuing training now on a certification period basis rather than annually. A reference to training waivers was added.
OAC 5101:2-7-17: Additional requirements for a medically fragile foster caregiver and a medically fragile foster home. Continuing training is now on a certification period basis rather than annually. A reference to training waivers was added.

This letter transmits changes to agency licensing, supportive services, substitute care, and adoption rules and forms. These changes reflect federal requirements to comply with a federal corrective action plan involving the Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994, 42 U.S.C. 622(b)(9), 671(a)(18), 674(d) and 1996(b) (hereinafter "MEPA") and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000d, et seq as it applies to the foster care and adoption process (hereinafter "Title VI"). These rules will become effective on February 1, 2005.

An explanation of each rule revision appears below:

OAC 5101:2-5-13 Required agency policies sets forth the required agency policies for public children services agencies (PCSAs), private child placing agencies (PCPAs) and private non-custodial agencies (PNAs). This rule is amended to add language requiring PCSAs, PCPAs and PNAs operating a foster care program to include in its foster care policy a copy of the JFS 01611 "Non-discrimination Requirements for Foster Care and Adoptive Placements." No additional language regarding non-discrimination in the foster care process based upon race, color, or national origin is permitted in the policy unless additional language is required pursuant to a federal court order and is approved by the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS). Agencies are also now required to include in the policy, information about the complaint process for complaints of alleged discriminatory acts, policies or practices in the foster care or adoption process that involve race, color or national origin (RCNO). The rule requires the agency to have written standards of conduct regarding non-discrimination in the foster care process. Agencies must now complete and submit to ODJFS an annual recruitment plan by May first of each year. The recruitment plan for the state fiscal year (SFY) 2006 is due by May 1, 2005. Whenever the recruitment plan is amended, agencies are required to submit the revised version to ODJFS within ten days following the recruitment plan change.

OAC 5101:2-5-21 Agency assessment of an initial application for a foster home certificate is amended to add language prohibiting discrimination against foster caregivers on the basis of national origin or disability. Language is also added regarding non-discriminatory practices pertaining to the RCNO of applicants who wish to become foster caregivers or the RCNO of a child for whom a prospective or certified foster caregiver has expressed an interest. The rule requires a timeframe by which the homestudy shall be commenced and completed and requires written documentation when the agency fails to meet the required timeframe. Prior to recommending initial certification of a foster home an agency must adhere to requirements outlined in this rule.

OAC 5101:2-33-03 Procedure for complaints of alleged discriminatory acts, policies or practices in the foster care or adoption process that involve race, color or national origin is a new rule which outlines the procedure for complaints against any PCSA, PCPA or PNA regarding discrimination in foster care or adoption services that involve RCNO. Any individual filing a complaint with a PCSA, PCPA, PNA or ODJFS must use the JFS 02333 "Discrimination Complaint Form." This form can be accessed at: http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/findform.asp?formnum=02333. Complaints can also be filed with the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights. Agencies must provide written notice of the complaint process to all individuals inquiring about or applying to become a foster caregiver or adoptive parent. The rule also requires that such notice be provided within thirty days of the effective date of the rule to all foster caregivers certified or in the process of certification and to all individuals who have approved adoptive homestudies or who are participating in the homestudy process.

OAC 5101:2-33-11 Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA) agency administrative requirements is a new rule which sets forth the administrative requirements for PCSAs, PCPAs, and PNAs regarding certain administrative requirements for compliance with the Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA). Most of the requirements of this rule are not new and are being consolidated into this rule from other rules to facilitate their implementation. Each PCSA and PCPA is required to designate a MEPA monitor to review and monitor foster care and adoptive placement decisions when the agency indicates RCNO may be a factor in a child's placement needs. The new requirements include: completion of the JFS 01668 "MEPA Biennial Comprehensive Self-Assessment Report" for those agencies that provide adoption and/or foster care-related services; the requirement for agencies to have written standards of conduct regarding non-discrimination in the foster care and adoption process and enforcement procedures if an agency employee or contractor engages in discriminatory acts, policies, or practices involving RCNO; agencies are prohibited from requiring an ongoing foster care or adoption worker to justify a proposed transracial placement due to the reason that the child's RCNO is different from that of the family whom the worker is proposing as the child's foster caregiver or adoptive parent.

OAC 5101:2-39-02 Case records for children services is amended to set forth the requirements for case records which are maintained by public children services agencies. This rule requires agencies to maintain case records in a consistent and organized manner.

OAC 5101:2-42-18.1 Non-discrimination requirements for foster care placements outlines the policy on non-discrimination in the foster care placement process. New requirements have been added for handling certain negative comments made by a prospective foster caregiver family member living in the household or any other person living in the household reflecting a negative perspective regarding the RCNO of a child for whom the family has expressed an interest in fostering or adopting. Licensed professionals completing the JFS 01688 "Individualized Child Assessment" must now receive the JFS 01607 "MEPA Educational Materials" about federal legislation and the opportunity to receive technical assistance regarding those materials prior to conducting such assessments. The JFS 01688 remains in effect for one year from the date it was signed by the agency. Language has been added prohibiting intimidation or retaliation against any person who has filed any oral or written complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in the investigation of any alleged violation of federal statutes prohibiting discrimination based upon race, color, or national origin.

OAC 5101:2-48-05 Agency adoption policy and recruitment plan is amended to add language requiring PCSAs, PCPAs and PNAs operating an adoption program to include in its adoption policy a copy of the JFS 01611 "Non-discrimination Requirements for Foster Care and Adoptive Placements." No additional language regarding non-discrimination in the foster care process based upon race, color, or national origin is permitted in the agency's foster care policy unless additional language is required pursuant to a federal court order and is approved by ODJFS. Agencies are also required to include in the adoption policy a procedure to provide access to approved homestudies and related documents, a procedure for maintaining approved homestudies received from other agencies in the same manner that other adoptive homestudies that were approved by the receiving agency, statements of assurance indicating the agency will comply with the provisions of the Adoption and Safe Families Act of 1997 (found at http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/cb/laws/#federal), the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978 (found at http://www.nicwa.org/policy/law/index.asp, the Multiethnic Placement Act as amended by Section 1808 of the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996 (found at: http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/cb/laws/#federal), and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964(found at: http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/cb/laws/#federal). The annual recruitment plan for the state fiscal year (SFY) 2006 is due by May 1, 2005 and subsequent plans are due May first of each year and must address the upcoming SFY. The adoption policy must also include the complaint process pursuant to OAC rule 5101:2-33-03 and standards of conduct pursuant to OAC rule 5101:2-33-11.

OAC 5101:2-48-11.1 Foster caregiver adoption of a foster child who has resided with the caregiver for at least twelve consecutive months is amended to set forth the procedures for conducting a foster caregiver homestudy when a foster caregiver expresses interest in adopting a child who has been in the foster caregiver's home for at least twelve consecutive months. Language pertaining to preferential order when placing a child in an adoptive home has been removed and new requirements for the approval or disapproval of a foster family for adoptive placement have been added. The rule clarifies that the JFS 01692 "Application for Adoption of a Foster Child" can only be used for the child(ren) for whom the homestudy was conducted.

OAC 5101:2-48-12 Completion of the homestudy is amended to set forth the requirements for the completion of homestudies for special needs and non-special needs children by PCSAs, PCPAs, and PNAs. Agencies are prohibited from using RCNO in making adoptive placements and prohibited from approving or disapproving a family's homestudy based upon an applicant's disability. In addition, timeframes are required for commencing and completing homestudies and agencies are required to provide written documentation when those timeframes are not met. This rule introduces a new form, JFS 01609 "Family Permanency Planning Data Summary." Agencies are now required to provide a detailed explanation of the reason for the denial of a homestudy by explaining all of the reasons upon which the denial was based.

OAC 5101:2-48-13 Non-discrimination requirements for adoptive placements outlines the policy on non-discrimination in the adoptive placement process. The rule includes new requirements for handling certain negative comments made by a prospective adoptive family member living in the household or any other person living in the household reflecting a negative perspective regarding the RCNO of a child for whom the family has expressed an interest in adopting. Licensed professionals completing the JFS 01688 "Individualized Child Assessment" must now receive the JFS 01607 "MEPA Educational Materials" about federal legislation and the opportunity to receive technical assistance regarding those materials prior to conducting such assessments and the JFS 01688 remains in effect for one year from the date it was signed by the custodial agency. Language has been added prohibiting intimidation or retaliation against any person who has filed any oral or written complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in the investigation of any alleged violation of federal statutes prohibiting discrimination based upon race, color, or national origin.

OAC 5101:2-48-16 Pre-adoptive staffing, matching and placement procedures outlines the matching process. This rule requires a pre-adoptive staffing within forty-five days after the execution of the permanent surrender or of the file stamp date of the permanent custody order of a child. Custodial agencies are required to invite certain individuals to the pre-adoptive staffings and to matching conferences. Matching conferences must occur every ninety days for all children in permanent custody who have not been matched with a family. An assessor must be assigned to the case within forty-five days from execution of the permanent surrender or of the file stamp date of the permanent custody order. Agencies must develop written procedures on the structured decision making process to select the most appropriate family to be matched with the child and to address how all families accepting of the child's characteristics shall be considered by the agency to be presented in the matching conference. The rule requires and strengthens the use of the JFS 01689 "Documentation of the Placement Decision-Making Process" and requires the use of the JFS 01609 "Family Permanency Planning Data Summary" and the JFS 01610 "Child's Permanency Planning Data Summary."

OAC 5101:2-48-19 Soliciting and releasing adoptive homestudies and related material for consideration of placement outlines the process for releasing a homestudy and related information by a PCPA, PCSA or PNA to another agency and to adoptive applicants, specifically as it meets the requirements of a federal corrective action plan. New requirements include that agencies cannot solicit homestudies to locate a same race placement, and agencies must file and maintain homestudies obtained from other agencies and procedures for notifying an agency when an incomplete homestudy is received.

OAC 5101:2-48-22 Adoptive family case record is amended to set forth the documents which must be maintained in the adoptive family case record. This rule adds language requiring agencies to maintain case records in a consistent and organized manner. This rule also requires the agency to maintain in the adoptive family case record additional information, if applicable, including a copy of the JFS 01688 "Individualized Child Assessment," documentation constituting or referring to a complaint or grievance by a family and documentation when verbal comments or indications are made by family members living in the household or any other person living in the household reflecting a negative perspective toward the child's RCNO. A copy of the JFS 01609 "Family Permanency Planning Data Summary" must also be maintained in the adoptive family's case record.

OAC 5101:2-48-23 Preservation of adoptive child case record is amended to set forth the requirements of the documents that must be maintained in the child's adoption record. This rule adds language requiring agencies to maintain case records in a consistent and organized manner. This rule also requires the adoptive child case record contain documentation including all medical or psychological evaluations, school records or other documented material and a copy of the JFS 01609 "Child's Permanency Planning Data Summary."

OAC 5101:2-48-24 Agency adoption review procedures sets forth the procedures an agency must follow to review complaints from persons involved with an adoption. Language has been added requiring that all complaints involving alleged discriminatory acts, policies, or practices pertaining to the foster care and adoption process that involve RCNO to be governed by procedures contained in OAC rule 5101:2-33-03. All other agency complaints require an agency review.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director
SUBJECT: Revisions to the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) Rule Governing Child Protection Oversight and Evaluation (CPOE)

This letter transmits a new rule that will govern the Child Protection Oversight and Evaluation (CPOE) process and rescinds OAC 5101:2-57-02 Child protection oversight and evaluation. The new OAC rule 5101:2-33-02, which is also entitled Child protection oversight and evaluation, is substantially the same as OAC 5101:2-57-02 which it is replacing. This rule will become effective on January 1, 2005.

A brief explanation of the changes appears below:

OAC 5101:2-33-02: Child Protection Oversight and Evaluation. This rule has been moved to a different OAC chapter and has been revised to allow the CPOE process to be in alignment with the federal Child and Family Service Reviews which are conducted every two years. Increasing CPOE timeframes from eighteen to twenty-four months will allow Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs) to have more time to implement their Quality Improvement Plans (QIP) and for both the PCSAs and the Ohio Department of Job and Family services to see improvements based upon QIP strategies used. Paragraph (D) changes the eighteen month requirement for reviews to twenty-four months unless a court order requires an earlier review of the agency program and measures. Paragraph (D)(3) changes the timeframe for issuance of the report from 120 days to 150 days.

FROM: Thomas J. Hayes, Director
SUBJECT: Revisions to Case Plan, Supportive Services and Substitute Care Rules

This letter transmits changes to several supportive services and substitute care rules that were reviewed due to the Five Year Rule Review. One rule was reviewed but resulted in no changes.

These changes are effective October 4, 2004.

Brief explanations of the rule revisions appear below.

OAC 5101:2-39-11 Required contents of a private child placing agency (PCPA) case plan document has been amended. Changes to the rule include the addition of "in close proximity to the school in which the child was enrolled prior to placement; and designed to enhance the likelihood of reunification, when appropriate," in paragraph (B). "Case management" and "casework services" were added to paragraph (C)(6). "Setting" was deleted throughout the rule when preceded by "out of home care." In some instances the term "setting" was replaced by the word "placement".

OAC 5101:2-39-05 Reasonable efforts was amended for clarity and updated to correspond with current statute. Paragraph (D) was reorganized to remove reference to OAC Rule 5101:2-39-12. Language was added indicating when reasonable efforts are not possible or required.

OAC 5101:2-39-06 Preplacement preventive services, reunification services and life skill services was amended. Language in the rule has been updated to replace "Ohio Early Start" with "Help Me Grow" in paragraphs (A)(4), (D)(3) and (D)(4). Family preservation services was removed from paragraphs (C), (G) and (H) of this rule. ODHS 1444 was changed to JFS 01444 and CDHS was changed to CDJFS.

OAC 5101:2-42-05 Selection of a placement setting was revised as a result of the five year rule review and a new rule replaces the former rule of the same number. It was reorganized for clarity and redundant rule references have been removed. Paragraph (K) has been clarified to limit the exceptions to this rule to children who are under six months of age who are being placed for adoption. Paragraph (D) adds the requirement that an attempt be made to place siblings in the same home. Paragraph (G) specifies that an adoptive placement be considered the least restrictive placement for a child in permanent custody. Paragraph (L) requires that all placement activities be in compliance with the Multiethnic Placement Act.

OAC 5101:2-42-68 Necessity for substitute care placement: court reviews and hearing requirements was refiled with no changes as a result of the five year rule review.

FROM: Thomas J. Hayes, Director
SUBJECT: Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy (PASSS)

The Office for Children and Families has rescinded the current Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-44-071 Post adoption special services subsidy and replaced it with two new rules, 5101:2-44-13 Public children services agency (PCSA) administration of the post adoption special services subsidy (PASSS) program and 5101:2-44-13.1 Eligibility and application process for the post adoption special services subsidy (PASSS) program. The JFS 01050 "Application/agreement for a Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy" has also been rescinded and replaced with three new forms: JFS 01050 "Application for a post adoption special services subsidy", JFS 01050A "Approval for post adoption special services subsidy" and JFS 01051 "Extraordinary circumstances application for additional post adoption special services subsidy (PASSS) funding".

OAC 5101:2-44-13 outlines the procedures the PCSA must follow when issuing a post adoption special services subsidy.

OAC 5101:2-44-13.1 outlines the eligibility and application process for adoptive parents and identifies allowable services.

The JFS 01050 is the application used by the family when applying for PASSS.

The JFS 01050A is used by the PCSA to approve or deny PASSS applications, indicate the amount approved and the actual amount used. This form will also be used to release funds the family will not utilize.

The JFS 01051 is the application used by the family to request additional PASSS funding due to extraordinary circumstances.

These changes will be effective July 1, 2004. If any revisions are made that change the content or effective date of the rules, notification will be communicated via a follow-up Manual Transmittal Letter.

This letter transmits changes to several Ohio Administrative Code rules in Chapter 5101:2-44 which govern the state adoption subsidy program. The rules were changed to comply with federal regulations for Medicaid program eligibility for children in receipt of a state adoption subsidy; to clarify the amount of the state's monetary contribution to the state adoption maintenance subsidy program, and to comply with House Bill 95 which repeals the state adoption special services subsidy program. These changes will be effective July 1, 2004. If any revisions are made that change the content or effective date of the rules, notification will be communicated via a follow-up Manual Transmittal Letter.

A brief explanation of each rule revision appears below: Several of the rules appear as new but they are rewritten versions of previous rules. The changes are noted.

OAC 5101:2-44-03 Public children services agency (PCSA) administration of the state adoption subsidy program was rescinded and adopted as new. The rule requires the PCSA to consult with the adoptive parent regarding the state adoption subsidy program prior to approving or denying the state adoption subsidy application. The PCSA must determine the child's special needs for a state adoption maintenance subsidy (SAMS), and the child's special needs for medical, mental health, or rehabilitative care based only upon medical necessity.

OAC 5101:2-44-05.1 Covered families and children (CFC) medicaid eligibility: special needs children was rescinded and adopted as new. The title has been changed from "Covered families and children medicaid eligibility for special needs children who are receiving a state adoption subsidy." The rule was amended to comply with federal statute by including new procedures for determining Medicaid eligibility when in receipt of a state adoption subsidy.

OAC 5101:2-44-05.2 Covered families and children (CFC) medicaid eligibility for state adoption subsidy recipient moving from or to Ohio was amended to replace "COBRA option" with "state option" because the term "state option" is more commonly used with the Interstate Compact on Adoption and Medical Assistance (ICAMA). In addition, this rule updates the title of the JFS 01615 to JFS 01615 "Approval for State Adoption Subsidy."

OAC 5101:2-44-06 Eligibility of adoptive family and child for the state adoption maintenance program. The rule has been rescinded and adopted as new with the same rule number. The title has been amended to add the word "maintenance." The rules sets forth eligibility requirements which must be met in order to be approved for a state adoption maintenance subsidy. The rule incorporates the definition of "a child with special needs" as defined in rule 5101:2-1-01 of the Administrative Code. For the purposes of this rule, "qualified professional" was clarified and defined. House Bill 95 repealed the state adoption special services subsidy program and as a result, references to state special services subsidy have been removed from this rule. The rule also clarifies that the state's monetary contribution to the state adoption maintenance subsidy shall not exceed $250 per child.

OAC 5101:2-44-07 Public children services agency (PCSA) eligibility determinations for state adoption subsidy. This rule has been rescinded because the requirements of this rule have been incorporated into rule 5101:2-44-03.

OAC 5101:2-44-08 Redetermination, amendment and modifications of a state adoption maintenance subsidy has been amended to remove all references to the state adoption special services subsidy due to HB 95 repealing the special services subsidy. The title has been changed to add the word "maintenance."

OAC 5101:2-44-09 Requirements for a state adoption special services subsidy was adopted as new to incorporate the requirements of House Bill 95 which repealed the state adoption special services subsidy program. Although the special services subsidy program has been repealed, the public children services agency (PCSA) has the option of continuing the program for existing state adoption special services subsidies entered into prior to July 1, 2004. The rule provides clarification and procedures for PCSAs electing to continue or discontinue the state adoption special services subsidy program. The rule requires the completion of a new JFS 01618 "Redetermination/Amendment of State Adoption Special Services Subsidy."

OAC 5101:2-44-10 Suspension of a state adoption maintenance subsidy has been amended to clarify and update program requirements. The title has been changed to add the word "maintenance." The rule removes references to the state adoption special services subsidy and specifies and clarifies the terms under which a state adoption maintenance subsidy shall be and may be suspended.

OAC 5101:2-44-11 Termination of a state adoption subsidy has been amended to clarify and update program requirements. The rule specifies and clarifies the terms under which a state adoption subsidy shall be and may be terminated.

OAC 5101:2-44-12 State adoption subsidy records was amended to emphasize the requirement for documenting the child's special needs for SAMS and the child's special needs for CFC medicaid eligibility.
The JFS 01449 form number has been updated.

The following forms have been revised:

- JFS 01449 "Determination of Special Needs for Medical, Mental Health or Rehabilitative Care"
- JFS 01613 "Application for State Adoption Subsidy"
- JFS 01615 "Approval for State Adoption Subsidy"

The following form is new:

- JFS 01618 "Redetermination/Amendment of State Adoption Special Services Subsidy"

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 146
October 9, 2003

To: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
From: Thomas J. Hayes, Director
Subject: OAC 5101:2-42-18 PCSA and PCPA Placements with Relative or Nonrelative Substitute Caregivers

This letter transmits rule 5101:2-42-18 of the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC). The rule, originally entitled Approval of Substitute Care Placement Settings is being rescinded and replaced with PCSA and PCPA Approval of Placements with Relative or Nonrelative Substitute Caregivers.

This rule allows PCSAs and PCPAs to make placements of children with relatives and nonrelatives who do not choose to become licensed as foster homes. This rule sets forth the requirements for minimum assessments which must be conducted to assure that the placement is safe and appropriate, and that the relative or nonrelative has the ability and willingness to properly care for the child. OAC 5101:2-42-18 requires PCSAs and PCPAs to complete the JFS 01447 "Approval of Relative or Nonrelative Caregiver's Ability to Care for Child(ren) and Recommendation for Placement," which serves as the official approval of the relative or nonrelative home.

This rule will be effective on November 3, 2003.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Thomas J. Hayes, Director
SUBJECT: Adoption Program Rule Changes

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services has reviewed the Adoption Program rules and forms in Ohio Administrative Code Chapter 5101:2-48. The review resulted in recommendations for changes to and rescissions of the rules and/or forms. This letter transmits those changes. All references to ODHS have been changed to reflect the name of the department due to the merger between ODHS and OBES and all form numbers have been changed to reflect the department's number system. These rules will be effective September 1, 2003.

The department will be offering training on these rules. The training schedule can be accessed at: http://www.state.oh.us/odjfs/ocf/calendar.stm.

A brief explanation of each rule revision appears below:

5101:2-48-02 Putative father registry is amended to outline the process for putative father registry searches and to clarify that in a voluntary surrender situation, a putative father does not have rights unless he is registered with the Putative Father Registry.

5101:2-48-03 Requirements of JFS 01616 Social and Medical History is amended to clarify who must obtain the social and medical history information and the parameters for when the social and medical history must be obtained.

5101:2-48-05 Agency adoption policy and agency recruitment plan is amended to specify the criteria for matching adoptive parents to available children; clarify fee structures and procedures for policy submittal and to specify requirements for recruitment plans. This rule also introduces the JFS 01668 "MEPA Bi-Annual Comprehensive Self-Assessment Report" which agencies are now required to submit.

5101:2-48-06 Agency adoption staffing is amended to permit a one year extension to complete assessor training if Tier 2 was not taken within three years of the completion of Tier 1. The exemption waiving a supervised student working on a post-secondary degree from taking Assessor training has been removed.

5101:2-48-07 Listing and withdrawing children and families with the "Ohio Adoption Photo Listing" (OAPL) and the AdoptOhio Photo Listing web page is amended to include new procedures for registering children under a "special status" OAPL category. This rule allows agencies to remove a child from the OAPL web page when the child's case plan is no longer adoption, or whose permanent custody is under appeal. This rule also requires agencies to maintain a record of OAPL registration activity in either the child or family file(s). It also ends agencies receipt of hard copies of the OAPL book.

5101:2-48-08 Adoption inquiry is rescinded and adopted as a new rule with the same rule number. This rule requires agencies to document all prospective adoptive parent inquiries and clarifies language regarding the criminal records check. Requirements pertaining to the AdoptOhio program were removed and replaced with requirements for assisting families inquiring about adoption.

the caregiver for at least twelve "consecutive" months. This rule outlines the forms and documentation required, the preferential order to be given when considering a child for adoptive placement and the information that must be reviewed in order to determine the appropriateness of the foster caregiver for an adoptive placement. Also, agencies are now required to document that the foster caregiver has completed adoption training.

5101:2-48-12 Completion of the homestudy report is amended to: clarify the procedures for transferring homestudies; revise language relative to use of the JFS 01673 when completing homestudies for grandparents; modify references to foster care rules and clarify procedures for updating home studies. This rule requires the completion of the JFS 01348, "Safety Audit of a Foster Home, Also used for adoptive homes".

SUBJECT: Changes to OAC Rules in Chapter 5101:2-42 and Issuance of the "JFS 02424 ICPC Placement Financial Information" Form

This letter transmits changes to several Ohio Administrative Code rules in chapter 5101:2-42 and a newly required form for use when initiating a placement through the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC). These changes are effective August 18, 2003.

The following rules were amended to update form numbers and to clarify wording:

- OAC 5101:2-42-09 Permanent Surrender
- OAC 5101:2-42-67 Documentation of Lifebook Activities
- OAC 5101:2-42-71 Approval of Adult Supervised Living Arrangements

OAC 5101:2-42-21 Agency and Court Interstate Requirements was amended to clarify wording in the rule and to require the submission of a new form, "JFS 02424 ICPC Placement and Financial Information" as part of the documentation needed to initiate placement requests. The new form is included with this letter.

OAC 5101:2-42-96 Phase-In for Obtaining Permanent Custody/Termination of Parental Rights was rescinded because it contained the provision for phasing in the requirements for termination of parental rights of children. The phase in period is over and this rule was obsolete.

State funding is no longer available to support the AdoptOhio program as it has been operating. Due to these budgetary constraints, four Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules in Chapter 5101:2-48 governing or referencing AdoptOhio have been changed. Rule 5101:2-48-04 "AdoptOhio agency agreements" is rescinded and adopted as a new rule "AdoptOhio grant agreement" with the same rule number. This rule contains language clarifying specific payment amounts under AdoptOhio. AdoptOhio payments shall be made according to the AdoptOhio agreement.

OAC 5101:2-48-18 "Postfinalization services" was amended to inform prospective adoptive parents of post finalization services as defined in agency adoption policy.

OAC 5101:2-48-19 "Release of adoptive homestudy and related information" was amended to specify that PCSAs and PCPAs may only consider home studies that have been forwarded by another agency.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Thomas J. Hayes, Director
SUBJECT: New and Revised Ohio Administrative Code Rules as a Result of the Enactment of House Bills 332 and 448

This letter transmits amendments and additions to Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules and forms governing substitute care and children services licensing.

The majority of changes resulted from the enactment of Sub. HB. 448 and Sub. HB. 332 by the 123rd General Assembly. These two major pieces of child welfare legislation were signed into law by Governor Taft in July 2000. Sub. HB. 448 became effective October 5, 2000. The effective date of Sub. HB. 332 is January 1, 2001. As a result of some overlap in the rules affected by these two new acts, and to avoid confusion in the issuance process, the department decided to file the rules as one package. Additionally some changes were made to training requirements for foster caregivers and child care staff as a result of the federal Chafee Foster Care Independence Act of 1999. The rules have an effective date of January 1, 2003, except for rule 5101:2-5-38 which will be effective April 1, 2003.

Many of the changes to the rules are a result of definition changes contained in Sub. HB. 332 and the recent change in the department's name. One of the major definition changes is the change in the terminology surrounding foster homes. Since 1986, the department has used the term "family foster home" as a generic term used in referring to all foster homes. Sub. HB. 332 changed the definition of a family foster home to just one of four types of foster homes (treatment foster home, medically fragile foster home, family foster home, and pre-adoptive infant foster home). Because of this, the department has changed most rule references from "family foster home" to "foster home." Other major definition changes, are the result of the creation of new rules governing treatment and medically fragile foster care. Many of those definitions were created in law by the enactment of Sub. HB 332. The revised definitions rule was previously transmitted to FCAS manual holders with FCASMTL 116 dated September 25, 2001.

The new requirements for treatment foster homes and medically fragile foster homes were created by Sub. HB. 332. However, the new rules are generally the result of two work groups convened in 1998 to address issues surrounding these types of foster homes, although some changes to the work groups' recommendations were necessitated by the new state law. Among the material used in developing these rules was a draft of treatment foster care rules previously developed by the Ohio Association of Child Caring Agencies (OACCA) in January 1995, a draft of therapeutic foster care rules developed under an ODHS contract in March, 1995 and the Foster Family-based Treatment Association's Program Standards for Treatment Foster Care published in 1995. In addition, the work group, which included representatives of both public and private children services agencies, treatment foster caregivers, the Ohio Association of Child Caring Agencies and the Public Children Services Association of Ohio, had considerable input.

A major change from the clearance process rule package is the provisions that would have required public children services agencies (PCSA) to be certified to perform all foster care functions have been withdrawn. In addition, several other changes were made as a result of comments received in the public hearing and as a result of a dispute resolution process between ODJFS and several stakeholder organizations earlier this year.

Due to the enactment of the federal Chafee Foster Care Independence Act of 1999, some language regarding training of foster caregivers and employees of a residential facility who provide care for youth in substitute care who are expected to remain in care until their eighteenth birthday was also added to two rules. Changes were made to OAC rules 5101:2-5-33 regarding foster caregiver training and 5101:2-9-03 regarding residential child care staff training. Additional rules to implement this federal act and a new state independent living law were released in FCASMTL 129 dated October 21, 2002.

SUBJECT: Changes to the Independent Living Program for Children in Substitute Care

This letter transmits changes to the Ohio Administrative Code to implement Substitute House Bill 38 (Sub. HB 38) which was signed into law by Governor Bob Taft on August 1, 2002. Sub. HB 38 was enacted to implement the federal John H. Chafee Program under The Foster Care Independence Act of 1999. This program provides for the enhancement and expansion of independent living (IL) services to youth currently in substitute care or recently emancipated to help them achieve self-sufficiency. This new law specifically requires that a portion of the IL funding be used to serve eligible young adults ages 18-21 who leave substitute care because they reach age 18.

The following chart summarizes what rules have been rescinded, amended or adopted to incorporate the above mentioned changes. These rules take effect on November 12, 2002.

SUBJECT: Revisions to Children Services Licensing Rules as a Result of the Five Year Rule Review

This letter transmits 36 amended Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules governing children services licensing that have been reviewed consistent with the requirements of the state's five year rule review policy. Many of the changes reflect the change in the department's name or other minor cosmetic changes. Three of the rules apply to agencies, three to foster homes and the other 30 rules are applicable only to residential facilities. These changes will become effective September 1, 2002.

TRANSMITTAL

Transmittal Letter Index Starting with No.115

FCASMTL No. 126
This letter transmits the release of revised and updated Private Child Placing Agency (PCPA) and Private Noncustodial Agency (PNA) Data Entry Forms for Micro-FACSIS and new Form Instructions. The forms have been revised to enable the department to collect data from PCPAs and PNAs to satisfy the requirements of the federal Adoption and Foster Care Analysis Reporting System (AFCARS) and additional data collection required by the federal Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA). The revised forms include all previous events collected on the older versions of the forms and new Resource Events and Client Events. However, please note that some previous event information on the JFS 01639 is now optional.

Due to the critical importance of the data to be collected, these revised forms will immediately replace the PCPA and PNA Data Entry Forms for Micro-FACSIS (Rev 9/1993). Please note that these forms will be printed on NCR paper; agencies should send the original white copy to ODJFS and retain the pink copy for your agency's files. Enclosed with this letter is a blank Form Requisition (JFS 09510) for your agency to use to order the appropriate forms in the desired quantity for your agency's use.

Also enclosed with this letter is a Micro-FACSIS Code Sheet which is a compilation of all Values to be used in entering the appropriate Events onto these new forms. This Code Sheet replaces the Values being printed on the back of each of the data entry forms. Please note that additional Values have been added for use in these forms. For a more complete description and definitions of these Values, please refer to the Micro-FACSIS Usage Document and the Micro-FACSIS Glossary, both of which have been updated recently. These two documents can be assessed and printed from the ODJFS website at http://www.state.oh.us/odjfs/ocf/FACSIS/usage and http://www.state.oh.us/odjfs/ocf/FACSIS/glossary/

On-line Tutorial Presentations are currently being created to assist users in completing these revised forms. When the on-line Tutorial Presentations are published in the near future, a letter will be sent to your agency with instructions on how to access the Tutorials.

Instructions:

The following chart identifies what materials (forms) are to be obsoleted and what materials (forms) will now become a part of the Family, Children and Adult Services Manual (FCASM). Please note that the old forms may not be part of your FCASM, but have been in general use by PCPAs and PNAs since about 1991.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Jo Ann Davidson, Director
SUBJECT: Hiring Requirements for PCSA Caseworkers and Completion of Individual Training Needs Assessments

Educational Requirements
H.B. 448 stipulates that Public Children Services Agencies (PCSA) may only hire a caseworker if the applicant has the following educational credentials: (a) bachelor’s degree in human services related studies; (b) bachelor’s degree in any field and has been employed for at least two years in a human services related occupation; associate degree in human services related studies; or (d) employed for at least five years in a human services occupation. The bill also indicates caseworkers whose educational credentials include those outlined in (b) to (d) must obtain a job-related bachelor’s degree no later than five years after the date employment with the agency commences. To assist caseworkers in complying with educational requirements contained in the bill the agency should consider enrolling the worker in the TOPS program. Agencies are required to use the definition of “caseworker” found in OAC rule 5101:2-1-01 to comply with the educational provisions contained in H.B. 448.

Individual Training Needs Assessment
Over the past few years the Ohio Child Welfare Training Program has worked with agencies in completing the Individual Training Needs Assessment form for caseworkers and supervisors. H.B. 448 requires all PCSAs complete Individual Training Needs Assessments for Caseworkers and Supervisors once every two years.

These rules and forms will take effect on April 1, 2001.

Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 110

November 29, 2001

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Thomas Hayes, Director
SUBJECT: New TITLE IV-E Rules Establishing Fiscal Accountability Procedures

This letter transmits the new Title IV-E Fiscal Accountability rules that were promulgated in order to comply with the fiscal accountability provisions of House Bill 448 that was signed into law by Governor Bob Taft on July 6, 2000. The law became effective on October 6, 2000 and mandated, among other requirements, the establishment of rules governing procedures for fiscal accountability for Public Children Service Agencies (PCSA), Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPA), and Private Noncustodial Agencies (PNA).

The new rules also reflect the recommendations issued in June 2000 by the Child Welfare Reform Shareholders Group, and address the systematic weaknesses in the fiscal system that were identified in the Auditor of State's Child Protective Services audits.

Also included in this transmittal is Appendix A which contains a sample contract that ODJFS has developed for counties to use or adapt for use when purchasing foster care from private agencies. A Title IV-E agency may use the sample contract or develop its own contract. The sample contract may be downloaded from the ODJFS internet website http://www.state.oh.us/ODJFS/ocf/ive.stm.

The expected effective date of the enclosed rules is December 1, 2001. A brief explanation of each of the new rules appears in the following table.

<td>This rule sets forth the penalties ODJFS may enforce against PCSAs, PCPAs and PNAs for their failure to comply with procedures involving fiscal accountability. There are two classes of penalties: The first class imposes a penalty for initial failures and requires the provider to develop a corrective action plan. The second class is for subsequent failures or failure to comply with the corrective action plan. This provision authorizes ODJFS to take the following action: (1) for PCSAs, ODJFS may take any action permissible under 5101.24 of the Ohio Revised Code; (2) for PCPAs and PNAs, ODJFS may cancel the provider's Title IV-E rate or revoke the provider's license. Cancellation of the Title IV-E rate precludes IV-E reimbursement. ODJFS will resume the Title IV-E rate effective on the first day of the month following the date of compliance. However, there will be no retroactive adjustment to the period of time the provider was out of compliance.</td> definition of allowable costs,

record retention requirements,
invoicing procedures specifying the per diem cost and reimbursement associated with delivery of services, requirement of the adherence to specific accounting procedures, requirement regarding the use of funds, beginning and ending date of the contract, and appropriate remedies for breach of contract.

ODJFS has developed a Model Contract for counties to use or adapt for use when purchasing foster care from private providers.

| 5101:2-47-26.1 (New) | This rule sets forth the following cost report monitoring requirements:
cost report filing requirements, desk review process,
record retention requirements,

development of a single cost report form to report costs reimbursable under Medicaid. |
|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

| 5101:2-47-26.2 (New) | This rule sets forth the Title IV-E cost reports annual audit requirements.
The audits must be conducted in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and shall be filed with the cost report.
For PCPAs and PNAs, the audits shall be performed by an independent public accountant. The qualifications for the independent public accountant and the audit procedures to be applied will be published in an ODJFS Title IV-E Audit Manual and Title IV-E Work Program.
ODJFS will also conduct quality control reviews of the independent audit report that it receives. |

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services has worked closely with the Statewide Risk Assessment Committee to revise the "Family Risk Assessment Model". A primary recommendation of the committee was to change the name of the model to the "Family Decision Making Model". This was done to focus attention on the fact that the Risk Assessment Matrix is only one part of the model which also includes the Case Plan, the Semiannual Review and the Safety Plan. As a result, the name of the model listed on the forms had to be changed. There were no recommendations for changes in how the forms were to be completed or the information to be collected and documented on the forms.

The forms (JFS 01500, JFS 01444, JFS 01445, JFS 01510 and JFS 01520) became effective on January 1, 2001 (the previously stated date of January 1, 2000 was incorrect). The form, JFS 01414, will be effective on February 1, 2001. A brief explanation of the revisions appears on the following page.

For those PCSAs using the Family Assessment and Planning Tool (FAPT), modifications are underway to version the application for these forms with an effective date of April 2, 2001. Forms completed prior to April 2, 2001, will follow the prior format in FAPT. Therefore, until that time, PCSAs may use either the forms currently available in FAPT or the revised forms found as an attachment to this transmittal letter. All old forms will be obsolete as of April 2, 2001.

The following table consists of a brief explanation of the form revisions mentioned above.

FROM: Jacqueline Romer-Sensky, Director
SUBJECT: Revisions to Ohio Administrative Code Rules as a Result of Amendments to the Federal Regulations for Titles IV-B and IV-E of the Social Security Act

The Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families issued Federal Register Volume 65, Number 16 on January 25, 2000. This issuance transmits the final rule which amends existing regulations by adding new requirements governing the review of a State’s conformity with its State plan under titles IV-B and IV-E of the Social Security Act, and implements the provisions of the Social Security Act amendments, the Multiethnic Placement Act amendments and certain provisions of the Adoption and Safe Families Act which is implemented in Ohio through Sub. H.B. 484 and Am. Sub. H.B. 176.

As a result of these amendments, the department is revising several existing Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules governing Title IV-E foster care maintenance and substitute care. While the department is promulgating permanent rules to implement the provisions of the federal regulations this issuance transmits the rules under the emergency provisions established in Chapter119 of the Ohio Revised Code.
Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Transmittal Letter No. 101-A

December 16, 1999

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Jacqueline Romer-Sensky, Director
SUBJECT: Adoption and Foster Care Analysis and Reporting System (AFCARS) Requirements

Federal Regulation at 45 CFR 1355.40, implements section 479 of the Social Security Act and sets forth the AFCARS requirements. The purpose of AFCARS is to collect uniform, reliable information on children who are under the placement and care responsibility of the State Title IV-B/IV-E agency, and children adopted under the auspices of the State public child welfare agency. States are required to collect and submit AFCARS data semi-annually to the Administration for Children and Families (ACF).

The Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule proposed for amendment and transmitted in FCASMTL No.101 in order to comply with federal regulations for AFCARS reporting was refiled with minor changes. This letter transmit the changes to OAC rule 5101:2-33-05 entitled "Family and Children Services Information System (FACSIS) Reporting Requirements" which were made in the refiled rule.

Changes were made to clarify language; to separate out the reporting requirements of public (PCSA) from private (PCPA and PNA) agencies; to add the statutory authority for enforcement of the PCSA sanction provisions; and to delete the reference distinguishing private agencies by their means of reporting.

SUBJECT: Ohio Administrative Code Rule Governing Adult-Supervised Living Arrangements

Section 5107.24 of the Ohio Revised Code (see attached) gives public children services agencies (PCSA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), and private non-custodial agencies (PNA) the authority to approve adult-supervised living arrangements which are not approved, licensed, or certified by the Ohio Department of Human Services, the Ohio Department of Mental Health, the Ohio Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities, or the Ohio Department of Youth Services. This letter transmits Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-42-71 entitled "Approval of Adult-Supervised Living Arrangements.

This rule outlines what settings constitute an adult-supervised living arrangement and contains procedures for the PCSA, PCPA, and the PNA to follow when a county department of human services requests assistance in approving an applicant to operate an adult-supervised living arrangement.

Additionally, this letter transmits model forms which can be used when approving the applicant. The PCSA, PCPA, or PNA has the option of designing their own forms in order to implement the provision of paragraph (C) of OAC rule 5101:2-42-71.

SUBJECT: Title IV-E Eligibility Determinations

The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (P.L. 104-193) amended Title IV-E eligibility requirements for the foster care and adoption assistance programs and linked eligibility to the ADC program as it was in effect in the state on June 1, 1995. P.L. 104-193 had linked Medicaid eligibility to the ADC program as it was in effect in the state on July 16, 1996.

In order to minimize the states' administrative burden the Balanced Budget Act of 1997 (P.L. 105-33), enacted on August 5, 1997, linked Title IV-E eligibility to the ADC program as it was in effect in the state on July 16, 1996. As a result, the Title IV-E eligibility ADC link and the Medicaid eligibility ADC link are now the same.

Due to the change in time frames, Title IV-E agencies are required to determine and redetermine Title IV-E eligibility based on ADC Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules which were in effect on July 16, 1996. This transmittal issues amended OAC rule 5101:7-1-02 "Title IV-E eligibility under the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996" which contains all ADC eligibility rules which were in effect on July 16, 1996. The following chart provides you with an overview of what rules remained the same, were replaced, inserted or deleted from the Appendix of OAC rule 5101:7-1-02.

SUBJECT: H.B. 408 - Administrative Code Rules Governing the Interface Between Ohio Works First and Children Services

House Bill 408 (H.B. 408) authorized county departments of human services (CDHS) to continue providing Ohio Works First cash assistance to an assistance group whose child was removed from the home due to abuse, neglect or dependency if the public children services agency (PCSA):

- notifies the CDHS at the time of the child's removal that the agency believes the child will be able to be returned to the assistance group within three months; and
- informs the CDHS at the end of both of the first two months after the agency removes the child that the parent, legal guardian or specified relative of the child is cooperating with the case plan prepared for the child under section 2151.412 of the Revised Code and the agency is making reasonable efforts to return the child to the assistance group.

Cash assistance and participation by the assistance group in Ohio Works First may continue for no longer than three payment months when a child is removed from the home.

As a result, Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-39-12 "Emergency removal of a child from his own home" has been amended to include this new provision. It is critical that PCSAs work in cooperation with CDHSs when a child can be reunified with his/her family within a three month time frame. In order to facilitate reunification within three months the PCSA should develop an expedited case plan and provide the family with immediate services needed in order for the family to be reunited.

H.B. 408 also indicates that each Ohio Works First self-sufficiency contract entered into between the CDHS and family may include information on the assistance and services the PCSA will provide the family. If the PCSA assistance and services are contained in the self-sufficiency contract Ohio Works First families who fail to comply with the PCSA's case plan will be sanctioned by the ODHS.

The procedures for sharing information between the CDHS and PCSA regarding assistance and services to be provided to families by both systems will be specified in the written plan of cooperation entered into by the CDHS and PCSA. When working with families who are receiving services from both the CDHS and PCSA, the PCSA needs to coordinate with the CDHS to develop joint service planning with families and notification between agencies when the PCSA removes a child from the home of a Ohio Works First assistance group or when a child is returned home to a Ohio Works First assistance group.

OAC rules 5101:2-39-02 "Case records for children services", 5101:2-39-51 "Joint planning and sharing of information among the PCSA and CDHS" and 5101:2-42-70 "Provision of services to unmarried minor females" were amended to reflect the new H.B. 408 requirements.

SUBJECT: Child Protection Oversight and Evaluation (CPOE) Definitions and Rules

This letter transmits rules 5101:2-57-01 and 5101:2-57-02 of the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC). OAC rule 5101:2-57-01 contains the definitions for terms used in OAC Chapter 5101:2-57. OAC rule 5101:2-57-02 outlines the ongoing evaluation and periodic performance reviews of the department's Child Protection Oversight and Evaluation (CPOE) quality assurance system.

The CPOE quality assurance system for public children service agencies is critical to the process of continual improvement in the delivery of children services at both the state and local levels. CPOE is based on continuous quality improvement, outcome measures, and the incorporation of an automated child welfare system. Activities focusing on specific service delivery processes and client outcomes will provide ODHS with information on areas of technical assistance needs of PCSAs. Critical operative components of the system include regular data collection, analysis and verification of data, and continuous feedback to PCSAs. Information obtained from CPOE activities can be used to inform the public about the population served, the services rendered, and the overall performance of an agency.

The purpose of this procedure letter is to provide clarification regarding the responsibilities of a public children services agency (PCSA) or private child placing agency (PCPA) when the agency is considering the ability of a non-custodial parent to care for a child.

Paragraph (A) of rule 5101:2-42-05 of the Administrative Code requires the PCSA or PCPA to explore a non-custodial parent and then other maternal and paternal relatives willing and able to take custody of the child. According to the rule, if a relative is not able or willing to take custody of the child, then the agency shall explore placement of the child with a substitute caregiver. A parent, however, is not a “substitute caregiver”, which is defined in rule 5101:2-1-01 of the Administrative Code as “an individual providing care for a child who is in the custody of the PCSA or PCPA, including a relative other than the child’s parents…” Therefore, if the non-custodial parent is available and appropriate, as determined by the PCSA or PCPA, the agency should work with the court to give that parent temporary or legal custody of the child. If the child is already in the custody of the PCSA or PCPA, the agency should put the child on leave as a trial home visit with the parent until custody can be transferred to that parent.

Effective the date of this procedure letter, a child may be on leave from his or her current placement for a trial home visit with his or her parent, guardian or custodian up to ninety consecutive days.

Guidance regarding SACWIS Entry

If an agency receives custody of a child from the court although the agency found the non-custodial parent to be appropriate, the agency can record the trial home visit as follows:

- Enter the initial removal record
- Change the youth’s address to indicate the location of the child
- Document the circumstances in an activity log

If an agency has already assumed custody of a child and then determines the non-custodial parent is able to care for the child, the agency shall enter in the SACWIS placement record that the child is on leave as a trial home visit.

These changes will result in amendments to rules 5101:2-42-05 and 5101:2-42-87.

The purpose of this procedure letter is to inform county department of job and family services (CDJFS) that the Title XX County Profile process has changed, including the due date of the profile. The county profile will now be entered into the SSBG Federal Reporting Website. Agencies no longer need to submit signed copies of their county profile to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS), but must continue to maintain the signed original on file at the CDJFS. CDJFS staff who already have access to the portal will keep the same username and password. CDJFS staff who need access to this portal must contact CFIS_HELP_DESK@jfs.ohio.gov.

The Title XX County Profile is now due by June 15th of each year.

The public notice and hearing process for the Title XX program has not changed. Agencies should begin preparing for the public notice in March and hold the public hearing in April. Both the public notice and a summary of the comments made at the hearing are to be submitted by the end of May to the mailbox: OFC_SSBG_Title_XX_County_Profile_Reports@jfs.ohio.gov.

These changes will result in amendments to the following rules and forms:

SUBJECT: Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Payments for Children Placed with a Parent in a Licensed Residential Family-Based Treatment Facility for Substance Abuse

This letter details the Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments for children placed with a parent in a licensed residential family-based treatment facility for substance abuse.

Public Law 115-123, known as the Family First Prevention Services Act (FFPSA) was signed into law on February 9, 2018. ACFY-CB-PI-18-07, issued July 9, 2018, instructs states that beginning October 1, 2018 Title IV-E agencies may claim Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance (FCM) payments for a child in the agency’s custody placed with a parent in a licensed residential family-based treatment facility for substance abuse for up to twelve (12) months.

Title IV-E agencies may claim administrative costs during the 12-month period for the administration of the Title IV-E program, which includes case management. A licensed residential family-based treatment facility for substance abuse is not a children’s residential center (CRC); therefore, the Title IV-E agency may not include the costs of administration and operation of the facility in the child’s Title IV-E FCM payments, nor must the facility adhere to meet the Title IV-E licensing and background check requirements of a CRC.

The child must meet all the Title IV-E foster care eligibility requirements except the aid to family and dependent children (AFDC) eligibility requirements.

The OAC rules and corresponding Manual Transmittal letter are forthcoming regarding Title IV-E FCM payments for a foster child placed with a parent in a licensed residential family-based treatment facility for substance abuse.

With this new Federal legislation, Ohio does not currently have a Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling established for these types of facilities or placements. It will be necessary for a licensed residential family-based treatment facility for substance abuse to complete and submit the JFS 02911 “Title IV-E Single Cost Report” to have a Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling established.

SUBJECT: Definitions impacting IV-B, subpart 2 funds

The Family First Prevention Services Act (FFPSA), enacted on February 9, 2018, modified the definitions of “Family Support Services” and “Family Reunification Services (formerly time-limited Family Reunification Services)” when applied to utilization of Title IV-B, subpart 2 funds.

As a result of these changes, public children services agencies and other entities using IV-B, Subpart 2 funds shall be able to claim allowable expenditures for the following services and activities:

“Family support services” for the purposes of utilizing Title IV-B, “subpart 2” means community-based services to promote the safety and well-being of children and families, which are designed to increase the strength and stability of families (including adoptive, foster, and kinship families), to support and retain foster families so they can provide quality family based settings for children in foster care, to increase parents' confidence and competence in their parenting abilities, to afford children a safe, stable and supportive family environment, to strengthen parental relationships and promote healthy marriages, and otherwise to enhance child development, including through mentoring.

“Family Reunification Services” for the purposes of utilizing Title IV-B, "subpart 2" means the services and activities listed in this definition that are provided to a child who is removed from his home and placed in a foster home or a residential facility or a child who has been returned home and to the parent, guardian or custodian of such a child, in order to facilitate the reunification of the child safely and appropriately within a timely fashion, but only during the fifteen month period that begins on the date the child returns home. Services and activities allowable are the following: individual, group, and family counseling; inpatient, residential, or outpatient substance abuse treatment services; mental health services; assistance to address domestic violence; services designed to provide temporary child care and therapeutic services for families, including crisis care facilities; peer-to-peer mentoring and support groups for parents and primary caregivers; services and activities designed to facilitate access to and visitation of children by parents and siblings, and transportation to or from any of the services or activities described in this definition.

This guidance will result in amendments to the following rules:

- 5101:2-1-01 Children Services Definitions of Terms
- 5101:2-40-02 Supportive Services for Prevention of Placement, Reunification and Life Skills

SUBJECT: CHANGES TO ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR TITLE IV-E ADOPTION ASSISTANCE FOR CHILDREN UNDER AGE TWO (2).

This letter details the changes to the eligibility determination for Title IV-E adoption assistance (AA) for children under age two (2).

Public Law 115-123, known as the Family First Prevention Services Act (FFPSA) was signed into law on February 9, 2018. ACFY-CB-PI-18-07 on July 9, 2018 instructed states to revise rules regarding the Title IV-E adoption assistance eligibility requirements for children under age 2. Before P.L. 115-123, all children were considered an “applicable child” for determining eligibility for the Title IV-E adoption assistance. FFPSA revised the program eligibility rules to delay phasing in the “applicable child” requirements based on the age of the child that was implemented in the Administrative Code rule 5101:2-49-02 “Adoption Assistance Eligibility Criteria” effective on July 1, 2014. Effective January 1, 2018 until June 30, 2024, the “applicable child” requirements apply only to children who will be age two or older by the end of the fiscal year their adoption assistance agreement was entered into.

We will issue a transmittal letter and a new rule by September 2018 regarding the delayed phasing in of the “applicable child” requirements for children under age two (2). In the interim, please follow the “non-applicable child” requirements in paragraph (D) of rule 5101:2-49-02 of the Administrative Code.

FCASPL 330 (Guidance for Public Children Services Agencies and Private Child Placing Agencies Regarding Credit Reports for Youth in Foster Care)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 330

September 17, 2018

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

SUBJECT: Guidance for Public Children Services Agencies and Private Child Placing Agencies Regarding Credit Reports for Youth in Foster Care

The purpose of this procedure letter is to provide guidance to public children services agencies (PCSA) and private child placing agencies (PCPA) on obtaining annual credit reports and resolving inaccuracies for youth who have attained the age of fourteen and are in foster care per rule 5101:2-42-19 of the Administrative Code. In accordance with the Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act and rule 5101:2-42-19 of the Administrative Code, the custodial agency is required to request a credit report for youth age fourteen or older annually from each of the three credit reporting agencies (CRA). This may be completed simultaneously or separately throughout the year in order to monitor any activity. Each CRA has a different procedure for requesting a minor’s credit report and the instructions for each CRA are outlined in this Procedure Letter.

Obtaining a Youth's Credit Report

The following information must be sent to each CRA to request the credit report:

- A copy of the youth’s birth certificate or other legal documentation of the youth’s full name and age.
- Verification that the agency has the legal authority to request the credit report information.
- Documentation that the youth is in foster care (e.g. a court order or other document).
- Verification of the identity of the requester and that he/she has the right to request a credit report on behalf of a minor youth. This method shall be developed by the agency (e.g., a copy of the agency ID badge).
- Address of the agency where the credit report is to be sent.
- Other information to assist the CRA in their search of a credit report for the youth may include, but is not limited to: the youth’s current address and any other addresses from the past two years, nicknames, and social security number.

Instructions for Contacting Each CRA

EQUIFAX CRA

Equifax CRA provides access to credit report histories through the Equifax e-Port system. Each agency is required to have a password protected profile with a primary contact person to obtain youth credit reports through e-Port.

To establish a profile, the agency director must send the name and e-mail address for the primary contact person (i.e., staff person who will be requesting youth credit reports) to Sonia Tillman, Differential Response and Special Projects Manager at Sonia.Tillman@jfs.ohio.gov.

EXPERIAN CRA

We have now established a new electronic process with Experian CRA. You now have the option of sending the requests via mail or electronically, as described below.

Send the required information manually by mail to:
Experian National Consumer Assistance Center
Allen, Texas 75013

Experian recommends using USPS Priority, UPS or FedEx for tracking. Sensitive information may be redacted from the court order as long as the identification of the minor remains intact. The CRA's response will be "No Record" or the credit report will be sent to the requestor (agency) through regular mail. For security purposes, the envelope will not indicate that it is from Experian. There is no charge for this process.

To sign up for Experian's electronic data base send your inquiry to experianfosteryouth@experian.com and include the following information: agency name, county, contact name, address (e-mail and regular mail), phone number, and state. Experian will have the agency complete a membership application and sign an “Agreement for Credit Reports for Foster Youth.” Following the approval, Experian’s Membership department will set up an online account and contact the county’s designated contact for final installation and setup. There is no charge for this sign up or for this service.

TransUnion CRA

Agencies are able to obtain credit report histories from TransUnion CRA through the TransUnion Direct database. The agency is responsible for executing a no-cost agreement with TransUnion for access to the system.

Requests may be completed electronically individually or by multiples (batch) of no more than 50. Contact the individual listed below for more information on executing an agreement with TransUnion CRA:

Megan Moyer at fostercare@transunion.com or (714) 680-7268

RESOLVING CREDIT REPORT INCONSISTENCIES

A minor cannot enter into an agreement with a business, agency, or entity, and therefore should have no record with any credit bureau unless there is an error or the child is a victim of identity theft. If the credit report shows any irregularities or inconsistencies, the agency should contact the Ohio Attorney General's (AGO) office to request assistance in resolving the issue.

To make a referral to the AGO, the agency must send copies of all information related to the credit report including correspondence with the CRAs, a cover letter on agency letterhead, and the completed AGO ID Theft Affidavit (see attachment) including the youth’s signature attesting that to the best of his or her knowledge the accounts were not opened by him or her to:

Ohio Attorney General

FCASPL 325 (Obsoletion of the MEPA Data Collection Requirements and Biennial Self-Assessment Report and Revision of the Foster Care and Adoption Recruitment Plans)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 325

January 24, 2018

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

SUBJECT: Obsoletion of the Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA) Data Collection Requirements and Biennial Self-Assessment Report and revision of the Foster Care and Adoption Recruitment Plans

To streamline the documentation that agencies are required to provide to this office, this letter transmits the obsoletion of the JFS 01420 "Multiethnic Placement Act Corrective Action and Resolution Plan Data Collection Requirements" and the JFS 01668 "Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA) Biennial Comprehensive Self-Assessment Report." These changes are effective immediately.

Rather than complete the JFS 01420 and JFS 01668 every two years as well as updating the foster care and adoption plan as needed, agencies will no longer be required to submit the forms to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services. Instead, agencies will annually review and update their foster and/or adoptive recruitment plan(s). A few minor adjustments will be made to those plan requirements to ensure that MEPA compliance is sufficiently addressed. The review and update shall be completed in the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) by June 30 each year.

If your agency has access to SACWIS and the most recently approved plan(s) is in the system, the plan review/update must be completed in SACWIS by completing the following:

1. Copy the current recruitment plan(s) in SACWIS by clicking the "copy" link next to the plan
2. Review the Recruitment Plan Information and make any needed updates
3. Add a new Effective Date of 07/01/2018 and then click on the Apply button
4. Review the Recruitment Plan Details Topics and make any needed updates
5. When the review and update is completed, click the Process Approval button and route to your ODJFS licensing specialist or technical assistance specialist for approval
6. If no changes were made to the contents of the plan, please indicate this in the Comments field on the Process Approval screen

Private Agencies: If your agency foster and/or adoptive recruitment plan(s) is not currently in the SACWIS system you will need to enter the recruitment plan(s) into the system with an effective date of 07/01/2018, then follow steps 5 and 6 above.

This guidance will result in amendments to the following rules:

- 5101:2-33-11 Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA) Agency Administrative Requirements;
- 5101:2-5-13 Required Agency Policies, Plans and Procedures;
- 5101:2-48-05 Agency Adoption Policy and Recruitment Plan;

SUBJECT: State Fiscal Year (SFY) 2018 SAMS Maximum Monthly Funding Level

The purpose of this procedure letter is to provide guidance for county departments of job and family services (CDJFS) and their designated agencies on the implementation of the Ohio Database for Adult Protective Services (ODAPS) information system.

In accordance with the requirements of rule 5101:9-14-02 of the Administrative Code, each CDJFS or its designated agency is required to collect and submit data into the APS Case Incident Reporting System (CIRS). This Administrative Code rule is being rescinded and will be replaced by rule 5101:2-20-02.

Effective October 1, 2017, ODAPS, which has been developed pursuant to section 5101.631 of the Revised Code, will replace CIRS as the APS information reporting system. All referrals received on or after October 1, 2017 are to be recorded in ODAPS.

CIRS will continue to be available until December 6, 2017 to allow agencies time to complete all investigation activities and enter the case information for reports received on or before September 30, 2017. After December 6, 2017, information in the CIRS will be accessible in a “Read Only” format. Ongoing protective services cases that were opened prior to October 1, 2017 will be maintained outside of ODAPS.

FCASPL 316 (Reimbursement of Nonrecurring Adoption Expenses for Children With Only a Special Need of "Substantial Risk")

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 316

March 17, 2017

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

SUBJECT: Reimbursement of nonrecurring adoption expenses for children with only a special need of "substantial risk"

This Procedure Letter (PL) identifies a change to the Public Children Services Agency (PCS) reimbursement of Nonrecurring Adoption Expenses identified in Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-49-21 "Reimbursement of nonrecurring adoption expenses for a child with special needs." Children with only the special need of substantial risk are eligible for nonrecurring adoption expenses. The enhancement was made to the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) on July 1, 2016.

Until this rule is revised, this PL serves as notice that if all other non-recurring adoption expenses eligibility criteria identified in OAC rule 5101:2-49-21 are met, and the only special needs factor is the child has been determined to be at substantial risk, the child is eligible for nonrecurring adoption assistance. This procedure letter will be effective March 16, 2017.

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director
SUBJECT: CRIMINAL RECORDS CHECK PROCEDURES FOR CHILD CARE STAFF, FOSTER AND/OR ADOPTIVE CAREGIVERS AND APPLICANTS

PURPOSE:
The purpose of this procedure letter is to identify a new process to receive and review all Bureau of Criminal Identification & Investigations (BCI) and Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) information on public and private agency child care staff (as defined in paragraph (B)(56) of rule 5101:2-1-01 of the Ohio Administrative Code) in facilities certified by the State of Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) and foster and/or adoptive caregivers and applicants as required in rules 5101:2-5-09.1 and 5101:2-48-09 of the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC).

BACKGROUND:
Federal requirements under 45 CFR § 1356.30(f) require ODJFS to document that agencies it certifies have conducted criminal records checks for public and private agency child care staff, and foster and/or adoptive parents and applicants.

Since 1993, section 2151.86 of the Ohio Revised Code (ORC) has required any entity that employs persons to be responsible for a child's care in out-of-home care to conduct criminal records checks for public and private agency child care staff prior to hire. It also requires the administrative director of any entity that designates a person as a prospective foster and/or adoptive caregiver or applicant, to request criminal records checks of these persons prior to certification, and every four years thereafter. Rules 5101:2-5-09, 5101:2-5-09.1 and 5101:2-48-09 of the OAC identify the frequency and manner by which criminal records checks are to be conducted. All criminal records checks must be conducted using section 2151.86 of the ORC as the reason fingerprinted.

INSTRUCTIONS:
ODJFS foster care licensing specialists will be reviewing criminal records checks for all current child care staff, foster and/or adoptive caregivers and applicants to ensure agencies have completed these using section 2151.86 of the ORC as the reason fingerprinted. Agencies must send the actual criminal records checks along with the new JFS 01291 in accordance with the following instructions:

Instructions for Submitting Background Check Information

KOFAX

Agencies MUST use the attached new form JFS 01291 “FCL Criminal Records Check Document Cover Sheet” to fax background checks and supporting documents FOR EACH PROVIDER OR CHILD CARE STAFF (one cover sheet per foster/adoptive parent, applicant or direct care staff) to 614-387-8711. Please do not use any other fax cover sheet and please do not send the requested information via email due to federal and state confidentiality requirements. If you have questions, please contact your Licensing Specialist or Licensing Supervisor.

For the initial phase in of 100% review of criminal background checks, all agencies will be required to submit a list which includes the following information for each child care staff:

- Name (First, Middle Initial, Last)
- Date of hire (MM/DD/YYYY)
- Date staff works independently with children (MM/DD/YYYY)
For the initial phase in of 100% review of criminal background checks, all agencies will be required to submit a list which includes the following information for each foster care and/or adoption applicant:

- Date BCII check conducted (MM/DD/YYYY)
- Date BCII results received (MM/DD/YYYY)
- Date FBI check conducted (MM/DD/YYYY)
- Date FBI results received (MM/DD/YYYY)
- Date statement of non-conviction was signed (MM/DD/YYYY)

This form is to be completed even if the student remains in his or her school of origin in order to maintain accuracy of educational records and contact information. Should the child be transferring schools, this form is to be presented to both the previous and enrolling schools and districts to initiate timely enrollment and records transfer. When applicable, this form should be completed during the Best Interest Determination process.

FCASPL 302 (Reimbursement of Nonrecurring Adoption Expenses Procedure Changes)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 302

April 25, 2016

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: The Office of Legal and Acquisition Services
SUBJECT: Reimbursement of Nonrecurring Adoption Expenses procedure changes

This Procedure Letter (PL) identifies changes to the Public Children Service Agency (PCSA) reimbursement of Nonrecurring Adoption Expenses identified in Ohio Administrative Code 5101:2-49-21. Enhancements have been made to the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS). The PCSA will have the capability to determine eligibility for nonrecurring adoption expenses, capture the expenses identified on the JFS 01438, "Agreement for Payment or Reimbursement for Nonrecurring Expenses Incurred in the Adoption of a Child with Special Needs", and generate reimbursement to the PCSA for the nonrecurring adoption expenses once the agency has disbursed the costs in SACWIS. This change will eliminate the need for the PCSA to report the Nonrecurring Adoption Expenses on the JFS 02820 to seek reimbursement. This procedure letter will be effective July 1, 2016.

FCASPL 299 (Reasonable and Prudent Parent Standard Training)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 299
December 24, 2015

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

SUBJECT: Reasonable and prudent parent standard training

This procedure letter provides information to public children services agencies (PCSAs), private child placing agencies (PCPAs) and private non-custodial agencies (PNAs) regarding required training on the topic of the reasonable and prudent parent standard.

With the passage of Public Law 113-183, effective September 29, 2015 there are new Federal training requirements regarding the reasonable and prudent parent standard. All foster caregivers and a minimum of one staff member of a residential facility are required to receive training on the reasonable and prudent parent standard.

Ohio law has also changed. Division (C)(1) of section 5103.162 of the Revised Code states "a foster caregiver shall use a reasonable and prudent parent standard when considering whether to authorize a foster child who resides in the foster home to participate in extracurricular, enrichment, and social activities."

ODJFS has implemented a rule change for pre-placement training for foster caregivers in rule 5101:2-5-33 of the Administrative Code requiring the standard to be included in the pre-placement training. This change was effective August 1, 2015. Also, changes were made to rule 5101:2-9-03 of the Administrative Code regarding the training for residential staff as referenced above. This rule was effective December 1, 2015.

Even though there was no rule change regarding existing foster caregivers, they still must be trained in the standard. If the caregiver has already been trained in the standard, they have met compliance with the Federal requirements. If they have not been trained in the standard, they must be trained in order to be compliant with Public Law 113-183. Also, in accordance with division (C)(1) of section 5103.162 of the Revised Code, foster caregivers must use the standard when making decisions concerning extracurricular, enrichment, and social activities of the foster child. This is best accomplished in consultation with the custodial agency to ensure compliance with county policy.

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director
SUBJECT: Guidance for Public Children Services Agencies and Private Child Placing Agencies Regarding Credit Reports for Youth in Foster Care

The purpose of this procedure letter is to provide guidance to public children services agencies (PCSA) and private child placing agencies (PCPA) on obtaining annual credit reports and resolving inaccuracies for youth who have attained the age of fourteen and are in foster care until rule 5101:2-38-10 of the Administrative Code has been revised. In accordance with the Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act and rule 5101:2-38-10 of the Administrative Code, the custodial agency is required to request a credit report for youth age fourteen or older annually from each of the three credit reporting agencies (CRA). This may be completed simultaneously or separately throughout the year in order to monitor any activity. Each CRA has a different procedure for requesting a minor’s credit report and the instructions for each CRA are outlined in this Procedure Letter.

Obtaining a Youth's Credit Report

The following information must be sent to each CRA to request the credit report:

- A copy of the youth’s birth certificate or other legal documentation of the youth’s full name and age.
- Verification that the agency has the legal authority to request the credit report information.
- Documentation that the youth is in foster care (e.g. a court order or other document).
- Verification of the identity of the requester and that he/she has the right to request a credit report on behalf of a minor youth. This method shall be developed by the agency (e.g., a copy of the agency ID badge).
- Address of the agency where the credit report is to be sent.
- Other information to assist the CRA in their search of a credit report for the youth may include, but is not limited to: the youth’s current address and any other addresses from the past two years, nicknames, and social security number.

Instructions for Contacting Each CRA

EQUIFAX CRA

Equifax CRA provides access to credit report histories through the Equifax e-Port system. Each agency is required to have a password protected profile with a primary contact person to obtain youth credit reports through e-Port.

To establish a profile, the agency director must send the name and e-mail address for the primary contact person (i.e., staff person who will be requesting youth credit reports) to Sonia Tillman, Differential Response and Special Projects Manager at Sonia.Tillman@jfs.ohio.gov.

EXPERIAN CRA

We have now established a new electronic process with Experian CRA. You now have the option of sending the requests via mail or electronically, as described below.

Send the required information manually by mail to:

Allen, Texas 75013
Experian recommends using USPS Priority, UPS or FedEx for tracking. Sensitive information may be redacted from the court order as long as the identification of the minor remains intact. The CRA’s response will be "No Record" or the credit report will be sent to the requestor (agency) through regular mail. For security purposes, the envelope will not indicate that it is from Experian. There is no charge for this process.

To sign up for Experian’s electronic data base send your inquiry to experianfosteryouth@experian.com and include the following information: agency name, county, contact name, address (e-mail and regular mail), phone number, and state. Experian will have the agency complete a membership application and sign an “Agreement for Credit Reports for Foster Youth”. Following the approval, Experian’s Membership department will set up an online account and contact the county’s designated contact for final installation and setup. There is no charge for this sign up or for this service.

TransUnion CRA

Agencies are able to obtain credit report histories from TransUnion CRA through the TransUnion Direct database. The agency is responsible for executing a no-cost agreement with TransUnion for access to the system.

Requests may be completed electronically individually or by multiples (batch) of no more than 50. Contact one of the individuals listed below for more information on executing an agreement with TransUnion CRA:

   Angela Pescatore at fostercare@transunion.com or (714) 680-7268
   Eric Rosenberg at erosenb@transunion.com or (312) 466-6323

RESOLVING CREDIT REPORT INCONSISTENCIES

A minor cannot enter into an agreement with a business, agency, or entity, and therefore should have no record with any credit bureau unless there is an error or the child is a victim of identity theft. If the credit report shows any irregularities or inconsistencies, the agency should contact the Ohio Attorney General's (AGO) office to request assistance in resolving the issue.

To make a referral to the AGO, the agency must send copies of all information related to the credit report including correspondence with the CRAs, a cover letter on agency letterhead, and the completed AGO ID Theft Affidavit (see attachment) including the youth’s signature attesting that to the best of his or her knowledge the accounts were not opened by him or her to:

   Ohio Attorney General
   Identity Theft Unit
   30 E. Broad Street, 14th Floor
   Columbus, OH 43215

Attachment: AGO ID Theft Affidavit
This procedure letter (PL) transmits clarification and technical assistance following the United States Supreme Court’s decision in Obergefell v. Hodges. Before the United States Supreme Court’s June 26, 2015 decision in Obergefell v. Hodges, Ohio’s constitution and statutory law which provided that marriage only consisted of a union between one man and one woman, was in effect. Pursuant to the United States Supreme Court’s decision in Obergefell v. Hodges, Ohio now must license and recognize same-sex marriages.

Consistent with the decision in Obergefell v. Hodges, all requirements, functions, benefits, services, and activities pertaining to married couples related to family, children and adult protective services are now applicable to same-sex married couples. Accordingly, same-sex married couples must be recognized as married for the purpose of adoption and the adoption approval process. Several ODJFS forms will also require changes to reflect the Court’s decision in Obergefell v. Hodges. Until form revisions are made, all references to husband, wife, father, mother, parent, spouse, and other terms that express familial relationships pertaining to married couples must be construed consistent with the Court’s decision.

Implementation

Effective immediately, the guidance in this letter shall supersede any existing policy, form, or technical assistance previously provided by ODJFS regarding this subject.

To: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
From: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director
Subject: Federal Requirements for the Transfer of Indian Children to a Tribal Title IV-E Agency or an Indian Tribe with a Title IV-E Agreement

This letter transmits policies and procedures and identifies the minimum federal requirements set forth in 45 CFR Section 1356.67 for the transfer of jurisdiction and/or responsibility for the placement and care of an Indian child from an Ohio Title IV-E agency to a Tribal Title IV-E agency or an Indian tribe with a Title IV-E agreement. These federal regulations do not affect the specified right of a tribe to seek the transfer of an Indian child’s case from county or court jurisdiction to tribal jurisdiction required under the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA). Regardless of whether or not a tribe is a Title IV-E tribe, the tribe continues to have the right to seek and, absent good cause to the contrary, obtain the transfer of jurisdiction of an Indian child’s case to the tribe. The requirements outlined in this procedure letter will be added to Chapter 5101:2-53 of the Administrative Code in the near future.

Federal Regulations 45 CFR Section 1356.67

The regulations require, at a minimum, the following:

1. Each state shall establish and maintain procedures for the transfer of responsibility for the placement and care of a child under a state Title IV-E plan to a Tribal Title IV-E agency or an Indian tribe with a Title IV-E agreement in a way that does not affect a child’s eligibility for, or payment of, Title IV-E and the child’s eligibility for Medicaid or other federal benefits.

2. The procedures require that the state shall:

   a. Determine, if not already completed, the child’s Title IV-E foster care maintenance (FCM) eligibility under section 472 or 473 of the Social Security Act at the time of the transfer of placement and care responsibility of a child to a Tribal Title IV-E agency or an Indian tribe with a Title IV-E agreement.

   b. Provide essential documents and information necessary to continue a child’s eligibility under Title IV-E and Medicaid programs under Title XIX to the Tribal Title IV-E agency or tribe with a Title IV-E agreement, including, but not limited to, providing:

      i. All judicial determinations to the effect that continuation in the home from which the child was removed would be contrary to the welfare of the child and that reasonable efforts described in section 471(a)(15) of the Social Security Act have been made;

      ii. Other documentation the state has that relates to the child’s Title IV-E eligibility under sections 472 and 473 of the Social Security Act;

      iii. Information and documentation available to the agency regarding the child’s eligibility or potential eligibility for other federal benefits;

      iv. The case plan developed pursuant to section 475(1) of the Social Security Act, including health and education records of the child pursuant to section 475(1)(C) of the Social Security Act; and

      v. Information and documentation of the child’s placement settings, including a copy of the most recent provider’s license or approval.

BACKGROUND
In accordance with ICWA [25 USC, section 1911(C)], "in any State court proceeding for the foster care placement of, or termination of parental rights to, an Indian child, the Indian custodian of the child and the Indian child's tribe shall have a right to intervene at any point in the proceeding."

A tribe may request transfer of jurisdiction from a state court to a tribal court at any point throughout the life of the case. In order to ensure a Title IV-E eligible child remains eligible when transferring jurisdiction to a Tribal court, the tribe must be a Tribal Title IV-E Agency or enter into a Title IV-E agreement with the state. The tribe may request:

1. Transfer of jurisdiction to a tribal court

   If the jurisdiction is transferred to the tribal court, the tribe assumes transfer of placement and care responsibility.

2. Transfer of placement and care responsibility to a tribe

   The tribe may assume placement and care responsibility of an Indian child, while the jurisdiction remains with the State court.

INSTRUCTIONS

Upon a tribe's request for the transfer of jurisdiction or the transfer of placement and care responsibility to the tribe, the Ohio Title IV-E agency will consult, collaborate, and coordinate with the tribe to establish a Title IV-E agreement and procedures to ensure the transfer of jurisdiction is in compliance with federal regulations as outlined in 45 CFR Section 1356.67.

Ohio's Title IV-E agencies are required to take the following steps when transferring an Indian child to a Tribal Title IV-E agency or an Indian tribe with a Title IV-E agreement, in accordance with the aforementioned federal requirements.

1. Title IV-E FCM Eligibility Determination

   The Ohio Title IV-E agency that has placement and care responsibilities for the child shall do the following:

   Determine FCM eligibility at the time of transfer, if an eligibility determination is not already completed.

   Provide a copy of the Title IV-E determination and supporting documentation to the tribe to support the Title IV-E eligibility determination. This documentation includes all judicial determinations to the effect that continuation in the home from which the child was removed would be contrary to the welfare of the child, reasonable efforts to prevent the removal have been made in accordance with rule 5101:2-47-13 of the Administrative Code, and documentation of how the child met the relatedness to the aid to dependent children (ADC) program authorized under Title IV-A of the Social Security Act as of July 16, 1996 in accordance with rule 5101:2-47-14 of the Administrative Code.

   Ohio’s Title IV-E agency’s legal responsibility and FCM reimbursement will be stopped upon acceptance from the receiving Title IV-E tribal agency or court in order for the tribe and state to claim the Title IV-E expenditures according to federal regulations. If the Ohio Title IV-E agency is holding any funding on behalf of the child such as Social Security Income, Child Support, trust, etc., these funds shall be transferred.

   The transfer does not affect a child's eligibility, receipt of services, or payment under Title IV-E or the medical assistance program operated under Title XIX.

2. Documentation Requirements

   In order to comply with the requirements of 45 CFR section 1356.67, a copy of the entire case file for the current foster care episode is to be provided to the Tribal Title IV-E agency or the Indian tribe with a Title IV-E agreement upon the transfer of the child. This includes the FCM eligibility, case services and licensing information for the child’s most recent placement, in the agency’s possession. The documents in the court file should also be provided to the tribal agency. This is equivalent to the procedures currently utilized when transferring a child from county to county.

Confidentiality is not violated because the provision of documentation is required by the federal regulations [45 CFR section 1356.67 (b)(2)]. The tribe or tribal agency in entering a Title IV-E agreement has agreed to comply with the same federal requirements on confidentiality to which the state is required to adhere. Moreover, providing the entire file recognizes the need for the receiving agency to have essential documentation and information to maintain the seamless care and provision of services for the well-being of the child.

In order to facilitate consistency in the structure of the file transfer and for purposes of the continuity of eligibility and services to the child, counties shall ensure the records are organized and include the following:

a. Placement and Care Responsibility
   A file stamped copy of all judicial orders and court reports for the foster care episode, especially those that include judicial determinations supporting continued Title IV-E eligibility.

b. Placement History
   A copy of the child’s placement history for the foster care episode shall include:
   - A copy of the caregiver’s license or approval for the child’s most recent placement, including background check documentation verifying clearances for all adults in the caregiver’s household and complaint information.
   - If a child is currently placed out-of-state by the Title IV-E agency pursuant to the Interstate Compact on Placement of Children (ICPC), the approved ICPC 100A Form and ICPC 100B Form, including copies of reports by the supervising agency, shall also be provided to the tribe.

c. Case Plans and Services
   Journalized copies of all case plans including case plan goals for the foster care episode and documentation of services provided to the child and family.
   A current copy of the child’s health and education forms.

d. Other Federal Benefit Documentation
   The child is to be transferred in a manner that does not affect his/her eligibility for, or payment of other federal benefits including Medicaid programs under Title XIX. Therefore, the Title IV-E agency shall provide the tribal agency any essential information and documentation necessary for the seamless continuation of any federal benefits, which the Title IV-E agency has in its possession.
   This includes, but is not limited to, information about the child’s eligibility for Child Support, Social Security, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), or other benefits, which are known to the Title IV-E agency and/or in pending status.

Children Placed under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC)

Determining when the ICPC applies:

1. The Title IV-E agency must inquire whether the receiving tribe has a contract with the receiving state for ICPC application. For example, some tribes contract with their state for child welfare services, home studies, and other similar services. If the receiving tribe has a contract with the receiving state, then the ICPC most likely applies to a placement with that tribe.

2. If the tribe has a Title IV-E agreement with the receiving state, the ICPC will most likely apply.

3. If the tribe assumes jurisdiction, there is no authority for a court to act, so the ICPC does not apply.
Transferring a child currently in an out-of-state placement to a tribal agency could jeopardize the continued flow of federal benefits if the placement becomes ineligible due to the termination of the ICPC placement.

The Ohio Title IV-E agency should therefore, upon receipt of the petition to transfer, notify the receiving state that the jurisdiction over the child may be transferred to a Title IV-E tribe or tribal agency. Title IV-E agencies are encouraged to initiate and foster communication between the tribe or tribal agency and the receiving state in order to avoid disruption of the placement and/or federal eligibility for FCM payments to the child’s caregivers.

- Intensive Needs - $200.00
- Emergency Family Foster Care - $300.00

Auxiliary Payments for Clothing (annual), Personal Incidentsals (annual), and Graduation Expenses
- Clothing - $3,000.00 (annual)
- Personal Incidentals - $3,000.00 (annual)
- Graduation Expenses - $1,500.00

Although the ceilings are effective September 30, 2015, due to the provisions of the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings law, any increase is not reimbursable through the SACWIS system until October 1, 2015.

Ohio's Federal Financial Participation for Title IV-E foster care maintenance and adoption assistance payments for Federal Fiscal Year 2016 (October 1, 2015, through September 30, 2016) is 62.47%.

The SACWIS system will be adjusted to reflect these amounts of federal reimbursement for the periods and percentages noted above.

This letter transmits revisions to the JFS 02911 Single Cost Report form and JFS 02911-I Single Cost Report Instructions which are used pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 Public children services agencies (PCSA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), private noncustodial agencies (PNA): Title IV-E cost report filing requirements, record retention requirements and related party disclosure requirements. The revised form and instructions are to be used for the state fiscal year reporting period of July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015 (SFY 2015).

An explanation of the revisions to the cost report form and instructions appears below:

Form

- Transportation/Travel line in the Non-Personnel section of the Purchased Foster Care (PFC) and Residential (RES) service worksheets has been unbundled into separate line items entitled Transportation-Maintenance and Transportation-Administration; also, Transportation/Travel line on the Allocation of Administration Overhead worksheet has been retitled as Transportation-Administration. These changes will ensure calculated ceiling amounts incorporate proper federal reimbursable items.
- All worksheet footers updated to reflect "JFS 02911 (Rev. 8/2015)."
- Annual calculated inflation factor (.2%) added to the Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings and Cost Per Diems worksheet.

Instructions

- Identification of reportable cost items for the newly unbundled Transportation-Maintenance and Transportation-Administration line items (formerly Transportation/Travel) on the PFC and RES service worksheets. Note: For SFY 2015, if an agency’s accounting system does not capture Transportation-Maintenance and Transportation-Administration costs separately, the agency must report such costs as Transportation-Administration. However, for SFY 2016, all agencies must ensure their accounting system is properly coded to distinguish between Transportation-Maintenance and Transportation-Administration cost items.
- Diagrams were added to provide an illustration of the cost composition of the PFC and RES services on the Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings and Cost Per Diems worksheet.
- Date references were revised to reflect proper reporting and effective periods.

An agency which seeks to establish Title IV-E reimbursement ceilings for the effective period April 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, must complete the filing requirements as outlined in OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 (cost report) and OAC 5101:2-47-26.2 (agreed-upon procedures) for SFY 2015.

SUBJECT: Implementation Extension to the Effective Date of the Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-42-19 "Requirements for the Provision of Independent Living Service to Youth in Custody"

The Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) 5101:2-42-19 has been amended to comply with the Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act, Public Law (P.L) 113-183. The rule became effective July 15, 2015. The rule now includes independent living (IL) services and credit reports be provided to each youth in the custody of a public or private agency who has reached his or her fourteenth birthday or comes into custody after this age. To allow sufficient processing, ODJFS is extending the implementation date for this rule. Attached is a summary of the changes to the rule and policy guidance addressing areas of impact. This has been included for you and your staff to review.

Counties are responsible for assessing the fourteen and fifteen year olds in custody by using assessment tools such as the Daniel Memorial or Casey Independent Living Assessment tool. The rule requires that the independent living assessment be completed within sixty days from the youth's fourteenth birthday or entrance into agency custody if older than fourteen. The independent living plan must then be completed within thirty days of the completion of the assessment. The case plan amendment is due within seven days upon the completion of the independent living plan.

For children age fourteen and fifteen currently in the custody of the agency you may choose to delay the initiation of these new requirements until October 29, 2015.

The Office of Families and Children is working to update SACWIS functionality with regards to the Semiannual Administrative Review (SAR)/Case Review for children who are fourteen and fifteen. Currently, the Independent Living Services hyperlink on the SAR/Case Review only appears when the system recognizes a child in custody who is at least sixteen years old. Until this functionality is updated, ODJFS is offering the following guidance to agencies when SARs and Case Reviews are being completed on children who are fourteen and fifteen:

1) Click on the Case Analysis topic on the SAR/Case Review Topics screen.

2) In the narrative box "Describe the reasons for the case status selected above. Discuss how the risk reassessment, safety review, family perception, case progress review, including strengths and needs summary and services review informs change readiness of the family, permanency planning and service provision. If the case is being closed, provide a summary justifying case closure." Address the following along with any other narrative you would add:

   a) The status of the Independent Living Assessment including the completion date, if completed.
   b) The status of the Independent Living Plan
   c) The date of the most recent Readiness Review
   d) Credit Report Review information (reference rules 5101:2-38-10 for credit report requirements).
      i) Date the credit report was requested, if applicable.
      ii) Date the credit report was provided to the child, if applicable.
      iii) Date inconsistencies were reported to the Ohio Attorney General or a statement that inconsistencies were not found on the report, if applicable.
If there are questions or concerns please contact the SACWIS Help Desk or your Technical Assistance Specialist.

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) distributes the TANF Independent Living Allocation to Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs) to enable youth who have or who will emancipate from foster care to have the skills and support necessary to help them achieve self-sufficiency and lead productive lives.

The activities funded under the allocations are to support the provision of independent living (IL) services and assistance to youth ages 14 and older who are in the agency’s custody and young adults ages 18 to 21 who have emancipated from the agency’s care in accordance with Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules 5101:2-42-19 Requirements for the Provision of Independent Living Services to Youth in Custody and 5101:2-42-19.2. Requirements for Provision of Independent Living Services to Young Adults Who Have Emancipated. In accordance with OAC rule 5101:9-6-08.6 Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) Independent Living (IL) Allocation, PCSAs may also use the funds to support the provision of independent living services to youth in their custody under the age of 14 when the youth is likely to remain in agency care until the youth’s eighteenth birthday.

In addition to supporting activities directly related to IL services, ODJFS has identified the following activities that are also allowable services under this allocation:

Allowable Expenditures for Youth in the PCSA’s Custody

- For youth in a PCSA’s custody, the agency may purchase services, make contractor payments, and make incentive payments consistent with the youth’s life skills assessment and written independent living plan developed in accordance with rule 5101:2-42-19. With the exception of medical services, PCSA’s may use the funding to purchase services using the service categories outlined in rule 5101:2-42-19.

- A PCSA may also offer incentives to eligible youth to promote successful behavioral outcomes. Such outcomes may include: academic achievement such as honor roll or election to student council; acts or recognition of good citizenship in the community; or the achievement of milestones that further the youth’s accomplishment of goals/expectations outlines in the youth’s independent living plan. Incentives may be provided to youth in the form of a cash payment. The value of incentive should not be disproportionately large.

- Payments to contractors for room and board are not allowable for youth in the PCSA’s custody unless they are eighteen or older and voluntarily remain in foster care. In addition, services and payments may not fall within the definition of “assistance” under TANF nor otherwise prohibited by TANF regulations.

Allowable Expenditures for Young Adults Who Have Emancipated from Agency Care

- Allocation funding may be used to purchase services, make contractor payments, and provide incentive awards for young adults who have emancipated from foster care. Such persons must enter into a written plan developed in accordance with rule 5101:2-42-19.2. Purchased services, contractor payments, or incentive awards must be consistent with the aforementioned plan. In developing the plan, the PCSA must place a special emphasis on defining goals and outcomes which assist the young adult in achieving and maintaining self-sufficiency.

- Except for medical services, PCSAs may purchase services using the service categories outlined in rule 5101:2-42-19.2. PCSAs may also purchase other services, make payments to contractors, or provide incentives to the young adult to assist in furthering the young adult’s achievement of self-sufficiency as outlined in the written plan. Services and payments may not fall within the TANF definition of “assistance” or be designed to continuously meet a youth’s ongoing basic needs.

- Some allowable expenditures which a PCSA may consider on a case-by-case basis for a young adult who has emancipated or a young adult who is eighteen and older and voluntarily remain in foster care include:
  - Security deposits, utility deposits, and rent and utility payments for up to four months when there is a clear plan that the young adult will be able to maintain ongoing payments beyond those for which he or she has received assistance from the PCSA.
  - Up to $1000 to assist with furniture.
  - Driver’s education classes and driver’s license fees.
  - A one-time payment to a contractor to purchase or help to purchase a used car to support the young adult’s employment when there is a clear plan that the young adult will be able to maintain the costs and responsibilities associated with a car.
  - A one-time payment to a contractor up to $2000 to cover the cost of repairs to a car that is used to support the young adult’s employment, provided that such repairs are necessary to the functioning of the car and are not considered ongoing car maintenance (e.g. an oil change).
  - Work clothes, tools, supplies, examinations/testing, and/or permit fees needed to obtain or maintain employment.
  - Payment of a membership to join a YMCA or other activity which would help a young adult to maintain a responsible lifestyle. The membership should be limited in time.
  - Employment mentoring.
  - Nominal incentive awards in the form of cash payment for the achievement of specific behavioral outcomes outlined in the written plan between the youth and the PCSA.

Case-by-Case Considerations for Emancipated Youth

These funds are intended to allow PCSAs flexibility in designing a service plan which meets the individual needs of each youth on a case-by-case basis while also weighing the young adult’s level of maturity, ability to accept responsibility and the various options that are available to that young adult in the county.

For example, one county may have an excellent public transportation system where another county has minimal public transit services available. One young adult may have demonstrated responsibility through having been employed while under agency custody and responsibility driving the car of his foster family while in their care. Perhaps he or she would only need some assistance from the PCSA to make a one-time purchase or repair a car to be used in employment or to assist with initial housing costs. When considering the purchase of a car that can support the young adult’s employment, the PCSA should take due care to consider that young adult’s ability to pay for car insurance, fuel, and ongoing maintenance costs. Agencies are encouraged to dialogue with their legal counsel to discuss any additional parameters the county wishes to be factored into the written plan developed with the emancipated youth in regard to the services and supports the PCSA will provide.

General Prohibition Relevant to the TANF IL Allocation

- Funds may not be used for the purchase of child care.
- Funds may not be used to provide transportation for unemployed youth or young adults.
- Funds may not be used for the following activities:
  1) To support staff salaries or to pay contractors for room and board for youth in the PCSA’s custody;
  2) Services and payments that are assistance as defined in 45 C.F.R 260.31 (a);
  3) Medical services;
  4) Juvenile Justice services;
  5) Title IV-D child support;
  6) Title IV-E services;
7) Foster care maintenance
8) Construction or purchases of buildings or facilities;
9) Purchase of real property;
10) Public education; or
11) To provide cost sharing or matching requirements of another federal program.

- The TANF IL funds are made available to enhance current funding. Funds available through the Chafee IL program, the education and training voucher (ETV) program, the Workforce Investment Act (WIA), the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), and other community resources must be utilized first for services allowable under these programs.

Availability and Claiming
All PCSAs received a SFY15 notice from the Bureau of County Finance and Technical Assistance that provides the allocation amount for each county and applicable time periods. Please refer to the Fiscal Administrative Procedure Manual rule 5101:9-6-08.6 Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) Independent Living (IL) Allocation for instructions on claiming allowable costs against the allocation.

FCASPL 288 (ABC Nursery Program for Infants and Incarcerated Mothers)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 288

August 27, 2015

To: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

From: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

Subject: ABC Nursery Program for Infants and Incarcerated Mothers

This Procedure Letter provides information to public children services agencies (PCSAs) regarding the Achieving Baby Care Success (ABC'S) Program operated out of the Ohio Reformatory for Women in Marysville. Additionally, this letter provides guidance and clarification regarding PCSA responsibilities to provide placement services for infants of incarcerated mothers, specifically as the requirements relate to the ABC Nursery Program. This guidance will result in amendments to rule 5101:2-42-60 of the Administrative Code in the near future.

The ABC'S Program allows incarcerated pregnant inmates to maintain custody of their infants after they are born. As part of the eligibility requirements for this program, the inmate must have an alleged perpetrator check completed and must also have an alternative plan for the child if the child or inmate are unable to complete the program or do not qualify for the program. An alternative plan includes the identification and completion of an approved home assessment of a relative or non-relative caregiver, or an agreement by the PCSA that the child will be taken into custody and placed into another substitute care setting.

Rule 5101:2-42-60 of the Administrative Code requires PCSAs to coordinate with correctional facilities to ensure appropriate placement services are provided to infants of incarcerated mothers. Paragraph (B)(1) of rule 5101:2-42-60 requires that PCSAs conduct a home assessment of a proposed relative or non-relative caregiver recommended by the incarcerated woman. "Relative" as defined in rule 5101:2-1-01 of the Administrative Code includes individuals related by blood or adoption. When the incarcerated woman recommends her spouse or the child's father as a possible placement resource for the child, the PCSA is required to complete a home assessment in accordance with rule 5101:2-42-18 of the Administrative Code for that individual.

To facilitate the operation of this program, the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services will coordinate with the Ohio Reformatory for Women to conduct alleged perpetrator checks at the request of the inmate who is being considered for eligibility. PCSAs will not be required to complete these requests. However, PCSAs are required to complete home assessments for the relative or non-relative caregiver that has been identified as an alternative placement option in the event that the inmate and child are not able to complete the program. This requirement is applicable even when the request is made prior to the child's birth. Additionally, PCSAs are asked to provide a statement, on letterhead, when requested by the Ohio Reformatory for Women that if there is no identified or approved relative or non-relative caregiver for the inmate, that the PCSA, at a later date, will take custody of the child and locate another substitute care placement if needed.
TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director
SUBJECT: State Fiscal Year (SFY) 2016 SAMS Maximum Monthly Funding Level

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) is issuing this procedure letter to identify the maximum monthly funding level for the State Adoption Maintenance Subsidy (SAMS) program.
The maximum funding level for SFY 2016 for the State Adoption Maintenance Subsidy (SAMS) remains unchanged at $250 per month per adoptive child. Pursuant to Ohio Administrative Code rules 5101:2-44-06 "Eligibility for the state adoption maintenance subsidy program" and 5101:2-44-08 "Redetermination and amendment of a state adoption maintenance subsidy", if a public children services agency (PCSA) negotiates a payment in excess of the maximum SAMS payment as identified in this procedure letter, the PCSA shall enter into a separate county agreement with the adoptive parent for a county adoption maintenance subsidy (CAMS).

This Procedure Letter (PL) transmits changes to the JFS 01677 Foster Youth Rights Handbook as a result of Public Law 113-183 Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act that became effective September 29, 2014. The law requires each youth to receive notification of his or her rights upon entering foster care and to have the rights reviewed with him or her in an age-appropriate manner.

The following is a brief explanation of the changes:

- Agencies must provide each youth who has attained age 14 (and above) and is in foster care, enters foster care, or turns 14 years of age while in foster care a copy of the Foster Youth Rights Handbook. If a youth in foster care has already received a handbook, a new handbook is not necessary.
- The bottom portion of the signature page is to be signed by the youth which documents receipt of the handbook and that the handbook has been reviewed with the youth. The signature page is then to be detached from the handbook and attached to the case plan (initial or amended) which is to be submitted to court.
- If a youth refuses or is unable to sign the form, the caseworker should have the substitute caregiver sign the signature page and leave the handbook with the substitute caregiver for the youth. The handbook should follow the youth throughout his or her placement(s).
- The handbooks can be ordered through Forms Central at http://innerapp.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inner.asp

FCASPL 282-A (Revisions to Existing Foster Care and Adoption Forms)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 282-A

November 10, 2015

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

SUBJECT: Revisions to existing foster care and adoption forms

This letter transmits a revision to the original FCASPL 282 posted October 7, 2015 due to the change in revision date of the JFS 01680. Please refer to the revised chart at the end of this letter for the change.

This letter transmits revisions to thirteen forms that are used during the foster care and adoption homestudy process. The homestudy rules are being rescinded and issued as new in an effort to align the foster care and adoption homestudy processes. The following forms are being revised to assist in this process, and will be effective when the corresponding rules are effective. The following is a brief explanation of revisions to each of the forms:

- The JFS 01318, "SACWIS Private Agency Provider Request" was revised to add a third applicant in those situations where there are more than two foster caregivers on a license, and to include a request for the authentication/transaction control number (TCN) from the bureau of criminal identification and investigation (BCII) for rapback purposes. Formatting changes were also made for clarity.
- The JFS 01318I, "Instructions for Completing the JFS 01318, SACWIS Private Agency Provider Request" was revised to reflect the changes to the JFS 01318 and the requirements throughout Chapters 5101:2-5 and 5101:2-48. The instructions were also reformatted for clarity and ease of the reader.
- The JFS 01331, "Notice of Expiration and Reapplication for a Foster Home Certificate or Adoption Homestudy Approval" was revised to emphasize the importance of the caregiver submitting the form timely so that the recertification or update is done prior to the expiration of the current span. Form was also revised to align with rule that states agencies may send the form to the caregivers from 90-150 days prior to expiration to begin the recertification process.
- The JFS 01334, "Recommendation for Transfer of a Foster or Adoptive Home" was revised to add a third caregiver, in those situations where there are more than two foster parents on a license, and to include a request for the authentication/TCN from BCII for rapback purposes. A checkbox was added to the verifications section to ensure that references were received from adult children of the caregivers. There was also a statement of understanding added below the signature area notifying caregivers their signature indicates permission is granted for the receiving agency to access the provider's information in SACWIS.
- The JFS 01348, "Safety Audit of a Family Foster Home, Also used for Adoption" was renamed "Safety Audit." It was revised to update rule language and rule citations, and to add safety requirements that are currently in rule, such as medications stored in locked containers and foster caregivers providing smoke free environments. A 'will obtain' option was added for cribs and carseats for younger children who may be placed in the home. Reasons for completing the form were also expanded, to include 'renovation', 'update', and 'other.'
- The JFS 01385, "Assessment for Child Placement Update" was revised and reformatted to resemble more closely the JFS 01673. Section II regarding household members and sleeping arrangements was added, as well as Section X, regarding the usage of the home. This was done to more accurately capture the most current, basic information about a home. Narrative questions were revised and updated. Language regarding waivers and variances was revised to reflect current rule.
- The JFS 01530, "Multiple Children/Large Family Assessment" was renamed "Large Family Assessment." Several questions were revised to be less 'child specific' as the adopted child will more than likely not be known at the time the large family assessment is completed. Direction is provided on the form that if the specific child to be adopted is unknown when the large family assessment is completed, to base answers on the characteristics the family is approved to adopt at the time of the homestudy.

- The JFS 01673, "Assessment for Child Placement" was revised to flow more in the order of the JFS 1691 application. The requirement for social security numbers was removed. The section asking about criminal and DUl history was changed to document additional data. Options were added for families who ‘will obtain’ a crib when a younger child is placed with them. A narrative section was added to document references received from adult children of the caregivers. Narrative questions were revised and updated. The language in the supports section was revised to state that alternate caregivers can be listed there, if known and approved at the time of the homestudy. Language regarding waivers and variances was revised to reflect current rule. Assessment checklist was revised to include all requirements and reformatted for clarity.

- The JFS 01673I, "Instructions for Completing JFS 01673, Assessment of Child Placement" was reformatted to align with the order of the newly revised JFS 01673 homestudy. Several questions were revised to offer more in-depth responses in the narrative sections. A section was added to provide instructions for obtaining references from adult children of the applicants.

- The JFS 01680, "Verification of Assessor Qualifications" was revised for clarity and to reflect current rule. Additional spaces were added for ongoing training, as well as instruction to add additional copies of page 3 as necessary. Removed requirement to send in documentation with form verifying details about the assessor training that was taken.

- The JFS 01691, "Application for Child Placement" was revised to reflect current rule changes, such as requesting information for any agency the applicant or adult household member has ever applied to for foster care or adoption, and contact information for adult children of the applicant. There was a prompt added to the first page asking if all members of the home have been Ohio residents the last five years. The section asking about criminal and DUl history was changed to request additional data. The section about experience was revised to request additional information. The statement of understanding at the end of the form was also revised to reflect current rule and practice.

- The JFS 01692, "Application for Adoption of a Foster Child" was renamed "Application for Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group" and was revised to allow only one form to be completed if foster parents are adopting a sibling group who have all been placed in the home for at least six months. The form was reformatted and questions updated to align with specific sections of the JFS 01691 and JFS 01673. The statement of understanding at the end of the form was also revised to reflect current rule and practice.

- The JFS 01698, "Step-Parent Adoption Homestudy" was updated and reformatted in some sections for clarity and ease of the reader. Grammar and spelling errors were fixed, and some questions that were not related to the assessment were removed or revised.

This Procedure Letter (PL) transmits clarification to the rules regarding who has the authority to complete caseworker visitation requirements, as a response to recent guidance from the federal government located in the CFSR Round 3 Onsite Review Instrument (pg. 66) located at https://training.cfsrportal.org/resources/3044. This guidance will result in amendments to rules 5101:2-42-65 and 5101:2-48-17 of the Administrative Code. Until those rules can be amended, ODJFS is issuing the following guidance:

The caseworker visits mandated by Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules 5101:2-42-65 and 5101:2-48-17 must be completed by a caseworker with the agency that has full responsibility for case planning and case management of the child's case. A few examples are listed below:

- Another caseworker employed by the agency that has full case management responsibilities of the case, such as another caseworker in the same unit as the worker assigned to the case, would be able to conduct these caseworker visits. In these circumstances, the worker completing the visit shall document in the activity log the reason a worker other than the assigned caseworker visited the child. While this practice is permitted, it is recommended that the assigned caseworker complete the majority of the required monthly visits.
- An agency that is given full case management responsibilities by the local public agency, such as managed care agencies, would be able to conduct these caseworker visits.
- Visits by caseworkers from agencies that are contracted to provide specific services while the public agency maintains decision making and case management responsibilities regarding the case or the child would not be counted toward this monthly visitation requirement.
- For those cases that require more than one monthly visit from a caseworker based on the treatment needs of the child or the current family situation, the agency with full case management responsibilities may contract with another agency for those additional visits, as long as the agency with full case management responsibilities completes the minimum monthly visitation.
- The only exception to this requirement is children who are placed in another state through the Interstate Compact for the Placement of Children (ICPC). Those visits must be completed by the supervising agency in the state where the child is placed, pursuant to the compact.

This visitation criteria will be included as part of the Child Protection Oversight and Evaluation (CPOE) 10 review requirements.

SUBJECT: Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-48-06 Ongoing Assessor Training Requirement of Six Hours Every Two Years

This Procedure Letter (PL) transmits clarification to the six hours of ongoing training requirements for adoption assessors in the area of foster care and/or adoption.

The rule revision that became effective 10/1/2014 states that "Completion of an additional six accredited training hours is required within each subsequent two year period from the completion date of the previous six hours of ongoing training."

Prior to the rule revision, an individual could complete their six hours of ongoing training any time in each two year span following completion of the tier two training. For example, an assessor's two year span is from 6/5/2011 to 6/4/2013. The assessor completes six hours of training on 4/3/2012. The assessor was in compliance with the way the rule was previously written as they would have until 6/4/2015 to complete an additional six hours of training. As of the 10/1/2014 rule change, the assessor would be out of compliance because it has been more than two years since the assessor completed 6 hours of ongoing training on 4/3/2012.

Therefore, ODJFS offers the following guidance:

- If the previous six hours of training occurred prior to May 1, 2013, then the assessor has until May 1, 2015 to complete the six hours of ongoing foster or adoptive training. The next 6 hours of training related to foster care and adoption will then be due two years from the date of completion of that six hours of training.
- If the previous six hours of training occurred on or after May 1, 2013, then the assessor has until two years from that completion date to complete the next six hours of ongoing training.

This Procedure Letter (PL) transmits notification regarding House Bill 213 that became effective September 17, 2014. The law requires the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) to develop a model notice for custodial agencies. The custodial agencies are required to provide the notice to caregivers of children who are placed in a PPLA status in a family like setting. The requirements outlined in this procedure letter will be added to rule 5101:2-42-90 of the Administrative Code in the near future.

The agency may modify the model notice to better fit the needs of the agency; however the notice must at a minimum include the following statements:

1. The caregiver understands the planned permanent living arrangement is intended to be permanent in nature and the caregiver will provide a stable placement for the child through the child’s emancipation or until the court releases the child from the custody of the agency, whichever occurs first.

2. The caregiver is expected to actively participate in the youth’s independent living case plan/independent living plan, attend agency team meetings and court hearings as appropriate.

3. The caregiver is to complete training related to providing the child independent living services.

4. The caregiver is to assist in the child’s transition into adulthood.

In collaboration with the OHIO Youth Advisory Board, a checklist has been created to assist caregivers and teenagers in preparing for adulthood. The custodial agency may use the checklist in its entirety or as an example to create tools for both children in care and foster caregivers.

SUBJECT: Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPAs) and Private Non-Custodial Agencies (PNAs) psychotropic medication agency policy.

This Procedure Letter (PL) transmits clarification for Private Non-Custodial Agencies (PNA) and Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPA) in regard to the psychotropic medication agency policy requirement specified in OAC 5101:2-5-13 (A)(29).

The following is a brief clarification:

- This rule requires all agencies to develop an agency policy monitoring the appropriate use of psychotropic medications for children in foster care to include:
  1. Comprehensive and coordinated screening, assessment, and treatment planning mechanisms to identify the child's mental health and trauma-treatment needs including a psychiatric or medical evaluation, as necessary, to identify needs for psychotropic medication.
  2. Informed and shared decision-making and methods for ongoing communication between the prescriber, the child, the child's parents or caregivers, other healthcare providers, and the agency case worker.
  3. Effective medication monitoring for the children placed in care.

- After reviewing the information, ODJFS has determined the only item that would be applicable to PCPAs and PNAs is the effective medication monitoring for the children placed in care. When addressing the first two items in their agency policy, the PNAs and PCPAs need only refer to the fact that these two items are a function of a public agency and the items are not applicable.

This letter transmits revisions to the JFS 02911 Single Cost Report form and JFS 02911-I Single Cost Report Instructions which are used pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 Public children services agencies (PCSA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), private noncustodial agencies (PNA): Title IV-E cost report filing requirements, record retention requirements and related party disclosure requirements. The revised form and instructions are to be used for the state fiscal year reporting period of July 1, 2013, through June 30, 2014 (SFY 2014).

An explanation of the revisions to the cost report form and instructions appears below:

Due to the rescission of Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services' (ODMHAS) cost report requirements (see Family, Children, and Adult Services Manual Procedure Letter No. 263), Forms A-1, A-2, A-3, and A-4 and their related instructions were removed from the JFS 02911 Single Cost Report. However, to ensure 100% reporting of an agency’s total costs, a single line on the JFS 02911’s Total Agency Cost Summary worksheet is designated to report ODMHAS aggregate Medicaid and non-Medicaid program costs.

There are no additional modifications to the SFY 2014 form except to update the revision date in the footer of the worksheets to reflect "JFS 02911 (Rev. 8/2014)." Furthermore, the calculated annual inflation factor of 3.7% was added to the reimbursement ceilings worksheet.

There are no substantive changes to the SFY 2014 instructions except for removal of instructions related to the previously mentioned ODMHAS' worksheets. Additionally, date references were revised to reflect proper reporting and effective periods.

Note: An agency which seeks to establish Title IV-E reimbursement ceilings for the effective period April 1, 2015, through March 31, 2016, must complete the filing requirements as outlined in OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 (cost report) and OAC 5101:2-47-26.2 (agreed-upon procedures) for SFY 2014.

The JFS 02911 is intended to be used in an automated format.

When downloading the Microsoft Excel version of the JFS 02911 Single Cost Report form, the macro security level must be lowered in order for the macro buttons to work properly. To lower the macro security level, open Microsoft Excel, click Tools, Options, and then the Security tab. Change the security level from high to low. At this point, the file can be downloaded. Once downloaded, open the file. A prompt will appear requesting that the macros be either disabled or enabled. Click Enable Macros. If the macro security level is not changed to low and the macros are not enabled, the macro buttons will not work when the file is opened.

SUBJECT: Rescission of Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services Cost Report Requirement Rules

The Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services’ (ODMHAS) cost report requirements as set forth in Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules 5122-26-19, 5122-26-19.1, 3793:2-1-09, and 3793:2-1-10 will be rescinded effective June 19, 2014, and will apply to the state fiscal year reporting period of July 1, 2013, through June 30, 2014 (SFY 2014).

For those agencies which report program costs to both Title IV-E and Medicaid (i.e., ODMHAS), the Title IV-E Single Cost Report Form JFS 02911 will continue to capture costs incurred under both programs in order to satisfy the requirements of Ohio Revised Code 5101.145. Form JFS 02911 will be modified to remove the Medicaid-related worksheets (e.g., Forms A-1 (047), A-2, A-3, and A-4). FCASPL 262 (Monthly Adoption Assistance Statewide Maximum)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 262

June 26, 2014

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Cynthia C. Dungey, Director

SUBJECT: Title IV-E Monthly Adoption Assistance Statewide Maximum and the Waiver request to exceed the Title IV-E Monthly Adoption Assistance Statewide Maximum

Pursuant to Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-49-05 this procedure letter transmits the Title IV-E Monthly Adoption Assistance Statewide Maximum (MAASM) for all new Adoption Assistance agreements that are entered into after the effective date of July 1, 2014. The first adoption assistance statewide maximum was calculated using the state fiscal year 2013 data from the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS). To calculate the MAASM, ODJFS used the total cost of all placements for children in a public and private agency foster home, including any ancillary costs (clothing, graduation expenses, child care, etc.) divided by the total number of paid placement days for children placed in these settings to arrive at a per diem. The per diem was multiplied by 365 days to arrive at an annual cost, and then divided by 12 months to arrive at the statewide maximum monthly MAASM. If the ceiling varies from state fiscal year (SFY) to SFY by more than ten per cent, the MAASM will be amended and communicated in a Family, Children and Adult Services procedure letter.

Effective July 1, 2014, the Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Statewide Maximum is $1,045.00.

Any existing monthly AA payment amount in excess of the statewide maximum, prior to July 1, 2014, shall remain in effect and shall continue to receive federal financial participation (FFP) up to the current FCM payment for a child in the same level of care.

If the Title IV-E agency that enters into the adoption assistance agreement and the adoptive parent(s) agree to an amount that exceeds the Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Statewide Maximum, the Title IV-E agency can request a waiver of the Title IV-E statewide maximum by sending the JFS 01471 "Waiver to exceed the Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Statewide Maximum" (rev.1/2014) to the email address MAASM@jfs.ohio.gov. Notification of approval or denial of the waiver request will be made within ten business days of receipt of the JFS 01471.

For any initial monthly AA agreements effective July 1, 2014, that has an approved JFS 01471, the subsidy begin date will be effective pursuant to 5101:2-49-08 of the Ohio Administrative Code. For any amended monthly AA agreements effective July 1, 2014, that has an approved JFS 01471, the effective date will be the month following the waiver approval date.

Although the MAASM is set at $1,045, no adoption assistance (AA) subsidy should exceed the foster care maintenance (FCM) amount the child would currently be receiving if he/she were in a public or private agency foster home. If the FCM amount is less than the MAASM, the monthly AA subsidy shall not exceed the FCM amount. If the FCM amount is in excess of the MAASM, and both parties agree to an AA subsidy amount higher than the MAASM and a waiver of the MAASM is submitted and approved, Federal funding is available up to the FCM amount the child would receive if he/she were currently in foster care. Any amount paid for an AA subsidy that exceeds the FCM amount the child would receive if he/she were currently in a public or private agency foster home or the MAASM where a waiver was not submitted and/or approved, shall be paid by the county using local funds.

SUBJECT: IN-STATE AND OUT-OF-STATE HOMESTUDIES REFERENCING THE RACIAL COMPOSITION OF A NEIGHBORHOOD

This letter outlines steps which shall be taken in instances where an agency discovers information contained within a homestudy, either from its own agency or one that has been received from another agency, that references the racial or ethnic composition of the neighborhood, the demographics of the neighborhood, and/or the presence or lack of presence of a significant number of persons of a particular race, color, or national origin in the neighborhood.

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules 5101:2-48-13 “Non-discrimination requirements for adoptive placements” and 5101:2-42-18.1 “Non-discrimination requirements for foster care placements,” prohibit delaying or denying placement of a child based upon the geographical location of the neighborhood of the prospective foster caregiver or adoptive family whenever geography is being used as a proxy for the racial or ethnic composition of the neighborhood. OAC rules 5101:2-48-13 and 5101:2-42-18.1 also prohibit delaying or denying placement of a child based on the demographics of the neighborhood and the presence, or lack of presence, of a significant number of persons of a particular race, color, or national origin in the neighborhood.

When an agency discovers a homestudy which contains an assessment prohibited by OAC rules 5101:2-48-13 and 5101:2-42-18.1, such as a description of the racial composition of the neighborhood, the agency shall:

1. Consult with its legal counsel with respect to all homestudies that contain language referencing the racial composition of the neighborhood;

2. Place a Multi-ethnic Placement Act (MEPA) alert on the section of the homestudy which references the racial composition of the neighborhood, indicating the language contained in the homestudy is prohibited by MEPA and that the section will not be considered in the placement decision-making process;

3. Return a copy of the homestudy containing the MEPA alert to the agency which originally completed and/or submitted the homestudy, indicating that the section referencing the racial composition of the neighborhood will not be considered in the placement decision-making process; and,

4. Forward to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services' Bureau of Child and Adult Technical Assistance (BCATA), a copy of the homestudy and notice that was sent to the offending agency. The documents shall be forwarded to the following address: P.O. Box 183204, Columbus, Ohio 43218-3204.

SUBJECT: Implementation of new forms JFS 01683 and JFS 01684

This letter transmits two new forms created as a result of Senate Bill 23, which allows adopted children and their lineal descendant access to the adoption records. The forms will be available March 2014 and will be utilized by the Department of Health. The following is a brief explanation of each of the forms:

- The JFS 01683, “Birth Parent Name Redaction” enables a birth parent to choose to have their name redacted from the copy of documents in the adoption file that an adopted person or their lineal descendant receives if they decide to request a copy of the record. The form stays in the adoption record on file with the Department of Health. In order to be in effect, the form must be submitted to the Department of Health by 3/19/2015. Pursuant to SB 23, this form will no longer be available beginning March 20, 2015.

- The JFS 01684, “Contact Preference for the Birth Parent(s) of Adopted Children” enables a birth parent of an adopted child to state their preference regarding any type of contact they would like to have with the adopted person or their lineal descendant. The form allows three options; to be contacted by the adopted person directly, to be contacted through an intermediary, or not to be contacted at all. Once completed this form stays in the adoption record on file with the department of health. If the adopted person or their lineal descendant decides to receive a copy of their file, this information will be provided to them.

FCASPL 250 (SFY 2013 Title IV-E Cost Report)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 250

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Michael B. Colbert, Director

SUBJECT: Changes to Foster Care Maintenance Single Cost Report Form (JFS 02911) and Instructions (JFS 02911-I)

This letter transmits revisions to the JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form and JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" which are used pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 Public children services agencies (PCSA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), private noncustodial agencies (PNA): Title IV-E cost report filing requirements, record retention requirements and related party disclosure requirements. The revised form and instructions are to be used for the state fiscal year reporting period of July 1, 2012, through June 30, 2013 (SFY 2013).

An explanation of the revisions to the cost report form and instructions appears below:

The JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form is the reporting format used to capture one hundred percent of operational costs of all public and private not-for-profit and for-profit providers of purchased family foster care and residential services. There are no modifications to the SFY 2013 form except to update the revision date in the footer of the worksheets to reflect "JFS 02911 (Rev. 7/2013)." Additionally, the calculated annual inflation factor of 3.1% was added to the reimbursement ceilings worksheet.

The JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" provide an overview of the cost report as well as detailed instructions for completing the report. There are no substantive changes to the SFY 2013 instructions; only date references were revised to reflect proper periods in addition to a change of mailing address for submitted material.

The JFS 02911 is intended to be used in an automated format. When downloading the Microsoft Excel version of the JFS02911 "Single Cost Report," the macro security level must be lowered for the macro buttons to work. To lower the macro security level, open Microsoft Excel, click "Tools," "Options," and then click the "Security" tab. At the bottom of the security sheet, click "Macro Security." Change the security level from high to low. At this point, the file can be downloaded. Once downloaded, open the file. A prompt will appear requesting that the macros be either disabled or enabled. Click "Enable Macros." If the Macro security level is not changed to low and the macros are not enabled, the macro buttons will not work when the file is opened.

FCASPL 246 (SACWIS Implementation of PASSS and Revisions to JFS 01051)

June 27, 2013

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 246

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

SUBJECT: Implementation of Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy (PASSS) Functionality in SACWIS and revisions to JFS 01051

This procedure letter is to inform Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs) that effective July 1, 2013, all applications and approvals for the PASSS program shall be entered and processed through the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS). PCSAs will no longer submit hard or electronic copies of applications and supporting documentation to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS).

In addition, the PCSA Director or designee will approve and sign the JFS 01051 “Application for Additional Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy” and enter the information into SACWIS. The approval section of the JFS 01051 has been revised to reflect this and the rule will be revised accordingly.

Beginning with applications approved on or after July 1, 2013, PASSS reimbursement will no longer be processed using the JFS 02820, “Children Services Quarterly Financial Statement.” PASSS expenditures will be reimbursed via the SACWIS monthly reimbursement process so counties will not have to wait until the end of a quarter to receive reimbursement. Enter the total expenditure amount regardless of the adoptive parent(s) co-pay percentage. SACWIS will automatically calculate the reimbursement amount due to the county based on the expenditure amount entered and the adoptive parents’ co-pay amount as indicated on the associated PASSS application. All expenditures for approved PASSS applications for the July 1, 2012, through June 30, 2013, period will still be reimbursed through the JFS 02820.

SACWIS Knowledgebase articles on this new functionality will be posted to the SACWIS Knowledgebase.

The problem report must include the data corrections requested along with supporting documentation and must be submitted by close of business October 5th, 2012 to ensure correction by the close of the cost quarter. SUBJECT: Instruction for Public Children Services Agencies regarding Case Service Review in SACWIS (i.e., End Dating Services in SACWIS)

New case service review functionality for the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS) was deployed via Build 1.116 on January 5, 2012. This functionality provides public children services agencies (PCSAs) the ability to conduct a comprehensive review of all services provided by, paid for, or arranged by the PCSA at any time during the period under review, regardless of whether or not the service was ever linked to the case plan or family service plan.

Effective October 1, 2012, the PCSA will be required to review:

1. Every service currently linked to the case plan or family service plan.
2. Every un-linked service that has not been end-dated.
3. Every service that was end-dated during the period under review including those services that were never linked to a case plan or family service plan.

PCSAs are encouraged to use the time between the effective date of this Procedure Letter and October 1, 2012 to end-date all inactive services, and consolidate any services being provided to multiple case members that are listed individually in SACWIS. For example, case management services listed separately for mother, father and children should be end-dated and recreated as a single service with all family members listed as participants.

Service reviews must be conducted pursuant to rules 5101:2-38-9, 5101:2-38-10, and 5101:2-38-20 of the Administrative Code.

SUBJECT: Changes To Foster Care Maintenance Single Cost Report Form (JFS 02911) And Instructions (JFS 02911-I)

This letter transmits revisions to the JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form and JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" which are used pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 Public children services agencies (PCSA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), private noncustodial agencies (PNA): Title IV-E cost report filing requirements, record retention requirements and related party disclosure requirements. The revised form and instructions are to be used for the state fiscal year reporting period of July 1, 2011, through June 30, 2012 (SFY 2012).

An explanation of the revisions to the cost report form and instructions appears below:

The JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form is the reporting format used to capture one hundred percent of operational costs of all public and private not-for-profit and for-profit providers of purchased family foster care and residential services. There are no modifications to the SFY 2012 form except to update the revision date in the footer of the worksheets to reflect "JFS 02911 (Rev. 7/2012)." Additionally, the calculated annual inflation factor of 2.9% was added to the reimbursement ceilings worksheet.

The JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" provide an overview of the cost report as well as detailed instructions for completing the report. There are no substantive changes to the SFY 2012 instructions; only date references were revised to reflect proper periods.

The JFS 02911 is intended to be used in an automated format.

When downloading the Microsoft Excel version of the JFS02911 "Single Cost Report," the macro security level must be lowered for the macro buttons to work. To lower the macro security level, open Microsoft Excel, click "Tools," "Options," and then click the "Security" tab. At the bottom of the security sheet, click "Macro Security." Change the security level from high to low. At this point, the file can be downloaded. Once downloaded, open the file. A prompt will appear requesting that the macros be either disabled or enabled. Click "Enable Macros." If the Macro security level is not changed to low and the macros are not enabled, the macro buttons will not work when the file is opened.

This procedure letter is to inform Public Children Service Agencies (PCSA) that the JFS 04281 (Children Services Quarterly Statistical Report) processed through the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS) for the data period January through March 2012 should not be used for the April through June 2012 Cost Quarter due to additional needed fixes that were discovered.

This letter is also to inform PCSA that there is no longer a requirement to complete the "Independent Living Services for Children in Custody" in Part one and the "Independent Living Services for Emancipated Youth" in Part two beginning with the April through June Cost Quarter. This change will also be captured in SACWIS for future reporting.

The JFS 04281 "Children Services Quarterly Statistical Report" (rev. 2/2010) and the JFS 04281-I "Instructions for completing JFS 04281 Children Services Quarterly Statistical Report" (rev. 2/2010) have been reinstated on the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, Forms Central web site for use until further notice. This procedure letter (PL) transmits proposed revisions to the reimbursement process for the JFS 01350, "Foster Caregiver Training Stipend, Recommending Agency Training Allowance Invoice and requirements for provider information entry into SACWIS."

The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes:

- Beginning with the training session date of March 1, 2012, all PCPAs and PNAs must process the stipend and allowance reimbursement through the State Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS). Any invoices for training session dates prior to March 1, 2012 must be submitted via the JFS 01350 for reimbursement.
- All data entry into the Fostercare Resource Education Database (FRED) ended on February 29, 2012. After this date, FRED will be "read-only" and the training sessions must be entered into SACWIS by the recommending PCPAs and PNAs.
- Beginning March 1, 2012, all PCPAs and PNAs must also enter acceptance characteristics and placement criteria into SACWIS.

This letter is to provide guidance to any public children services agency (PCSAs), private child placing agency (PCPAs), private non-custodial agency (PNAs) on how to obtain a reimbursement ceiling for an Independent Living setting. The following criteria must be met:

1) The IL setting where these children are placed is physically located at the address of licensure;
2) The agency is certified to provide Independent Living services;
3) The agency has 24 hour on-site supervision in the facility; and,
4) If the above conditions are met, the agency can establish Title IV-E reimbursement ceilings for the independent living program by reporting it as a separate service on the attached Title IV-E Cost Report (Form JFS 02911).

Agencies should contact Ryan Meanor at Ryan.Meanor@jfs.ohio.gov for specific filing requirements.

Subject: Forms Referencing the Race, Color or National Origin (RCNO) of Prospective Parents

The Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994, 42 U.S.C. 622(b) (9), 671(a) (18), 674(d) and 1996(b) (hereinafter "MEPA") and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000d, et seq as it applies to the foster care and adoption process (hereinafter "Title VI"), prohibits any adoption and/or foster placement agency or entity that accepts federal assistance from:

• Delaying or denying a child's foster care or adoptive placement on the basis of the child's or the prospective parent's race, color or national origin (RCNO); or from
• Denying to any individual the opportunity to become a foster or adoptive parent on the basis of the prospective parent's or the child's RCNO.

Under Title VI of the Act, federal funding for programs could be denied if any evidence of discrimination based on RCNO was present.

This Procedure Letter serves as a notice that public children services agencies (PCSAs), private non-custodial agencies (PNAs), and private child placing agencies (PCPAs) must cease using any non-JFS forms that contain RCNO of certified and licensed foster and/or adoptive parents when requesting information for a child's placement. All agencies shall also stop verbally requesting the RCNO of prospective, certified and licensed foster and/or adoptive parents when seeking placement of a child. The PCSA/PCPA MEPA Monitors or the PNA Director shall review all forms in which the agency created when soliciting placement information to ensure MEPA compliance. Agencies shall conduct an initial review of all forms by January 31, 2012 and submit the attached document confirming completion.

When an agency discovers information contained within a form, either from its own agency or one that has been received from another agency, the following steps shall occur:

1) Return a copy of the form with a MEPA alert to the agency and/or area which originally completed the form. Highlight the section requesting RCNO and indicate that it may be considered a MEPA violation and will not be completed.

2) Forward a copy of the form with a MEPA alert to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, Office of Families and Children, Deputy Director, P.O. Box 182709, Columbus, Ohio 43218-2709.

In order to maintain compliance with MEPA and Title VI as it pertains to the adoption and foster care process, there will be a discussion about forms created by agencies during MEPA onsite visits. Also, the JFS 01668, Multi Ethnic Placement Act (MEPA) Biennial Comprehensive Self-Assessment Report will be modified to include information pertaining to any additional documents the agency has created other than the required JFS forms.

Uniform Statewide Standards for Per Diem Foster Care Maintenance Rates
(0-18 years)
Minimum - $10.00
Maximum - $170.00

Per Diem Foster Care Maintenance Difficulty of Care Maximum Additional Rates
Special Needs - $100.00
Exceptional Needs - $200.00

SUBJECT: Changes To Foster Care Maintenance Single Cost Report Form (JFS 02911) And Instructions (JFS 02911-I)

This letter transmits revisions to the JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form and JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" which are used pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 Public children services agencies (PCSA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), private noncustodial agencies (PNA): Title IV-E cost report filing requirements, record retention requirements and related party disclosure requirements. The revised form and instructions are to be used for the state fiscal year reporting period of July 1, 2010, through June 30, 2011 (i.e., SFY 2011).

The JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form is the reporting format used to capture one hundred percent of operational costs of all public and private not-for-profit and for-profit providers of purchased family foster care and residential services. ODADAS worksheets were modified to include a new service taxonomy entitled Medication Assisted Treatment on Form A-1 (i.e., UCR/047) as well as unallowable columns on Forms A-2, A-3, and A-4. Additionally, minor enhancements were added to various worksheets within the JFS 02911 form as well as an update to the annual inflation factor.

The JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" provide an overview of the cost report as well as detailed instructions for its completion. The ODADAS Services section was modified to include language for a new service taxonomy entitled Medication Assisted Treatment. Additionally, language was added to explain how to properly report unallowable costs on Forms A-1 (i.e., UCR/047), A-2, A-3, and A-4. Furthermore, minor clarification language was added where needed in order to facilitate understanding.

The JFS 02911 is intended to be used in an automated format.

When downloading the Microsoft Excel version of the JFS02911 "Single Cost Report," the macro security level must be lowered for the macro buttons to work. To lower the macro security level, open Microsoft Excel, click "Tools," "Options," and then click the "Security" tab. At the bottom of the security sheet, click "Macro Security." Change the security level from high to low. At this point, the file can be downloaded. Once downloaded, open the file. A prompt will appear requesting that the macros be either disabled or enabled. Click "Enable Macros." If the Macro security level is not changed to low and the macros are not enabled, the macro buttons will not work when the file is opened.

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 221

August 22, 2011

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Michael B. Colbert, Director
SUBJECT: Disqualifying Criminal Offenses for Foster Care and Adoption

This procedure letter provides updates to public children services agencies (PCSAs), private child placing agencies (PCPAs) and private noncustodial agencies (PNAs) on the disqualifying criminal offenses for a foster caregiver.

Through the Adam Walsh Act, Congress enacted legislation tying federal funds to a requirement that states screen foster and adoptive applicants for felony convictions for spousal abuse, rape, sexual assault, or homicide and disapprove any applicant with such a conviction. On April 1, 2010, ODJFS amended two rules to specifically address the requirements of the federal law. The language of the foster caregiver rule, Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) 5101:2-7-02(K), now reads as follows:

If any of the following have a felony conviction for spousal abuse, rape, sexual assault, or homicide, the foster home shall not be certified and no rehabilitation standards exist for:

1. An adult resident in the household of a foster caregiver or applicant.
2. A foster caregiver.
3. A foster care applicant.

Regarding adoptive parents, OAC 5101:2-48-10(D)(2), now states "...If a person has a felony conviction for spousal abuse, rape, sexual assault, or homicide, the home shall not be approved."

First, it needs to be acknowledged that not all of the offenses listed in both OAC 5101:2-7-02(K) and 5101:2-48-10(D) are found verbatim in Ohio's criminal code. For example, Ohio doesn't have a specific "spousal abuse" offense and there is no specific "homicide" offense, but rather all homicide offenses are grouped together and are identified by a specific term based on the nature of the crime. The language in the rule mirrors the federal language. There is no way to indicate a corresponding ORC code violation as the federal language is vague. Each agency will need to apply the language accordingly.

The plain language of the rules, 5101:2-7-02(K) and 5101:2-48-10(D) (2), leads to the conclusion that a felony conviction of what amounts to spousal abuse, rape, sexual assault or homicide by a currently certified foster caregiver, a foster care applicant, a prospective adoption parent, or a currently approved adoptive parent (or adult resident in the home of any of the above) prohibits that individual or home from further certification or approval.

The foster caregiver rule, OAC 5101:2-7-02, explicitly states that neither applicants nor foster caregivers shall be certified. For adoptive parents, OAC 5101:2-48-10 states that for persons with such felony convictions, the home shall not be approved. This language indicates that revocation is appropriate whenever the agency discovers a foster caregiver has one of these felony convictions. Approved adoptive parents must be denied whenever the agency discovers the adoptive parent has one of these felony convictions.

A review of the statutes relating to foster caregivers with criminal offenses shows that the General Assembly meant for these prohibitions to apply to both applicants and currently certified foster caregivers. Ohio Revised Code (ORC) 5103.0328 states that if a recommending agency receives notice from ODJFS or learns in any other manner that a foster caregiver has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any foster caregiver-disqualifying offense (as defined in ORC 2151.86(C)), that agency must assess the overall situation for safety concerns and forward any recommendations, if applicable, for revoking the foster certification to ODJFS for review for possible revocation. ORC 2151.86 indicates that the disqualifying offenses are the same as those found in ORC 109.572(A) (8), and authorizes ODJFS to promulgate rules creating rehabilitative standards for those individuals with prohibitive offenses. However, ODJFS has established, through the two rules at issue here, that there are no rehabilitation standards for those individuals with offenses listed in 5101:2-7-02(K) and 5101:2-48-10(D) (2) and therefore they can never be foster caregivers or adoptive parents.
When an agency discovers a foster caregiver has a felony conviction for one of the specified offenses, the agency must forward a recommendation to ODJFS for revocation based upon OAC 5101:2-7-02(K). For adoptive parents, who have an approved homestudy, with such a conviction of one of the adoptive parents, the agency must complete an addendum to the homestudy and disapprove the adoptive parent. This is true regardless of when the conviction occurred.

When ODJFS receives a recommendation from an agency under 5101:2-7-02(K), the ODJFS enforcement coordinator will review the recommendation, with the assistance of the Office of Legal and Acquisition Services, to determine whether revocation is required under the rule and will take the appropriate steps to revoke the certification, if necessary.

SUBJECT: Revisions to JFS 01350, Foster Caregiver Training Stipend and Recommending Agency Training Allowance Invoice.

This Procedure Letter (PL) transmits proposed revisions to the reimbursement process for the JFS 01350, Foster Caregiver Training Stipend and Recommending Agency Training Allowance Invoice. Effective July 1, 2011, the invoicing process is automated through SACWIS for all public children services agencies (PCSAs).

The following is a brief explanation of the proposed changes:

- Beginning with the training date of July 1, 2011, all PCSAs shall process the JFS 1350 invoice for reimbursement through the State Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS). Any PCSA invoices for training dates prior to July 1, 2011 should be sent via the current manual process for reimbursement.
- All private child placing agencies (PCPAs) and private noncustodial agencies (PNAs) are anticipated to be able to process their JFS 01350 invoices electronically through SACWIS. Until such notification from ODJFS, PCPAs and PNAs shall process their JFS 01350 invoices via the current manual process.

If you have any questions regarding this PL, please contact Lisa Howard at Lisa.Howard@jfs.ohio.gov or (614)752-0266.

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Michael B. Colbert, Director
SUBJECT: Instruction for Public Children Services Agencies regarding referral and service planning with Help Me Grow lead county agencies.

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) has partnered with the Ohio Department of Health (ODH) to establish procedures for county public children services agencies (PCSAs) and lead county Help Me Grow (HMG) agencies in order to produce efficient referrals and service planning for families. The ODH Bureau of Early Intervention Services administers the HMG programs and services through the lead county agencies. HMG provides services to children and families through two programs, Part C and Home Visitation. Each program has specific eligibility criteria and unique services as outlined below:

HMG Part C

To be eligible for Part C services, children must be age 0-3 with a physical or mental condition diagnosed by a physician, or a developmental delay in at least one of the following areas: cognitive, physical (includes vision and hearing), communication, social/emotional, or adaptive. The services provided through this program include but are not limited to: child find, evaluation and assessment, service coordination, individual family service plans, and transition.

HMG Home Visitation

The HMG Home Visiting program is designed for first time parents who are expecting or who have an infant under six months of age at the time of referral; and for those very young children who are at highest risk for poor childhood outcomes, i.e., children under three years of age who are victims of substantiated cases of child abuse or neglect as determined by a PCSA, and children under three years of age who have a parent engaged in active military duty. The services provided through this program include but are not limited to: parenting education, information and referral of the availability of advocacy services, and facilitation of needs-based linkages to the community. Because the Home Visiting Program is a parenting education program, caregivers who are not biological parents are not eligible to provide consent to participate.

Effective August 8, 2011, the following children referred to HMG from a PCSA will be automatically eligible for Home Visitation services as a result of the Ohio’s implementation of the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA) requirements for children who are victims of substantiated abuse or neglect:

1. A child under age three who is a victim of a substantiated abuse and/or neglect report.
2. A child born affected by illegal substance abuse or withdrawal symptoms resulting from prenatal drug exposure.
3. A child who is in a family with an active JFS 01418, "Family Service Plan" (rev. 3/2011) who is being served through the Alternative Response pathway and for whom Help Me Grow services are identified as a required service within the Family Service Plan.

PCSAs submitting a referral to HMG under the third criteria must identify the services as required on the JFS 01418 and link the services to the caseworker’s assessment of safety or risk. This is accomplished by identifying HMG services on the JFS 01418 in the section titled, "What are the concerns/needs for the family?" The HMG service provider must be identified on the JFS 01418 in the section titled, "What steps will be taken to get this done and who will do it?" The referral will result in automatic eligibility for Home Visitation services with parental consent and a screening and assessment for Part C eligibility.

If the HMG service is not identified as required on the JFS 01418, the HMG referral will be considered a recommended service. A child with an active JFS 01418 in which HMG services are recommended will not be eligible for services under the CAPTA provision for a victim of substantiated abuse or neglect. In these circumstances, the local HMG agency will assign a home visitor and obtain parental consent to participate in HMG. If parental consent is not granted, HMG services will not be provided to the family.
ODH has provided a memorandum to local HMG agencies in conjunction with the issuance of this Procedure Letter. The memorandum provides instruction to local HMG agencies regarding the receipt and processing of referrals completed by a PCSA. This memorandum can be accessed under the link to 2011 memos at:

http://www.ohiohelpmegrow.org/professional/ProfessionalAnnouncements.aspx.

Effective August 8, 2011, local HMG agencies will require all referrals to be submitted on the attached referral form developed by ODH. Referrals submitted absent the completed referral form will not be accepted. Each PCSA is instructed to contact the local HMG agency in order to confirm the referral process. ODJFS encourages each PCSA to develop an Interagency Agreement with the local HMG agency in order to clarify roles, responsibilities, and expectations regarding the referral process and the provision of services to families.

The following responses have been developed by the ODH and ODJFS in response to frequently asked questions:

1. How do I get a signed consent form from a biological parent who does not live within our county?

The obtainment of parental consent for services must be completed by HMG staff. Personnel obtaining parental consent must be trained in HMG policies, have the ability to inform parents of the HMG program and services, and advise parents of their rights. HMG may contact the PCSA requesting assistance in meeting with the parents in order to obtain the parental consent.

2. What information should be provided to HMG by a PCSA upon referring a child/family to the HMG agency?

   All of the information requested on the referral form is required to be completed when a PCSA refers a family to HMG for services. HMG will not accept any referrals submitted without a completed referral form (see attached referral form).

3. What collaboration should occur when a parent is incarcerated and cannot sign a consent form for HMG Home Visitation services?

   HMG is responsible for obtaining parental consent. When the goal is to reunify the child with the incarcerated parent diligent efforts should be exhausted to obtain the parent's consent. The parent's assigned case manager at the institution of incarceration should be contacted to assist in obtaining the parent's consent. HMG will provide services to families in which the parent is willing to receive HMG services. If the PCSA is providing services to the family, the PCSA case plan goal and HMG service needs should be identified and shared with the HMG agency. If the parent's consent cannot be obtained HMG will not provide Home Visitation services to the family.

4. What should occur if the biological parent refuses to sign the consent for HMG services?

   HMG will provide the PCSA with a referral follow-up form within 45 days from receipt of the PCSA referral. The document will identify if parental consent was obtained and the activities exhausted in obtaining the parental consent. Parental consent must be obtained for HMG to provide services. The PCSA will maintain the follow-up form in the case record. The PCSA caseworker should identify if the HMG service is listed in the family's case plan and if the service will assist in the reduction and mitigation of risk to the child for abuse or neglect and inform HMG of any contacts the PCSA caseworker plans to have with the parent regarding the refusal to consent. If the HMG services have been identified to reduce or mitigate the risk of abuse or neglect the PCSA caseworker should address the refusal to consent for services and assist in explaining to the parent why the service is needed and identify the benefits of participating in the HMG service.

5. What should occur when the biological parent cannot be located to sign the consent for HMG services?

   The child's PCSA caseworker makes every effort to locate the child's parent(s). If the child is eligible for HMG Part C services a surrogate parent is assigned to consent to services. Home Visitation services can not be provided when the child is not eligible for Part C services or has recommended HMG services through an Alternative Response Family Service Plan. A surrogate parent cannot be assigned in this circumstance. The HMG referral will be closed. Regardless of the custody status of the child, a PCSA employee cannot sign the consent for HMG services in place of the biological parent.

The ODH Bureau of Early Intervention Services is providing online training to PCSA caseworkers. The training provides a program overview of Help Me Grow, as well as instructions for making a referral to the program. This training can be accessed at: https://oh.train.org. The course title is "Ohio Help Me Grow: System Overview for Ohio's Public Children Service Agencies" and the course ID is 1028668. Continuing Education Units (CEUs) are available. An attendance certificate will be issued upon the completion of the training. To access the training, go to Ohio Train (at the URL above) and search for courses. Enter "Ohio Help Me Grow" and select "Ohio Help Me Grow: System Overview for Ohio's Public Children Service Agencies".

This letter updates information for Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs) and Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPAs) to assure protections under the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) are provided to American Indian and Native Alaskan children and their families who are members of, or eligible for membership in federally recognized tribes. The information presented in this letter should serve as a supplement to Ohio Administrative Code rules 5101:2-53-01 through 5101:2-53-08 which provides direction to agencies in implementing requirements of the Act.

While all caseworkers should be familiar with the rules and procedure letter to assure protections are provided to the children and families with whom the agency is involved, all agencies should have a designated person who can serve as a central point of contact for periodic updates and information sharing related to ICWA.

The first part of this guidance letter has been organized into a question and response format to help provide a context for Ohio's child welfare caseworkers to better understand why ICWA is relevant to their work with families. The second part outlines court procedural requirements to help agencies prepare for different types of hearings. And, finally the last section provides caseworkers with resources for additional information.

I. ICWA Information for Ohio's Child Welfare Caseworkers

Why are there specific protections for American Indian or Native Alaskan children and families who are members of or eligible for membership in federally recognized tribes?

Federally recognized tribes are dependent sovereign nations that have certain rights to self-governance. In the colonization of America, numerous treaties and agreements were developed between the United States (U.S.) government and Native American Tribal governments. The Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), passed in 1978, is only one of several pieces of legislation enacted over the course of many years to honor these treaties and agreements. The "trust responsibility" or obligation of the U.S. government to protect the interests, safety, and well-being of the tribes and individual Indians, is based on the doctrine of Indian sovereign nationality. The U.S. Department of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) is the federal agency overseeing this trust responsibility.

Why are these same protections not afforded to individuals from other cultures or ethnic groups?

The considerations required by ICWA and other pieces of legislation to protect American Indians or native Alaskans are based on tribal sovereignty and the jurisdiction that tribes have as governments interfacing with the U.S. government.

Are all individuals having American Indian or Native Alaskan heritage afforded protections under ICWA?

No. ICWA protections only apply to children born to a parent who is a member of, or eligible for membership in a federally recognized tribe, and their biological parents whether or not both parents have Indian ancestry.

Is there a certain percentage of American Indian ancestry that a child and his or her parents must have in order to be considered eligible for membership in a federally recognized tribe?

The criterion for tribal membership differs from one tribe to another. Many tribes have adopted the current BIA standard of one-quarter blood quantum; however, some tribes are considering adopting more liberal blood quantum requirements. Some tribes include a person as a member if he or she descended from a tribal member who was listed on the tribal rolls as of a specific date. A tribe can also change a prior determination of ineligibility and accept an individual for enrollment. In order to determine a particular tribe's criteria, and the family's eligibility for membership in that tribe, it is necessary to contact that tribe directly.
Why should Ohio agencies be concerned about compliance with ICWA when there are no federally recognized tribes having reservations in Ohio?

The majority of Indians in the U.S. reside off reservation. Although Ohio wasn't a designated area for the U.S. government relocation efforts, as of the last census (Census 2000) Ohio had 24,486 individuals who self-identified as American Indian. Tribal enrollment numbers are tied to the tribe, not the current location of its members.

What types of cases are subject to ICWA?

ICWA applies to all child custody proceedings including foster care placements, termination of parental rights, pre-adoptive placements, and adoptive placements. A placement that meets the definition of foster care placement and results from an act that would not be deemed a crime if committed by an adult such as a status offense, is a child custody proceeding under ICWA. A child custody placement pursuant to a divorce where someone other than one of the parents will obtain custody of the child is also a child custody proceeding under ICWA. Voluntary surrenders initiated by the parents are also considered child custody proceedings under ICWA.

Are voluntary surrenders for the purposes of adoption subject to ICWA?

Yes. There are a number of considerations related to voluntary surrenders involving Indian children protected under ICWA. ICWA requires consideration of the state's adoption laws, as well as ICWA. The law affording the most protection to the Indian child and his or her parents would be followed. Under ICWA, a birth parent entering into a voluntary surrender agreement has the right to withdraw that consent within two years, when fraud has been involved or the surrender was entered into under duress. Furthermore, it could be argued that a birth parent did not have the ability to enter into a voluntary consent agreement if the Indian tribe has exclusive jurisdiction over the child.

A court may be ruled as being without jurisdiction to enter into an adoption decree. If a child's adoption disrupts, ICWA also provides for notice to the birth parent for reconsideration.

ICWA provides preferences for the adoption of Indian children. Those preferences include: extended family, other members of the tribe, other Indian families including single parents, and the tribe's order of preference. Unless a consenting parent expresses a desire for anonymity, the court or agency is required to notify the child's extended family and tribe that they will be given preference in the adoption decision. Diligent search to apply preferences includes at a minimum: contact with the tribe's social services program, a search of available Indian homes and contact with nationally known Indian programs with available placement resources. If the parent desires their identity to be protected, the agency is required to seek assistance from the Bureau of Indian Affairs in assuring that the child is able to establish his or her rights to membership in a federally recognized tribe while protecting the identity of the parent.

If ICWA primarily provides protections related to child custody proceedings, why should staff other than those involved with making placements be knowledgeable regarding ICWA requirements?

PCSAs must document their "active efforts" to prevent the breakup of the family. Active efforts include but are not limited to actions taken when PCSAs first become involved with the family. Active efforts can only be employed if the PCSA is aware of the family's membership or eligibility for membership in a federally recognized tribe upon the agency's initial involvement with the family. Therefore, it is critical that agency staff involved in the intake process, as well as, staff involved in providing ongoing in-home services are knowledgeable of ICWA requirements.

What are active efforts?

While active efforts might be viewed as similar in some respect to reasonable efforts to prevent placement and reunify the family, active efforts are more specific to tribal governance. Active efforts begin with the diligence agencies use in determining eligibility for tribal membership and assuring that all potential parties to the case are notified to permit their active involvement. Active efforts continue throughout the life of the case, including the agency's efforts to work with the family and tribe to prevent the child's removal from the home, and provide services to remediate conditions that could result in the child's removal. Active efforts also apply to reunification efforts, as well as adherence to placement preferences required under ICWA.
What information is important to obtain from a family in order to verify eligibility for membership in a federally recognized tribe?

When the PCSA becomes involved with a family who is the subject of a report of abuse, neglect or dependency, it is critical that the agency as part of the family's assessment, inquire whether the child or family members have American Indian or Native Alaskan ancestry. If the family does, the agency should attempt to obtain additional information regarding the specific tribe or band, and/or the region from which the family's tribe or band originated or was relocated. This may assist the agency in determining the right office to contact, since contact information of tribes is organized by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, first according to the region, and then by tribe name. As an example, the Chippewa have several bands originating in different states/regions. The Minnesota Chippewa Tribe includes the following Bands of Chippewa Indians: White Earth, Leech Lake, Fond du Lac, Bois Forte (Nett Lake), Grand Portage and the Millie Lac Band. Michigan is home to L'Anse and Ontonagon Bands of Chippewa Indians, among a number of others. The Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Indians, as well as other bands, are based in Wisconsin.

Using a genogram or other tool to identify the names and relationships of extended family members is also helpful since some tribes automatically include a person as a member if he or she descended from a tribal member who was listed on the tribal rolls as of a specific date.

If the family is able to identify a tribal affiliation, how can I determine whether the tribe is federally recognized?

The Secretary of the Interior periodically publishes a list of federally recognized tribes. There are currently 564 federally recognized American Indian tribes and Alaska Natives in the U.S as listed by the most recent federal register dated Fall of 2010. This list, which is alphabetized according to the federally recognized name of the tribe, can be accessed online at the following website (Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Indians for example would be alphabetized under Bad River rather than Chippewa.)

The Office of Federal Acknowledgement, Bureau of Indian Affairs in Washington, D.C., keeps a list of other non-federally acknowledged tribes which have filed a petition or letter of intent to become federally recognized. This list can be accessed online at the following website: http://www.bia.gov/WhoWeAre/AS-IA/OFA/index.htm

In addition, the Assistant Secretary's Office of the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Washington, D.C. also keeps information on Congressional action that may reaffirm or restore the government to government relationship between a tribe and the U.S. government whose relationship was previously terminated. The address is at the back of this guidance letter.

How do I know where to send the notice or inquiry regarding the family's eligibility for membership in a federally recognized tribe?

The Bureau of Indian Affairs publishes a directory of tribal leaders and BIA area representatives that can be accessed online at the website below. The directory organizes the contact information first based on BIA region, and then alphabetically according to the federally recognized name of the tribe. The latter part of the directory references the tribal entities by state. When a tribe is known, the notice or inquiry should be sent to the tribal leader of the specific tribe. The directory can be accessed online at the following website:

What if the family member or other resource shares that the family has American Indian ancestry but is unable to identify a specific tribal affiliation?

In accordance with the requirements of ICWA, the agency is required to proceed as if the family has protections afforded to it by ICWA until it is officially notified by the Bureau of Indian Affairs or the tribe in question that the child and family are not eligible for membership. The agency would send the inquiry to the BIA regional office in Minnesota via registered mail, return receipt requested. In addition, another response center specific to child welfare issues is being established in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Contact information for both have been included on the back of this guidance letter.

II. Court Procedural Requirements for ICWA Compliance
ICWA requires the court to assure the rights of Indian children, adults and tribes are protected. At each hearing, from the initial Protective Hearing to, if applicable, the Adoption Hearing, the court is required by ICWA to make specific inquiries and decisions, and issue written findings. These considerations are largely based on the efforts of the PCSA and the documentation it submits to court. Therefore, it is critical that the agency understand the issues the court must consider at each hearing so it can assure it has met all of its responsibilities in accordance with ICWA. The Indian Child Welfare Act Checklists for Juvenile and Family Court Judges published by the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, June 2003 identifies court hearing requirements. Information on the hearing requirements is provided in the next several pages to assist the PCSA in its efforts in preparing for court at each stage.

A. Protective Hearing

The PCSA must file a sworn petition or complaint with the court at or prior to the time of the preliminary protective hearing which describes all circumstances of the child's removal, any allegations of abuse or neglect, and all efforts made to try to ensure safety and prevent the need for removal.

In accordance with OAC 5101:2-53-03, "Determination of Indian Status, Tribal Eligibility and Membership," the agency must bring to the court verification of the child's heritage or documentation of all efforts to secure verification of the child's heritage. If eligibility for membership in a federally recognized tribe has been established, in accordance with OAC 5101:2-53-06, "Involuntary Custody of Indian Children," the agency must provide the court with documentation of its efforts to notify the required parties of their rights, or if eligibility has not been established, verification that the agency has notified the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the U.S. Secretary of the Interior. All parties must be notified via registered mail, return receipt requested. The agency must also document its efforts to enable the court to consider issues and make written findings identified below.

Key issues the court must consider during the protective hearing include:

1. Whether the child is an Indian child as defined by ICWA;
2. Whether the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian prior to the hearing;
3. Whether the child resides on or is domiciled on a reservation, or whether the child is already a ward of a tribal court, depriving the court of jurisdiction (If the child resides on or is domiciled on a reservation, but is temporarily off the reservation, the court may order an emergency removal from the parent or Indian custodian to prevent imminent physical harm to the child.);
4. Whether the agency mailed proper notice to the child's putative father, including a father who has acknowledged paternity, even if not legally established;
5. Whether the agency provided proper notice and inquiry to all tribes the child may be eligible for membership, including a family chart or genogram to facilitate the tribe's membership determination; or whether the agency provided written notice to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior if the child's tribe is not known at this time;
6. What efforts the agency has made to identify extended family or other tribal members or Indian families for placement of the child (including whether the agency attempted to create a family chart or genogram, and solicited assistance from neighbors, family or members of the Indian community who may be able to offer information); and
7. Whether the parent is able to read and/or understand English and if not, what efforts have been made to ensure that the parent understands the proceedings and any action the court will order.

Key decisions the court must make:

1. Whether the agency made active efforts to identify responsible extended family or other tribal members or Indian families to serve as a placement for the child, if necessary;
2. Whether the agency in assessing the appropriateness of a placement with an individual who meets the placement preferences of ICWA or the tribe, relied upon the social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the parent or extended family resides, or with which the parent or extended family maintains social and cultural ties;
3. What additional efforts need to be made to ensure the child is placed with extended family or within his/her tribal community;
4. What culturally relevant services will allow the child to remain at home;
5. Whether parties will voluntarily agree to participate in services;
6. Whether restraining orders or orders expelling an allegedly abusive parent from the home are appropriate or necessary;
7. Whether orders are needed for examinations, evaluations, or other immediate services; and
8. What are the terms and conditions of visitation by parents or Indian custodian.

Required notice and advice of rights:
As part of its requirements under ICWA, the court must ensure that the agency sends (via registered mail, return receipt) notice of the next scheduled hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights under ICWA, to the following parties if not at the hearing:
1. The child's parent;
2. The Indian custodian; and
3. The child's tribe.

Key written findings the court must make at the protective hearing include:
1. Whether, at the time of removal, the child was already a ward of a tribal court (if known) thereby depriving the state court of jurisdiction;
2. Whether, at the time of removal, the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian;
3. Whether active efforts were made prior to removal, to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and whether the efforts were successful;
4. Whether there was clear and convincing evidence, including testimony of a qualified expert witness that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child; and
5. Whether the parent, Indian custodian, or child's tribe requested an additional 20 days to prepare for the hearing.

If the child is placed in substitute care, the court also needs to do the following:
1. Specify why continuation of the child in the home would be contrary to the child's welfare;
2. Specify whether the child is to be placed in a home that meets the priority requirements of ICWA, or if the child is not to be placed according to the priority requirements, to specify whether:
   a. The child's tribe issued a resolution establishing a different order of preference and the placement is the least restrictive setting appropriate to the particular needs of the child; or
   b. There is good cause not to follow the placement preferences;
3. Order the agency to make ongoing, diligent searches to locate placement meeting the preferences established within ICWA;
4. Specify the terms of visitation with the parent(s), Indian custodian, and extended family; and
5. Order the agency to arrange for the child to visit with other tribal members if no extended family is available and to coordinate with the child's tribe to arrange for the child to attend significant cultural and familial events.

B. Adjudication Hearing
In addition to items considered at the protective hearing, the court must make additional decisions and issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law. Those requiring additional information from the PCSA include the following:
Key decisions the court must make:

1. Which allegations of the petition have been proved or admitted;
2. Whether there is a legal basis for continued court and agency intervention; and
3. Whether the agency made active efforts to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family (and if so, whether these efforts were successful).

Additional temporary decisions the court may make if the disposition hearing will not occur within a short time after the adjudication hearing:

1. Where the child is to be placed prior to the disposition hearing;
2. Whether to order further testing or evaluation of child, parent(s), or Indian custodian in preparation for the disposition hearing and ensuring that all assessments or evaluations are culturally appropriate;
3. Assure that the agency is, in preparation for disposition, making prompt and diligent efforts to identify and evaluate caretaker, extended family, or if no family member is available, other tribal members or other Indian families;
4. Order the alleged perpetrator to stay out of the family home and have no contact with the child;
5. Direct the agency to continue its efforts to notify non-custodial parents, including unwed fathers whose paternity has been acknowledged or established; and/or
6. Set terms for visitation, support, and other intra-family communication including parent-child and sibling visits when the child is in foster care prior to disposition.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law must specify:

1. Whether the child is an Indian child under ICWA (or if not known, whether the child's tribe has been provided adequate notice, sufficient information, and an opportunity to determine the child's eligibility for membership);
2. What efforts, if any, have been made to identify the child's tribe;
3. Whether the agency has mailed notice and necessary information to all tribes in which the child may be eligible for membership to enable each tribe to ascertain whether the child is a member or eligible for membership;
4. Whether written notice was sent to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior if the child's tribe is not yet known;
5. Whether the child either resides on or is domiciled on a reservation, or is already a ward of a tribal court, thereby depriving the state court jurisdiction;
6. Whether the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian at the time of removal;
7. Whether the agency mailed notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the Indian custodian by registered mail, return receipt;
8. Whether the agency mailed notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the child's Indian tribe, if known, by registered mail, return receipt;
9. Whether the child's tribe seeks to intervene in the proceedings, and if so, grant that request. (If the child is eligible for membership in more than one tribe, the court must ascertain which tribe is the child's tribe for purposes of ICWA);
10. Whether the child's Indian custodian, if there is one, seeks to intervene in the proceedings and, if so, grant that request;
11. Whether the child's tribe, parent, or Indian custodian requested an additional 20 days in which to prepare for the hearing, and if so, grant that request and reschedule the hearing;
12. Whether a parent, Indian custodian, or the child's tribe has filed a motion or petition to transfer the case to tribal court;
13. If the court declines to transfer the case, whether either parent vetoed the transfer, the tribal court declined to accept jurisdiction, or the reasons, if any, why there is good cause not to transfer the case to the tribal court;

14. Whether the court advised the parent(s) or Indian custodian that they have a right to a court-appointed attorney if they are indigent;

15. Sufficiently detailed information to justify why the court found by clear and convincing evidence, including testimony from an expert witness, that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;

16. Sufficiently detailed information to justify agency and court choices for treatment and services;

17. How the court's findings relate to subsequent case planning (written in easily understandable language);

18. Whether the parent can read English and, if not, what steps will be taken to ensure that the parent understands the court's written order; and

19. The date and time of the next hearing.

C. Disposition Hearing

In preparation for this hearing, the agency is responsible for submitting a predisposition report to the court. Key items the agency needs to include for the court's consideration are:

1. A statement of family changes needed to correct the problems necessitating agency intervention, with timetables for accomplishing them;

2. A description of services to be provided to assist the family, including those that the tribe or an Indian organization may offer and make available;

3. A description of services to be provided to ensure the child's ongoing connection to his/her culture, including attendance at significant cultural events, while placed outside of his/her family; and

4. A description of actions to be taken by parents(s) or Indian custodian to correct the identified problems and any steps the parent or Indian custodian has taken thus far.

Foster Placement Affidavit

When the agency recommends foster placement, an affidavit documenting active efforts must be submitted. Key elements of the affidavit include:

1. A description of the active efforts made by the agency to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and an explanation why these efforts were unsuccessful;

2. A description of the efforts made to coordinate with the child's tribe or any Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or Indian custodian with services needed to avoid the need for placement, and an explanation if the services were unsuccessful;

3. An explanation of why the child cannot be protected from the identified problems in the home even if services are provided to the child and family;

4. An explanation of the active efforts made to contact the child's tribe, extended family, and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family and other tribal members or Indian families about providing an appropriate placement for the child;

5. A description of arrangements made by the agency to ensure visitation with extended family, or if there is not family in the area, with other tribal members, to support the child's cultural connections; and

6. A description of the agency's plan to coordinate with the child's tribe and family to identify significant cultural and important familial events and arrange for the child's attendance.

Key decisions the court must make:
1. Whether the agency's proposed case plan addresses the needs of the child and the parent(s) or Indian custodian;
2. Whether the parent is able to read the proposed case plan and, if not, the effort that will be made to ensure that the parent fully understands the requirements of the plan;
3. Whether it is necessary to remove the child from his or her home to prevent serious emotional or physical damage; and
4. Where the child should be placed.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law must:
1. Determine the legal disposition of the case, including the custody of the child, based upon the statutory options provided under federal law unless state law provides a higher degree of protection, or unless there is a governing state-tribal agreement;
2. State the long-term plan for the child;
3. Identify the active efforts that have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian child's family;
4. Specify that there is clear and convincing evidence that continued custody of the child by the parent (or Indian custodian) would likely result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;
5. Specify whether the child was placed within the placement preferences under ICWA, and if not, whether the child's tribe issued a resolution establishing a different order of preference, as long as the placement is the least restrictive setting appropriate to the particular needs of the child;
6. Specify whether the agency relied upon the social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the parent or extended family reside or with which the parent or extended family maintain social and cultural ties when the agency determined whether an individual is an appropriate placement for the child;
7. If the child's tribe did not issue a resolution indicating a different order of preference for the placement of the child, specify the reasons why there is good cause to deviate from the placement preferences;
8. If there is not good cause to deviate from the placement preferences, and there is no tribal resolution re-ordering the placement preferences, order the agency to move the child to a home that complies with the placement preferences;
9. If placement or services are ordered that were not agreed upon by the parties, specify the evidence or legal basis upon which the order is made;
10. If applicable, specify why continuation of the child in the home would be contrary to the child's welfare; and
11. If the state's case plan conflicts with or does not meet the requirements of ICWA, disapprove or modify the agency's proposed case plan.

D. Review Hearing
At the Review Hearing, the agency is required to submit a report that contains the following information:
1. A statement of family changes needed to correct the problems necessitating intervention, with timetables for accomplishing them;
2. A description of services to be provided to assist the family, specifically identifying those made available with assistance from the tribe or an Indian organization;
3. A description of services to be provided to ensure the child's ongoing connection to his/her culture while placed outside of his/her family, including attendance at significant cultural events; and
4. A description of actions to be taken by the parents to correct the identified problems, and of the parents' compliance with the case plan thus far.

Affidavit Documenting Active Efforts
When the agency recommends continued foster placement, the agency must submit an affidavit to the court which contains the following information:

1. A description of active efforts to reunify the family since the last disposition or review hearing and if those efforts were not successful, an explanation regarding why;
2. A description of active efforts to coordinate with the child's tribe or any Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or Indian custodian with services needed to avoid the need for placement, and an explanation why these services were unsuccessful;
3. An explanation of why the child cannot be protected from serious emotional or physical harm if the child remains in the home even if services are provided to the child and family;
4. An explanation of the diligent efforts made to contact the child's extended family about providing a placement for the child or, if family members are not known, diligent efforts made to contact the child's tribe and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family, other tribal members, or Indian families for placement;
5. Efforts made by the agency to ensure the child's visitation with extended family, or, if none is available, with other tribal members, to ensure the child's ongoing participation in his/her culture; and
6. Efforts made by the agency to coordinate with the child's tribe and family to make arrangements for the child to attend significant cultural and important familial events.

Key decisions the court must make:

1. Whether there is a need for continued placement of the child;
2. Whether active efforts were made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and, if so, whether the services were successful;
3. Whether efforts were made to ensure that the parent understands the case plan if the parent does not read English;
4. Whether the court-approved, long-term permanent plan for the child remains the best plan for the child;
5. Whether the services set forth in the case plan and the responsibilities of the parties need to be clarified or modified due to the availability of additional information or changed circumstances;
6. Whether the child is placed according to the placement preferences in the ICWA and, if not, whether the child should be moved into a preference placement;
7. Whether the terms of visitation need to be modified;
8. Whether any additional court orders need to be made to move the case toward successful completion; and
9. What time frame should be established for goals to achieve reunification or other permanent plan for each child.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. Whether the agency has identified the child's tribe;
2. Whether the agency sent proper notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the parent(s), Indian custodian (if any), and child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt;
3. Whether the tribe has been afforded a full opportunity to participate in the proceedings and, if so, whether the agency provided the child's tribe with copies of the petition, reports, and information concerning the child;
4. Why the child is in need of either continued placement outside the parent's home or continued supervision, articulating the clear and convincing evidence that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian would likely result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;
5. Whether family reunification and an end to court supervision continues to be the long-term case goal, and why;
6. Whether the agency has made active efforts to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to eliminate the need for placement of the child outside the home of the parent or Indian custodian and whether the efforts were successful;

7. Whether the agency has made ongoing, diligent search to locate extended family, a tribal member, or other Indian family for placement if the child is not already within a preference placement;

8. Issue orders for the agency to make additional efforts necessary to meet the needs of the family and move the case toward completion, including culturally relevant services that may be available with assistance from the tribe or local Indian/native organization;

9. Assure that findings are written in easily understandable language that allows the parent(s) or Indian custodian to fully understand what action they must take to have the child returned to their care (interpreter should be provided for parent or Indian custodian whose first language is not English);

10. Approve proposed changes in the case plan and set forth any court-ordered modifications needed as a result of information presented at the review;

11. Identify an expected date for final reunification or other permanent plan for the child;

12. Where the case plan conflicts with or does not meet the requirements of the ICWA, disapprove or modify the agency's proposed case plan to conform to the requirements of the ICWA;

13. Make any necessary orders to resolve the problems that are preventing reunification or the completion of another permanent plan for the child; and

14. Set date and time for next hearing, if needed.

E. Permanency Planning Hearing

The agency is required to submit a report to the court in preparation for the Permanency Planning Hearing. This report must include:

1. The relief being sought and address the issues that the judge needs to determine;

2. The plan to carry out the placement decision;

3. When the petition or report requests that a child be returned home on a certain date, the following items must be included:
   a. How the conditions or circumstances leading to the removal of the child have been corrected;
   b. A description of actions taken by the parent(s) or Indian custodian to correct the identified problems;
   c. A description of the active efforts made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family, including efforts made by the tribe, an Indian organization, or any other agency or organization;
   d. The frequency of recent visitation and its impact on the child; and
   e. A plan for the child's safe return home and follow-up supervision after family reunification.

4. When the petition or report requests termination of parental rights, the following items should be included:
   a. Facts and circumstances supporting the grounds for termination;
   b. A description of the active efforts made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and an explanation why these efforts were unsuccessful;
   c. A description of the active efforts made to coordinate with the child's tribe or an Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or custodian with services needed to avoid termination of parental rights and an explanation why these efforts were unsuccessful;
   d. An explanation of why the child cannot be protected from the identified problems in the home;
e. A summary of the agency’s understanding of the tribe’s position regarding the permanency plan, including an attachment of any correspondence or supporting documentation sent by the tribe to the agency;

g. If the child is not placed with an extended family member, another tribal member, or another Indian family, an explanation of why the child cannot be moved to a placement that meets the preferences established within the ICWA;

h. A description of arrangements made by the agency to ensure visitation with extended family, and of all efforts made to support the child’s cultural connections; and

i. A permanency plan for the child.

5. When another planned permanent living arrangement is proposed, the report should include the following items:

   a. Facts and circumstances refuting the grounds for termination of parental rights and showing that although the child cannot be placed with parents, termination is not in the best interests of the child;

   b. A description of why the planned permanent living arrangement is in the best interests of the child;

   c. An explanation of the active efforts made to contact the child’s tribe, extended family, and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family and other tribal members or Indian families to identify a culturally appropriate placement for the child;

   d. If the child is not placed with an extended family member, another tribal member, or another Indian family, an explanation of why the child cannot be moved to a placement that meets the preferences established within ICWA;

   f. A summary of the agency’s understanding of the tribe’s position regarding the permanency plan, including an attachment of any correspondence or supporting documentation sent by the tribe to the agency; and

   g. A plan to ensure the stability of the planned permanent living arrangement.

Affidavit Documenting Active Efforts:

When the agency recommends a permanency plan, an affidavit documenting the following must be submitted:

1. Active efforts made to reunify the family since the last disposition or review hearing and, if those efforts were not successful, an explanation why;

2. Efforts to coordinate with the child’s tribe or any Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or Indian custodian with services needed to avoid the need for placement, and an explanation why these services were unsuccessful;

3. Why the child cannot be protected from serious emotional or physical damage if the child remains in the home even if services are provided to the child and family;

4. Diligent efforts made to contact the child’s extended family about providing a placement for the child, or, if family members are not known, diligent efforts made to contact the child’s tribe and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family, other tribal members, or Indian families for placement;

5. Efforts made by the agency to ensure child’s visitation with extended family, or, if none is available, with other tribal members, to ensure the child’s ongoing participation in his/her culture; and
6. Efforts made by the agency to coordinate with the child's tribe and family to attend significant cultural and important familial events.

Written Findings of Fact That the Court Must Make at the Permanency Hearing:

1. Whether the agency has identified the child's tribe;
2. Whether the agency sent proper notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the parent(s), Indian custodian (if any), and child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt;
3. Whether the tribe has been afforded a full opportunity to participate in the proceedings and, if so, whether the agency provided the child's tribe with copies of the petition, reports, and information concerning the child;
4. Why the child is in need of either continued placement outside the parent's home or continued supervision, articulating the clear and convincing evidence that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian would likely result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;
5. Whether active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and eliminate the need for placement of the child outside the home of the parent or Indian custodian and whether the efforts were successful;
6. Whether the agency has made an ongoing, diligent search to locate extended family, a tribal member, or other Indian family for placement if the child is not already within a preference placement;
7. Assure that the findings are written in easily understandable language that allows the parent(s), or Indian custodian to fully understand what action they must take to have the child returned to their care (interpreter should be provided for parent or Indian custodian whose first language is not English); and
8. The court's determination of permanency and plan to return home, proceed to the termination of parental rights, or a planned permanent living arrangement.

F. Termination of Parental Rights Hearing

Key Decisions the Court Must Make:

1. Whether written notice was provided to the child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt requested;
2. Whether written notice was provided to the parents or Indian custodian by registered mail, return receipt requested;
3. Whether active efforts were made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family;
4. Whether efforts were made to ensure that the parent understood the case plan if the parent does not read English;
5. Whether the active efforts were unsuccessful; and
6. Whether there is evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, including testimony of an expert witness, that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law must:

1. Specify whether active and reasonable efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family;
2. Specify what evidence, including testimony of a qualified expert witness, supports the finding beyond a reasonable doubt that continued custody of the child by the parent is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;
3. Specify any other state statutory grounds supporting termination of parental rights if state law requires satisfaction of dual burden of proof;
4. For uncontested termination of parental rights, the findings of fact and conclusions of law must also include:
a. Thorough description of the conditions and circumstances under which parental consent to termination of parental rights was obtained. Parental consent must be executed in writing in the presence of the judge and must be accompanied by the judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail and that the parent or Indian custodian fully understood these terms;

b. Certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation of the terms and consequences of the consent to termination of parental rights in English, or that it was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood;

c. Certify that the consent to termination of parental rights was not given prior to or within ten days after the birth of the child, as the consent would not be valid under these circumstances;

d. Determine whether the consent was voluntary and informed, that it was not obtained through fraud or duress, and that all alternatives to termination of parent rights were explained; and

e. If termination of parental rights was uncontested because the parent failed to appear, or appeared but neither contested nor consented to termination, the above items will apply.

G. Adoption Hearing

At the Adoption Hearing, the court must determine whether written notice was provided to the child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt requested, even if the child's tribe has not been a party to any prior proceedings related to the welfare of the child.

The court must also make the following written findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. Whether the child is within the exclusive jurisdiction of a tribe because the child either resided or was domiciled on a reservation or was already a ward of a tribal court at the time that the child custody proceedings began, thereby depriving the state court of jurisdiction;

2. Whether all the necessary consents to adoption have been provided, including the consent of the agency with the custody of the child, the consent of the child (if the child is old enough that consent is required under state law), and the consent of parent or Indian custodian whose rights have not been terminated;

3. Thoroughly describe the conditions and circumstances under which parental consent to adoption was obtained. When there has been no prior termination of parental rights, parental consent must be executed in writing in the presence of the judge and must be accompanied by the judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail and that the parent or Indian custodian fully understood these terms;

4. Certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation of the terms and consequences of the consent to adoption in English, or that it was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood;

5. Certify that the consent to adoption was not given prior to or within 10 days after the birth of the child, as the consent would not be valid under these circumstances;

6. Whether the consent was voluntary and informed, that it was not obtained through fraud or duress, and that all alternatives to adoption were explained;

7. Whether the child is placed in an adoptive home where the adopting individual is a member of:
   a. The child's extended family;
   b. The child's tribe; or
   c. Another Indian family;

8. If the child is not placed in one of the placement preferences established by federal law, a determination whether:
   a. The agency made a diligent search to locate a placement that meets the preferences established within the ICWA;
b. There is good cause not to place the child according to the placement preferences;

c. The child's tribe established a different order of preference by resolution;

d. If the child's tribe established a different order of preference for placement, ascertain whether the placement is the least restrictive setting which most approximates a family and in which the child's special needs, if any, may be met;

e. The child's consenting parent evidenced a desire for anonymity, in which case the court shall give weight to that desire in applying the preferences;

9. Other determinations required for all adoptions;

10. At contested adoption hearings, determine whether the adoption should be granted. A contested adoption hearing must be conducted with procedural fairness, and should include notice to the parties and the child's tribe even if the tribe has not yet become a part in previous stages of the child custody proceedings;

11. Conclude the proceedings without undue delay, applying principles of case flow management;

12. The court which enters the final decree of adoption must, upon application, inform the Indian child who has reached the age of 18 of the tribal affiliation, if any of the individual's biological parents and provide such other information as may be necessary to protect the rights flowing from the individuals' tribal relationship.

SUBJECT: Alignment of Adoption and Foster Care Homestudies

H.B. 7 of the 127th General Assembly required the alignment of adoption and foster care homestudy contents, time periods and processes. We have been made aware that agencies are having difficulty with the process of aligning the adoption homestudy and foster care recertification approval dates. This procedure letter is being issued to provide guidance on the alignment process.

In order to align the approval spans of the adoption homestudy and foster care recertification, the adoption homestudy may need to be updated prior to its expiration or shortly after an update. Adoption homestudy approval dates will always be aligned to the foster care recertification dates. An adoption homestudy shall not lapse in order to align it with the foster care recertification date. This may require two approvals to the adoption homestudy/update in a relatively short period of time. In the event an adoption homestudy has lapsed, a new homestudy shall be completed.

If an adoption homestudy is being updated in order to align it with the foster care recertification date and the last update occurred within the past year, the agency may use the same documentation previously submitted. This documentation shall include the most current JFS 01385 "Ohio Department of Job and Family Services Assessment for Child Placement Update" (the agency will need to update the signatures and approval/recommendation date) and the previous documents that were used to approve the most current homestudy or update:

1. The JFS 01653 "Medical Statement for Foster Care/Adoptive Applicant and All Household Members."
2. Reference from the professional.
3. A report of a physical, psychiatric, or psychological examination, if applicable.
4. Fire inspection, if applicable.
5. The JFS 01348 "Safety Audit of a Family Foster Home," if applicable.
7. A completed water test, if applicable.

Should an incident occur causing the approval spans to no longer be in alignment, the adoption homestudy shall be updated to coincide with the new foster care recertification span.

The foster care recertification approval span dates will be used as the approval span for the adoption homestudy. Written notification for each adoption homestudy approval span shall occur as required by OAC rule 5101:2-48-12.1(S).

If an adoption homestudy is being updated in order to align it with the foster care recertification approval date and the last update occurred more than one year ago, a new JFS 01385 shall be completed. In addition, new or updated documents as outlined in OAC rule 5101:2-48-12.1(K) shall be obtained and attached.

We realize that these can be time consuming processes for agencies to complete, however, the alignment of the approval spans will be beneficial and timesaving to both agencies and families in the future.

If you have additional questions please contact the OCF Help-desk at 866-886-3537 or via email at help-desk-ocf@jfs.ohio.gov.

SUBJECT: Extension of Agency Adoption Recruitment Plans to Every Two Years

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-48-05 "Agency Adoption and Recruitment Plan," requires agencies to submit a recruitment plan to ODJFS annually by May 1st. To better align adoption and foster care rules, ODJFS will be amending the rule to require bi-annual submission of adoption recruitment plans by Public Children Services Agencies, Private Child Placing Agencies, and Private Non-Custodial Agencies. The revised policy will require that these plans be submitted by May 1st of every even numbered year. The next adoption recruitment plan is now due May 1, 2012.

The purpose of this procedure letter is to inform Title IV-E agencies of the federal tax refund disregard for Title IV-E FCM initial eligibility determinations.

The Tax Relief, Unemployment Insurance Reauthorization, and Job Creation Act of 2010 (P.L. 111-312) was signed into law on December 17, 2010. The law includes a provision that disregards federal tax refunds received after December 31, 2009 as income and as resources for FCM eligibility determinations. The total amount of a federal tax refund received after December 31, 2009, whether the refund is the result of a refundable credit, over-withholding, or both, is disregarded as income in the month received and as a resource for the following 12 months when determining initial Title IV-E eligibility.

To meet compliance with the provision, it is important for Title IV-E agencies to ensure that their eligibility determination process and interview protocols are designed to obtain information about a federal tax refund for all standard filing unit (SFU) members. The amount of any federal tax refund(s) identified should be noted in the comment section of the eligibility determination and documentation should be maintained in the child's FCM file.

Any reported federal tax refund amounts received in the last 12 months by the SFU member after December 31, 2009 shall be manually subtracted from the SFU members income and or resources prior to entering the amount into SACWIS. This disregard only applies to federal income tax and ends on December 31, 2012.

FROM: Michael B. Colbert, Director
SUBJECT: Elimination of AFDC Relatedness at Re-determination of Title IV-E FCM Eligibility

This letter details the procedure changes to Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance (FCM) Re-determination of eligibility.

The passage of Public Law 110-351 known as the Fostering Connections to Success and Increasing Adoptions Act of 2008, authorized a number of changes to child welfare programs to benefit children and families. Subsequently, the child welfare policy manual issued changes that eliminated the Federal requirement that Title IV-E agencies re-determine a child's Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) eligibility after the child was determined to be eligible at removal.

Effective April 1, 2010, Title IV-E agencies are no longer required to conduct annual AFDC re-determinations of Title IV-E FCM pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-21 to verify that the child continued to meet the AFDC standards for deprivation of parental care and financial need.

Judicial determinations of annual reasonable efforts to finalize the permanency plan continue to be required pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-22. Recording of a child's income and resources will continue to be documented in SACWIS for fiscal accountability purposes.

Please review all Title IV-E FCM re-determinations that were completed on or after April 1, 2010. If your agency had determined the child as non-reimbursable because the child did not meet continued deprivation of parental care or financial need, these children can be reinstated as program reimbursable effective April 1, 2010.

This procedure letter provides updates to public children services agencies (PCSAs), private child placing agencies (PCPAs) and private noncustodial agencies (PNAs) on the process of conducting child abuse and neglect searches, as described in the Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure letter (FCASPL) No. 180.

Pursuant to section 5103.18 of the Revised Code (ORC), searches of the Alleged Perpetrator Database within the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS) must be conducted prior to certification or recertification of all foster homes. Sections 3107.033 and 3107.034 of the ORC also require these searches prior to approval of all adoptive home studies and home study updates.

Updates Affecting PCPAs and PNAs

The following is the procedure for private agencies to request the searches:

- ODJFS will conduct searches of the Alleged Perpetrator Database for each individual search request from private agencies.
- The agency must provide the following information for each individual for whom a search is being requested:
  - Full name, including maiden or other names used.
  - Date of birth.
  - Social Security Number.
  - Home address.
- For each search request, the agency must confirm that verifications of the date of birth and Social Security Number are on file with the agency.
- The agency must identify the specific reason for each search (for example, specify if the search is for a prospective adoptive or foster parent).
- The agency must provide the name(s) of the agency contact persons who are designated/approved to request search results, including their contact information (address, phone number and e-mail, if applicable). The agency must inform ODJFS of any changes/additions to that information as necessary.
- Agencies should submit “batches” of requests on a regular, self-determined time frame - for example, every Monday. Agencies are discouraged from sending multiple individual search requests each week. Agencies must allow a minimum of 45 days for search results.
- Search requests cannot be submitted via telephone.
- ODJFS will return result letters for each search electronically to the contact person designated by the requesting agency. Results will be mailed to those agencies that do not have electronic capabilities.
- Result letters will advise agencies either that there is "NO MATCH" found for the individual's name in the SACWIS system as an alleged perpetrator of a substantiated or indicated report of child abuse and/or neglect, or that a "MATCH" is found for the individual as an alleged perpetrator for a substantiated or indicated report of child abuse and/or neglect. Result letters shall be maintained in the family resource case file.
- Search results will not be provided via telephone or fax.

Updates Affecting PCSAs
As of the effective date of this procedure letter, PCSAs will no longer be required to submit a request for a check of the child abuse and neglect database from ODJFS. Each PCSA will continue to be responsible for conducting searches of the Alleged Perpetrator Database contained within SACWIS for individuals who require searches, e.g., prospective foster and/or adoptive applicants. At the time a search is conducted, each PCSA must print the perpetrator letter generated by SACWIS and maintain the letter in the family resource case file.

PCSAs have the option of rescinding any requests submitted on or after December 1, 2010 by contacting Barbara Parker via e-mail at barbara.parker@jfs.ohio.gov. Any requests not rescinded will be processed in order of date received, and a response provided to the PCSA. Search requests submitted by PCSAs after the effective date of this procedure letter will not be processed. ODJFS is working to amend the Administrative Code rules affected by this updated procedure.

Updates Affecting All Agencies

ORC sections 5103.18 and 3107.34 also require agencies to request a check of the central registry of other states in which a prospective foster care or adoptive applicant - or other adult living in the applicant's household - has resided in the five years immediately prior to the application. If the applicant or other adult has resided in another state during that time period, we suggest that the recommending agency determine whether that state has a child abuse and neglect registry. If so, contact that state to request a check. Currently, there is no standardized way to make these requests. States with registries vary in their definitions, standards and placement of names. The following Web site contains a list of the central registries of many other states: http://ccld.ca.gov/res/word/AWStateContacts.doc. It is maintained by the state of California and is updated regularly.

Child abuse and neglect search requests must be sent electronically as an e-mail attachment to Barbara Parker at barbara.parker@jfs.ohio.gov. Agencies without electronic capabilities can mail search requests to Barbara Parker at Central Registry, ODJFS/OFC/BCAP, P.O. Box 182709, Columbus, OH 43218-2709.

Anyone with questions regarding this procedure letter may contact the OCF Help Desk at 1-866-886-3537, option 4.

The invoice could be used, all or in part, as the cover page for the packet of information to be submitted with the request for reimbursement. Activities lasting fewer than four (4) hours are considered a half-day activity; those lasting more than four (4) hours are considered a full-day activity.

All invoices for AREL activities must be submitted to the ODJFS Alternative Response Program Manager by December 17 of each year to ensure funds are available for payment. Each invoice amount must be recorded on the JFS 02820 using project code 854 and account code 518001. Agencies will not receive reimbursement for invoice amounts not properly coded on the JFS 02820.

SUBJECT: Individuals required to attend matching conference and examples of diligent recruitment efforts

This procedure letter serves as a reminder regarding participants who are required to attend the adoption matching conference and must be included in the placement decision-making process. According to Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) 5101:2-48-16 (O), the attendees shall include:

- The adoption caseworker for the child;
- The caseworker for the adoptive family; and
- A member of the administrative or supervisory staff of the public children services agency (PCSA) or private child placing agency (PCPA) adoption program.

The agency is not permitted to conduct a matching conference and match an adoptive family with a child without the participation of the caseworker for the adoptive family during the matching conference.

Special Circumstances

If the adoption caseworker and family caseworker are the same individual, other adoption program staff members shall participate in the matching conference to assure that at least three individuals participate in the matching decision.

If the agency does not have at least three adoption program staff employees to participate in the matching conference, other professionals or para-professionals who are employed or contracted by the agency shall participate in the matching conference in order to meet the required minimum of three participants. These people shall have, at a minimum, basic knowledge related to special needs adoption and permanency planning.

When more than one agency is involved in an adoptive matching decision, a representative from each agency is required to participate in the matching conference. Participation by teleconference is acceptable.

The PCSA or PCPA is expected to submit notices of upcoming matching conferences to the matching conference mailbox weekly at MatchingConference@jfs.ohio.gov and to immediately update listings regarding cancellations or rescheduling to the matching conference mailbox.

If there are no available families identified for a specific child, the PCSA or PCPA may conduct a search for approved adoptive families in the State Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS). If the agency elects not to use SACWIS to search for approved adoptive families, the agency is required to document continuous recruitment efforts to find suitable approved families. Minimum child specific recruitment shall include:

- Distribution of written information regarding the child to two or more adoption agencies;
- Review of the case file for relatives or individuals in the child's past who may be able and willing to provide a permanent home for the child; and
- Exploration with the child about individuals with whom the child is familiar who may be able and willing to adopt the child.

Examples of diligent recruitment efforts may include:

- Engaging in activities that demonstrate a good faith effort to recruit approved adoptive families for a specific child.
- Contracting for recruitment activities to be conducted on behalf of the specified child.
Transferring a child's case to a specialized unit within the agency to complete child-specific recruitment services. In such cases, the agency shall actively recruit approved adoptive families who can meet the child's individual needs.

The agency is required to document all specific recruitment efforts made for the child on the JFS 01690, "Documentation of the Pre-Adoptive Staffing and Updates."

In addition, agencies are to document inquiries received from families who want to be presented for a child, but for whom the agency does not consider on the JFS 01689.

For questions regarding this Procedure Letter, please contact your technical assistance specialist or your licensing specialist, or review OAC rules 5101:2-48-05 and 5101:2-48-16.

This letter transmits revisions to the JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form and JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" which are used pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 Public children services agencies (PCSAs), private child placing agencies (PCPAs), private non-custodial agencies (PNAs): Title IV-E cost report filing requirements, record retention requirements and related party disclosure requirements. The revised form and instructions are to be used for the state fiscal year reporting period of July 1, 2009 through June 30, 2010.

An explanation of the revisions to the cost report form and instructions appears below:

The JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form is the reporting format used to capture one hundred percent of operational costs of all public and private not-for-profit and for-profit providers of purchased family foster care and residential services. The only modifications to the SFY 2010 form are the additions of an allocation methodology checklist at the bottom of the Allocation of Administrative Overhead Costs worksheet and an update to the annual inflation factor.

The JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" provide an overview of the cost report as well as detailed instructions for completing the report. Clarification language was added to the definitions for Personnel Costs Direct, Personnel Costs Support, Non-Personnel Costs, Other Costs, and Unallowable Costs. Additionally, minor clarification language was added where needed in order to facilitate understanding.

The JFS 02911 is intended to be used in an automated format.

When downloading the Microsoft Excel version of the JFS02911 "Single Cost Report," the macro security level must be lowered for the macro buttons to work. To lower the macro security level, open Microsoft Excel, click "Tools," "Options," and then click the "Security" tab. At the bottom of the security sheet, click "Macro Security." Change the security level from high to low. At this point, the file can be downloaded. Once downloaded, open the file. A prompt will appear requesting that the macros be either disabled or enabled. Click "Enable Macros." If the Macro security level is not changed to low and the macros are not enabled, the macro buttons will not work when the file is opened.

FCASPL 197 (SACWIS Sensitive Data Corrections)

Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 197
June 22, 2010

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Users
FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director
SUBJECT: SACWIS Data Corrections

This Procedure Letter is an update to FCASmpl No. 145, issued June 9, 2008, regarding requests for edits to data contained in the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS). The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) will continue to accept and process requests from public children services agencies to modify records that, due to conversion or clerical error, are inaccurate. All requests must be submitted through the SACWIS Help Desk in accordance with this Procedure Letter, and will become part of an audit trail maintained by ODJFS for edits made to SACWIS data.

The procedure for requesting edits to SACWIS data has not changed, and is outlined below. Agency directors may authorize designees to submit SACWIS edit requests. The number of designees is based on county size in relation to CPOE designations. Large metropolitan counties may designate up to six persons within the agency to submit data edit requests, and small to medium counties may designate one or two persons.

It is the responsibility of the agency director or designee to ensure that all requests for edits comply with the Ohio Revised Code and Administrative Code rules. ODJFS reserves the right to conduct a policy review on any edit request.

Process for Submitting SACWIS Data Edit Requests

1. The agency executive director may designate other agency staff members to authorize SACWIS data edits by completing the JFS 01669, "Delegation of Authority for Sensitive SACWIS Data Corrections," and submitting the form to the SACWIS Help Desk. NOTE: This procedure letter does not require submission of a new JFS 01669 if one is already on file with the SACWIS Help Desk.

2. For each SACWIS data edit request, the agency executive director or delegate must complete a JFS 01671, "Sensitive SACWIS Data Correction Request."

3. The completed JFS 01671 must be scanned and e-mailed to the SACWIS Help Desk at sacwis_help_desk@jfs.ohio.gov, or faxed to the SACWIS Help Desk at 614-728-9678.

SUBJECT: State Fiscal Year 2011 State Participation Rates for Title IV-E Adoption Assistance

Requirements for the Title IV-E Adoption Assistance (AA) program may be referenced in Chapter 5101:2-49 of the Ohio Administrative Code. The state participation rate for the non-federal match for AA payments for state fiscal year 2011 is $250. Public children services agencies will be responsible for providing the non-federal match amount for any payments above $250.

The state's participation will automatically be decreased for any subsidy greater than $250 in the Family and Children's Service Information System (FACSIS) or the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS).

As a reminder, per rule 5101:2-49-12 of the Ohio Administrative Code, the adoptive parent(s) and the PCSA may agree to modify/amend the payment amount or provision for services. As required by federal law, any modification/amendment of the Title IV-E AA payment amount must be made with the concurrence of the adopting parent(s) based on changes in circumstances of the adopting parent(s) and the needs of the child. When the parties agree to a change in the AA payment amount, a modified/amended agreement shall be completed and signed by the adoptive parent(s) and the public children services agency (PCSA). A copy shall be given to the adoptive parent(s), and a copy shall be retained by the PCSA.

ODJFS encourages each PCSA to notify adoptive parents of the adjustments in the warrant or the electronic funds transfer (EFT) being paid by the state and the county.

SUBJECT: State Reimbursement to Offset a Portion of Local Expenditures for Adoption Assistance

A decrease in state fiscal year (SFY) 2010 Adoption Assistance cases and expenditures has resulted in available funds in the Adoption Assistance line item in the state’s General Revenue Fund (GRF). Therefore, ODJFS will be distributing a reimbursement via check or electronic funds transfer to each county public children services agency to offset a portion of SFY 2010 local expenditures for Adoption Assistance.

The reimbursement amount distributed to each county will be determined by the total local share each county paid for Title IV-E Adoption Assistance from September 2009 through March 2010, divided by the statewide total local share paid for Title IV-E Adoption Assistance for the same time period. Each county’s percentage will be multiplied by the identified available SFY 2010 GRF amount, to arrive at the amount to be paid to each county. If your county did not experience a local expenditure for Title IV-E Adoption Assistance during this time period, you will not receive a reimbursement.

All reimbursements will be distributed no later than mid-June 2010. Once you receive these funds, code them as 965 "Other State Reimbursements - Other allowable state reimbursements not otherwise listed."

This letter introduces the Adult Protective Services (APS) Screening Tool and Guidelines developed as a collaborative effort among the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, county departments of job and family services, and agencies and professionals serving adult protective services throughout the state.

The tool and guidelines were developed in an effort to standardize the intake and screening processes as well as to assist APS staff in gathering sufficient and significant information to make screening decisions.

Intake screening is the entry point into the system, at which time a decision has to be made about an elder's safety. The information obtained from the referent is used to determine the necessity for APS staff to intervene, as well as the timeframe and nature of the response. These tools will be used to help develop consistency in screening practices across counties.

Although the tool and guidelines are not mandated, both are highly recommended to assist APS staff in making critical decisions about safety and services for vulnerable adults. Also included are key terms and definitions that are relevant to the screening tool and guidelines.

This letter revises the JFS 01668 "MEPA Biennial Comprehensive Self-Assessment Report" to remove all references to the Ohio Adoption Photo Listing. The form now includes an N/A box in Section I for when the question is not applicable to private agencies. Since the form references information from the past two years, it was rewritten in the past tense.

The next form is due on March 1st, 2010.

The JFS 01668 may be submitted via mail or electronically to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, Bureau of Child Welfare Monitoring, P.O. Box 182709, Columbus, OH 43218-2709. Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 186

FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director

SUBJECT: Extension of agency adoption policy to February 1, 2010

Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-48-05 "Agency Adoption and Recruitment Plan," requires agencies to update their written policy to reflect new requirements contained in Chapter 5101:2-48 of the OAC and submit it to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) within 30 days following the policy change. Due to the amendments of various OAC rules, ODJFS is extending the due date for agencies to submit their adoption policies until February 1, 2010 to ensure amendments made to adoption policies are effective.

Please use this time to ensure your agency written policy is in compliance with the amended rules and resubmit your policies by February 1, 2010.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director
SUBJECT: Modification of the JFS 01453 "Adoption Assistance Agreement"

ODJFS has been made aware that one or more public children services agencies (PCSAs) may be modifying the JFS 01453 by adding a provision that the adoption assistance payments are "subject to the availability of federal and state funds. Any reduction in federal or state financial participation will automatically reduce the adoption assistance payment in an equal amount." In addition, PCSAs may be modifying the JFS 01453 "Adoption Assistance Agreement" (rev. 10/2006) to require that the adoptive parent check-off that the parent agrees "that any reduction in federal or state funds will automatically reduce this amount in an equal manner." While we do not know whether any agency has attempted to use a county-modified form, we are sending this communication to ensure that all agencies discontinue any attempts at modifying the ODJFS-prescribed form.

A modification to the JFS 01453 would be a violation of Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) 5101:2-49-01 and 5101:2-4906, which require PCSAs to use the JFS 01453, which does not include these statements. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has indicated in its Child Welfare Policy Manual that any such statements in an adoption assistance agreement violate sections 473(a)(1)(B)(ii) and 473(a)(3) of the Social Security Act. For more information, see the following:

Ohio Revised Code Section 5101.141(B) specifies that ODJFS adopt rules to implement its authority as the single state agency to administer federal payments for Title IV-E adoption assistance. "A public children services agency to which the department distributes Title IV-E funds shall administer the funds in accordance with those rules."

OAC Chapter 5101:2-49, the rule chapter that ODJFS adopted to implement the Title IV-E adoption assistance program, requires the specific use of the http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/findform.asp?formnum=01453, which can be found at http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inter.asp. Pursuant to 5101:2-49-06 paragraph (A), the JFS 01453 must be signed by both the adoptive parent(s) and the PCSA for each child receiving Title IV-E adoption assistance (AA) payments. The JFS 01453 is the prescribed form for receiving adoption assistance payments.

As required by federal law, any modification/amendment of the Title IV-E AA payment amount must be made with the concurrence of the adopting parents(s) based on changes in circumstances of the adopting parents and needs of the child. When the parties agree to a change in the AA payment amount, a modified/amended agreement shall be completed and signed by both the adoptive parent(s) and the PCSA. A copy shall be given to the adoptive parent(s), and a copy shall be retained by the PCSA.

The Office for Families and Children, Bureau of Child Welfare Monitoring, Child Protection Oversight and Evaluation (CPOE) section will be monitoring a sample of signed agreements to ensure that the prescribed JFS 01453 is being used and has not been modified. Please contact Darlene Dalton, Acting Section Chief, at 614-752-0656 if you have any questions.

Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 183

October 5, 2009

To: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

From: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director

Subject: Transition Plan for Children Aging Out of Foster Care

As you are aware, the passage of Public Law 110-351 known as the Fostering Connections to Success and Increasing Adoptions Act of 2008, authorized a number of changes to child welfare programs to benefit children and families. One of the requirements directed at helping youth plan for emancipation from foster care, requires the agency to develop a transition plan 90 days prior to the youth's emancipation. This letter provides guidance to Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs) to assure compliance with federal law.

Recently, ODJFS revised Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules for independent living (5101:2-42-19, 5101:2-42-19.1 and 5101:2-42-19.2) to assure compliance with service reporting categories required by the National Youth Transition Data Base authorized by Public Law 106-109, the John H. Chafee Foster Care Independence Act. These rules become effective October 1, 2009 simultaneous with the SACWIS enhancements that will allow this data to be captured.

OAC 5101:2-42-19 provides guidance that a written independent living plan to help the youth achieve self-sufficiency shall be reviewed every 90 days until the agency's custody is terminated. In order to comply with the Fostering Connections Act, agencies should assure that the youth's final review occurs at least 90 days prior to his or her emancipation from the agency's custody to develop the self-sufficiency / emancipation plan. The plan must:

- Be youth driven and as detailed as the youth chooses.
- Address options for post emancipation services under the John Chafee Independent Living Program.
- Address key living areas such as options related to housing, health insurance, education, local mentorship, continuing support services, work force supports and employment services.
- Include a completed Medicaid application.

This self-sufficiency plan may be used to fulfill the requirements of OAC 5101:2-42-19.2; however, due to the change in federal law, a self-sufficiency / emancipation plan must be developed for each child 90 days prior to emancipation; and therefore it is no longer only developed in response to a youth initiated request.

Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 182

October 5, 2009

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director
SUBJECT: Ohio Adoption Photo Listing

As a result of Amended Substitute House Bill 1 of the 128th General Assembly, section 5103.154 of the Ohio Revised Code the Ohio Adoption Photo Listing (OAPL) has been eliminated. Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs) are no longer required to submit OAPL information as outlined in OAC 5101:2-49-03 entitled Special Needs Criteria for Adoption Assistance. The language in the rule which requires children who are in the permanent custody of your agency to be listed on OAPL is in the process of being amended to remove this requirement.

Although the website will no longer post waiting children for you, the adoption page on the ODJFS website will refer anyone wanting to find a waiting child to your local agency in order to assist you in recruiting. The website will be revised to incorporate a link to all 88 county agency's specific adoption information. Please provide ODJFS with your agency's adoption contact information that you would like to appear on the website. At minimum, please provide your agency website address, a contact person, telephone number and an e-mail address. Please fax the contact information to 614-466-4359 attn: Deanna Robb or e-mail to Deanna.Robb@jfs.ohio.gov by October 15, 2009.

ODJFS is committed to assist all agencies in recruiting for a permanent home for Ohio's waiting children. As an alternative to OAPL PCSAs are strongly encouraged to utilize www.AdoptUsKids.org. AdoptUsKids provides free services to United States territories and tribes. It is a website on which children in foster care who are waiting for adoption can be photolisted, child welfare professionals and prospective foster and adoptive families can view them, and homestudied families can register and search for children to foster and/or adopt. Each county can be granted access to place a child on the photolisting by contacting Madonna Gray at Madonna.Gray@jfs.ohio.gov.

Due to the amendments of various OAC rules, ODJFS is extending the due date for agencies to submit their adoption policies until November 1, 2009.

<td>PROCEDURE LETTERS</td>

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director

This procedure letter provides guidance to Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs), Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPAs), and Private Noncustodial Agencies (PNAs) on the process of abuse and neglect searches described in the Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter (FCASPL) No. 103.

As a result of the passage of Substitute Senate Bill 163 of the 127th General Assembly, child abuse and neglect searches of the uniform statewide automated child welfare information system must be conducted prior to recertification of a foster home. This search is also required prior to an adoptive home update due to the alignment of the foster care and adoption rules pursuant to Substitute House Bill 7 of the 127th General Assembly. The following is the procedure for agencies to request the searches:

- The agency must provide the following information for each individual for whom a search is being requested:
  - Full name, including maiden or other names used.
  - Date of birth.
  - Social Security number.
  - Home address.

- The agency must confirm that verification of the date of birth and Social Security number is on file with the agency for each individual search request.

- The agency must identify the specific reason for each search (for example, prospective adoptive or foster parent.)

- The agency must provide the name(s) of the agency contact persons who are designated/approved to request Central Registry search results, including their contact information (address, phone number and e-mail, if applicable.) The agency must inform ODJFS of any changes/additions to that information as necessary.

- Agencies should submit 'batches' of requests on a regular, self-determined timeframe; e.g., every Monday. Agencies are discouraged from sending multiple individual search requests each week. Agencies must allow 45 days for search results. Searches cannot be processed on an emergency basis.

- Search requests cannot be submitted via telephone.

- ODJFS will conduct searches of the Host FACSIS database for each individual Central Registry search request from public and private agencies.

- ODJFS will conduct searches of the SACWIS database for each individual Central Registry search request from private agencies.

- The PCSA will be responsible for conducting searches of the SACWIS database for the individuals that require searches; e.g., prospective foster and/or adoptive applicants.

- ODJFS will return results letters for each search electronically to the contact person designated by the requesting agency. Results will be mailed to those agencies that do not have electronic capabilities.

- Results letters will advise agencies either that there is NO MATCH found for the individual's name in the Central Registry or SACWIS systems as an alleged perpetrator of a Substantiated or Indicated report of child abuse and/or neglect; or that a MATCH is found for the individual as an Alleged Perpetrator for a Substantiated or Indicated report of child abuse and/or neglect. Result letters shall be maintained in the family resource case file.

- Search Results will not be provided via telephone or fax.
Substitute Senate Bill 163 of the 127th General Assembly also requires the agencies to request a check of the child abuse and neglect registry of any other state in which a foster care or adoptive applicant or other adult living in the applicant's household has resided in the five years immediately prior to the application. If the applicant or other adult has resided in another state during that time period, we suggest that the recommending agency determine whether that state has a child abuse and neglect registry and, if so, contact that state to check its registry concerning that individual. Currently, there is no standardized way to make these requests. Those states that have a child abuse and neglect registry vary in their definitions, standards, and placement of names in their registry. The following website is a list of the Central Registries in various states. http://ccld.ca.gov/res/word/AWStateContacts.doc. The website is maintained by the state of California and is updated regularly.

FCASPL 175 (JFS 02911 and I)

Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 175
July 29, 2009

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director
SUBJECT: Changes To Foster Care Maintenance Single Cost Report Form (JFS 02911) And Instructions (JFS 02911-I)

This letter transmits revisions to the JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" and instructions JFS 02911-I which are used pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 Public children services agencies (PCSA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), private noncustodial agencies (PNA): Title IV-E cost report filing requirements, record retention requirements and related party disclosure requirements. The revised form and instructions are to be used for the state fiscal year reporting period of July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2009.

An explanation of the revisions to the cost report form and instructions appears below:

The JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form is the reporting format used to capture one hundred percent of operational costs of all public and private not-for-profit and for-profit providers of purchased family foster care and residential services. There are no modifications to the SFY 2009 form except to update the annual inflation factor.

The JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" provide an overview of the cost report as well as detailed instructions for completing the report. There are no conceptual modifications to the instructions; only minor clarification language was added where needed in order to facilitate understanding.

The JFS 02911 is intended to be used in an automated format.

When downloading the Microsoft Excel version of the JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report," the macro security level must be lowered for the macro buttons to work. To lower the macro security level, open Microsoft Excel, click "Tools," "Options," and then click the "Security" tab. At the bottom of the security sheet, click "Macro Security." Change the security level from high to low. At this point, the file can be downloaded. Once downloaded, open the file. A prompt will appear requesting that the macros be either disabled or enabled. Click "Enable Macros." If the Macro security level is not changed to low and the macros are not enabled, the macro buttons will not work when the file is opened.

FCASPL 173 (Adoption Assistance Decrease)

Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 173

August 18, 2009

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director

SUBJECT: Decrease in the State Participation of the Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Payment

In accordance with Amended Substitute House Bill 1 of the 128th General Assembly, the state is decreasing its participation in the Title IV-E Adoption Assistance (AA). The state will provide the non-federal match for AA payments at or below $240 per month per child, beginning with the September subsidy payments. County agencies will be responsible for providing the non-federal match amount for payments above $240.

The state's participation will automatically be decreased for any subsidy greater than $240 in Host-Family and Children Services Information System (FACSIS) or the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS). Public children services agencies (PCSA) will be required to provide the non-federal match for the amount greater than $240 and should refer to JFS 01453 "Adoption Assistance Agreement" to re-calculate their share if applicable.

As a reminder, per rule 5101:2-49-12 of the Ohio Administrative Code, the adoptive parent(s) and the PCSA may agree to modify/amend the payment amount or provision for services. As required by federal law, any modification/amendment of the Title IV-E AA payment amount must be made with the concurrence of the adopting parents(s) based on changes in circumstances of the adopting parents and needs of the child. When the parties agree to a change in the AA payment amount, a modified/amended agreement shall be completed and signed by both the adoptive parent(s) and the PCSA. A copy shall be given to the adoptive parent(s) and a copy shall be retained by the PCSA.

ODJFS encourages each PCSA to notify adoptive parents of the adjustments in the warrant or the electronic funds transfer (EFT) being paid by the state and the county.

This letter details the procedures previously outlined in rules 5101:2-47-24 and 5101:2-47-26.2 of the Administrative Code.

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) approved reimbursement ceiling amounts are based upon the participation of the provider in the ODJFS Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amount approval system. ODJFS shall issue the cost report forms or appropriate software to the PCSAs, PCPAs and PNAs no later than thirty days following the end of the cost reporting period. If ODJFS delays the release of the cost report form then the deadline for the PCSA, PCPA, and PNA to file the cost report shall be extended accordingly and ODJFS shall notify the providers, in writing, of the new filing deadline.

The ODJFS Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amount approval system consists of the following:

1. Annual submission of the JFS 02911 “Single Cost Report”.
2. The agreed upon procedures and supplements as outlined in rule 5101:2-47-26.2 of the Administrative Code substantiating the actual cost of care provided.

The JFS 02911 will only be accepted from and Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amounts established for the following:

1. Purchased foster homes.
2. Private facilities.
3. Publicly-operated facilities with a licensed capacity of twenty-five or fewer.

ODJFS will review each JFS 02911 along with the agreed upon procedures reports and supplements and will make any necessary adjustments to the JFS 02911 prior to the establishment of the Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amount.

ODJFS will complete a desk review in lieu of the agreed upon procedures outlined above for the following:

1. A PCSA, PCPA, or PNA new to the Title IV-E program.
2. An existing PCSA, PCPA, or PNA that has established a new Title IV-E service.

The desk review will provide reasonable assurance that reported costs are allowable, reasonable, related to foster care and presented fairly in accordance with Administrative Code rules. ODJFS will:

1. Notify the PCSA, PCPA, or PNA of any information on the cost report that requires further clarification and or documentation. Within fifteen days from receipt of notice the PCSA, PCPA, or PNA shall submit the supporting documentation requested by ODJFS and may submit any additional information that it believes supports the reported costs;
2. Notify each PCSA, PCPA, and PNA of whether any of its reported costs are unallowable and the rate that results from that determination;
3. Establish a Title IV-E rate for each PCSA, PCPA, or PNA that passes the desk review process. No Title IV-E rate will be established for any PCSA, PCPA, or PNA that does not pass the desk review process;
4. Issue a Title IV-E approval rate letter to each PCSA, PCPA, and PNA that has passed the desk review process. The rate letter will reflect the allowable Title IV-E maintenance rate, the allowable Title IV-E administration rate and the effective date of the rates.
The costs reported on the JFS 02911 that are eligible for Title IV-E reimbursement are identified and converted to Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amounts. The Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amounts yielded by the cost report are the maximum ODJFS will recognize for reimbursement.

An inflation adjustment factor based on the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, "Consumer Price Index-Urban Category-All Items," will be calculated each year and ODJFS will publish the inflation indices. The inflation factor adjusts the costs reported to take into account the rate of inflation.

Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amounts established by the cost report shall become effective April first following the reporting period.

ODJFS will publish on its website an annual Title IV-E rate roster of each approved PCSA's, PCPA's, and PNA's Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amount.

ODJFS will conduct an annual "Agreed Upon Procedures" engagement for each Title IV-E agency that submits a cost report by September thirtieth of each year. ODJFS shall consider the results of the annual "Agreed Upon Procedures" performed and supplemental schedules when determining the Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amount.

ODJFS will conduct quality assurance reviews of the "Agreed Upon Procedures" submitted by a PCPA or PNA to assure compliance with rule 5101:2-47-26.2 of the Administrative Code and its appendix. The reviews of the "Agreed Upon Procedures" engagements will be selected at the discretion of ODJFS. "Agreed Upon Procedures" engagements will be rejected if they fail the review process or if certified public accountants fail to make provisions for the working paper review. ODJFS will notify the agencies of any non-compliance found during the quality assurance reviews. ODJFS is not limited in its determination to perform additional audit work in an agency from information arising out of such quality assurance reviews.

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 will increase federal reimbursement to Ohio's custodial agencies for children determined to be Title IV-E foster care maintenance eligible and reimbursable. The increased federal funds will provide a cost savings of local county funds which can be used for other child welfare purposes. Additionally, the Act will increase the federal reimbursement to Ohio's custodial agencies and to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services for children determined to be Title IV-E adoption assistance eligible. The increased federal share will provide a cost savings of local county funds and State GRF used to support the adoption assistance program.

For both Title IV-E foster care maintenance and Title IV-E adoption assistance, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 increased federal funding by increasing the percentage of reimbursement by 6.2% for Title IV-E eligible youth in foster care and adoption. This increase raises the federal reimbursement percentage for these populations from 62.14% to 68.34% for the period of October 1, 2008 through December 31, 2010.

The Office for Children and Families (OCF) has already updated the FACSIS and SACWIS systems in order to accommodate the increased federal reimbursement percentage for warrants issued for foster care maintenance and adoption assistance service periods beginning May 1, 2009 and thereafter. County local share payments to adoptive providers should be calculated using the 68.34% FMAP beginning May 1, 2009 and thereafter. SACWIS generated local share payments for May 2009 and forward will be calculated using the 68.34% FMAP. No action is required by county users.

However, to accommodate the increased federal reimbursement due for foster care maintenance and adoption assistance for service periods October 1, 2008 through April 30, 2009, OCF is preparing the following with regard to foster care maintenance and adoption assistance:

Foster Care Maintenance

- FACSIS: OCF staff will pull all payments/reimbursements for service periods October 1, 2008 through April 30, 2009, and calculate the correct federal reimbursement which should have been issued at 68.34%, then subtract the federal reimbursement that was issued at 62.14%, and send out a warrant for the calculated difference.
- SACWIS: OCF staff will pull all payments/reimbursements for service periods October 1, 2008 through April 30, 2009, and calculate the correct federal reimbursement which should have been issued at 68.34%, then subtract the federal reimbursement that was issued at 62.14%, and send out a warrant for the calculated difference. OCF SACWIS staff and MIS staff will create a defect and complete data fixes for current reimbursement data issued at 62.14% for service periods October 1, 2008 through April 30, 2009, so the system shows reimbursement at the increased percentage of 68.34%.
- ProtectOhio Waiver Counties: As ProtectOhio waiver counties cannot obtain the increased federal reimbursement percentage through normal billing processes, OCF has submitted a letter to DHHS/ACF seeking approval to increase the calculated FFY 2009 capitation payments by the 6.2% increase in the federal reimbursement percentage. If approved, OCF will submit a check equal to the increase for the seven month period October 1, 2008 through April 30, 2009 to all counties. For May 2009 through September 2009, each monthly payment will be increased to reflect one fifth of the remaining increase balance.
Adoption Assistance

- FACSIS: OCF staff will pull all payments/reimbursements for service periods October 1, 2008 through April 30, 2009, and recalculate the correct state and local shares based on the increased percentage of 68.34%. We will send out warrants to reimburse the counties (local share) based on the increased federal share.

- SACWIS: There will be no data fix. SACWIS staff and MIS staff will pull all payments/reimbursements for service periods October 1, 2008 through April 30, 2009, and recalculate the correct state and local shares based on the increased percentage of 68.34%. We will send out warrants to reimburse the counties (local share) based on the increased federal share.

For all non-ProtectOhio Waiver counties, the calculations above will be totaled and one warrant will be generated. For ProtectOhio Waiver counties, one warrant will be generated for the retroactive period for the increased capitation payment and an additional warrant will be issued for the federal increase in adoption assistance. OCF is currently working to finalize the additional federal reimbursement due to the counties. Once the calculations are completed, a subsequent procedure letter will be issued with the date the warrants will be disbursed.

FCASPL 162 (ICWA)

Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 162

March 16, 2009

To: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

From: Douglas E. Lumpkin, Director

Subject: Background Information and Contacts for Implementing Provisions of the Indian Child Welfare Act

This letter provides guidance to Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs) and Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPAs) to assure that protections under the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) are provided to American Indian and Native Alaskan children and their families who are members of, or eligible for membership in federally recognized tribes. The information in this procedure letter should serve as a supplement to Ohio Administrative Code rules 5101:2-53-01 through 5101:2-53-08 which provide direction to agencies in implementing requirements of the Act.

While all caseworkers should be familiar with the rules and procedure letter to assure protections are provided to the children and families with whom the agency is involved, all agencies should have a designated person who can serve as a central point of contact for periodic updates and information sharing related to ICWA.

The first part of this guidance letter has been organized into a question and response format to help provide a context for Ohio's child welfare caseworkers to better understand why ICWA is relevant to their work with families. The second part outlines court procedural requirements to help agencies prepare for different types of hearings. And, finally the last section provides caseworkers with resources for additional information.

I. ICWA Information for Ohio’s Child Welfare Caseworkers

Why are there specific protections for American Indian or Native Alaskan children and families who are members of or eligible for membership in federally recognized tribes?

Federally recognized tribes are dependent sovereign nations that have certain rights to self-governance. In the colonization of America, numerous treaties and agreements were developed between the United States (U.S.) government and Native American Tribal governments. The Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), passed in 1978, is only one of several pieces of legislation enacted over the course of many years to honor these treaties and agreements. The "trust responsibility" or obligation of the U.S. government to protect the interests, safety, and well-being of the tribes and individual Indians, is based on the doctrine of Indian sovereign nationality. The U.S. Department of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) is the federal agency for overseeing this trust responsibility.

Why are these same protections not afforded to individuals from other cultures or ethnic groups?

The considerations required by ICWA and other pieces of legislation to protect American Indians or native Alaskans are based on tribal sovereignty and the jurisdiction that tribes have as governments interfacing with the U.S. government.

Are all individuals having American Indian or Native Alaskan heritage afforded protections under ICWA?

No. ICWA protections only apply to children born to a parent who is a member of, or eligible for membership in a federally recognized tribe, and their biological parents whether or not both parents have Indian ancestry.

Is there a certain percentage of American Indian ancestry that a child and his or her parents must have in order to be considered eligible for membership in a federally recognized tribe?

The criterion for tribal membership differs from one tribe to another. Many tribes have adopted the current BIA standard of one-quarter blood quantum; however, some tribes are considering adopting more liberal blood quantum requirements. Some tribes include a person as a member if he or she descended from a tribal member who was listed on the tribal rolls as of a specific date. A tribe can also change a prior determination of ineligibility and accept an individual for enrollment. In order to determine a particular tribe's criteria, and the family's eligibility for membership in that tribe, it is necessary to contact that tribe directly.
Why should Ohio agencies be concerned about compliance with ICWA when there are no federally recognized tribes having reservations in Ohio?

The majority of Indians in the U.S. reside off reservation. Although Ohio wasn't a designated area for the U.S. government relocation efforts, as of the last census (Census 2000) Ohio had 24,486 individuals who self-identified as American Indian. Tribal enrollment numbers are tied to the tribe, not the current location of its members.

What types of cases are subject to ICWA?

ICWA applies to all child custody proceedings including foster care placements, termination of parental rights, pre-adoptive placements, and adoptive placements. A placement that meets the definition of foster care placement and results from an act that would not be deemed a crime if committed by an adult such as a status offense, is a child custody proceeding under ICWA. A child custody placement pursuant to a divorce where someone other than one of the parents will obtain custody of the child is also a child custody proceeding under ICWA. Voluntary surrenders initiated by the parents are also considered child custody proceedings.

Are voluntary surrenders for the purposes of adoption subject to ICWA?

Yes. There are a number of considerations related to voluntary surrenders involving Indian children protected under ICWA. ICWA requires consideration of the state's adoption laws, as well as ICWA. The law affording the most protection to the Indian child and his or her parents would be followed. Under ICWA, a birth parent entering into a voluntary surrender agreement has the right to withdraw that consent within two years, when fraud has been involved or the surrender was entered into under duress. Furthermore, it could be argued that a birth parent did not have the ability to enter into a voluntary consent agreement if the Indian tribe has exclusive jurisdiction over the child.

A court may be ruled as being without jurisdiction to enter into an adoption decree. If a child's adoption disrupts, ICWA also provides for notice to the birth parent for reconsideration. ICWA provides preferences for the adoption of Indian children. Those preferences include: extended family, other members of the tribe, other Indian families including single parents, and the tribe's order of preference. Unless a consenting parent expresses a desire for anonymity, the court or agency is required to notify the child's extended family and tribe that they will be given preference in the adoption decision. Diligent search to apply preferences includes at a minimum: contact with the tribe's social services program, a search of available Indian homes and contact with nationally known Indian programs with available placement resources. If the parent desires their identity to be protected, the agency is required to seek assistance from the Bureau of Indian Affair in assuring that the child is able to establish his or her rights to membership in a federally recognized tribe while protecting the identity of the parent.

If ICWA primarily provides protections related to child custody proceedings, why should staff other than those involved with making placements be knowledgeable regarding ICWA requirements?

PCSAs must document their "active efforts" to prevent the breakup of the family. Active efforts include but are not limited to actions taken when PCSAs first become involved with the family. Active efforts can only be employed if the PCSA is aware of the family's membership or eligibility for membership in a federally recognized tribe upon the agency's initial involvement with the family. Therefore, it is critical that agency staff involved in the intake process, as well as, staff involved in providing ongoing in-home services is knowledgeable of ICWA requirements.

What are active efforts?

While active efforts might be viewed as similar in some respect to reasonable efforts to prevent placement and reunify the family, active efforts are more specific to tribal governance. Active efforts begin with the diligence agencies use in determining eligibility for tribal membership and assuring all potential parties to the case are notified to permit their active involvement. Active efforts continue throughout the life of the case, including the agency's efforts to work with the family and tribe to prevent the child's removal from the home, and provide services to remediate conditions that could result in the child's removal. Active efforts also apply to reunification efforts, as well as, adherence to placement preferences required under ICWA.
What information is important to obtain from a family in order to verify eligibility for membership in a federally recognized tribe?

When the PCSA becomes involved with a family who is the subject of a report of abuse, neglect or dependency, it is critical that the agency as part of the family's assessment, inquire whether the child or family members have American Indian or Native Alaskan ancestry. If the family does, the agency should attempt to obtain additional information regarding the specific tribe or band, and / or the region from which the family's tribe or band originated or was relocated. This may assist the agency in determining the right office to contact, since contact information or tribes is organized by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, first according to the region, and then by tribe name. As an example, the Chippewa have several bands originating in different states / regions. The Minnesota Chippewa Tribe includes the following Bands of Chippewa Indians: White Earth, Leech Lake, Fond du Lac, Bois Forte (Nett Lake), Grand Portage and the Millie Lac Band. Michigan is home to L'Anse and Ontonagon Bands of Chippewa Indians, among a number of others. The Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Indians, as well as other bands are based in Wisconsin.

Using a genogram or other tool to identify the names and relationships of extended family members is also helpful since some tribes automatically include a person as a member if he or she descended from a tribal member who was listed on the tribal rolls as of a specific date.

If the family is able to identify a tribal affiliation, how can I determine whether the tribe is federally recognized?

The Secretary of the Interior periodically publishes a list of federally recognized tribes. There are currently 562 federally recognized American Indian tribes and Alaska Natives in the U.S as listed by the most recent federal register dated April 4, 2008. This list which is alphabetized according to the federally recognized name of the tribe can be accessed online at the following website. (Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Indians for example would be alphabetized under Bad River rather than Chippewa.)

The Office of Federal Acknowledgement, Bureau of Indian Affairs in Washington, D.C., keeps a list of other non-federally acknowledged tribes which have filed a petition or letter of intent to become federally recognized. This list can be accessed online at the following website:

http://www.doi.gov/bia/ofa.html

In addition, the Assistant Secretary's Office of the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Washington, D.C. also keeps information on Congressional action that may reaffirm or restore the government to government relationship between a tribe and the U.S. government whose relationship was previously terminated. The address is at the back of this guidance letter.

How do I know where to send the notice or inquiry regarding the family’s eligibility for membership in a federally recognized tribe?

The Bureau of Indian Affairs publishes a directory of tribal leaders and BIA area representatives that can be accessed online at the website below. The directory organizes the contact information first based on BIA region, and then alphabetically according to the federally recognized name of the tribe. The latter part of the directory references the tribal entities by state. When a tribe is known, the notice or inquiry should be sent to the tribal leader of the specific tribe. The directory can be accessed online at the following website:

What if the family member or other resource shares that the family has American Indian ancestry but is unable to identify a specific tribal affiliation?

In accordance with the requirements of ICWA, the agency is required to proceed as if the family has protections afforded to it by ICWA until it is officially notified by the Bureau of Indian Affairs or the tribe in question that the child and family are not eligible for membership. The agency would send the inquiry to the BIA regional office in Minnesota via registered mail, return receipt requested. In addition, another response center specific to child welfare issues is being established in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Contact information for both have been included on the back of this guidance letter.

II. Court Procedural Requirements for ICWA Compliance
ICWA requires the court to assure that the rights of Indian children, adults and tribes are protected. At each hearing, from the initial Protective Hearing to, if applicable, the Adoption Hearing, the court is required by ICWA to make specific inquiries and decisions, and issue written findings. These considerations are largely based on the efforts of the PCSA and the documentation it submits to court. Therefore, it is critical that the agency understand the issues the court must consider at each hearing so it can assure that it has met all of its responsibilities in accordance with ICWA. The Indian Child Welfare Act Checklists for Juvenile and Family Court Judges published by the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, June 2003 identifies court hearing requirements. Information on the hearing requirements is provided below to assist the PCSA in its efforts in preparing for court at each stage.

A. Protective Hearing

The PCSA must file a sworn petition or complaint with the court at or prior to the time of the preliminary protective hearing which describes all circumstances of the child's removal, any allegations of abuse or neglect, and all efforts made to try to ensure safety and prevent the need for removal.

In accordance with OAC 5101:2-53-03, "Determination of Indian Status, Tribal Eligibility and Membership," the agency must bring to the court verification of the child's heritage or documentation of all efforts to secure verification of the child's heritage. If eligibility for membership in a federally recognized tribe has been established, in accordance with OAC 5101:2-53-06, "Involuntary Custody of Indian Children," the agency must provide the court with documentation of its efforts to notify the required parties of their rights, or if eligibility has not been established, verification that the agency has notified the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the U.S. Secretary of the Interior. All parties must be notified via registered mail, return receipt requested. The agency must also document its efforts to enable the court to consider issues and make written findings identified below.

Key issues the court must consider during the protective hearing include:

1. Whether the child is an Indian child as defined by ICWA;
2. Whether the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian prior to the hearing;
3. Whether the child resides on or is domiciled on a reservation, or whether the child is already a ward of a tribal court, depriving the court of jurisdiction (If the child resides on or is domiciled on a reservation, but is temporarily off the reservation, the court may order an emergency removal from the parent or Indian custodian to prevent imminent physical harm to the child.);
4. Whether the agency mailed proper notice to the child's putative father, including a father who has acknowledged paternity, even if not legally established;
5. Whether the agency provided proper notice and inquiry to all tribes in which the child may be eligible for membership, including a family chart or genogram to facilitate the tribe's membership determination; or whether the agency provided written notice to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior if the child's tribe is not known at this time;
6. What efforts the agency has made to identify extended family or other tribal members or Indian families for placement of the child (including whether the agency attempted to create a family chart or genogram, and solicited assistance from neighbors, family or members of the Indian community who may be able to offer information); and
7. Whether the parent is able to read and/or understand English and if not, what efforts have been made to ensure that the parent understands the proceedings and any action the court will order.

Key decisions the court must make:

1. Whether the agency made active efforts to identify responsible extended family or other tribal members or Indian families to serve as a placement for the child, if necessary;
2. Whether the agency in assessing the appropriateness of a placement with an individual who meets the placement preferences of ICWA or the tribe, relied upon the social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the parent or extended family reside, or with which the parent or extended family maintain social and cultural ties;
3. What additional efforts need to be made to ensure the child is placed with extended family or within his/her tribal community;
4. What culturally relevant services will allow the child to remain at home;
5. Whether parties will voluntarily agree to participate in services;
6. Whether restraining orders or orders expelling an allegedly abusive parent from the home are appropriate or necessary;
7. Whether orders are needed for examinations, evaluations, or other immediate services; and
8. What are the terms and conditions of visitation by parents or Indian custodian.

Required notice and advice of rights:
As part of its requirements under ICWA, the court must ensure that the agency sends (via registered mail, return receipt) notice of the next scheduled hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights under ICWA, to the following parties if not at the hearing:
1. The child's parent;
2. The Indian custodian; and
3. The child's tribe.

Key written findings the court must make at the protective hearing include:
1. Whether, at the time of removal, the child was already a ward of a tribal court (if known) thereby depriving the state court of jurisdiction;
2. Whether, at the time of removal, the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian;
3. Whether active efforts were made prior to removal, to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and whether the efforts were successful;
4. Whether there was clear and convincing evidence, including testimony of a qualified expert witness that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child; and
5. Whether the parent, Indian custodian, or child's tribe requested an additional 20 days to prepare for the hearing.

If the child is placed in substitute care, the court also needs to do the following:
1. Specify why continuation of the child in the home would be contrary to the child's welfare;
2. Specify whether the child is to be placed in a home that meets the priority requirements of ICWA, or if the child is not to be placed according to the priority requirements, to specify whether:
   a. The child's tribe issued a resolution establishing a different order of preference and the placement is the least restrictive setting appropriate to the particular needs of the child; or
   b. There is good cause not to follow the placement preferences;
3. Order the agency to make ongoing, diligent searches to locate placement that meet the preferences established within ICWA;
4. Specify the terms of visitation with the parent(s), Indian custodian, and extended family; and
5. Order the agency to arrange for the child to visit with other tribal members if no extended family is available and to coordinate with the child's tribe to arrange for the child to attend significant cultural and familial events.

B. Adjudication Hearing
In addition to items considered at the protective hearing, the court must make additional decisions and issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law. Those requiring additional information from the PCSA are included below:
Key decisions the court must make:

1. Which allegations of the petition have been proved or admitted;
2. Whether there is a legal basis for continued court and agency intervention; and
3. Whether the agency made active efforts to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family (and if so, whether these efforts were successful).

Additional temporary decisions which the court may make if the disposition hearing will not occur within a short time after the adjudication hearing:

1. Where the child is to be placed prior to the disposition hearing;
2. Whether to order further testing or evaluation of the child, parent(s), or Indian custodian in preparation for the disposition hearing and ensure that all assessments or evaluations are culturally appropriate;
3. Assure that the agency is, in preparation for disposition, making prompt and diligent efforts to identify and evaluate the caretaker, extended family, or if no family member is available, other tribal members or other Indian families;
4. Order the alleged perpetrator to stay out of the family home and have no contact with the child;
5. Direct the agency to continue its efforts to notify non-custodial parents, including unwed fathers whose paternity has been acknowledged or established; and/or
6. Set terms for visitation, support, and other intra-family communication including parent-child and sibling visits when the child is in foster care prior to disposition.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law must specify:

1. Whether the child is an Indian child under ICWA (or if not known, whether the child's tribe has been provided adequate notice, sufficient information, and an opportunity to determine the child's eligibility for membership);
2. What efforts, if any, have been made to identify the child's tribe;
3. Whether the agency has mailed notice and necessary information to all tribes in which the child may be eligible for membership to enable each tribe to ascertain whether the child is a member or eligible for membership;
4. Whether written notice was sent to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior if the child's tribe is not yet known;
5. Whether the child either resides on or is domiciled on a reservation, or is already a ward of a tribal court, thereby depriving the state court jurisdiction;
6. Whether the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian at the time of removal;
7. Whether the agency mailed notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the Indian custodian, registered mail, return receipt;
8. Whether the agency mailed notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the child's Indian tribe, if known, by registered mail, return receipt;
9. Whether the child's tribe seeks to intervene in the proceedings, and if so grant that request. (If the child is eligible for membership in more than one tribe, the court must ascertain which tribe is the child's tribe for purposes of ICWA);
10. Whether the child's Indian custodian, if there is one, seeks to intervene in the proceedings and, if so grant that request;
11. Whether the child's tribe, parent, or Indian custodian requested an additional 20 days in which to prepare for the hearing, grant that request and reschedule the hearing;
12. Whether a parent, Indian custodian, or the child's tribe has filed a motion or petition to transfer the case to tribal court;
13. If the court declines to transfer the case, whether either parent vetoed the transfer, the tribal court declined to accept jurisdiction, or the reasons, if any, why there is good cause not to transfer the case to the tribal court;

14. Whether the court advised the parent(s) or Indian custodian that they have a right to a court-appointed attorney if they are indigent;

15. Sufficiently detailed information to justify why the court found by clear and convincing evidence including testimony from an expert witness, that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;

16. Sufficiently detailed information to justify agency and court choices for treatment and services;

17. How the court's findings relate to subsequent case planning (written in easily understandable language);

18. Whether the parent can read English and, if not, what steps will be taken to ensure that the parent understands the court's written order; and

19. The date and time of the next hearing.

C. Disposition Hearing

In preparation for this hearing, the agency is responsible for submitting a predisposition report to the court. Key items the agency needs to include for the court's consideration are:

1. A statement of family changes needed to correct the problems necessitating agency intervention, with timetables for accomplishing them;

2. A description of services to be provided to assist the family, including those that the tribe or an Indian organization may offer and make available;

3. A description of services to be provided to ensure the child's ongoing connection to his/her culture, including attendance at significant cultural events, while placed outside of his/her family; and

4. A description of actions to be taken by parents(s) or Indian custodian to correct the identified problems and any steps the parent or Indian custodian has taken thus far.

Foster Placement Affidavit

When the agency recommends foster placement, an affidavit documenting active efforts must be submitted. Key elements of the affidavit include:

1. A description of the active efforts made by the agency to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and an explanation why these efforts were unsuccessful;

2. A description of the efforts made to coordinate with the child's tribe or any Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or Indian custodian with services needed to avoid the need for placement, and an explanation if the services were unsuccessful;

3. An explanation of why the child cannot be protected from the identified problems in the home even if services are provided to the child and family;

4. An explanation of the active efforts made to contact the child's tribe, extended family, and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family and other tribal members or Indian families about providing an appropriate placement for the child;

5. A description of arrangements made by the agency to ensure visitation with extended family, or if there is not family in the area, with other tribal members, to support the child's cultural connections; and

6. A description of the agency's plan to coordinate with the child's tribe and family to identify significant cultural and important familial events and arrange for the child's attendance.

Key decisions the court must make:
1. Whether the agency's proposed case plan addresses the needs of the child and the parent(s) or Indian custodian;
2. Whether the parent is able to read the proposed case plan and, if not, the effort that will be made to ensure that the parent fully understands the requirements of the plan;
3. Whether it is necessary to remove the child from his or her home to prevent serious emotional or physical damage; and
4. Where the child should be placed.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law must:
1. Determine the legal disposition of the case, including the custody of the child, based upon the statutory options provided under federal law unless state law provides a higher degree of protection, or unless there is a governing state-tribal agreement;
2. State the long-term plan for the child;
3. Identify the active efforts that have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian child's family;
4. Specify that there is clear and convincing evidence that continued custody of the child by the parent (or Indian custodian) would likely result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;
5. Specify whether the child was placed within the placement preferences under ICWA, and if not, whether the child's tribe issued a resolution establishing a different order of preference, as long as the placement is the least restrictive setting appropriate to the particular needs of the child;
6. Specify whether the agency relied upon the social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the parent or extended family reside or with which the parent or extended family maintain social and cultural ties when the agency determined whether an individual is an appropriate placement for the child;
7. If the child's tribe did not issue a resolution indicating a different order of preference for the placement of the child, specify the reasons why there is good cause to deviate from the placement preferences;
8. If there is not good cause to deviate from the placement preferences, and there is no tribal resolution re-ordering the placement preferences, order the agency to move the child to a home that complies with the placement preferences;
9. If placement or services are ordered that were not agreed upon by the parties, specify the evidence or legal basis upon which the order is made;
10. If applicable, specify why continuation of the child in the home would be contrary to the child's welfare; and
11. If the state's case plan conflicts with or does not meet the requirements of ICWA, disapprove or modify the agency's proposed case plan.

D. Review Hearing
At the Review Hearing, the agency is required to submit a report that contains the following information:
1. A statement of family changes needed to correct the problems necessitating intervention, with timetables for accomplishing them;
2. A description of services to be provided to assist the family, specifically identifying those made available with assistance from the tribe or an Indian organization;
3. A description of services to be provided to ensure the child's ongoing connection to his/her culture while placed outside of his/her family, including attendance at significant cultural events; and
4. A description of actions to be taken by the parents to correct the identified problems, and of the parents' compliance with the case plan thus far.

Affidavit Documenting Active Efforts
When the agency recommends continued foster placement, the agency must submit an affidavit to the court which contains the following information:

1. A description of active efforts to reunify the family since the last disposition or review hearing and if those efforts were not successful, an explanation regarding why;
2. A description of active efforts to coordinate with the child's tribe or any Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or Indian custodian with services needed to avoid the need for placement, and an explanation why these services were unsuccessful;
3. An explanation of why the child cannot be protected from serious emotional or physical harm if the child remains in the home even if services are provided to the child and family;
4. An explanation of the diligent efforts made to contact the child's extended family about providing a placement for the child or, if family members are not known, diligent efforts made to contact the child's tribe and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family, other tribal members, or Indian families for placement;
5. Efforts made by the agency to ensure the child's visitation with extended family, or, if none is available, with other tribal members, to ensure the child's ongoing participation in his/her culture; and
6. Efforts made by the agency to coordinate with the child's tribe and family to make arrangements for the child to attend significant cultural and important familial events.

Key decisions the court must make:

1. Whether there is a need for continued placement of the child;
2. Whether active efforts were made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and, if so, whether the services were successful;
3. Whether efforts were made to ensure that the parent understands the case plan if the parent does not read English;
4. Whether the court-approved, long-term permanent plan for the child remains the best plan for the child;
5. Whether the services set forth in the case plan and the responsibilities of the parties need to be clarified or modified due to the availability of additional information or changed circumstances;
6. Whether the child is placed according to the placement preferences in the ICWA and, if not, whether the child should be moved into a preference placement;
7. Whether the terms of visitation need to be modified;
8. Whether any additional court orders need to be made to move the case toward successful completion; and
9. What time frame should be established for goals to achieve reunification or other permanent plan for each child.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. Whether the agency has identified the child's tribe;
2. Whether the agency sent proper notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the parent(s), Indian custodian (if any), and child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt;
3. Whether the tribe has been afforded a full opportunity to participate in the proceedings and, if so, whether the agency provided the child's tribe with copies of the petition, reports, and information concerning the child;
4. Why the child is in need of either continued placement outside the parent's home or continued supervision, articulating the clear and convincing evidence that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian would likely result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;
5. Whether family reunification and an end to court supervision continues to be the long-term case goal, and why;
Whether the agency has made active efforts to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to eliminate the need for placement of the child outside the home of the parent or Indian custodian and whether the efforts were successful;

Whether the agency has made an ongoing, diligent search to locate extended family, a tribal member, or other Indian family for placement if the child is not already within a preference placement;

Issue orders for the agency to make additional efforts necessary to meet the needs of the family and move the case toward completion, including culturally relevant services that may be available with assistance from the tribe or local Indian/native organization;

Assure that findings are written in easily understandable language that allows the parent(s) or Indian custodian to fully understand what action they must take to have the child returned to their care (interpreter should be provided for parent or Indian custodian whose first language is not English);

Approve proposed changes in the case plan and set forth any court-ordered modifications needed as a result of information presented at the review;

Identify an expected date for final reunification or other permanent plan for the child;

Where the case plan conflicts with or does not meet the requirements of the ICWA, disapprove or modify the agency's proposed case plan to conform to the requirements of the ICWA;

Make any necessary orders to resolve the problems that are preventing reunification or the completion of another permanent plan for the child; and

Set the date and time for next hearing, if needed.

E. Permanency Planning Hearing

The agency is required to submit a report to the court in preparation for the Permanency Planning Hearing. This report must include:

1. The relief being sought and address the issues that the judge needs to determine;

2. The plan to carry out the placement decision;

3. When the petition or report requests that a child be returned home on a certain date, the following items must be included:

   b. A description of actions taken by the parent(s) or Indian custodian to correct the identified problems;
   c. A description of the active efforts made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family, including efforts made by the tribe, an Indian organization, or any other agency or organization;
   d. The frequency of recent visitation and its impact on the child; and

   c. A description of the active efforts made to coordinate with the child's tribe or an Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or custodian with services needed to avoid termination of parental rights and an explanation why these efforts were unsuccessful;
   d. An explanation of why the child cannot be protected from the identified problems in the home;
e. A summary of the agency's understanding of the tribe's position regarding the permanency plan, including an attachment of any correspondence or supporting documentation sent by the tribe to the agency;

h. A description of arrangements made by the agency to ensure visitation with extended family, and of all efforts made to support the child's cultural connections; and

i. A permanency plan for the child.

5. When another planned permanent living arrangement is proposed, the report should include the following items:

b. A description of why the planned permanent living arrangement is in the best interests of the child;

c. An explanation of the active efforts made to contact the child's tribe, extended family, and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family and other tribal members or Indian families to identify a culturally appropriate placement for the child;

f. A summary of the agency's understanding of the tribe's position regarding the permanency plan, including an attachment of any correspondence or supporting documentation sent by the tribe to the agency; and

g. A plan to ensure the stability of the planned permanent living arrangement.

When the agency recommends a permanency plan, an affidavit documenting the following must be submitted:

1. Active efforts made to reunify the family since the last disposition or review hearing and, if those efforts were not successful, an explanation why;

2. Efforts to coordinate with the child's tribe or any Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or Indian custodian with services needed to avoid the need for placement, and an explanation why these services were unsuccessful;

3. Why the child cannot be protected from serious emotional or physical damage if the child remains in the home even if services are provided to the child and family;

4. Diligent efforts made to contact the child's extended family about providing a placement for the child, or, if family members are not known, diligent efforts made to contact the child's tribe and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family, other tribal members, or Indian families for placement;

5. Efforts made by the agency to ensure the child's visitation with extended family, or, if none is available, with other tribal members, to ensure the child's ongoing participation in his/her culture; and
6. Efforts made by the agency to coordinate with the child's tribe and family to attend significant cultural and important familial events.

Written Findings of Fact That the Court Must Make at the Permanency Hearing:
1. Whether the agency has identified the child's tribe;
2. Whether the agency sent proper notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the parent(s), Indian custodian (if any), and child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt;
3. Whether the tribe has been afforded a full opportunity to participate in the proceedings and, if so, whether the agency provided the child's tribe with copies of the petition, reports, and information concerning the child;
4. Why the child is in need of either continued placement outside the parent's home or continued supervision, articulating the clear and convincing evidence that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian would likely result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;
5. Whether active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and eliminate the need for placement of the child outside the home of the parent or Indian custodian and whether the efforts were successful;
6. Whether the agency has made an ongoing, diligent search to locate extended family, a tribal member, or other Indian family for placement if the child is not already within a preference placement;
7. Assure that the findings are written in easily understandable language that allows the parent(s), or Indian custodian to fully understand what action they must take to have the child returned to their care (interpreter should be provided for parent or Indian custodian whose first language is not English); and
8. The court's determination of permanency and plan to return home, proceed to the termination of parental rights, or a planned permanent living arrangement.

F. Termination of Parental Rights Hearing

Key Decisions the Court Must Make:
1. Whether written notice was provided to the child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt requested;
2. Whether written notice was provided to the parents or Indian custodian by registered mail, return receipt requested;
3. Whether active efforts were made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family;
4. Whether efforts were made to ensure that the parent understood the case plan if the parent does not read English;
5. Whether the active efforts were unsuccessful; and
6. Whether there is evidence beyond a reasonable doubt including testimony of an expert witness, that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law must:
1. Specify whether active and reasonable efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family;
2. Specify what evidence, including testimony of a qualified expert witness, supports the finding beyond a reasonable doubt that continued custody of the child by the parent is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;
3. Specify any other state statutory grounds supporting termination of parental rights if state law requires satisfaction of dual burden of proof;
4. For uncontested termination of parental rights, the findings of fact and conclusions of law must also include:
a. Thorough description of the conditions and circumstances under which parental consent to termination of parental rights was obtained. Parental consent must be executed in writing in the presence of the judge and must be accompanied by the judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail and that the parent or Indian custodian fully understood these terms;

b. Certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation of the terms and consequences of the consent to termination of parental rights in English, or that it was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood;

c. Certify that the consent to termination of parental rights was not given prior to or within ten days after the birth of the child, as the consent would not be valid under these circumstances;

d. Determine whether the consent was voluntary and informed, that it was not obtained through fraud or duress, and that all alternatives to termination of parental rights were explained; and

e. If termination of parental rights was uncontested because the parent failed to appear, or appeared but neither contested nor consented to termination, the above items will apply.

G. Adoption Hearing

At the Adoption Hearing, the court must determine whether written notice was provided to the child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt requested, even if the child's tribe has not been a party to any prior proceedings related to the welfare of the child.

The court must also make the following written findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. Whether the child is within the exclusive jurisdiction of a tribe because the child either resided or was domiciled on a reservation or was already a ward of a tribal court at the time that the child custody proceedings began, thereby depriving the state court of jurisdiction;

2. Whether all the necessary consents to adoption have been provided, including the consent of the agency with the custody of the child, the consent of the child (if the child is old enough that consent is required under state law), and the consent of parent or Indian custodian whose rights have not been terminated;

3. Thoroughly describe the conditions and circumstances under which parental consent to adoption was obtained. When there has been no prior termination of parental rights, parental consent must be executed in writing in the presence of the judge and must be accompanied by the judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail and that the parent or Indian custodian fully understood these terms;

4. Certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation of the terms and consequences of the consent to adoption in English, or that it was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood;

5. Certify that the consent to adoption was not given prior to or within 10 days after the birth of the child, as the consent would not be valid under these circumstances;

6. Whether the consent was voluntary and informed, that it was not obtained through fraud or duress, and that all alternatives to adoption were explained;

7. Whether the child is placed in an adoptive home where the adopting individual is a member of:
   a. The child's extended family;
   b. The child's tribe; or
   c. Another Indian family;

8. If the child is not placed in one of the placement preferences established by federal law, a determination whether:
   a. The agency made a diligent search to locate a placement that meets the preferences established within the ICWA;
b. There is good cause not to place the child according to the placement preferences;

c. The child's tribe established a different order of preference by resolution;

d. If the child's tribe established a different order of preference for placement, ascertain whether the placement is the least restrictive setting which most approximates a family and in which the child's special needs, if any, may be met;

e. The child's consenting parent evidenced a desire for anonymity, in which case the court shall give weight to that desire in applying the preferences;

9. Other determinations required for all adoptions;

10. At contested adoption hearings, determine whether the adoption should be granted.

A contested adoption hearing must be conducted with procedural fairness, and should include notice to the parties and the child's tribe even if the tribe has not yet become a part in previous stages of the child custody proceedings;

11. Conclude the proceedings without undue delay, applying principles of case flow management;

12. The court which enters the final decree of adoption must upon application, inform the Indian child who has reached the age of 18 of the tribal affiliation, if any of the individual's biological parents and provide such other information as may be necessary to protect the rights flowing from the individuals' tribal relationship.

This procedure letter provides guidance to Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs), Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPAs), and Private Noncustodial Agencies (PNAs) on the implementation of rule 5101:2-33-80 and Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter (FCASPL) No. 157.

The Rapback rule requires agencies to establish a Rapback e-mail account by a date different from that specified in FCASPL 157. The rule listed the date for establishing the e-mail account as ten days after the effective date of the rule, which was December 31, 2008. The Procedure Letter stated that the agencies must establish the e-mail account by January 30, 2009. This Procedure Letter is clarifying that the agency must establish the e-mail account no later than January 30, 2009. ODJFS intends to amend the rule soon to eliminate this discrepancy concerning the deadline for establishing the e-mail account.

Current rule 5101:2-33-80 also provides an incorrect title of a form, JFS 01318 "Retained Applicant Database Required Information". The form should be entitled "SACWIS Private Agency Home Provider Data." The amended rule will include the correct title.

Rule 5101:2-33-80 (C) will be amended to clarify that a PCSA will enter information regarding any adult household member subject to a criminal records check directly into the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS). The amended rule will clarify that each PNA and PCPA must complete the JFS 01318 and each PCSA must enter this information directly into SACWIS. ODJFS will be enforcing the clarifying requirements that are listed in this Procedure Letter instead of the above described specifications that are currently listed in existing rule.

If there are any questions regarding this Procedure Letter, you may contact the OCF Help Desk at 1-866-886-3537 option 4.

Family, Children, and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 157

December 12, 2008

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director

SUBJECT: Procedures to Implement Administrative Code Rule 5101:2-33-80 Retained Applicant Fingerprint Database Information Exchange (Rapback)

This procedure letter provides guidance to Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs), Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPAs), and Private Noncustodial Agencies (PNAs) for implementation of rule 5101:2-33-80 of the Administrative Code which will be effective December 31, 2008.

Purpose of Rapback:

Ohio Revised Code section 109.5721 authorizes the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation (BCII) to add certified foster caregivers, approved adoptive parents, and all other adults in their households to the retained applicant fingerprint database. RAPBACK will provide agencies with valuable information regarding arrests for these individuals on a real time basis.

Rapback Process:

When a certified foster caregiver, approved adoptive parent, or any other adult in their household is fingerprinted in relation to a crime, BCII will immediately notify the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS). ODJFS will then notify the recommending or approving agency. The notifications from ODJFS will be sent Monday through Friday. The notifications will not contain detailed information, but will have a reference number. Once an agency receives notification from ODJFS that an individual has been fingerprinted in relation to a crime, the agency shall contact BCII via telephone, use the reference number contained in the notification, and request additional information. The phone call to BCII shall be made within two business days. BCII is available only between 8:00 am and 4:30 pm on business days to receive calls. After receiving a phone call from an agency, BCII will send the agency a letter giving more detailed information regarding the crime.

After the agency receives the detailed information from BCII, it shall take action as required in rule 5101:2-33-80 of the Administrative Code. Once an action has been taken, the agency must complete the JFS 1301 form and submit it to ODJFS.

Each agency must establish an e-mail account specifically for the purpose of receiving notifications for RAPBACK. Each agency must send the e-mail address to RAPBACK@jfs.ohio.gov by January 30, 2009. All required forms may be sent electronically to the Rapback e-mail box, or they may be submitted manually to:

- Filing a complaint in court.
- Conducting an assessment/investigation if deemed in the child's best interest.
- Case planning.

FCASPL 146 (FCM Single Cost Report, JFS 02911)

Family, Children And Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 146

July 31, 2008

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director

SUBJECT: 2008 Revisions to Foster Care Maintenance Single Cost Report (JFS 02911) and Instructions (JFS 02911-I)

This letter transmits revisions to the JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" and instructions JFS 02911-I which are used pursuant to OAC 5101:2-47-26.1 Public children services agencies (PCSA), private child placing agencies (PCPA), private noncustodial agencies (PNA): Title IV-E cost report filing requirements, record retention requirements and related party disclosure requirements. The revised form and instructions are to be used for the state fiscal year reporting period of July 1, 2007 through June 30, 2008.

An explanation of the revisions to the cost report form and instructions appears below:

The JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" form is the reporting format used to capture one hundred percent of operational costs of all public and private not-for-profit and for-profit providers of purchased family foster care and residential services. The form has been amended to include a level of difficulty of care section in the purchased foster care (PFC) worksheets, to remove duplicated fields of data on the residential (RES) and PFC worksheets, and to update the annual inflation factor.

The JFS 02911-I "Single Cost Report Instructions" provide an overview of the cost report as well as detailed instructions for completing the report. The instructions have been amended to include an explanation of the level of difficulty of care section in the PFC worksheets of the JFS 02911 and to update the email address for those providers desiring to contact the Office for Children and Families. Additionally, in accordance with changes to case management for the Medicaid program as outlined in Federal Register Vol. 72, No. 232, strict guidance is offered to providers advising them that all child welfare (foster care) related case management service costs are no longer reportable to Medicaid via the UCR/047 and must be reported to Title IV-E via the JFS 02911. Furthermore, new language was added regarding how to statistically account for a child's temporary absence from a placement setting for periods in which the provider is compensated or not compensated by the county agency. Finally, other minor clarification language was added where needed in order to facilitate understanding.

The JFS 02911 is intended to be used in an automated format.

When downloading the Microsoft Excel version of the JFS02911 "Single Cost Report," the macro security level must be lowered for the macro buttons to work. To lower the macro security level, open Microsoft Excel, click "Tools," "Options," and then click the "Security" tab. At the bottom of the security sheet, click "Macro Security." Change the security level from high to low. At this point, the file can be downloaded. Once downloaded, open the file. A prompt will appear requesting that the macros be either disabled or enabled. Click "Enable Macros." If the macro security level is not changed to low and the macros are not enabled, the macro buttons will not work when the file is opened.

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director
SUBJECT: INTER-COUNTRY ADOPTION DATA COLLECTION PURSUANT TO THE TITLE IV-B STATE PLAN

This procedure letter clarifies data collection requirements involving the Title IV-B State Plan as required by federal law. Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs), Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPAs) and Private Non-custodial Agencies (PNAs) engaged in inter-country adoptions must complete the JFS 01670, "Inter-Country Adoption Data Collection," and submit the form to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) by May 12, 2008. The time period for the data collection is Federal Fiscal Year (FFY) 2007.

Definitions:

For the purpose of this inter-country adoption data collection, the following definitions apply. These definitions can be found at 22 CFR 96.2 and the Child Welfare Policy Manual at http://www.acf.hhs.gov/j2ee/programs/cb/laws_policies/laws/cwpm/policy_dsp.jsp?citID=178#1200.

A "disruption" is the interruption of a placement for adoption during the post-placement period. An example of this is when a child who came to the United States for the purpose of adoption entered foster care prior to the finalization of the adoption, regardless of the reason for the foster care placement. The PCSA, PCPA or PNA must report these disruptions even if the child's plan is reunification with the prospective adoptive parent and the stay in foster care is brief. Such disruptions typically occur after a child enters the United States under the guardianship of the prospective adoptive parents or an adoption agency with an "IR-4 visa" for the purposes of completing the adoption process domestically.

A "dissolution" is the termination of the adoptive parent's parental rights after the adoption. An example of this is when a child for whom an inter-country adoption occurred (whether the full and final adoption occurred in the foreign country or domestically) entered foster care as a result of a court terminating the adoptive parent's rights or the adoptive parent relinquished his or her rights to the child. Since the child's legal relationship with his or her adoptive parent may not be severed until some time after the child enters foster care, the PCSA, PCPA or PNA must also report to ODJFS, the child for whom an inter-country adoption occurred and the child was already in foster care at the time that the adoption dissolved.

Data Collection Requirements:

Each PCSA, PCPA, and PNA must complete a separate JFS 01670 for each child who was adopted via inter-country and who entered foster care due to an adoptive placement disruption or due to an adoption dissolution as defined above. The agency must collect and report to ODJFS the following information on the JFS 01670:

- Identification of the child who was adopted from another country and entered into agency custody in FFY 2007 as a result of the disruption of a placement for adoption (42 USC 622[b][12]).
- Identification of the child who was adopted from another country and entered into agency custody in FFY 2007 as a result of the dissolution of an adoption (42 USC 622[b][12]).
- Explanation of the permanency plan for the child, the reasons for the disruption or dissolution and the steps taken to achieve permanency after the disruption or dissolution occurred.
- Identification of the PCSA, PCPA or PNA that handled the adoptive placement or the adoption finalization.
- Description of the activities that the PCSA, PCPA, PNA or any other agency undertook for the child adopted from another country, including the provision of adoption and post-adoption services. (42 USC 622[b][11]).

PCSAs, PCPAs and PNAs are not required to collect data on a child who enters foster care after a finalized adoption if the adoptive parent's legal rights to the child remain intact. An example of this may be a child for whom an inter-country adoption occurred and the child was admitted to a residential treatment center but the adoptive parent maintained legal custody of the child.

Please contact the Office for Children and Families Help Desk at 1-866-886-3537, Option 4, if you have additional questions or concerns.

This letter transmits revisions to the following adoption services forms in Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) Chapter 5101:2-48: JFS 01694 "Application for Search of Ohio Putative Father Registry (Registration Form for Fathers)," JFS 01694-I "Instructions for Registration Form for Fathers" and JFS 01695 "Application for Search of Ohio Putative Father Registry."

A brief explanation of the changes appears below:

JFS 01694 "Application for Search of Ohio Putative Father Registry (Registration Form for Fathers)" is a registration form used by putative fathers who want to be notified in the event their child may be placed for adoption. The address of the Putative Father Registry has been updated on the form, the "Father Certified By State" box has been removed from the "Identifying Information About the Child" section, the "Information About Interested Party Requesting Search of Putative Father Registry" section has been removed as the putative father is the only individual who would be using this form to register and the notary public language has been revised.

JFS 01694-I "Instructions for Registration Form for Fathers" outlines the procedures for completing the JFS 01694. Both the mailing and street addresses have been updated on this form.

JFS 01695 "Application for Search of Ohio Putative Father Registry" is the form used by the birth mother, Public Children Services Agency (PCSA), Private Child Placing Agency (PCPA) or attorney arranging a child's adoption to request a search of the putative father registry. The address of the Putative Father Registry has been updated on the form, the "Father Certified By State" box has been removed from the "Identifying Information About the Child" section and the "Information About Interested Party Requesting Search of Registry" section has been reworded to more clearly identify who the attorney represents. Also, the "To Be Completed By the Ohio Putative Father Registry" section has been revised to remove duplicative information that is captured on the JFS 01697 "Ohio Putative Father Registry Response to Court" form that is mailed to the person requesting the search.

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director
SUBJECT: Adoption Subsidy Retroactive Payments for January 2008

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 129 dated December 18, 2007, stated, "In light of the short notice, PCSAs will be able to submit requests for retroactive payments." Although not required, a county agency may request retroactive Title IV-E Adoption Assistance (AA) or State Adoption Maintenance Subsidy (SAMS) for the January 2008 adoption subsidy payment. In order to process a retroactive AA or SAMS claim, the subsidy agreement must have been signed by both the adoptive parent(s) and the county PCSA representative by the close of business on 12-31-07. If a county agency wishes to request retroactive AA or SAMS payments for January 2008, the following procedures shall apply:

For County agencies that are NOT live in the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS) for AA or SAMS payments and wish to request retroactive AA or SAMS payments for January 2008:

- For AA subsidy payments where the subsidy agreement has been increased and signed by the agency and adoptive parents by 12-31-07, the county must update event 0338 (FCM/AA Payment Authorization) within Host-Family and Children Services Information System (FACSIS) or SACWIS Interim Solution (SIS) to reflect the desired aggregate monthly payment amount (e.g., increase the original amount of $250.00 to the revised amount of $300.00). The cut-off date for updating the 0338 event for the retroactive payment to be generated with the February 2008 subsidy in FACSIS is January 22, 2008 and in SIS is January 18, 2008.
- Complete Form JFS 01659 "Title IV-E Auxiliary Payment Authorization" using "Benefit Type" H (adoption assistance payments) and "Transaction Code" 3 (underpayment). The "Effective Dates" for "From" and "To" should span the month for which underpayment is being requested (e.g. 1/1/08 to 1/31/08). Report the amount of the underpayment (the difference of the original AA subsidy payment and the increased AA subsidy payment) in Column four (4).
- Send the completed JFS 01659s to: SAGE, 3043 Sanitarium Rd., Akron, Ohio, 44312-4600.
- For SAMS subsidy payments where the subsidy agreement has been increased and signed by the agency and adoptive parents, increase the subsidy payment for February 2008 to the amount agreed upon plus the amount of the increase that would have been paid in January 2008. The county must report the total amount of the February 2008 payment on the JFS 02820, financial code 852 and classification code 50 which maps to line code 2-6620 and funding source 0000. The full amount of the February 2008 SAMS payment, plus the included underpayment amount for January 2008, will be reimbursed through the normal JFS 02820 payment process.

For County agencies that are live in the SACWIS for AA or SAMS payments and wish to request retroactive AA or SAMS payments for January 2008:

- For AA subsidy payments where the subsidy agreement has been increased and signed by the agency and adoptive parent by 12-31-07, the county agency shall increase the AA subsidy payment amount in SACWIS for the February 2008 subsidy payment by January 21, 2008. The amount of the increase shall include the February 2008 AA subsidy agreement amount, plus the amount of increase that would have been submitted for the January 2008 AA subsidy payment. For example, if the original subsidy amount was $250 and the total subsidy amount has been increased to $300, a review record must be entered into SACWIS with a Review Date of 2/1/2008 and a Subsidy Amount of $350 in order to capture the $50 increase for February as well as the $50 underpayment for January 2008. When making this one time adjustment in SACWIS for the retroactive increase, there is no requirement to amend the adoption subsidy agreement with the adoptive parents for the January 2008 increase amount. The adoption subsidy agreement may remain at the agreed upon amount.
For SAMS subsidy payments where the subsidy agreement has been increased and signed by the agency and adoptive parents by 12-31-07, the county agency shall increase the SAMS subsidy payment amount in SACWIS for the February 2008 subsidy payment by January 21, 2008. The amount of the increase shall include the February 2008 SAMS subsidy agreement amount, plus the amount of increase that would have been submitted for the January 2008 SAMS subsidy payment. For example, if the original subsidy amount was $250 and the total subsidy amount has been increased to $300, a review record must be entered into SACWIS with a Review Date of 2/1/2008 and a Subsidy Amount of $350 in order to capture the $50 increase for February as well as the $50 underpayment for January 2008. When making this one time adjustment in SACWIS for the retroactive increase, there is no requirement to amend the adoption subsidy agreement with the adoptive parents for the January 2008 increase amount. The adoption subsidy agreement may remain at the agreed upon amount.

For both subsidy payment processes above, the county agency must change the amount of the AA and SAMS payments in SACWIS back to the agreed upon amount as identified on the adoption subsidy agreement between the county agency and the parents for the March 2008 subsidy payment. These changes must be made in SACWIS by February 19, 2008. The review record that is entered into SACWIS, should have a Review Date of 03/01/2008. Because the February 2008 adoption subsidy payment will not equal the adoption subsidy agreement amount, documentation of this letter should be kept on file for this one time retroactive payment increase, for audit purposes.

The above processes for SACWIS AA or SAMS payments may have an initial impact to the county financially. If the January 2008 AA or SAMS payment was less than $300, and the total AA or SAMS payment amount for February 2008, which includes the retroactive January 2008 increase, exceeds $300, the county agency will be required to pay the match in the amount of the adoption subsidy payment that exceeds $300. Therefore, ODJFS initiated the following procedure to reimburse county agencies that have expended match in the amount that ODJFS would have paid for the January 2008 AA or SAMS increase.

If the amount of the February AA or SAMS payment plus the increase for the retroactive January 2008 AA or SAMS payment caused the county agency to provide match for an amount for which ODJFS is responsible, the county agency shall create a detailed invoice for reimbursement of these expenditures.

The invoice shall include the name of the adopted child, the January 2008 adoption subsidy payment amount, the February 2008 adoption subsidy payment amount and the amount of match the county paid on behalf of ODJFS for the retroactive January 2008 adoption subsidy increase. All payment amounts and match amounts shall be summed at the bottom of the invoice.

The invoice shall also contain a statement certifying the match amount expended by the county agency, on behalf of ODJFS for the January 2008 retroactive increase, is true and accurate. The invoice must also be signed by a county agency official with signature authority. Upon receipt of the invoice, ODJFS will issue a subsidy payment to the county in the amount of match the county paid on our behalf.

Invoices shall be mailed by March 31, 2008 to: ODJFS/OCF, Attention Abbey Bonawitz, P.O. Box 182709, Columbus, Ohio, 43218-2709.

County agencies who have questions pertaining to this procedure letter may contact Dan Shook at 614-752-0619 or via email at Shookd@odjfs.state.oh.us.

The effective date is January 1, 2008.

Chapter 4 of the Medicaid Eligibility Manual

5101:1-40-03 Medicaid: children in care and individuals younger than age twenty-one who have aged out of foster care.

This rule is changed to reflect the expanded coverage for youth aging out of foster care. Youth must be in foster care at age 18 and must have received Title IV-E services before age 18. There is no resource or income test, and no face to face interview is required. PCSA staff must use the JFS 01958 "Referral for Medicaid Continuing Eligibility Review" to provide information to the CDJFS in order to explore eligibility for this new category.

FCASPL 131 (MEPA Cycle II Oversight)

Family, Children And Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 131

January 1, 2008

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director

SUBJECT: MULTIETHNIC PLACEMENT ACT, AS AMENDED (MEPA) AND TITLE VI OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964 (TITLE VI) - MEPA CYCLE II OVERSIGHT

To ensure compliance with the federal Corrective Action and Resolution Plan, the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS), Office for Children and Families (OCF) will launch the second round of on-site reviews involving the Multiethnic Placement Act, as amended (MEPA) and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as it pertains to the adoption and foster care process (Title VI). The second round of on-site reviews will occur between January 2008 and December 31, 2009.

MEPA Cycle II on-site reviews will involve announced and unannounced visits to the agency. Dates of the announced on-site reviews will be negotiated between OCF and the agency. Private child placing agencies (PCPAs) and private non-custodial agencies (PNAs) will only receive a MEPA on-site review if they are under contract with a public children services agency (PCSA) to provide any of the following foster care and/or adoption services: placement services; homestudy services; pre-placement and/or pre-service training; and recruitment services.

PCSA Responsibility for Identifying the Private Agencies It Contracts With to Perform Foster Care and/or Adoption Services:

1. Each PCSA must complete the attached JFS 01605 "MEPA Monitoring Cycle II, Foster Care Licensing PCSA-PCPA/PNA Contracts" and identify which private agencies have a contract with the PCSA to provide the following foster care and/or adoption services: placement services; homestudy services; pre-placement and/or pre-service training; and recruitment services.

2. The PCSA must return the completed JFS 01605 by January 25, 2008 to: ODJFS, MEPA Unit, Attn: Vanessa Tower, P.O. Box 182709, Columbus, Ohio 43218-2709 or via e-mail transmission to Vanessa Tower at towerv@odjfs.state.oh.us or fax to 614-466-6185.

Agency Responsibilities Prior to Announced ODJFS MEPA On-site Visits

While ODJFS is transitioning to the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS), MEPA Data reports will not be produced or reviewed during the MEPA Cycle II on-site visits until all public and private agencies have rolled out in SACWIS. As a result, at least four weeks prior to each announced MEPA on-site visit, an OCF reviewer will contact the agency and request the following information be made available:

- Child Permanent Custody Case Record Review - A list of all children who were in permanent custody of the agency for at least forty-five (45) days in the review period. The review period is the 12-month period ending two months prior to the first day of the MEPA entrance conference month. The list provided to ODJFS must contain the following information: Client Number; Last Name; First Name; Race; Date of Birth; PC Start Date; PC End Date; and Custody Termination Reason.

- Adoptive Family Case Record Review - A list of adoptive families who have had an approved adoptive homestudy open for at least one day in the review period. The review period is the 12 month period ending two months prior to the first day of the MEPA entrance conference month. The list provided to ODJFS must contain the following information: Resource Number; Resource Name; Homestudy Approved Date; and Homestudy Closing Date. (Open families include families who have been approved for at least one day in the review period and do not have a child placed with them and families who have been approved and do have a child placed with them.)

- JFS 01688 Individualized Child Assessment Case Record Review - A list of all children for whom a JFS 01688 "Individualized Child Assessment" was completed and in effect for at least one day during the review period. The review period is the 12-month period ending two months prior to the first day of the entrance conference month.

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director
SUBJECT: INCREASE IN THE STATE PARTICIPATION OF TITLE IV-E ADOPTION ASSISTANCE AND STATE ADOPTION MAINTENANCE SUBSIDY PAYMENTS

In accordance with Amended Substitute House Bill 119 of the 127th General Assembly, the state is increasing its participation in the Title IV-E Adoption Assistance (AA) and the State Adoption Maintenance Subsidy (SAMS) payments from $250 per month up to a maximum of $300 per month. The increase in the state’s commitment to adoption subsidy payments will commence with payments for January 2008 subsidies.

What SACWIS/FACSIS Will Do Automatically:

Effective with the January 2008 subsidy payments, any adoption subsidy agreement greater than $250 per month but less than or equal to $300 per month, the state's participation will automatically be increased up to the amount reflected in Host-Family and Children Services Information System (FACSIS) or the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS).

Effective with the January 2008 subsidy payments, any adoption subsidy agreement greater than $300 per month, the state's participation will automatically be increased up to the maximum of $300. This increase does not change the public children services agency's (PCSA) responsibility of providing the county match for the AA payment in excess of $300 per month.

What SACWIS/FACSIS Will Not Do Automatically:

Effective with the January 2008 subsidy payments, for any adoption subsidy agreement equal to or less than $250 per month, the state's participation will not be automatically increased. In order for an increase to be issued, a revised adoption subsidy agreement must be entered into by the PCSA and adoptive parent(s).

What the PCSA Will Need to Do Manually:

If the PCSA decides to increase the adoption subsidy to the adoptive parent(s), the PCSA must enter the increased subsidy agreement amount into FACSIS or SACWIS by the cut-off date for the month in which the increase is to be effective. Please note that the cut-off date for the January 2008 subsidy payment is December 17, 2007. In light of the short notice, PCSAs will be able to submit requests for retroactive payments. The process to submit these requests for January payments will be sent in a separate procedure letter. Subsequent increases must follow the monthly cut-off schedule throughout the remainder of the year.

As a reminder, the decision to increase the total AA or SAMS payments to the adoptive parent(s) must be based on the needs of the child and circumstances of the adoptive parent(s) to meet those needs.

ODJFS encourages each PCSA to notify adoptive parents of the adjustments in the warrant or the Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) being paid by the state and the county. This should decrease confusion for the adoptive parents.

If you have questions regarding this change, please contact the Office for Children and Families Help Desk at (866) 886-3537 (Option 4) or via e-mail at help-desk-ocf@odjfs.state.oh.us.

FCASPL 129 (AA and SAMS)
Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 129
December 18, 2007
FCASPL 128 (Position Statement on Therapeutic Interventions Funded with Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy)

Family, Children And Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 128

October 31, 2007

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director
SUBJECT: POSITION STATEMENT ON THERAPEUTIC INTERVENTIONS FUNDED WITH POST ADOPTION SPECIAL SERVICES SUBSIDY

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services in conjunction with the Ohio Department of Mental Health Services issues the following position statement for agencies to consider as they approve Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy (PASSS) funds to pay for therapeutic interventions for children.

The Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy (PASSS) is a state program designed to provide funds for medical, therapeutic and respite services for adopted children and their families. To receive funds, the family must be experiencing a severe crisis to the point that a disruption of the adoption is eminent and the child is in need of protective services or care by a public agency. Any PASSS service provided must address a pre-existing need or a need that developed from the child's pre-adoptive background issues.

Prior to using PASSS funds, the family's insurance and/or Medicaid shall be utilized, if the service is covered by insurance and/or Medicaid. There are a wide range of therapeutic techniques which may be funded by PASSS based on the unique needs of the adoptive child and the adoptive family's sense of what treatment is most effective, as long as certain safeguards are in place to assure the child's safety and well being.

It is the position of Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) and Ohio Department of Mental Health (ODMH) that:

• The provision of a physically and psychologically safe environment is a basic foundation and requirement for effective mental health treatment. Creating calm surroundings and establishing positive, trusting relationships are essential to facilitating a person's treatment and recovery.

• All therapeutic interventions that are provided with PASSS funds shall be administered by Ohio independent licensed providers licensed in psychology, psychiatry, social work, counseling or advanced practice nurse and are expected to adhere to the code of ethics of the licensing body. The provider shall release information to the public children services agency providing payment arrangements for the services and to the child's adoptive parent(s).

• Interventions involving noncontingent physical restraint or coercion (e.g., "therapeutic holding" or "compression holding"), "reworking" of trauma (e.g., "rebirthing therapy"), or promotion of regression for "reattachment" have no empirical support and have been associated with serious harm, including death, and are therefore not to be a service provided utilizing state PASSS dollars. Specific interventions prohibited from being funded through PASSS include but are not limited to:
  • Face down restraint with back pressure;
  • Any technique that obstructs the airways or impairs breathing;
  • Any technique that obstructs vision;
  • Any technique that restricts the recipient's ability to communicate;
  • Pepper spray, mace, handcuffs or electronic restraint devices such as stun guns; and
  • A drug or medication that is used as a restraint to control behavior or restrict the individual's freedom of movement that is not a standard treatment for the individual's medical or psychiatric condition.

INSTRUCTIONS:

SUBJECT: TEMPORARY PROCEDURES TO ISSUE FOSTER HOME CERTIFICATES OUTSIDE OF THE STATEWIDE AUTOMATED CHILDREN WELFARE INFORMATION SYSTEM (SACWIS)

This Procedure Letter provides guidance to Public Children Service Agencies (PCSAs) for issuing Foster Home Certificates while the Statewide Automated Children Welfare Information System (SACWIS) is experiencing application performance issues.

1) Process for agencies that have access to SACWIS Interim Solution (SIS)

To Create a New Foster Home Provider and Initial Certification:

- The PCSA should create Family Foster Home registrations in SIS along with pertinent events. This information will be extracted and sent to Host FACSIS.
- The PCSA should submit the JFS 01317 "Recommendation for Certification/Recertification of a Foster Home" by fax or e-mail to:

  Ohio Department of Job & Family Services
  Fax Number (614) 466-0164
  Attention: Rita Jackson
  jacksr@odjfs.state.oh.us

- Once the information is transmitted to ODJFS, the JFS 01317 information will be entered into Host FACSIS. The Foster Home Certificate will be printed and mailed to the PCSA. (These steps mirror the process that agencies followed prior to implementing SACWIS.)
- Once the SACWIS application performance issues are resolved, the PCSA will need to enter and approve the Initial Homestudy in SACWIS.
- The PCSA will then create an Approval/Certification record and route the request to ODJFS via the SACWIS Provider Licensing Request process. (ODJFS Staff will validate the previously submitted paper JFS 01317 and approve the Initial Certification based upon the information in the previously generated Foster Home Certificate.)

To Create a Foster Home Recertification:

- The PCSA should update the Family Foster Home record as applicable (i.e. address changes, etc.) in SIS.
- The PCSA should submit the JFS 01317 by fax or e-mail to:

  Ohio Department of Job & Family Services
  Fax Number (614) 466-0164
  Attention: Rita Jackson
  jacksr@odjfs.state.oh.us

- When submitting the JFS 01317, the PCSA must provide the Family and Children Services Information System (FACSIS) Resource Identification Number instead of providing the SACWIS Provider Identification Number.
- Once the information is transmitted to ODJFS, the JFS 01317 information will be entered into Host FACSIS. The Foster Home Certificate will be printed and mailed to the PCSA. (These steps mirror the process that agencies followed prior to implementing SACWIS.)
- Once the SACWIS application performance issues are resolved, the PCSA will need to enter and approve the Recertification Homestudy in SACWIS.
The PCSA will create an Approval/Certification record and route the request to ODJFS for approval in SACWIS. (ODJFS Staff will validate the previously submitted paper JFS 01317 and approve the Recertification based upon the information from the previously generated Foster Home Certificate.)

2) Process for agencies that are processing child welfare subsidy payments out of SACWIS and no longer have access to SIS

To Create a New Foster Home provider and Initial Certification:

- The PCSA should complete and submit the Provider Request Form by fax or e-mail to:
  - Ohio SACWIS Project
    - Fax Number (614) 728-9678
    - Attention: Tim Doyle-Wenger
doylet@odjfs.state.oh.us
  - The ODJFS SACWIS Provider Team will enter the Provider information and generate the new Foster Home Certificate from SACWIS.
  - An e-mail notification will be sent to the PCSA with an attached PDF copy of the Foster Home Certificate.
  - Once the SACWIS application performance issues are resolved, the PCSA will need to enter and approve the information on the Initial Homestudy in SACWIS.

To create a Foster Home Recertification with or without demographic changes including change of name, address and/or change in capacity:

- The PCSA should complete and submit the Provider Request Form (with all changes indicated) by fax or e-mail to:
  - Ohio SACWIS Project
    - Fax Number (614) 728-9678
    - Attention: Tim Doyle-Wenger
doylet@odjfs.state.oh.us
  - The ODJFS SACWIS Provider Team will update the Provider information and generate the Foster Home Certificate.
  - An e-mail notification will be sent to the PCSA with an attached PDF copy of the Foster Home Certificate.
  - Once the SACWIS performance issues are resolved, the PCSA will need to enter and approve the information on the Recertification Homestudy in SACWIS.

SUBJECT: REVISIONS TO CHILDREN SERVICES LICENSING FORM JFS 01350 AND MAKING FORM JFS 01351 OBSOLETE

This letter transmits changes made to the JFS 01350 "Foster Parent Training Reimbursement Invoice and Instructions," introduces the new JFS 01350-I "Instructions For Completing the ODJFS 01350," and makes the JFS 01351 "Waiver Request for Agency Rules" obsolete.

Effective September 30, 2007 the JFS 01351 "Foster Parent Training Reimbursement Invoice - Continuation Page" will be obsolete. All foster caregiver training costs should be submitted using the revised JFS 01350 "Foster Caregiver Training Stipend and Recommending Agency Training Allowance Invoice." Following is a brief explanation of each of the proposed changes to the JFS 01350 form.

The title of the form has changed.

The Recommending Agency Information section adds an additional box requiring the three digit Agency or County I.D. Number.

The Training Information section adds new required information including a selection of pre-placement or continuing training, questions concerning costs for the agency, the date of the training and the length of the session.

The Training Participant Information section eliminates the FACSIS number column and adds columns for foster caregiver stipends paid and for allowance payments requested by the recommending agency.

There is a new subtotal box to list the totals of both stipend and training allowance reimbursement requests. There is also a total amount line which combines the two subtotals of stipend and allowance reimbursement requests.

The new form JFS 01350-I contains the instructions for use with the JFS 01350.

From: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director
Subject: CENTRAL REGISTRY SEARCH REQUESTS IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THE ADAM WALSH ACT AND SUB. SB 238

This communication is being sent to clarify procedures related to completion of Central Registry (CR) background checks required by Am. Sub. SB 238 of the 126th General Assembly, related Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules, and the federal Adam Walsh Act.

OAC rules to implement Sub. SB 238 provisions became effective on December 11, 2006. Procedures for requesting related Central Registry searches were communicated via Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 103 on December 28, 2006.

The Office for Children and Families continues to work diligently to provide technical assistance on the new procedures and process the nearly 6,000 CR requests submitted so far this calendar year as a result of this legislation. Due to the number of requests which have been submitted and the level of technical assistance requested, a significant backlog in processing search requests now exists.

It has been brought to the Office’s attention that some of the search requests have been submitted for the purpose of foster care licensure recertification. Ohio law does not currently require or permit CR searches for this purpose. To expedite the approval of prospective foster homes, please review the list submitted by your agency to determine if any names were submitted for the exclusive purpose of foster care licensure recertification. By May 25, 2007, forward the names of those who need to be removed from the search request, or verification that no changes are needed, to Barbara Parker via e-mail at parkeb@odjfs.state.oh.us.

However, provisions contained in proposed legislation Ohio HB 213 and its companion bill SB 163 require a search of the uniform statewide automated child welfare information system at foster care licensure recertification. We will keep you apprised as that legislation progresses.

Your cooperation and patience with these modifications are appreciated.

4) For every case which was transferred for ongoing agency services prior to the date of the SACWIS implementation and a case plan has not been completed, the PCSA shall:
   a) Complete the JFS 01410 "Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - I.S., Case Plan" (Rev. 2/2006) pursuant to rule 5101:2-38-01 or 5101:2-38-05 of the Administrative Code.
   b) Base the content of the JFS 01410 on the information contained in the JFS 01500 "Family Decision Making Model: Family Risk Assessment Matrix" (Rev. 2/2001) completed pursuant to rule 5101:2-34-32 of the Administrative Code.

5) For all ongoing cases that have a completed and signed case plan prior to the date of the SACWIS implementation, the PCSA shall begin utilizing the JFS 01413 "Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - I.S., Case Review" (Rev. 7/2006) no later than every three months after whichever of the following activities occurred first:
   a) The date of the parent signature on the JFS 01410 for in-home supportive services only.
   b) The date of the original court complaint.
   c) The date of original placement date.
   d) The date of court ordered protective supervision date.
   e) The semiannual administrative review (SAR) due date.
6) SACWIS requires the completion of the JFS 01400 for the first subsequent report of intra-familial child abuse and/or neglect received for every case transferred for ongoing protective services prior to the date of SACWIS implementation.

7) The following CAPMIS tools will be utilized per procedures outlined in the Ohio Administrative Code rules once a PCSA has implemented SACWIS:

a) The JFS 01400 "Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - I.S., Family Assessment" (Rev. 7/2006) pursuant to rule 5101:2-37-03.

c) The JFS 01402 "Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - I.S., Ongoing Case Assessment/Investigation Tool" (Rev. 7/2006) pursuant to rule 5101:2-36-03.

d) The JFS 01403 "Specialized Assessment/Investigation" (Rev. 2/2006) pursuant to rule 5101:2-36-04 of the Administrative Code.

g) The JFS 01411 "Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - I.S., Amended Case Plan Cover Sheet" (Rev. 2/2006) pursuant to rule 5101:2-38-01 or 5101:2-38-05 of the Administrative Code.

It is recommended that prior to implementation of SACWIS, PCSAs utilize the case plan and the semiannual administrative review (SAR) available in the Family Assessment and Planning Tool (FAPT) housed within SIS. Data saved in this system will be converted to SACWIS.

PCSAs implementing CAPMIS prior to implementing SACWIS pursuant to paragraphs (C) and (D) of rule 5101:2-33-99 of the Administrative Code, should follow the procedures outlined in this procedure letter for phasing-in the CAPMIS tools on pre-existing cases. CAPMIS tools completed prior to SACWIS implementation will not be converted or saved into SACWIS.

Effective Date: September 25, 2006

OAC Rule: 5101:1-38-02

To: Medicaid Eligibility Manual Holders
Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

From: Helen E. Jones-Kelley, Director

Subject: IV-E and SSDI Medicaid Citizenship Verification Requirement

Reason for Change: Amendment to Federal Law

Prior Policy: The Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 required documentation of U.S. citizenship for all applicants and recipients of Medicaid except for those individuals already eligible for Medicare or receiving SSI.

New Policy: New federal legislation signed December 20, 2006, exempts additional groups from the citizenship verification requirement. Individuals receiving foster care or adoption assistance under Title IV-E and those receiving Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) will not be required to furnish verification of citizenship in order to be eligible for Medicaid. This exemption is retroactive to the effective date of rule 5101:1-38-02, September 25, 2006.

Action Required: The new federal legislation retroactively applies to IV-E and SSDI individuals beginning September 25, 2006. Therefore, any affected individuals who were terminated or denied with reason codes 852 or 853 due to citizenship verification must be reviewed for eligibility. This information may be accessed by using the BIC Application Timeliness data cube.

CRIS-E table TMCV has been updated to include code "FA" for IV-E foster care and adoption assistance children and "SD" for individuals receiving SSDI. These codes must be used to indicate the individual's IV-E or SSDI status.

Rule 5101:1-38-02, "Medicaid verification and reporting requirements," will be amended to include this information.

Please note this procedure letter relates only to the topic of Medicaid eligibility for children in foster care. It does not relate to other federal requirements that states must have procedures to verify the citizenship of all children in placement. Instructions regarding those procedures will be issued in a separate transmittal.

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director

On July 27, 2006, Congress enacted the Adam Walsh Protection and Safety Act of 2006. This Act is intended to protect children from sexual exploitation and violent crime, to prevent child abuse and child pornography, and to promote Internet safety. This letter addresses one requirement of the legislation: The conducting of background checks of prospective foster care and adoptive applicants and other adults living in the home of these prospective applicants by using child abuse and neglect registries.

The entire law can be viewed at the following internet address:

As a result of this legislation, OAC 5101:2-5-20 (D) (effective December 11, 2006) requires that the recommending agency search the Central Registry of Abuse and Neglect for each foster care applicant and each adult household member of the applicant's home. Once the agency accesses the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS), the agency must request a search of SACWIS for each foster care applicant and adult household member. For an application that is in process prior to the effective date of the amended rule, the homestudy may be approved; however, the Central Registry/SACWIS search results must be obtained prior to placement of a child in the home. The results of the search for foster care applicants who made application after the effective date of the rule must be received prior to foster care certification.

Adoption rules have also been amended. OAC 5101:2-48-11, 5101:2-48-11.1 and 5101:2-48-12 require a Central Registry search or a SACWIS search once SACWIS is implemented statewide for initial adoptive applicants and all other adult members of the applicant's household. OAC 5101:2-48-12.1 has additionally been amended to require the search at the time of update. The results of the search must be received prior to adoption approval. All the above mentioned rules will become effective on December 11, 2006.

State law currently limits these background searches to searches of SACWIS when it is implemented statewide and does not mandate searches of the Central Registry prior to that time. Also, the current language in OAC 5101:2-34-38.1 of the Administrative Code does not allow the release of the Central Registry/SACWIS information for the purpose of background checks. OAC 5101:2-34-38.1 is being amended to comply with P.L. 109-248. Because federal law supersedes state statute and rule, until Ohio statutes and rules are amended to reflect these federal requirements of the Adam Walsh Act, these mandatory requests for searches of the Central Registry/SACWIS should specify that the search request is being made in accordance with the Adam Walsh Act.

Central Registry/SACWIS search requests must be sent electronically as an e-mail attachment to Barbara Parker at parkeb@odjfs.state.oh.us. Agencies without electronic capabilities can mail search requests to Barbara Parker at ODJFS/OCF/BFS, 255 East Main Street, 3rd floor, Columbus, OH, 43215-5222.

- The agency must provide the following information for each individual for whom a search is being requested:
  - Full Name, including maiden or other names used
  - Date of Birth
  - Social Security Number
  - Home Address
- The agency must confirm that verification of the date of birth and Social Security number is on file with the agency for each individual search request.
- The agency must identify the reason for each search (for example, prospective adoptive or foster parent).
• The agency must provide the name(s) of the agency contact persons who are designated/approved to request Central Registry search results, including their contact information (address, phone number and e-mail, if applicable). The agency must inform ODJFS of any changes/additions to that information as necessary.

• Agencies should submit "batches" of requests on a regular, self-determined timeframe; e.g., every Monday. Agencies are discouraged from sending multiple individual search requests each week. By requesting the searches in batches, it will allow for a more efficient process. Agencies must allow 30 days for search results. Searches cannot be processed on an emergency basis.

• Search requests cannot be submitted via telephone.

• ODJFS will conduct searches of both the Host FACSIS and SACWIS databases for each individual request.

• ODJFS will return results letters for each search electronically to the contact person designated by the requesting agency. Results will be mailed to those agencies that do not have electronic capabilities.

• Results letters will advise agencies either that there is NO MATCH found for the individual's name in the Central Registry or SACWIS systems as an alleged perpetrator of a Substantiated or Indicated report of child abuse and/or neglect; or that a MATCH is found for the individual as an Alleged Perpetrator for a Substantiated or Indicated report of child abuse and/or neglect. Result letters shall be maintained in the family resource case file.

• Search Results will not be provided via telephone or fax.

Questions concerning the Central Registry request should be directed to Barbara Parker, ODJFS/OCF/BFS, via e-mail at parkeb@odjfs.state.oh.us or by phone at 614-995-5594.

The Adam Walsh Act also requires agencies to request a check of the child abuse and neglect registry of any other state in which a foster care or adoptive applicant or other adult living in the applicant's household has resided in the five years immediately prior to the application. These background checks must be made before the prospective foster or adoptive parent may be finally approved for placement of a child. The department will be seeking to amend state law and revising rules to add this requirement. Until such time as rules exist mandating this requirement, we suggest that recommending agencies determine whether a foster care or adoptive applicant or other adult living in the applicant's household has resided in another state during any of the five years immediately preceding the date of the application. If the applicant or other adult has resided in another state during that time period, we suggest that the recommending agency determine whether that state has a child abuse and neglect registry and, if so, contact that state to check its registry concerning that individual. Currently, there is no standardized way to make these requests. Those states that have a child abuse and neglect registry vary in their definitions, standards, and placement of names in their registry. We have been unable to find any listing of registry contacts in other states. If we learn of any listing, we will provide that information in the future.

For all applicants, even those who are residents of Ohio for five years or more, the Adam Walsh Act will be requiring a federal criminal background check. In accordance with the time line set by the Adam Walsh legislation, we will be seeking legislation prior to October 1, 2008 to address new criminal record checking requirements, including FBI checks for all applicants. Regardless of any future legislation, OAC rules 5101:2-5-09.1 (J) and 5101:2-48-10 (B) currently allow the agency to choose to seek the federal criminal check for all adoptive and foster care applicants.

In order to improve the efficiency and accuracy of the issuance of certificates for foster homes, the Office for Children and Families (OCF) is implementing some changes to the internal processing of the JFS 01317 "Recommendation for Certification/Recertification of a Foster Home" that will be used until your agency is converted to the Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS).

Pursuant to OAC 5101:2-5-22 Recommendations for initial foster home certification, the recommending agency must have the required FACSIS/SIS data entered into the automated system no later than the date that the agency submits the JFS 01317 containing its recommendation for certification of the foster home to the department. Similarly, OAC 5101:2-5-24 Foster home recertification procedure requires that FACSIS/SIS data be complete at the time that the JFS 01317 containing the recommendation for recertification is received.

Each public children services agency (PCSA) is responsible for entering its own data into FACSIS/SIS. Private agencies fulfill this requirement by submitting the JFS 01639 "Micro-FACSIS Private Agency Form (PCPA and PNA), Own Agency Foster Home -Resource 01" to the department. The data should be complete in accordance with the policy set forth in the Micro-FACSIS Usage Document which can be obtained at:
http://jfs.ohio.gov/ocf/FACSIS/usage/ and in FCASMTL No. 124 Revised PCPA and PNA Data Entry Forms for Micro-FACSIS and new form instructions issued on April 16, 2002 which can be obtained at http://emanuals.odjfs.state.oh.us/emanuals/.

The changes to the OCF processing for issuance of certificates may impact the effective dates of certificates. This could be a concern for placement decisions and federal reimbursement for placements. Pursuant to OAC 5101:2-5-22, no initial certificate will be made effective any earlier than the date of the receipt stamp on the JFS 01317. The effective dates for recertifications will continue to be set in accordance with OAC 5101:2-5-24.

Certificates will not be issued if information on the JFS 01617 is incorrect or the FACSIS/SIS data elements are incomplete. Certificates will not be issued when documentation for criminal background checks, Event 820 for the required BCII and Event 822 for applicable FBI, is missing for any household member for whom a background check is required by rule.

Please note the following:

- If OCF receives a JFS 01317 that is incorrect, OCF will contact the recommending agency by phone or e-mail to request that the agency submit the correct information. Corrections to the JFS 01317 may be submitted by phone, mail, email or fax at the numbers listed below. If the corrections are received within two weeks, the date stamp on the originally submitted JFS 01317 will be used to establish the effective date of the certificate.
- If the corrections to the JFS 01317 are not received by OCF within two weeks, OCF will return the JFS 01317 to the recommending agency. The JFS 01317 may be resubmitted to OCF by the recommending agency when the information is complete at the address listed below. For any JFS 01617 that was returned to the recommending agency, the date that the corrected JFS 01617 is received and date stamped by OCF will be used to establish the effective date of the certificate.
- For public agencies, if complete FACSIS/SIS data are not available for review in the automated system by OCF at the time that the JFS 01317 is received by OCF, OCF will contact the recommending agency by phone or e-mail to request that the agency update the FACSIS/SIS data. Public agencies must notify OCF when the FACSIS/SIS data has been updated in the automated system by phone, mail, e-mail or fax at the numbers listed below.
For private agencies, if the JFS 01639 is not compete and available for review by OCF at the time that the JFS 01317 is received by OCF, OCF will contact the recommending agency by phone or e-mail to request that the agency correct the information on the JFS 01639. Corrections to the JFS 01639 may be made by phone or e-mail or by submitting a corrected JFS 01639 by mail or fax at the numbers listed below.

If the FACSIS/SIS information is not available for review by OCF or the corrections to the JFS 01639 are not received by OCF within two weeks, OCF will return the JFS 01317 to the recommending agency. The JFS 01317 may be resubmitted to OCF by the recommending agency when the FACSIS/SIS information is complete or the JFS 01639 has been corrected and submitted to OCF at address listed below. For any JFS 01317 that was returned to the recommending agency due to incorrect SACWIS/SIS information, the new date that the JFS 01317 is received and the supporting FACSIS/SIS data is available for review will be used to establish the effective date of the certificate.

To ensure Ohio's compliance with Federal regulations for claiming Title IV-E reimbursement, the recommending agency should take no more than thirty days between the date on the original JFS 01317 which recommended the home and the agency's correction of errors/omissions. OCF will continue to set the effective dates of certificates in accordance with the OAC, when all required information is available for review by ODJFS.

Pursuant to the instructions in the Micro-FACSIS Usage Document, agencies are required to complete Event 820 "Criminal Background Check" and, in some cases, the Event 822 "FBI Background Check" for registered foster homes. Under separate cover, agencies will receive a listing of all currently certified foster homes as documented in FACSIS/SIS that have missing 820 and 822 events. Agencies must review these lists for accuracy and complete the required data elements in FACSIS/SIS by December 31, 2006.

If a foster family who was initially certified before October 29, 1993 and has been continuously certified, it was not required to have a criminal background check in accordance with ORC 2151.86. Agencies however are encouraged to enter data in the 820 and 822 events if the foster home record documents that a BCII/FBI background check was completed on the family. In subsequent data reports families who were initially certified prior to 1993 who have not had a background check will be eliminated from the report.

For any foster home noted on the list that the agency has closed, the agency must submit a JFS 01317 indicating the closure and enter the Event 816 "Certificate Closed Event" in FACSIS/SIS.

For any foster home that was initially certified by one agency and then transferred to another agency, the current recommending agency should contact the initial certifying agency to obtain the date of the criminal background check. If the date can not be ascertained and the current agency has completed a background check, that date should be used. Otherwise the date should remain blank in FACSIS/SIS. Agencies should note that the lack of data in this event may cause the family to appear on subsequent data reports. OAC 5101:2-5-31 Sharing or transfer of a foster home, which will become effective on December 11, 2006, will require that when a foster home is transferred to a new agency, the receiving agency must conduct a criminal background check.

In order to prevent undue delays in the processing of foster home certificates, agencies should carefully review their certification and recertification reviews for compliance with all applicable Administrative Code rules. They should also assure that all JFS 01317s containing the recommendations for certification are free of errors and omissions and that FACSIS/SIS data is submitted timely in accordance with Administrative Code requirements and Micro-FACSIS usage document.

Some of the common errors that will interrupt the processing of an initial certificate or recertification are indicated below:

- Incomplete or missing items on the JFS 01317 "Recommendation for certification/recertification of a foster home":
  - Identifying Information
  - Transaction Type
Incomplete or missing items in FACSIS/SIS or on the JFS 01639 "Own Agency Foster Home - Resource 01":

- Dates of birth for all household members
- Information regarding capacity, minimum and maximum age, acceptable sex and race
- Excluding characteristics
- Event 800, "Completed Application Received"
- Events 820 "Criminal Background Check" (BCII) and 822 "FBI Background check" FOR ALL REQUIRED MEMBERS OF THE HOUSEHOLD (Children over age 12 and adults over age 18)
- Indication of length of Ohio residency

For custodial agencies, Events 850, 812, 814 and 818 are required FACSIS/SIS data elements; however, at this time the absence of data in these events will not interrupt the processing of a certificate. Event 850 "Local Educational Agencies" is needed for the Ohio Department of Education, and Event 812 "Foster Caregiver Parent Family Structure," Event 812 "First Foster Caregiver Parent Demographics" and Event 818 "Second Foster Caregiver Demographics" are needed for AFCARS compliance. Missing information from these events will be indicated on the AFCARS exception reports.

Revisions include the removal of the emerging danger sections from all forms and instructions.

The JFS 01400, "Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - I.S., Family Assessment," assists workers to assess risk and to identify strengths and needs present in the family system to determine what level of services the family needs. Included in the Family Assessment are a review of safety issues, child harm, strengths and needs assessment, family perception, risk assessment, and service planning.

The JFS 01402, "Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - I.S., Ongoing Case Assessment/Investigation," assists workers to assess or re-assess risk, to discuss child harm and to document investigative activities when a report of child abuse and/or neglect is received on an open, ongoing case.

The JFS 01413, "Comprehensive Assessment and Planning Model - I.S., Case Review," is a re-examination of safety, risk and a discussion of the impact service provision has on the family system and assists workers in making permanency decisions.

The forms and their instructions will not be available in hardcopy from the ODJFS warehouse. They can be obtained on line at: http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inter.asp.

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director
SUBJECT: Data Collection Requirements for the Multiethnic Placement Act Corrective Action and Resolution Plan

Pursuant to the Multiethic Placement Act Corrective Action and Resolution Plan (CARP), Section III(E), the public children services agencies (PCSAs) and private child placing agencies (PCPAs) must submit the following aggregate data to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS):

Aggregate Data on Children

1. Matches accepted by the family (Calendar Years 2004-2008) - The number of adoptive matches made for children in the agency's permanent custody each year from calendar years 2004-2008 that are accepted by the family to whom the child was presented for adoptive placement. Accepted by the family is indicated by a signed JFS 01654 "Adoptive Placement Agreement"; and,

2. Matches rejected by the family (Calendar Years 2004-2008) - The number of adoptive matches made for children in the agency's permanent custody each year from calendar years 2004-2008 that are rejected by the family, meaning that the agency matched the child with the family and presented the child to the family for adoptive placement and the family then rejected the placement as indicated by the failure to sign a JFS 01654 "Adoptive Placement Agreement". For example, this count of rejection by the family includes matches where the family and child began pre-placement visits but the family decided not to accept the child.

The data shall include all children whose background information was presented for adoptive placement to a family, be they foster to adopt or adoption only. The count for acceptance begins when the adoptive placement agreement is signed. Any verbal refusal that results in the adoptive placement agreement not being signed counts as a rejection and should be clearly documented. A placement disruption or dissolution is not counted as a rejection. However, for a child whose placement disrupts or dissolves and who is then presented to a subsequent family for placement, the outcome of that subsequent family's decision would be counted for acceptance or rejection.

When available, the JFS 01609 "Family Permanency Planning Data Summary" and JFS 01610 "Child Permanency Planning Data Summary" may be used to collect this information. However, the effective date of the rules requiring the completion of the JFS 01609 and JFS 01610 was February 1, 2005 so the source of the information may be different for cases prior to February 1, 2005. In the future, the JFS 01609 and JFS 01610 will be in SACWIS and have a calculation function that agencies may find helpful. While it was not a requirement to document any of the above information on the JFS 01689, some agencies may have done so on their own initiative and hence it would be a source of information.

The aggregate data for children for calendar years 2004 and 2005 must be compiled to the extent that the agency has available data. The 2004 and 2005 data must be submitted by October 1, 2006 to Rhonda Abban, Chief, Adoption Services Section, 255 E. Main Street, 3rd Floor, Columbus, Ohio 43215. The aggregate data for calendar year 2006 must be submitted to ODJFS by May 1, 2007. The data for calendar years 2007 and 2008 will be due on May 1, 2008 and May 1, 2009 respectively.

Any data submitted prior to the effective date of this letter and not in accordance with the guidelines contained herein must be resubmitted.

The agency will be required to complete the JFS 01640 "Multiethnic Placement Act Corrective Action and Resolution Plan Data Collection Requirements" (7/2006) to document the information requested. For questions about this Procedure Letter, please contact the Office for Children and Families' Help Desk at HELP-DESK-OCF@odjfs.state.oh.us.

requirements of rules in Chapter 5101:2-48 of the Administrative Code. These forms will become effective on June 30, 2006.

The information on the forms cannot be changed and the form must be used in it's entirety. These forms will be available online in a PDF format. They may also be printed, copied and completed by hand. These forms will be available on-line at: http://www.odjfs.state.oh.us/forms/inter.asp. These forms will not be available in hardcopy from the Ohio Department of Job and Family Service warehouse.

The following is a list of the form numbers and titles included with this letter.

JFS 01616 "Social and Medical History" outlines what information is necessary for social and medical information by the biological parents whose child(ren) are in the care of the agency and/or whose children will be placed for adoption. The form is intended to be used by the PCSA, PCPA, and PNA for the provisions for social and medical information submitted by the biological parents whose child(ren) are in the care of an agency and/or whose child(ren) will be placed for adoption.

JFS 01679 "Request For Notification" outlines the information needed as required by Section 3107.17 of the Ohio Revised Code which requires the probate court finalizing each Ohio adoption to provide and explain the JFS 01679 to each adoptive parent at the time of the final decree of adoption.

JFS 01687 "OAPL Family Registration/Amendment" form is used to register a family with the "Ohio Adoption Photo Listing (OAPL) Families Waiting to Adopt Book," a PCSA, PCPA, or PNA shall submit information required to register an approved family with ODJFS.

JFS 01698 "Step-parent Adoption Homestudy" outlines the information needed to assess a home for a step-parent adoption. This form is used by the assessor appointed by the court to visit the home where the child being adopted by the stepparent will be living, then report back to the court the suitability of the home for the child.

SUBJECT: APS Automated Reporting System

This letter transmits the rescission of ODJFS Protective Services for Adults Quarterly Report (JFS 04287) and the Instructions (JFS 04287-I). The JFS 04287 will be replaced by the web based reporting system titled "APS Case Incident Reporting System" which became effective July 1, 2005.

The APS Automated Reporting System developed by ODJFS is a web based data collection system designed to receive, compile, and store Adult Protective Services (APS) incident reports. The purpose of the database system is to have a uniform method of collecting and submitting data to standardize reporting. The database system will also increase information availability via system generated, preformatted reports.

The web address for the APS Automated Reporting System is:. To access the reporting screens, security access must be established by the local county department of job and family services adult protective services administrator or supervisor. Technical assistance issues related to the APS Automated Reporting System should be directed to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services Management Information System Help Desk at 1-800-686-1580.

FROM: Barbara Riley, Director
SUBJECT: Revised TITLE IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings for the Period April 1, 2005 through March 31, 2006

The Office for Children and Families, Bureau of Accountability and Regulation has revised the Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings for the period April 1, 2005 through March 31, 2006, for several agencies based on a review of each agency's originally reported case management costs on their JFS 02911 "Single Cost Report" for the 2004 state fiscal year reporting period.

Consequently, if your county placed a Title IV-E eligible child in one of the facility sites listed in the attached chart and your county received reimbursement for allowable placement costs as processed through the JFS 01925 "Monthly FCM Invoice" and FACSIS Benefit Issuance system, your county must submit adjusting entries in order to receive proper reimbursement in conjunction with the revised Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings.

Due to the mechanics of the payment system, a two-step process of negative (transaction code E) and positive (transaction code A) entries on the JFS 01925 "Monthly FCM Invoice" are required in order to effectuate the Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings revisions. The following is an explanation of the necessary steps to take in order to accomplish this task:

Step 1. Previously reimbursed claims covering the placement period 4/1/05 to 10/31/05 must be reversed. Please submit reversing entries containing identical column information as was originally submitted for reimbursement on the JFS 01925 Monthly FCM Invoice except use transaction code E in column 8 (Trans Code). These reversing entries must be submitted by April's 1925 cut-off date of 4/14/06. Please submit these reversing entries under separate cover from any other JFS 01925 Monthly FCM Invoices you may submit for the 4/14/06 cut-off.

The resulting effect of these reversing entries will be a repayment by the county for previously reimbursed claims based on the original Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings and will be reflected on your May 2006 warrant and disbursement journal. Once the reversing entries are processed, reimbursement under the revised Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings can take place as detailed in Step 2.

Step 2. Submit reclaiming (rebilling) entries in accordance with standard JFS 01925 "Monthly FCM Invoice" claiming procedures making sure to use transaction code A in column 8 (Trans Code). The earliest these reclaiming (rebilling) entries can be submitted for processing is May's 1925 cut-off date of 5/12/06. However, since there is no deadline for filing the reclaiming (rebilling) entries except for the standard federal two-year claim limitation, claims received after May's 1925 cut-off date will be processed with the next applicable cut-off date's payment cycle.

The resulting effect of these reclaiming (rebilling) entries will be a payment to the county based on the revised Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings and will be reflected on the monthly warrant and disbursement journal the first of the month following the applicable cut-off date's payment cycle.

Counties affected by this Procedure Letter should submit their claims as detailed in Steps 1 and 2 to Ryan Meanor, Office for Children and Families, Bureau of Accountability and Regulation, Title IV-E Policy Section, 255 E. Main St., 3rd Floor, Columbus, Ohio, 43215-5222.

The Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceilings for the period April 1, 2005 through March 31, 2006, are published at http://jfs.ohio.gov/ocf/publications.stm.

FCASPL 88 (Eligibility - Special Needs)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 88

December 13, 2005

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
FROM: Barbara E. Riley, Director
SUBJECT: Policy Clarification for Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Rule 5101:2-47-30 Adoption Assistance Eligibility: Special Needs

When determining eligibility for Title IV-E adoption assistance and the reimbursement of nonrecurring adoption expenses the public children services agency (PCSA) must determine that the child is a child with special needs as defined in Administrative Code rule 5101:2-47-30. One of the criteria that must be met for this determination is that the PCSA must determine that a child cannot or should not be returned to the home of his parent(s). Generally, the mechanism used for establishing this is through a court order terminating parental rights of the parent(s), the existence of a petition for termination of parental rights, or a signed relinquishment by the birth parent(s).

The Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, issued Child Welfare Policy Section 8.2B.11 which broadened the previous guidance to allow the following:

If a child can be adopted in accordance with State or Tribal law without a TPR or relinquishment, the special needs requirement will be satisfied, so long as the State or Tribe has documented the valid reason why the child cannot or should not be returned to the home of his or her parents.

Based on the revised interpretation of the federal policy, when termination of parental rights or a voluntary relinquishment have not been obtained prior to finalization of the adoption, ODJFS will recognize the petition to adopt for purposes of meeting the special needs requirement that a child cannot or should not be returned to the home of his parents to determine eligibility for adoption assistance and the reimbursement of nonrecurring adoption expenses. This policy interpretation also applies to determining eligibility for reimbursement of nonrecurring adoption expenses for international adoptions. A copy of the petition to adopt must be provided prior to finalization of the adoption in order for the PCSA to determine that the child meets the special needs criteria.

This policy clarification is effective on the date of this memo. For questions, about this letter, please contact the OCF Helpdesk by phone at: 1-866-886-3537, Option 4, or by email at: HELP-DESK-OCF@odfs.state.oh.us.
Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 87

May 18, 2005

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders
From: Barbara E. Riley, Director
Subject: Quarterly TPR Tracking Tool

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) is required under the Child and Family Services Review (CFSR) to increase the number of adoptions completed within 24 months of initial custody. One strategy to achieve this goal is to review and decrease the length of time to achieve termination of parental rights (TPR) in appropriate cases. The Program Improvement Plan requires the development of a TPR Tracking Tool which will allow Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs) to document TPR delays, compelling reasons for not filing for termination of parental rights in a timely manner and document other hearings that exceed deadlines. The SFY 2005 Quality Assurance vendor, Hornby Zeller Associates (HZA), will disseminate the county specific TPR Tracking Tool in an Excel format on a quarterly basis for completion by the PCSAs.

The Tracking Tool is child-specific and contains information such as dates of initial custody, permanent custody, other hearing dates and explanations for delays in filing for permanent custody. A full list of the items in the Tool is shown in the Instruction Guide. Where possible, fields will be pre-populated using a download of FAC/SIS data.

Population:

The Tracking Tool collects information on those children entering permanent custody in a given quarter. The first data collection is for children who entered permanent custody between October 1, 2004 and December 31, 2004.

To reduce the burden, particularly on those agencies with large numbers of children entering permanent custody, only a sample of the children entering permanent custody in a given quarter will be included in the Tracking Tool. The sampling method employed will permit statistically valid estimates for each quarter for each county. To avoid increasing the sample sizes, the margin of error of the quarterly estimates is relatively wide. However, the precision of the estimates will increase substantially, (i.e., the margin of error will be reduced) as more data are collected and results can be tabulated for each county across two or more quarters.

Returning the Completed Tracking Tool:

The disk with the completed Tracking Tool should be returned to HZA within one month of its receipt. It should be mailed to the following address in the postage-paid envelope provided:

Hornby Zeller Associates, Inc,
100 Commercial Street
Suite 300
Portland, ME 04101

Once the files are returned, HZA will analyze the data and produce a report of findings on a quarterly basis.

If you have any questions regarding this FCASPL, please contact the OCF Helpdesk by phone at 1-866-886-3537, Option 4, or via email at.

Subject: Background Information and Contacts for Implementing Provisions of the Indian Child Welfare Act

This letter provides background and contact information to assist Public Children Services Agencies (PCSAs) and Private Child Placing Agencies (PCPAs) in implementing provisions of the Indian Child Welfare Act and Ohio Administrative Code rules 5101:2-42-52 through 5101:2-42-58.

I. Background

The Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), passed in 1978, is one of several pieces of legislation enacted over the course of many years to honor the numerous treaties and agreements between the United States (U.S.) government and Native American Tribal governments.

Tribal sovereignty, or the status of being a "dependent sovereign nation," is the legal concept which has defined and guided the relationship between the United States government and the governments of Native American tribes over the past 225 years. The considerations required by ICWA are therefore based on this political relationship (government to government) rather than on race or culture, and as such, supersede considerations required by other child welfare acts when requirements conflict. ICWA re-established tribal control over Native American children, and with few exceptions, gave tribal courts exclusive jurisdiction over the placement of Indian Children. The "trust responsibility" or obligation of the U.S. government to protect the interests, safety, and well-being of the tribes and individual Indians, is based on the doctrine of Indian sovereign nationality.

In order to have protections guaranteed by ICWA, the child or his family must be a member of (or qualify for membership in) a federally recognized tribe. According to the most recent report from the Federal Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), there are 556 federally recognized tribes and more than 200 that are petitioning for federal recognition.

Criteria for tribal membership differs from one tribe to another. Many Indian tribes have adopted the current BIA standard of one-quarter blood quantum; however, some tribes are considering adopting more liberal blood quantum requirements. In order to determine a particular tribe's criteria, it is necessary to contact that tribe directly.

Tribal enrollment numbers are tied to the tribe, not the location of the members. Due to the federal Relocation Programs during the 1950s, there are more Native Americans today who live in urban settings than on reservations. Based on the population data of the Census 2000 which relied on self-reporting rather than official tribal enrollment, Ohio has a Native American population of 24,486 which represents 0.22% of the general state population of 11,353,140. This is a significant number considering that there are no reservation lands or federally recognized tribes indigenous to Ohio. Cincinnati and Toledo are sites for model Indian courts.

II. Applying ICWA

While ICWA protections apply to child custody proceedings involving an Indian child, preferred practice is to involve the Indian child's parent(s) or custodian; extended family members; nonrelatives who have a relationship with the child and/or family; and the Indian child's tribe as early as possible in the case planning process to coordinate resources which may prevent the child from coming into an agency's custody. Documentation of a PCSA's "active efforts" to contact and coordinate with these resources, to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family, and an explanation regarding why these "active efforts" were not successful, are required by the court when the PCSA is recommending substitute care placement. Therefore, early identification of Indian children is paramount to enable the PCSA to implement "active efforts" requirement of ICWA to prevent the need for custody.

III. Definitions as prescribed by ICWA

Active efforts - prompt and diligent efforts to: determine the child's tribe(s) for which he or she may qualify for membership; contact the child's tribe(s) when known; provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family; coordinate with the child's tribe or any Indian organization to assist the Indian parent or Indian custodian with services needed to avoid the need for placement, or in the event placement becomes necessary, to serve as a placement for the child; make arrangements to ensure visitation with the extended family, or if there is not family in the area, with other tribal members to support the child's cultural connections; and coordinate with the child's tribe and family to identify significant cultural and important familial events and arrange for the child's attendance.

Child custody proceedings - include foster care placements, termination of parental rights, pre-adoptive placements, and adoptive placements. A placement that meets the definition of foster care placement and results from an act that would not be deemed a crime if committed by an adult such as a status offense, is a child custody proceeding under ICWA. A child custody placement pursuant to a divorce where someone other than one of the parents will obtain custody of the child is also a child custody proceeding under ICWA.

Extended family member - defined by the law or custom of the Indian child's tribe, or in the absence of such law or custom, a person who has reached the age of 18 and who is the Indian child's grandparent, aunt or uncle, brother or sister, brother-in-law or sister-in-law, niece or nephew, first or second cousin, or step parent.

Foster care placements - any action where an Indian child is removed from his parents or Indian custodian for temporary placement in a home or institution, including guardianship and conservatorship, and where the parent or custodian cannot have the child returned upon demand but where parental rights have not been terminated.

Indian - any person who is a member of an Indian tribe, or who is an Alaska Native and a member of a Regional Corporation. For the purposes of ICWA, tribes are arbiters of their own membership.

Indian child - any unmarried person who is under age 18 and is either: (a) a member of an Indian tribe, or (b) is eligible for membership in an Indian tribe and is the biological child of a member of an Indian tribe.

Indian child's custodian - any person who has legal custody of an Indian child under tribal law or custom or under State law, or to whom temporary physical care, custody and control has been transferred by the parent of such child.

Indian child's tribe - the Indian tribe in which an Indian child is a member or eligible for membership, or in the case of an Indian child who is a member of or eligible for membership in more than one tribe, the Indian tribe with which the Indian child has the more significant contacts.

Indian tribe - any Indian tribe, band, nation, or other organized group or community of Indians recognized as eligible for the services provided to Indians by the Secretary of the Interior because of their status as Indians.

Qualified expert witness - although not defined under ICWA, a House Report prepared in conjunction with ICWA states that the phrase "is meant to apply to expertise beyond the normal social worker qualifications." H.R. No. 95-1386, 95th Cong., 2d Sess., reprinted in 6 U.S.C.C.S.A.N. 7530, 7454 (1978). In addition, the Bureau of Indian Affairs has promulgated "Guidelines for State Courts" which interpret the ICWA. The following characteristics are set forth at 44 Federal Register 67,593 (1979) as those most likely to qualify a witness as an expert under the ICWA:

a) A member of the Indian child's tribe who is recognized by the tribal community as knowledgeable in tribal customs as they pertain to family organization and child rearing practices;

b) Lay expert witness having substantial experience in the delivery of child and family services to Indians, and extensive knowledge of prevailing social and cultural standards and child rearing practices within the Indian child's tribe; or

c) A professional person having substantial education and experience in the area of his or her specialty.
Thus, a "qualified expert witness" is not an expert on ICWA, but an expert on the child's tribe.

IV. Placement Priorities of ICWA

When an Indian child must be removed from his or her home and placed into substitute care, ICWA requires the child be placed in accordance with the following priorities:

- With a member of the Indian child's extended family;
- With a foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe;
- With an Indian foster home licensed or approved by an authorized non-Indian licensing authority; or
- An institution for children approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization which has a program suitable to the meet the Indian child's needs.

When the Indian child is not placed with the placement priorities above, the court must consider whether:

- The Indian child's tribe issued a resolution establishing a different order of preference and the placement is the least restrictive setting appropriate to the particular needs of the child; or
- There is good cause not to follow the placement preferences.

In addition, the court is required to order the agency to:

- Make ongoing, diligent searches to locate a placement that meets the preferences established with ICWA; and
- Arrange for the child to visit with other tribal members if no extended family is available, and coordinate with the child's tribe to arrange for the child to attend significant cultural and familial events.

V. Court Considerations of PCSAs Actions Involving Indian Children

Courts must assure that provisions required by ICWA are followed in order to protect the rights of Indian children, adults and tribes in accordance with the governmental trust relationship which is grounded in Tribal sovereignty.

When a PCSA has received a report of child abuse or neglect and is conducting a risk assessment, case planning is enhanced when the agency is aware of whether the child would fall under Tribal sovereignty provisions of ICWA and when the agency involves the necessary parties that may prevent the need for the child's removal from the home. Should removal become necessary, early identification of the child's extended family and tribe will enable the agency to encourage their participation in any custody proceedings as required by ICWA.

At each hearing, from the initial Protective Hearing to, if applicable, the Adoption Hearing, the court is required by ICWA to make specific inquiries and decisions, and issue written findings. These considerations are largely based on the efforts of the PCSA and the documentation it submits to court. Therefore it is critical that the agency understand the issues the court must consider at each hearing so it can assure that it has met all of its responsibilities in accordance with ICWA.

Below, are the ICWA requirements at each proceeding which would necessitate PCSA documentation:

A. Protective Hearing

The PCSA must file a sworn petition or complaint with the court at or prior to the time of the preliminary protective hearing which describes all circumstances of the child's removal, any allegations of abuse or neglect, and all efforts made to try to ensure safety and prevent the need for removal.

In accordance with OAC 5101:2-42-52, "Verification of tribal membership," the agency must bring to the court verification of the child's heritage or documentation of all efforts to secure verification of the child's heritage. If eligibility for membership in a federally recognized tribe has been established, in accordance with OAC 5101:2-42-53, "Involuntary custody requirements," the agency must provide the court with documentation of its efforts to notify the required parties of their rights, or if eligibility has not been established, verification that the agency has notified the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the U.S. Secretary of the Interior. The agency must also document its efforts to enable the court to consider issues and make written findings identified below.

Key issues the court must consider during the protective hearing include:
1. Whether the child is an Indian child as defined by ICWA;
2. Whether the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian prior to the hearing;
3. Whether the child resides on or is domiciled on a reservation, or whether the child is already a ward of a tribal court, depriving the court of jurisdiction (If the child resides on or is domiciled on a reservation but is temporarily off the reservation, the court may order an emergency removal from the parent or Indian custodian to prevent imminent physical harm to the child.);
4. Whether the agency mailed proper notice to the child's putative father, including a father who has acknowledged paternity, even if not legally established;
5. Whether the agency provided proper notice and inquiry to all tribes in which the child may be eligible for membership, including a family chart or genogram to facilitate the tribe's membership determination; or whether the agency provided written notice to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior if the child's tribe is not known at this time;
6. What efforts the agency has made to identify extended family or other tribal members or Indian families for placement of the child (including whether the agency attempted to create a family chart or genogram, and solicited assistance from neighbors, family or members of the Indian community who may be able to offer information); and
7. Whether the parent is able to read and/or understand English and if not, what efforts have been made to ensure that the parent understands the proceedings and any action the court will order.

Key decisions the court must make:

1. Whether the agency made active efforts to identify responsible extended family or other tribal members or Indian families to serve as a placement for the child, if necessary;
2. Whether the agency in assessing the appropriateness of a placement with an individual who meets the placement preferences of ICWA or the tribe, relied upon the social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the parent or extended family reside, or with which the parent or extended family maintain social and cultural ties;
3. What additional efforts need to be made to ensure the child is placed with extended family or within his/her tribal community;
4. What culturally relevant services will allow the child to remain at home;
5. Whether parties will voluntarily agree to participate in services;
6. Whether restraining orders or orders expelling an allegedly abusive parent from the home are appropriate or necessary;
7. Whether orders are needed for examinations, evaluations, or other immediate services; and
8. What are the terms and conditions of visitation by parents or Indian custodian.

Required notice and advice of rights:

As part of its requirements under ICWA, the court must ensure that the agency sends (via registered mail, return receipt) notice of the next scheduled hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights under ICWA, to the following parties if not at the hearing:

1. The child's parent;
2. The Indian custodian; and
3. The child's tribe.

Key written findings the court must make at the protective hearing include:

1. Whether, at the time of removal, the child was already a ward of a tribal court (if known) thereby depriving the state court of jurisdiction;
2. Whether, at the time of removal, the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian;
3. Whether active efforts were made prior to removal, to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and whether the efforts were successful;

4. Whether there was clear and convincing evidence, including testimony of a qualified expert witness, that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child; and

5. Whether the parent, Indian custodian, or child's tribe requested an additional 20 days to prepare for the hearing.

If the child is placed in substitute care, the court also needs to do the following:

1. Specify why continuation of the child in the home would be contrary to the child's welfare;

2. Specify whether the child is to be placed in a home that meets the priority requirements of ICWA, or if the child is not to be placed according to the priority requirements, to specify whether:
   a. The child's tribe issued a resolution establishing a different order of preference and the placement is the least restrictive setting appropriate to the particular needs of the child; or
   b. There is good cause not to follow the placement preferences;

3. Order the agency to make ongoing, diligent searches to locate placement that meet the preferences established within ICWA;

4. Specify the terms of visitation with the parent(s), Indian custodian, and extended family; and

5. Order the agency to arrange for the child to visit with other tribal members if no extended family is available and to coordinate with the child's tribe to arrange for the child to attend significant cultural and familial events.

B. Adjudication Hearing

In addition to items considered at the protective hearing, the court must make additional decisions and issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law. Those requiring additional information from the PCSA are included below:

Key decisions the court must make:

1. Which allegations of the petition have been proved or admitted;

2. Whether there is a legal basis for continued court and agency intervention; and

3. Whether the agency made active efforts to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family (and if so, whether these efforts were successful).

Additional temporary decisions which the court may make if the disposition hearing will not occur within a short time after the adjudication hearing:

1. Where the child is to be placed prior to the disposition hearing;

2. Whether to order further testing or evaluation of child, parent(s), or Indian custodian in preparation for the disposition hearing and ensure that all assessments or evaluations are culturally appropriate;

3. Assure that the agency is, in preparation for disposition, making prompt and diligent efforts to identify and evaluate as caretaker, extended family, or if no family member is available, other tribal members or other Indian families;

4. Order the alleged perpetrator to stay out of the family home and have no contact with the child;

5. Direct the agency to continue its efforts to notify non-custodial parents, including unwed fathers whose paternity has been acknowledged or established; and/or
6. Set terms for visitation, support, and other intra-family communication including parent-child and sibling visits when the child is in foster care prior to disposition.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law must specify:

1. Whether the child is an Indian child under ICWA (or if not known, whether the child’s tribe has been provided adequate notice, sufficient information, and an opportunity to determine the child's eligibility for membership);

2. What efforts, if any, have been made to identify the child’s tribe;

3. Whether the agency has mailed notice and necessary information to all tribes in which the child may be eligible for membership to enable each tribe to ascertain whether the child is a member or eligible for membership;

4. Whether written notice was sent to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior if the child's tribe is not yet known;

5. Whether the child either resides on or is domiciled on a reservation, or is already a ward of a tribal court, thereby depriving the state court jurisdiction;

6. Whether the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian at the time of removal;

7. Whether the agency mailed notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the Indian custodian, registered mail, return receipt;

8. Whether the agency mailed notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the child's Indian tribe, if known, by registered mail, return receipt;

9. Whether the child's tribe seeks to intervene in the proceedings, and if so grant that request (If the child is eligible for membership in more than one tribe, the court must ascertain which tribe is the child's tribe for purposes of ICWA);

10. Whether the child's Indian custodian, if there is one, seeks to intervene in the proceedings and, if so grant that request;

11. Whether the child's tribe, parent, or Indian custodian requested an additional 20 days in which to prepare for the hearing, grant that request and reschedule the hearing;

12. Whether a parent, Indian custodian, or the child's tribe has filed a motion or petition to transfer the case to tribal court;

13. If the court decline to transfer the case, whether either parent vetoed the transfer, the tribal court declined to accept jurisdiction, or the reasons, if any, why there is good cause not to transfer the case to the tribal court;

14. Whether the court advised the parent(s) or Indian custodian that they have a right to a court-appoint attorney if they are indigent;

15. Sufficiently detailed information to justify why the court found by clear and convincing evidence including testimony from an expert witness, that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;

16. Sufficiently detailed information to justify agency and court choices for treatment and services;

17. How the court’s findings relate to subsequent case planning (written in easily understandable language);

18. Whether the parent can read English and, if not, what steps will be taken to ensure that the parent understands the court's written order; and

19. The date and time of the next hearing.

C. Disposition Hearing

In preparation for this hearing, the agency is responsible for submitting a predisposition report to the court. Key items the agency needs to include for the court's consideration are:
1. A statement of family changes needed to correct the problems necessitating agency intervention, with timetables for accomplishing them;

2. A description of services to be provided to assist the family, including those that the tribe or an Indian organization may offer and make available;

3. A description of services to be provided to ensure the child's ongoing connection to his/her culture, including attendance at significant cultural events, while placed outside of his/her family; and

4. A description of actions to be taken by parents(s) or Indian custodian to correct the identified problems and any steps the parent or Indian custodian has taken thus far.

Foster Placement Affidavit

When the agency recommends foster placement, an affidavit documenting active efforts must be submitted. Key elements of the affidavit include:

1. A description of the active efforts made by the agency to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and an explanation why these efforts were unsuccessful;

2. A description of the efforts made to coordinate with the child's tribe or any Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or Indian custodian with services needed to avoid the need for placement, and an explanation if the services were unsuccessful;

3. An explanation of why the child cannot be protected from the identified problems in the home even if services are provided to the child and family;

4. An explanation of the active efforts made to contact the child's tribe, extended family, and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family and other tribal members or Indian families about providing an appropriate placement for the child;

5. A description of arrangements made by the agency to ensure visitation with extended family, or if there is not family in the area, with other tribal members, to support the child's cultural connections; and

6. A description of the agency's plan to coordinate with the child's tribe and family to identify significant cultural and important familial events and arrange for the child's attendance.

Key decisions the court must make:

1. Whether the agency's proposed case plan addresses the needs of the child and the parent(s) or Indian custodian;

2. Whether the parent is able to read the proposed case plan and, if not, the effort that will be made to ensure that the parent fully understands the requirements of the plan;

3. Whether it is necessary to remove the child from his or her home to prevent serious emotional or physical damage; and

4. Where the child should be placed.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law must:

1. Determine the legal disposition of the case, including the custody of the child, based upon the statutory options provided under federal law unless state law provides a higher degree of protection, or unless there is a governing state-tribal agreement;

2. State the long-term plan for the child;

3. Identify the active efforts that have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian child's family;

4. Specify that there is clear and convincing evidence that continued custody of the child by the parent (or Indian custodian) would likely result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;
5. Specify whether the child was placed within the placement preferences under ICWA, and if not, whether the child's tribe issued a resolution establishing a different order of preference, as long as the placement is the least restrictive setting appropriate to the particular needs of the child;

6. Specify whether the agency relied upon the social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the parent or extended family reside or with which the parent or extended family maintain social and cultural ties when the agency determined whether an individual is an appropriate placement for the child;

7. If the child's tribe did not issue a resolution indicating a different order of preference for the placement of the child, specify the reasons why there is good cause to deviate from the placement preferences;

8. If the child's tribe did not issue a resolution indicating a different order of preference for the placement of the child, specify the reasons why there is good cause to deviate from the placement preferences;

9. If there is not good cause to deviate from the placement preferences, and there is no tribal resolution re-ordering the placement preferences, order the agency to move the child to a home that complies with the placement preferences;

10. If placement or services are ordered that were not agreed upon by the parties, specify the evidence or legal basis upon which the order is made;

11. If applicable, specify why continuation of the child in the home would be contrary to the child's welfare; and

12. If the state's case plan conflicts with or does not meet the requirements of ICWA, disapprove or modify the agency's proposed case plan.

D. Review Hearing

At the Review Hearing, the agency is required to submit a report that contains the following information:

1. A statement of family changes needed to correct the problems necessitating intervention, with timetables for accomplishing them;

2. A description of services to be provided to assist the family, specifically identifying those made available with assistance from the tribe or an Indian organization;

3. A description of services to be provided to ensure the child's ongoing connection to his/her culture while placed outside of his/her family, including attendance at significant cultural events; and

4. A description of actions to be taken by the parents to correct the identified problems, and of the parents' compliance with the case plan thus far.

Affidavit Documenting Active Efforts

When the agency recommends continued foster placement, the agency must submit an affidavit to the court which contains the following information:

1. A description of active efforts to reunify the family since the last disposition or review hearing and if those efforts were not successful, an explanation regarding why;

2. A description of active efforts to coordinate with the child's tribe or any Indian organization in assisting the Indian parent or Indian custodian with services needed to avoid the need for placement, and an explanation why these services were unsuccessful;

3. An explanation of why the child cannot be protected from serious emotional or physical harm if the child remains in the home even if services are provided to the child and family;

4. An explanation of the diligent efforts made to contact the child's extended family about providing a placement for the child or, if family members are not known, diligent efforts made to contact the child's tribe and other local Indian organizations for assistance in identifying and contacting extended family, other tribal members, or Indian families for placement;

5. Efforts made by the agency to ensure child's visitation with extended family, or, if none is available, with other tribal members, to ensure the child's ongoing participation in his/her culture; and

6. Efforts made by the agency to coordinate with the child's tribe and family to make arrangements for the child to attend significant cultural and important familial events.

Key decisions the court must make:

1. Whether there is a need for continued placement of the child;

2. Whether active efforts were made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and, if so, whether the services were successful;

3. Whether efforts were made to ensure that the parent understands the case plan if the parent does not read English;

4. Whether the court-approved, long-term permanent plan for the child remains the best plan for the child;

5. Whether the services set forth in the case plan and the responsibilities of the parties need to be clarified or modified due to the availability of additional information or changed circumstances;

6. Whether the child is placed according to the placement preferences in the ICWA and, if not, whether the child should be moved into a preference placement;

7. Whether the terms of visitation need to be modified;

8. Whether any additional court orders need to be made to move the case toward successful completion; and

9. What time frame should be established for goals to achieve reunification or other permanent plan for each child.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. Whether the agency has identified the child's tribe;

2. Whether the agency sent proper notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the parent(s), Indian custodian (if any), and child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt;

3. Whether the tribe has been afforded a full opportunity to participate in the proceedings and, if so, whether the agency provided the child's tribe with copies of the petition, reports, and information concerning the child;

4. Why the child is in need of either continued placement outside the parent's home or continued supervision, articulating the clear and convincing evidence that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian would likely result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;

5. Whether family reunification and an end to court supervision continues to be the long-term case goal, and why;

6. Whether the agency has made active efforts to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to eliminate the need for placement of the child outside the home of the parent or Indian custodian and whether the efforts were successful;

7. Whether the agency has made ongoing, diligent search to locate extended family, a tribal member, or other Indian family for placement if the child is not already within a preference placement;
8. Issue orders for the agency to make additional efforts necessary to meet the needs of the family and move the case toward completion, including culturally relevant services that may be available with assistance from the tribe or local Indian/native organization;

9. Assure that findings are written in easily understandable language that allows the parent(s) or Indian custodian to fully understand what action they must take to have the child returned to their care (interpreter should be provided for parent or Indian custodian whose first language is not English);

10. Approve proposed changes in the case plan and set forth any court-ordered modifications needed as a result of information presented at the review;

11. Identify an expected date for final reunification or other permanent plan for the child;

12. Where the case plan conflicts with or does not meet the requirements of the ICWA, disapprove or modify the agency’s proposed case plan to conform to the requirements of the ICWA;

13. Make any necessary orders to resolve the problems that are preventing reunification or the completion of another permanent plan for the child; and

14. Set date and time for next hearing, if needed.

E. Permanency Planning Hearing

The agency is required to submit a report to the court in preparation for the Permanency Planning Hearing. This report must include:

1. The relief being sought and address the issues that the judge needs to determine;

2. The plan to carry out the placement decision;

3. When the petition or report requests that a child be returned home on a certain date, the following items must be included:

Written Findings of Fact That the Court Must Make at the Permanency Hearing:

1. Whether the agency has identified the child's tribe;

2. Whether the agency sent proper notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the parent(s), Indian custodian (if any), and child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt;

3. Whether the tribe has been afforded a full opportunity to participate in the proceedings and, if so, whether the agency provided the child's tribe with copies of the petition, reports, and information concerning the child;

4. Why the child is in need of either continued placement outside the parent's home or continued supervision, articulating the clear and convincing evidence that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian would likely result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;

5. Whether active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and eliminate the need for placement of the child outside the home of the parent or Indian custodian and whether the efforts were successful;

6. Whether the agency has made an ongoing, diligent search to locate extended family, a tribal member, or other Indian family for placement if the child is not already within a preference placement;

7. Assure that the findings are written in easily understandable language that allows the parent(s), or Indian custodian to fully understand what action they must take to have the child returned to their care (interpreter should be provided for parent or Indian custodian whose first language is not English); and

8. The court's determination of permanency and plan to return home, proceed to the termination of parental rights, or a planned permanent living arrangement.

F. Termination of Parental Rights Hearing

Key Decisions the Court Must Make:

1. Whether written notice was provided to the child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt requested;

2. Whether written notice was provided to the parents or Indian custodian by registered mail, return receipt requested;

3. Whether active efforts were made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family;

4. Whether efforts were made to ensure that the parent understood the case plan if the parent does not read English;

5. Whether the active efforts were unsuccessful; and

6. Whether there is evidence beyond a reasonable doubt including testimony of an expert witness, that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child.

Written findings of fact and conclusions of law must:
1. Specify whether active and reasonable efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family;

2. Specify what evidence, including testimony of a qualified expert witness, supports the finding beyond a reasonable doubt that continued custody of the child by the parent is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child;

3. Specify any other state statutory grounds supporting termination of parental rights if state law requires satisfaction of dual burden of proof;

4. For uncontested termination of parental rights, the findings of fact and conclusions of law must also include:
   a. Thorough description of the conditions and circumstances under which parental consent to termination of parental rights was obtained. Parental consent must be executed in writing in the presence of the judge and must be accompanied by the judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail and that the parent or Indian custodian fully understood these terms;
   b. Certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation of the terms and consequences of the consent to termination of parental rights in English, or that it was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood;
   c. Certify that the consent to termination of parental rights was not given prior to or within ten days after the birth of the child, as the consent would not be valid under these circumstances;
   d. Determine whether the consent was voluntary and informed, that it was not obtained through fraud or duress, and that all alternatives to termination of parent rights were explained; and
   e. If termination of parental rights was uncontested because the parent failed to appear, or appeared but neither contested nor consented to termination, the above items will apply.

G. Adoption Hearing

At the Adoption Hearing, the court must determine whether written notice was provided to the child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt requested, even if the child's tribe has not been a party to any prior proceedings related to the welfare of the child.

The court must also make the following written findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. Whether the child is within the exclusive jurisdiction of a tribe because the child either resided or was domiciled on a reservation or was already a ward of a tribal court at the time that the child custody proceedings began, thereby depriving the state court of jurisdiction;

2. Whether all the necessary consents to adoption have been provided, including the consent of the agency with the custody of the child, the consent of the child (if the child is old enough that consent is required under state law), and the consent of parent or Indian custodian whose rights have not been terminated;

3. Thoroughly describe the conditions and circumstances under which parental consent to adoption was obtained. When there has been no prior termination of parental rights, parental consent must be executed in writing in the presence of the judge and must be accompanied by the judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail and that the parent or Indian custodian fully understood these terms;

4. Certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation of the terms and consequences of the consent to adoption in English, or that it was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood;

5. Certify that the consent to adoption was not given prior to or within 10 days after the birth of the child, as the consent would not be valid under these circumstances;
6. Whether the consent was voluntary and informed, that it was not obtained through fraud or duress, and that all alternatives to adoption were explained;

7. Whether the child is placed in an adoptive home where the adopting individual is a member of:
   a. The child's extended family;
   b. The child's tribe; or
   c. Another Indian family;

8. If the child is not placed in one of the placement preferences established by federal law, a determination whether:
   a. The agency made a diligent search to locate a placement that meets the preferences established within the ICWA;
   b. There is good cause not to place the child according to the placement preferences;
   c. The child's tribe established a different order of preference by resolution;
   d. If the child's tribe established a different order of preference for placement, ascertain whether the placement is the least restrictive setting which most approximates a family and in which the child's special needs, if any, may be met;
   e. The child's consenting parent evidenced a desire for anonymity, in which case the court shall give weight to that desire in applying the preferences;

9. Other determinations required for all adoptions;

10. At contested adoption hearings, determine whether the adoption should be granted. A contested adoption hearing must be conducted with procedural fairness, and should include notice to the parties and the child's tribe even if the tribe has not yet become a part in previous stages of the child custody proceedings;

11. Conclude the proceedings without undue delay, applying principles of case flow management;

12. The court which enters the final decree of adoption must upon application, inform the Indian child who has reached the age of 18 of the tribal affiliation, if any of the individual's biological parents and provide such other information as may be necessary to protect the rights flowing from the individuals' tribal relationship.

SUBJECT: New Law Affecting All Foster Care and Adoption Programs (Amended Substitute House Bill 117 of the 125th General Assembly)

On June 4, 2004 Governor Taft signed Amended Substitute House Bill 117 of the 125th General Assembly into law. The new law, which became effective on September 3, 2004, contains several provisions that affect practice for all foster care and adoption agencies operating in Ohio. The department of job and family services is in the process of adopting Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule revisions that reflect the changes in the new law. Until the revised rules are finalized, agencies need to be aware that the new law is now in effect. To the extent that current OAC rules conflict with the provisions of the new law, the new law supercedes those rules.

A brief summary of the provisions of the new legislation and a copy of the Act are included with this letter. Agencies wishing to obtain an analysis of the new law and corresponding fiscal notes can obtain a copy at: http://www.legislature.state.oh.us/bills.cfm?ID=125_HB_117.

For questions about this letter, please contact the OCF Helpdesk by phone at: 1-866-886-3537, Option 4 or by email at: HELP-DESK-OCF@odjfs.state.oh.us.

SUBJECT: Title IV-E Reimbursement Ceiling Amount Revisions for Facilities Located in the State of Indiana

The state of Indiana revised their Title IV-E reimbursement ceiling amounts for the period September 1, 2003, to August 31, 2004. Consequently, the state of Ohio's recognized reimbursement ceiling amounts for Indiana's residential facilities have been revised in accordance with OAC 5101:2-47-27. As a result of these reimbursement ceiling revisions, JFS 01925 invoices that were submitted for these Indiana facilities for placement dates between September 1, 2003, and January 31, 2004, were reimbursed improperly. In order to receive proper reimbursement counties that invoiced and received reimbursement for placement dates between September 1, 2003, and January 31, 2004, will need to follow a two-step process involving an initial repayment of improperly paid claims and then a subsequent rebilling for the placements. Details of the two-step process are as follows:

- Step 1 - Reversing Entries (Old Rates): For counties that have already invoiced and have been reimbursed for placement dates between the period September 1, 2003, to January 31, 2004, please list the claim lines for each child as originally reported in all columns on the JFS 01925 except enter an "E" in column 8, Trans Code. This will effectively repay the state of Ohio the exact reimbursement amount your county received for the period of placement. Please submit your reversing entries prior to May 14, 2004. Reversing entries received after this date will process improperly.

Waiver counties are advised to claim for their Indiana placements to recoup available administrative dollars for their placements during the period September 1, 2003, to August 31, 2004. The previous Indiana rates for this period had no administration reimbursement ceiling rate. However, now that the Indiana reimbursement ceilings have been revised and include an administration rate, waiver counties may apply for administrative cost reimbursement.

The revised list of rates for Indiana facilities for September 1, 2003, to August 31, 2004, is attached and is also viewable on the Office for Children and Families' website http://jfs.ohio.gov/ocf/publications.stm under the section "Title IV-E."

SUBJECT: Foster Care Resource Education Database (FRED) Phase II - Update

Phase II of the Foster Care Resource Education Database (FRED) was released on September 22, 2003. This allows agencies to register their foster parents in FRED and to electronically submit training sessions. As of February 10, 2004, there are 24,212 participants registered in FRED, and a total of 7,058 training sessions have been entered. All recommending agencies must enter and submit all training participants and all training sessions conducted January 1, 2001, and forward in the FRED database, located at https://fred.odjfs.state.oh.us. This is a production database; the data you enter and submit will be used to generate training allowance and stipend payments.

For assistance in using FRED, a User Guide is available by clicking the "HELP" option in the upper-right corner of the FRED site. You may also go directly to the FRED User Guide (version 2.0) located at http://fred.odjfs.state.oh.us/UserGuide.pdf. Please be advised that the previous testing site, located at https://fred.odjfs.state.oh.us/AccTest is no longer available for agency use.

Training Stipend Payments

In order to streamline the process for our customers, we are working on finalizing a cut-off date for which agencies will no longer be required to submit JFS 1350s and enter and submit data in FRED. For training sessions conducted after the cut-off date, agencies will only need to enter and submit the training session and participant information in FRED, as the JFS 1350s will no longer be accepted. Agencies should continue submitting JFS 1350s for any training sessions conducted on or before the cut-off date. It is important for agencies to understand that while stipend payments for training sessions conducted on or before the cut-off date will be made using the JFS 1350s, these same sessions must also be entered and submitted in FRED.

Training Allowance Payments

We are pleased to report that as of February 27, 2004, we have processed and approved $1,034,217.75 in training allowance payments for trainings conducted during the period of April 1, 2003, through December 31, 2003. These allowance payments were processed using information contained in the JFS 1350s. We will continue to process payments in this manner for all trainings conducted from April 1, 2003, through the cut-off date for the JFS 1350s.

For training sessions conducted on or after January 1, 2004, through the cut-off date, we are asking that private agencies indicate on the JFS 1350s whether or not the agency incurred a cost for the training session. Pursuant to Ohio Administrative Code Rule 5101:2-5-38 (C)(2), ODJFS will not make an allowance payment for training received or provided at no cost to the private recommending agency.

The Bureau of Accountability and Regulation is working on a method to begin processing training allowance payments for training sessions conducted between January 1, 2001 and March 31, 2003, starting with those training sessions that were conducted during the first quarter of 2001. These payments will be generated using data that has been entered and submitted in FRED, and will not be generated through information contained in the JFS 1350s. It is imperative that all training sessions be entered and submitted in the FRED database. Further, pursuant to Ohio Administrative Code Rule 5101:2-5-38 (J)(4), training sessions conducted between January 1, 2001 and December 31, 2003 must be entered and submitted by December 31, 2004. Otherwise, the agencies will have forfeited their allowance payments for these training sessions.

Other FRED Developments

Plans to hold a User Group Meeting are currently underway. These meetings will be held quarterly and will be open to any FRED users who would like to attend. Updates regarding FRED will be discussed at this meeting and any questions or concerns from users will be addressed. Agencies will receive notification regarding the time and place for this meeting once it has been scheduled.

In September 2003, recommending agencies were requested to designate a FRED administrator to serve as the primary point of contact for the FRED project team. Establishing an administrator for all agencies is essential to effectively communicate information regarding FRED. Any agency that has not already designated a FRED administrator must do so by April 1, 2004. Please e-mail your administrator designee(s) and their e-mail address to FRED@odjfs.state.oh.us. Include in your subject header "FRED-Administrator."

For questions regarding FRED, please contact the FRED project team at FRED@odjfs.state.oh.us.
FCASPL 79 (PASSS Application SFY 04 Freeze)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 79

February 11, 2004

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Thomas J. Hayes, Director

SUBJECT: Freeze on Approvals of PASSS Applications for SFY '04

On December 1, 2003, the PCSAs were requested to release Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy (PASSS) funds that would not be utilized in State Fiscal Year (SFY) '04. Twenty-two agencies responded and released a total of $89,438. However, even with this release, the entire $3.7 million PASSS allocation has now been obligated. Effective February 28, 2004, no PASSS applications can be approved for SFY '04. PCSAs may begin accepting applications for SFY '05, beginning July 1, 2004.

To be eligible for PASSS reimbursement for SFY '04 the "JFS 01050 Application/Agreement for Post Adoption Special Service Subsidy" must:

- be approved by the PCSA, and
- be either postmarked or received by fax in the Office for Children and Families, Adoption Services Section by Friday, February 27, 2004. Please assure that only one copy of the application is submitted.

The applications are to be submitted by mail to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, Office for Children and Families, Adoption Services Section, 255 East Main Street, 3rd Floor, Columbus, OH 43215 or by fax to: (614) 466-6185.

PCSAs must continue to accept PASSS applications. For applications that do not meet the approval and submittal criteria specified above for SFY '04 funding, the PCSA must deny the applications based on the lack of program funds. The "JFS 07334 Notice of Denial of Your Application for Assistance" form should be used to notify families of the denial. The PCSA should indicate on the JFS 07334 that the reason for the denial is that "all funds allocated for this program have been obligated" and the regulation supporting the denial is "ORC 5153.163". If the family requests a State Hearing, the PCSA should attach a copy of this Procedure Letter to the appeal summary.

Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-47-11(H) was amended on September 1, 2003, establishing a contemporaneous payment system for purchased foster care services. These changes were the result of the Child Welfare Shareholders recommendations and mean that the foster care maintenance reimbursement will be based on rates negotiated by the Title IV-E Agency.

To that end, in a contemporaneous payment system, purchased foster care maintenance reimbursement is the lesser of:

1. The uniform statewide maximum amounts published annually in a "Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter;" or
2. The agreed upon foster care placement amount paid by the Title IV-E Agency. The agreed upon foster care placement amount must be equal to the amount the private agency reimburses its foster parents for the maintenance of the children; and
3. The agreed upon amount paid by the Title IV-E Agency for other direct services which include: special diets, clothing, graduation expenses, liability insurance with respect to the child and reasonable travel expense for home visits provided these expenses are not included in the agreed upon foster care placement amount.

Pursuant to Ohio Administrative Code 5101:2-47-11(G), administration reimbursement to the Title IV-E agency will continue to be based on the lesser of:

1. The Title IV-E administration reimbursement ceiling amount established by the JFS 02910 "Purchased Family Foster Care Cost Report" multiplied by the number of care days; or
2. The amount paid by the Title IV-E agency for administration.

As in the past, the Office for Children and Families will continue to post the calculated Title IV-E Foster Care reimbursement ceiling on its website. The website address is http://www.state.oh.us/odjfs/ocf/publications.stm.

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 74

September 18, 2003

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Thomas J. Hayes, Director

SUBJECT: Designation of FRED Administrator

As we begin to deploy Phase II of the Foster Care Resource Education Database (FRED), each recommending agency must designate a FRED administrator to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS). The individual selected to be the FRED administrator for each recommending agency will, at a minimum, be expected to perform the following functions:

- Serve as the primary point of contact and communicate between the FRED project team and the recommending agency;
- Enter, update, inactivate usernames and reset passwords for the recommending agency;
- Process training participant transfers (future initiate, approval e-mail process); and
- Serve on User Group Panels to provide recommending agency input in a decision making role.

The individual designated may be of a technical orientation, or an experienced FRED user who demonstrates an analytical nature. The role may be held by one or more individuals per agency and is not related to or restricted by any title the individual may or may not hold. Please e-mail your administrator designee(s) and their e-mail addresses to: FRED@odjfs.state.oh.us by October 3, 2003. Include in your subject header "FRED- Administrator".

Please note that for historical purposes, this letter includes two letters that were previously sent regarding FRED. In the future information about FRED will be transmitted in Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letters or Transmittal Letters, as appropriate. Such letters are posted to the department's Legal/Policy Central calendar available on the ODJFS Innerweb at url: http://www.state.oh.us/odjfs/lpc/calendar/staff and from the Internet at: www.state.oh.us/odjfs/lpc/calendar/. The calendar provides a daily listing of update issuances and if you click on the date (the blue number) that has an update listed, it will travel to a page that lists specifics about the update with links that will travel to the electronic Family, Children and Adult Services Manual or to a printable (PDF) version of the update. Persons wishing to subscribe to weekly electronic notices of updates to ODJFS manuals should send an email with the word "subscribe" in lower case letters in the subject line to: handbook_update_subscriptions@odjfs.state.oh.us.

For questions about this letter, please contact the OCF Helpdesk by phone at: 1-866-886-3537, Option 4 or by email at: HELP-DESK-OCF@odjfs.state.oh.us

SUBJECT: Phase I of the Foster Care Resource Education Database (FRED) - Released

This letter is to announce the release of Phase I of the Foster Care Resource Education Database (FRED) on April 7, 2003, by the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services.
FRED is a new Internet/web based system that agencies will use to register the pre-placement and continuing training provided to their foster caregivers. This system will aid in the creation of a centralized data base of caregiver training histories, and will automate the process used by the department to issue training allowances and stipend reimbursements to agencies.

The purpose of Phase I is to collect basic information on the pre-placement and continuing foster caregivers associated with each recommending agency. Information on the training received by these caregivers will not be collected during Phase I. With the release of Phase II in May 2003, agencies will begin using FRED to register all pre-placement and continuing training provided to caregivers. More information regarding Phase II will be provided in the coming weeks.

To access FRED and begin entering the information on your foster caregivers, please see the Instructions in Attachment A. NOTE: Agencies with 100 or more foster caregivers may select to have their list of caregivers batch-loaded into FRED, avoiding the need to manually enter this information. Please see Attachment B for details.

For questions regarding FRED, please contact the FRED project team at: mailto: FRED@odjfs.state.oh.us

ATTACHMENT A: INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACCESSING FRED

FRED is an internet-based system: to access FRED you will use a web browser, such as Internet Explorer or Netscape. The following web browsers are currently supported:

- Netscape 4.x (4.5, 4.6, 4.7, etc.)

Please note the following are NOT supported at this time:

- Netscape 6.x
- Netscape 7.x

To access FRED, each user will need a user account (username and password). To request a user account, please send an e-mail to: FRED@ODJFS.STATE.OH.US with the words "New User" in the Subject line. Please include the following information: {Your full name, agency name, office telephone including area code, and your e-mail address}. You may include multiple user account requests in the same message. Please allow up to 48 hours for your request to be processed. SUBJECT: STATUS - FOSTER PARENT TRAINING REIMBURSEMENTS

In a correspondence of April 4, 2003, I advised agencies that the Foster Caregiver Resource Education Database (F.R.E.D.), was beginning Phase I on April 7th, and Phase II would follow on May 30, 2003. Subsequently, we advised agencies that the implementation of Phase II was delayed until June 30, 2003. I must inform you that due to systems issues, it is necessary to once again delay the implementation of Phase II. While we regret this delay, please be assured that the development of F.R.E.D., continues and full implementation this year remains a reasonable goal. In order to effectively manage this delay, the following steps are being taken:

- We are accepting JFS 1350 forms for reimbursement of foster caregiver stipends for the period between April 1, 2003 and September 30, 2003. The attached JFS 1350 form [http://dynawebdb.odjfs.state.oh.us:6336/library/pdf/1350.pdf] contains instructions for completion and may be duplicated for your use. Please submit completed forms to: Robert Bielecki, Chief, Foster Care Licensing Section, Bureau of Accountability and Regulation, Office for Children and Families, 255 East Main Street, 3rd Floor, Columbus, Ohio 43215-5222. When submitting the forms calculate stipend payments at the rate of $10.00 per hour, per caregiver, payable in increments of one-quarter hours as required by Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-5-38.

When submitting the forms calculate stipend payments at the rate of $10.00 per hour, per caregiver, payable in increments of one-quarter hours as required by Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rule 5101:2-5-38.

- Effective April 2, 2003, all recommending agencies are your reference. We will continue to process JFS 1350 forms until Phase II of F.R.E.D., is operational. Please be aware that the submission of the JFS 1350 form will generate only stipend reimbursements. Training events will still need data entry into F.R.E.D. Phase II to generate agency training allowance payments.

- Additional staff has been assigned the responsibility of responding to e-mails sent to the F.R.E.D. system, registering users into the system, and processing JFS 1350s. Please continue to address questions to: mailto:FRED@odjfs.state.oh.us. Additional MIS staff has been assigned to complete the development of F.R.E.D. System.

I thank you for your patience and support during the development of this valuable instrument. If you have any questions, please contact the Bureau of Accountability and Regulation at (614) 644-1146.

Subject: Continuing Medicaid Eligibility Review for Children no longer eligible for Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Payments or Title IV-E Adoption Assistance

The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 severed the categorical link between the Medicaid and former ADC programs. As a result, some individuals who are no longer eligible for cash assistance, whether through receipt of OWF, Title IV-E foster care maintenance or Title IV-E Adoption Assistance, may continue to remain eligible for Medicaid coverage under other categories of Medicaid. To assure uninterrupted Medicaid coverage whenever possible, the federal government and OAC rule 5101:1-38-01.1 require that a pre-termination review (PTR) of continuing Medicaid coverage be completed before stopping an individual's Medicaid benefits.

Children eligible for Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments or adoption assistance are automatically eligible for Medicaid. For these children, a PTR must be completed by the CDJFS prior to the termination of the Medicaid coverage whenever a child's foster care maintenance payments or adoption assistance eligibility is ending. Although the Title IV-E Medicaid case is maintained in FACSIS rather than CRIS-E, it is still the state's responsibility to ensure that Medicaid coverage is not interrupted before the CDJFS has had an opportunity to complete a PTR for the child. This letter establishes the procedure for coordination between the PCSA and CDJFS to ensure the timely completion of the PTR for Title IV-E eligible children.

In order to assure a smooth implementation of this process, each CDJFS must identify a Title IV-E Medicaid coordinator to function as the single point of contact between the PCSA and CDJFS. Please e-mail identifying information about your coordinator (county, name, telephone number and e-mail address) to wells1@odjfs.state.oh.us by September 15, 2003. This information will be made available to all CDJFSs and PCSAs after it is compiled.

This information is also available on the Internet and may be accessed: at either:

Attachment: JFS 01958 "Referral for Continuing Medicaid Eligibility Review"

PCSA Responsibilities for Pre-termination review of Title IV-E cases

Prior to terminating a child's Title IV-E foster care maintenance or adoption assistance Medicaid, the PCSA must complete a JFS 01958 "Referral for Medicaid Continued Eligibility Review" form and fax or hand deliver it to the appropriate CDJFS' Title IV-E Medicaid coordinator. This referral should be completed as soon as the PCSA becomes aware that the child's foster care maintenance (FCM) eligibility or reimbursability is ending or that the adoption assistance (AA) case is being terminated. The PCSA must provide notice to the CDJFS at least 8 working days prior to the termination of the Title IV-E Medicaid.

1) For changes in FCM eligibility or reimbursability the JFS 01958 referral should be sent to the appropriate CDJFS as follows:

(a) When the child is leaving the custody of the PCSA the referral is sent to the CDJFS in the Ohio county where the child will be residing after his removal from placement.

(b) When the child is remaining in the custody of the PCSA or other IV-E agency the referral is sent to the CDJFS in the same county as the PCSA.
When the child will be residing out of state after removal from placement no referral is necessary.

2) For changes in AA eligibility the JFS 01958 referral should be sent to the appropriate CDJFS as follows:
   (a) To the CDJFS in the Ohio county where the child will be residing after the termination of the AA agreement.
   (b) No referral is necessary when the child will be residing out of state after termination of the AA agreement.

For questions about this procedure, the PCSA should contact the OCF Helpdesk at helpdeskocf@odjfs.state.oh.us

2) The CDJFS must then begin a continuing eligibility review in accordance with the provisions in rule 5101:1-38-01.1 and notify the assistance group of the CDJFS's decision.

SUBJECT: Transition to the New Foster Care Training Requirements of H.B. 332

H.B. 332 becomes effective January 1, 2001. Among the provisions of the new law are new training requirements for foster caregivers. Family foster caregivers will be required to have twenty hours of annual training rather than the twelve hours currently required. Unfortunately, the law does not provide a "grace period" for individual foster caregivers to meet the increased training requirements. Therefore, ODJFS cannot recertify any foster caregiver whose certification is due for renewal after January 1, 2001 who does not have the twenty hours of annual training required unless "good cause" for failing to do so is established pursuant to ORC 5103.032(C).

ORC 5103.032(C) reads:

Each recommending agency shall establish and implement a policy regarding good cause for a foster caregiver's failure to complete the continuing training in accordance with division (A) of this section. If the foster caregiver complies with the policy, as determined by the agency, the department may renew the foster caregiver's foster home certificate. The agency shall submit the policy to the department and provide a copy to each foster home the agency recommends for certification or renewal. The policy shall include the following:

(1) What constitutes good cause, including documented illness, critical emergencies, and lack of accessible training programs;

(2) Procedures for developing a scheduled corrective action plan that provides for prompt completion of the continuing training;

(3) Procedures for recommending revocation of the foster home certificate if the foster caregiver fails to comply with the corrective action plan.

In addition to the good cause reasons listed in Section (C)(1) above, an agency may identify a change in state foster care training requirements as a good cause why a foster caregiver could not complete the required training in a timely manner.

In order to facilitate the transition to the new foster care training requirements of H.B. 332 with the least disruption, ODJFS urges agencies licensed to recommend foster homes for certification to develop policies conforming to the requirements of ORC 5103.032(C) as soon as possible and prior to the time that any individual foster caregivers are due for recertification. By adding a provision regarding changes in state foster care training requirements to the "good cause" policy, agencies may recommend recertification. ODJFS will then be able to approve the recertification, and affected foster caregivers will experience no interruption in their certification status.

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 68

September 15, 2000

TO: Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Jacqueline Romer-Sensky, Director

SUBJECT: Correction to Family, Children and Adult Procedure Letter No. 66 Entitled Notice of Ohio Administrative Code Rule Changes to the Title IV-E Adoption Assistance Program

This Procedure Letter transmits a correction to the FCASPL No.66 dated August 10, 2000. The correction is only in the Procedure number.

Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-47-29 was transmitted in FCASMTL No.105. As a result of comments that have been received, a change is being made to the judicial determination requirement in paragraph (B)(4)(ii) for children who are taken into agency custody through the ODHS 1645 "Agreement for Temporary Custody of Child." This change allows for a "written" court determination that "continuation in the home would be contrary to the welfare of the child or that the placement is in the best interest of the child." This change will allow Title IV-E eligibility to be determined for children who are placed in the temporary custody of an agency through the ODHS 1645 and, subsequently, the agency is given permanent custody of the same child through the ODHS 1666 "Permanent Surrender."

In order to comply with Federal Title IV-E requirements, agencies should immediately use this type of court determination to determine eligibility for this group of children. This rule is being refiled with the noted change and will be transmitted as a permanent rule at a later date. A draft copy of the revised rule is included with this letter.

Please contact the Bureau of Adoption and Kinship at 614-466-9274 with questions.

SUBJECT: Ohio Administrative Code Rule Changes Governing the Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy (PASSS) Program

I am pleased to announce that ODHS will shortly be reopening the PASSS program for eligible families and children. This procedure letter is to provide notice that the current Ohio Administrative Code rule relating to the Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy (PASSS) program will soon be replaced by a new rule. The new rule, which is being adopted under the emergency rule procedure, will be forwarded along with a transmittal letter as soon as it is approved.

The new rule will align the program with the intent of Section 5153.163(C) of the Ohio Revised Code (see attached) which provides for the payment of medical, surgical, psychiatric, psychological, or counseling services to adoptive families. Consistent with the Revised Code, the new rule will not allow PASSS funds to be used for maintenance costs (including food, shelter and daily supervision cost associated with residential care); respite services that are not required to address psychiatric, psychological or counseling needs; or services that are designed to enhance the child’s self-esteem or cultural development. Counties, however, may fund these and other services through other sources. To enhance the number of eligible families, the new rule also will limit the amount of funding that can be awarded per child, per year to $15,000. In addition, the rule will require public children services agencies to submit approved ODHS 1050s to the Ohio Department of Human Services (ODHS) within thirty days following the approval.

It is important to note that PASSS applications approved on or before January 31, 2000 will be bound by the rule that was in effect at the time the application was approved. Therefore, preauthorized services such as residential treatment and respite may be funded through the remainder of State Fiscal Year 2000. All applications submitted and approved after the effective date of the new rule, will be governed by the criteria set forth in the new rule. If a public children services agency approves an application for an inappropriate service after the effective date of the new rule, it will be solely responsible for that cost. ODHS will not recognize applications that were approved after the program was closed and prior to the effective date of the new rule; applications submitted during that time may be resubmitted.
(A) As used in this section, "adoptive parent" means, as the context requires, a prospective adoptive parent or an adoptive parent.

(B)(1) If a public children services agency considers a child with special needs residing in the county served by the agency to be in need of public care or protective services and all of the following apply, the agency shall enter into an agreement with the child's adoptive parent before the child is adopted under which the agency shall make payments as needed on behalf of the child:

   (a) The adoptive parent has the capability of providing the permanent family relationships needed by the child in all areas except financial need as determined by the agency;

   (b) The needs of the child are beyond the economic resources of the adoptive parent as determined by the agency;

   (c) The agency determines the acceptance of the child as a member of the adoptive parent's family would not be in the child's best interest without payments on the child's behalf under this section.

(2) Payments to an adoptive parent under division (B) of this section shall include medical, surgical, psychiatric, psychological, and counseling expenses, and may include maintenance costs if necessary and other costs incidental to the care of the child. No payment of maintenance costs shall be made under division (B) of this section on behalf of a child if either of the following apply:

   (a) The gross income of the adoptive parent's family exceeds one hundred twenty per cent of the median income of a family of the same size, including the child, as most recently determined for this state by the secretary of health and human services under Title XX of the "Social Security Act," 88 Stat. 2337, 42 U.S.C.A. 1397, as amended;

Payments under division (B) of this section may begin either before or after issuance of the final adoption decree, except that payments made before issuance of the final adoption decree may be made only while the child is living in the adoptive parent's home. Preadoption payments may be made for not more than twelve months, unless the final adoption decree is not issued within that time because of a delay in court proceedings. Payments that begin before issuance of the final adoption decree may continue after its issuance.

(C) If a public children services agency considers a child residing in the county served by the agency to be in need of public care or protective services and both of the following apply, the agency may, and to the extent state funds are appropriated for this purpose shall, enter into an agreement with the child's adoptive parent after the child is adopted under which the agency shall make payments on behalf of the child as needed:

   (1) The child has a physical or developmental handicap or mental or emotional condition that either:

      (a) Existed before the adoption petition was filed;

      (b) Developed after the adoption petition was filed and can be attributed to factors in the child's preadoption background, medical history, or biological family's background or medical history.

   (2) The agency determines the expenses necessitated by the child's handicap or condition are beyond the adoptive parent's economic resources.

Payments to an adoptive parent under this division shall include medical, surgical, psychiatric, psychological, and counseling expenses, but shall not include maintenance costs.
No payment shall be made under division (B) or (C) of this section on behalf of any person twenty-one years of age or older. Payments under those divisions shall be made in accordance with the terms of the agreement between the public children services agency and the adoptive parent, subject to an annual redetermination of need. The agency may use sources of funding in addition to any state funds appropriated for the purposes of those divisions.

The department of human services shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are needed to implement this section. The rules shall establish all of the following:

1. The application process for payments under this section;
2. The method to determine the amounts and kinds of assistance payable under this section;
3. The definition of "child with special needs" for this section.

The rules shall allow for payments for children placed by nonpublic agencies.

No public children services agency shall, pursuant to either section 2151.353 or 5103.15 of the Revised Code, place or maintain a child with special needs who is in the permanent custody of an institution or association certified by the department of human services under section 5103.03 of the Revised Code in a setting other than with a person seeking to adopt the child, unless the agency has determined and redetermined at intervals of not more than six months the impossibility of adoption by a person listed pursuant to division (B), (C), or (D) of section 5103.154 of the Revised Code, including the impossibility of entering into a payment agreement with such a person. The agency so maintaining such a child shall report its reasons for doing so to the department of human services. No agency that fails to so determine, redetermine, and report shall receive more than fifty per cent of the state funds to which it would otherwise be eligible for that part of the fiscal year following placement under section 5101.14 of the Revised Code.

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 62

October 19, 1998

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Arnold R Tompkins, Director

SUBJECT: Re-Issuance of Agency Adoption and Foster Care Policies and Compliance with the Federal Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA), Interethnic Placement Act (IEPA), and the Adoption Promotion and Safe Families Act (ASFA)

This procedural letter is in response to agency questions regarding interpretation of the Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA), the Interethnic Placement Act (IEPA), and jurisdictional issues addressed in the Adoption Promotion and Safe Families Act (ASFA). It is crucial that agencies understand and implement these federal laws correctly and that agencies' written policies and materials are in compliance with these laws. Copies of the Interethnic Placement Act and the Administration for Children and Families Information Memorandum ACYF-IM-CB-97-04, issued June 5, 1997, are attached for your review. Also attached is a Department of Health and Human Services May 8, 1998 response to questions raised by the General Accounting Office regarding MEPA issues.

The Multiethnic Placement Act/Interethnic Placement Act

Because the United States Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is conducting a review of all Ohio laws, rules and policies to assure compliance with MEPA/IEPA, we must ask you to again review your agency adoption, foster care and recruitment policies. We are under tight time restrictions to bring all state and local policies into compliance. Due to complaints issued against Ohio agencies, we must supply copies of all foster and adoption agency written policies to HHS by January 1, 1999. It is crucial that each of these policies be in total compliance with MEPA/IEPA or the state and local agencies could lose significant IV-E funds. HHS has provided significant technical assistance to Ohio to help us better understand MEPA/IEPA. In this letter and the accompanying documents, this enhanced understanding is explained. We are asking you to review these documents and to then review your written policies and practices to assure that total compliance is achieved. Though agencies submitted their policies in July 1998, because of the clarifications provided by HHS, almost all will need to be amended. All PCSAs, PCPAs and PNAs shall review and amend their adoption and foster care policies and resubmit them to the regional office for review prior to November 16, 1998. The regional office will review the policies for compliance with MEPA/IEPA and forward the policies and copies of their review forms to ODHS Central Office by November 30, 1998. The following information is provided to assist agencies in reviewing and amending their policies and practices.

The Multiethnic Placement Act, originally enacted in 1994, was amended in 1996 by the Interethnic Placement Act. The provisions of IEPA affirm and strengthen the prohibition against discrimination in adoption and foster care placements. Race, color, or country of origin may not be used as the basis for placement decisions nor may such factors be used to delay or deny any foster or adoptive placement. The language of MEPA stated that placement decisions should not be based solely on race, color or national origin. IEPA removed the word "solely" and mandated that placement decisions could not categorically consider race, color, or national origin of the parents and children involved. The amended Act reads as follows:

"...neither the State nor any other entity in the State that receives funds from the Federal Government and is involved in adoption or foster care placements may-

"(A) deny to any person the opportunity to become an adoptive or foster parent, on the basis of the race, color, or national origin of the person, or of the child, involved; or

"(B) delay or deny the placement of a child for adoption or into foster care, on the basis of the race, color, or national origin of the adoptive or foster parent, or the child, involved."

IEPA also repealed the "Permissible Consideration" clause of MEPA. That clause had stated: "An agency or entity (which receives federal assistance) may consider the culture, ethnic, or racial background of the child and the capacity of the prospective foster or adoptive parents to meet the needs of a child of such background as one of a number of factors used to determine the best interests of a child." Congress felt that this language had given agencies some leeway to continue to consider race in placement selection. By repealing this language, the law now strictly prohibits delay or denial of placement on the basis of race, color or national origin.

MEPA/IEPA also requires that agencies diligently recruit foster and adoptive families that reflect the ethnic and racial diversity of children needing out-of-home care.

Nationally, there has been some question about interpretation and wording that is considered acceptable in individual agency implementation plans. The Department of Health and Human Service indicates that acceptable wording would be similar to that in Wisconsin's directive which states "The operative standard in foster care or adoptive placements has been and continues to be 'the best interest of the child.' Nevertheless, any consideration of race, color, or national origin in foster care or adoption placements must be narrowly tailored to advance the child's best interests and must be made as an individualized determination of each child's needs and in light of a specific prospective adoptive or foster care parent's capacity to care for that child."

Applicants wishing to foster or adopt transracially cannot categorically be subject to processes that delay the education/assessment/approval process. It is not legal to categorically require all families indicating a desire to adopt or foster transracially to attend additional classes, if doing so will cause delay in the assessment process, the approval/licensure process, or placement of a child into the home. Ohio's Administrative Code rules are in the process of being amended to be consistent with the federal law.

Ohio's family preparation process and assessment (homestudy) is designed to prepare all families to parent children with diverse histories and situations. The department believes that foster care and adoptive placements are, almost without exception, transcultural. The foster or adoptive family usually differs from the child placed with them in some area (socioeconomically, racially, ethnically, religiously, etc.) It is extremely likely that most foster or adoptive parents will be asked to meet the needs of a child of another culture. For that reason, all families should be assessed and prepared to parent children from diverse backgrounds with diverse needs. The curriculum designed by the Ohio Child Welfare Training Program (OCWTP), through its vendor, the Institute for Human Services (IHS), seeks to help potential foster and adoptive parents assess their current skills and build new awareness and skills in many areas. Among these areas, education and awareness-building is provided regarding the challenges faced by parents in meeting their foster or adopted child's cultural needs. The assessment (homestudy) process is another educational opportunity. Additionally, the assessment process allows families to self-determine, with the aid of their assessor, their strengths and limitations in a variety of areas impacting their ability to meet specific child needs.

If, upon assessment, specific educational enhancement is needed to assist applicants to develop their skills to be capable of meeting child needs in any area, not limited to race or culture, the agency should provide or arrange for these experiential learning and/or educational opportunities. Once an applicant completes the educational and assessment process, the applicant can be potentially matched for foster care or adoption with any child in need of placement. Of course, foster and adoptive parents may indicate their inability to meet certain needs, for instance, parents may indicate that they cannot parent a child who needs ongoing contact with a birth parent or who acts out sexually. At the time of matching, all the child's needs must be considered and the individual family's ability to meet those needs must be determined. Appropriate records should be kept for every child's foster care or adoptive placement, indicating the therapeutic and clinical reasons why the chosen family was determined as best able to meet that child's special and unique needs.

A violation of MEPA/IEPA is a violation of the family and/or child's civil rights, and action may be taken by the federal government regarding agencies, entities or individuals that violate the law. Sanctions of federal funding or other actions may occur if complaints are found to be valid.

Jurisdictional Issues in the Adoption Promotion and Safe Families Act (ASFA)

The prohibitions regarding jurisdictional issues listed in ASFA apply only to adoptive placements. ASFA states that an agency or entity that receives federal assistance and is involved in adoptive placements may not delay or deny the placement of a child for adoption when an approved family is available outside of the jurisdiction of the custodial agency.
Regardless of a family or child's geographic location, all families expressing interest in a particular child must be considered at the time of matching. The child's needs and best interest are paramount. Ohio Administrative Code rules indicate that placement decisions are a group process within the agency responsible for such decisions. Documentation of these placement decisions must clearly indicate why the matched family was chosen, and why the family was determined as best able to meet this particular child's needs. If a particular family is determined as not able to meet a child's needs, the documentation should indicate this.

Potential families expressing an interest in an individual child or sibling group have the right to a fair hearing should they not be in agreement with the agency's decision not to place the child with them. Agencies or individuals violating this federal law are open to sanctions and federal action.

Nothing in MEPA/IEPA or ASFA can override the provisions of the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA). When multiple conditions apply, the provisions of ICWA have priority.

Administrative Codes rules already reflect changes made to comply with these laws, with a few minor changes still in process.

ODHS Central and District Office staff are available to provide technical assistance to your agency regarding the wording of your policies and your practice issues. Informational sessions will be offered in the coming months to assure that all agencies are knowledgeable of and understand the requirements of MEPA/IEPA and ASFA.

SUBJECT: The Adoption and Safe Families Act of 1997 (PL 105-89)

The Adoption and Safe Families Act of 1997 (PL 105-89), signed by the President on November 19, 1997, establishes new child welfare provisions which will require several changes in the state's Title IV-B plan, Title IV-E plan, state legislation, and Ohio Administrative Code rules. PL 105-89 is guided by the following key principles:

- Safety of children is the paramount concern that must guide all child welfare;
- Foster care is a temporary setting and not a place for children to grow up;
- Permanency planning efforts for children should begin as soon as a child enters foster care and should be expedited by the provision of services to families;
- The child welfare system must focus on results and accountability; and
- Innovative approaches are needed to achieve the goals of safety, permanency, and well-being.

STATE PLAN CHANGES

In order to continue to receive Title IV-B and Title IV-E funds, the state must assure that:

- Child safety is addressed in case plans and in case reviews.
- Procedures are developed to facilitate adoptions across state and county jurisdictions.
- Safety of children is of paramount concern from the point of intake and throughout the life of the case.
- Reasonable effort's provisions conform to PL 105-89 (contains provision for when reasonable efforts are excused).
- Criminal record checks are conducted for foster and adoptive parents (state may opt out, suggest other options, or enact a statute that is consistent with PL 105-89).
- State standards exist to ensure quality services for children in foster care.
- The state initiates or joins proceedings within a specified time frame to terminate parental rights for certain children in foster care.
- If a child has been in foster care under the responsibility of the state for 15 of the most recent 22 months; or
  - If a court has determined a child to be abandoned; or
  - If a court has determined that the parent committed murder of another child of the parent, committed voluntary manslaughter of another child of the parent, aided or abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit such a murder/voluntary manslaughter, or committed a felony assault that resulted in serious bodily injury to a child or to another child of the parent.

When the state files a petition to terminate parental rights, the state must concurrently recruit and approve a family for adoptive placement, if no relative is available. The state may decide not to proceed with termination of parental rights if a relative is caring for the child; there is a compelling reason for not proceeding with the termination of parental rights (outlined in the case plan); or the state has not provided services outlined in the case plan which would have been able to return the child home.

These actions must be taken for 1/3 of the existing caseload within 6 months of the effective date (6/30/99), for 2/3 of the existing caseload within 12 months (12/31/99), and the full caseload within 18 months (6/30/00).

- Health insurance coverage will be provided for children with special needs for whom an adoption assistance agreement is in effect by January 1, 1999.

By February 13, 1998, Ohio was required to submit a state certification to the regional office of the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) indicating which new Title IV-B and Title IV-E plan assurances, listed above, required changes in state statute. Ohio certified that changes would need to be made in state statute regarding case plans, case reviews, facilitating adoptions across state and county jurisdictions, reasonable efforts, health insurance coverage for children with special needs, and initiating or joining proceedings within a specified time to terminate parental rights for certain children in foster care. A request was made to ACF to accept the criminal background check requirements contained in section 2151.86 of the Ohio Revised Code in lieu of the federal criminal background check requirements. The state has until January 1, 1999 to make all necessary changes to state statute.

LEGISLATION

The department and the Public Children Services Association of Ohio (PCSAO) have been working to initiate changes in state statute in order to meet the January 1, 1999 deadlines.

OHIO ADMINISTRATIVE CODE RULES

The department has done a preliminary review of Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) rules to determine which rules and forms require amendment. As rules are drafted they will be disseminated through the county and department clearance process in order to obtain public children services agency (PCSA), private child placing agency (PCPA), and private noncustodial agency (PNA) input.

FACISIS

The department will examine FACISIS to determine what system changes need to occur to comply with PL 105-89.

FEDERAL PARENT LOCATOR SERVICES

Section 453 of the Social Security Act was amended to permit child welfare agencies to access the Federal Parent Locator Service in order to assist in locating parents. As of February 1, 1998, public children services agencies (PCSA) were provided with access to the Ohio Parent Locator Service (OPLS) through the Ohio Data Network (ODN). Access is limited to two workers per county. This system provides a mechanism to locate an absent parent or find existing kin in cases where other methods of finding this information have not been successful. Some income information on the removal home is also available.

Counties that have not yet registered may do so by contacting Becky Nichols at (614) 752-6169. Upon registration and the submission of a separate security agreement, Ms. Nichol's will provide the agency with a step by step users manual.

FUNDING

Adoption Incentives

State may be eligible for an adoption incentive award if all of the following conditions are met:

- There is an approved Title IV-E plan
- The number of foster child and/or special needs adoptions in the state during a given fiscal year exceeds the base number of foster child adoptions for the prior fiscal year. In FFY 1998 the base number is determined by the average number of foster child adoptions in the state in federal fiscal years 1995, 1996, and 1997; and for subsequent federal fiscal years the number of foster child adoptions in the state in the federal fiscal year for which the number is the greatest in the period that begins with federal fiscal year 1997 and ends with the federal fiscal year preceding such subsequent fiscal year.
- In FFY 2001 and thereafter, the State provides health care insurance to any special needs child who has an adoption assistance agreement in effect.

Awards will equal a maximum of $4,000 for each foster parent adoption above the base number plus an additional $2,000 for children with special needs, or $2,000 for a special needs child who is not adopted by their foster parent. The base number for children with special needs is calculated, for FFY 1998, by taking the average number of special needs adoptions in the state in FFY 95, 96, and 97; and with respect to subsequent years, the number of special needs adoptions in the state in the fiscal year for which the number is greater in the period that begins with FFY 97 and ends with the fiscal year preceding such subsequent fiscal year.
Incentive awards will be provided in the federal fiscal year succeeding the year earned and can be used until the end of the succeeding federal fiscal year. The adoption incentive award must be used to provide services to children and families as permitted under Title IV-B and/or Title IV-E, but no match funds will be required.

States have yet to receive further guidance on these incentive awards.

Family Preservation and Support Services Program

The Family Preservation and Support Services Program (Subpart 2 of Title IV-B) was renamed the Promoting Safe and Stable Families Program. It was reauthorized through FFY 2001.

The state must use a significant portion of its funds for time-limited family reunification services. Time-limited reunification services include individual, group and family counseling; inpatient, residential or outpatient substance abuse treatment services; mental health services; assistance to address domestic violence; services designed to provide temporary child care and therapeutic services for families, including crisis nurseries; and transportation to and from these services; provided services are given to a child who is removed from his home and to the child's parents or primary caregiver to facilitate the reunification of the child. These funds cannot pay for services to a child and his/her family for more than 15 months after the child enters care.

Funds may also be used to provide adoption promotion and support services. Adoption promotion and support services have been defined as services and activities designed to promote more adoptions out of foster care, including pre- and post adoptive services, and activities designed to expedite the adoption process and support adoptive families. Family preservation and community-based support services may also be supported under this funding stream.

The department will be revising OAC rule 5101:2-39-06 to include the time frame provisions for utilization of Title IV-B funds under Emergency Services.

Title IV-E Adoption Assistance

Any child who had been determined eligible for adoption assistance payments prior to the child's adoption, who is currently available for adoption because the prior adoption has been dissolved and the adoptive parents' parental rights have been terminated, or because the child's adoptive parents have died, may be determined eligible for Title IV-E adoption assistance (applies to children adopted on or after October 1, 1997).

Enclosed is a copy of the federal Child Welfare law (Title IV-B and Title IV-E) as amended by PL 105-89. An index of the law is also included. The law, as you can see, is quite lengthy and this transmittal only addresses selected provisions of the law.

The areas of the law which:

- are shaded in gray reflect new additions to the law.
- contain strikeouts reflect what was previously contained in the law.

As changes are made to OAC rules or forms, they will be disseminated to all agencies for review and comment.
FCASPL 57 (Annual Evaluation)

Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 57

March 14, 1997

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Arnold R. Tompkins, Director

SUBJECT: Annual Evaluation

Sections 5153.16 and 5153.164 of the Revised Code require a public children services agency (PCSA) to conduct, on or before the fifteenth day of April of each year, an annual evaluation of the services provided by the PCSA to children under its care. The annual evaluation is to contain all information required in Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-33-06.

Although Family, Children and Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 55 indicated that the department was recommending elimination of the annual evaluation requirement from state statute and the timeframes for submission of the County Children Services Plan (CCPS) were changed, the PCSA is still required to submit the annual evaluation to the Ohio Department of Human Services District Office no later than April 15, 1997.

SUBJECT: Implementation of ICPC Regulation #7 - Priority Placements

In 1976 Ohio passed the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC), Sections 5103.20 to 5103.28 of the Revised Code, which governs the placement of children across state lines. Ohio Administrative Code rules 5101:2-42-20 through 5101:2-42-27 regulate the placement of children into and out of Ohio.

In an attempt to expedite the processing of certain ICPC cases, a Joint Committee consisting of the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, the National Association of Public Child Welfare Administrators, and the Association of Administrators of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children developed the attached ICPC Regulation #7, "Priority Placements", which went into effect on October 1, 1996.

The INTENT of Regulation #7, Priority Placements is to:

- Eliminate delays in the placement of children in relative homes across state lines;
- Define which cases can be considered for Priority Placements;
- Establish time frames for each step in the process;
- Simplify the ICPC process while making the process user-friendly;
- Simplify the home study process by use of an established format.

The ROLE OF THE COURT in Priority Placements is to:

- Determine if a proposed Priority Placement of a child from one state into another is necessary. The court will consider the following criteria in making its determination:
  - The child is being proposed for placement with a parent, stepparent, grandparent, adult brother or sister, or adult uncle or aunt, and
  - The child is less than two years of age, or
- The child is in emergency shelter; or
  - The court finds that the child has spent a substantial amount of time in the home of the proposed placement recipient
  - The interstate request has been in the receiving state's ICPC office for more than 30 working days without being approved or disapproved.
  - Sign an order of Priority Placement for the child. The order should include the name, address, telephone number and fax number of the judge and the court.
- Send the order of Priority Placement to the sending agency within two working days.

The PROCESS for submitting requests for Priority Placements is:

When Ohio is the Sending State

- The Ohio sending agency is responsible for forwarding to the Ohio ICPC office, within three working days, a packet of material containing the following documents.
  - Three copies of the signed court order, ordering the Priority Placement;
  - Three copies of a cover letter;
  - Five copies of a completed ODHS 1661, Interstate Compact Placement Request (ICPC 100A);
  - Three copies of a child summary;
  - Three copies of the case plan, ODHS 1444, case plan document.
  - Three copies of legal documentation pursuant to OAC rule 5101:2-42-20;
• Three copies of the Priority Home Study Request (See attached ICPC-101, Association of Administrators of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children Sending State Priority Home Study Request).

• It is important to send the packet by overnight mail if possible. If not, Ohio agencies should fax the court order of Priority Placement, the completed ICPC 100A, and the Priority Home Study Request to the Ohio ICPC office at 614-728-6803 and send the remaining material as soon as possible. (Please phone the ICPC office at 614-466-8520 prior to faxing this material).

• The Ohio ICPC office will designate the ICPC request as a Priority Placement and process it within two working days. The packet will be sent by overnight mail to the receiving state's ICPC office, if possible. FCASPL 19 (Title IC-E Multiple Payment Summary Report)

Family. Children And Adult Services Procedure Letter No. 19

March 6, 1991

TO: All Family, Children and Adult Services Manual Holders

FROM: Kathryn T. Glynn, Director

SUBJECT: Title IV-E 14 Multiple Payment Summary Report

The Multiple Payment Summary Report is produced on a quarterly basis. The Multiple Payment Summary Report provides a listing of any Title IV-E FCM payments which were made for a child through more than one payment system in a particular month. Information is collected from three payment sources: 1) Benefits Issuance, either the Client Registry Information System (CRIS) or the Family and Children Services Information System (FACSIS), 2) Title IV-E Auxiliary Payment Authorization (ODHS 1659), and 3) the Monthly FCM Facility Invoice system (ODHS 1925). On the report, the Benefits Issuance payment, either CRIS or FACSIS, is identified as data base-DB and the auxiliary payments are identified as AUX.

For each month in which more than one Title IV-E FCM payment was made for a particular child, the report lists the child's name, IV-E number, warrant date and number, voucher number, and the amounts and sources of payment. If your agency received payment for such cases during the quarter, a Title IV-E Multiple Payment Summary Report will be mailed to your agency at the beginning of the following quarter. The report should be reviewed as soon as possible after receipt to identify and repay any Title IV-E funds received in excess of actual expenditures.

There may be a valid reason that multiple payments were made in the same month for one child, such as an initial or an additional clothing payment authorized via an auxiliary in addition to the basic payment made through Benefits Issuance, or clothing and residential care payments were both authorized in the same month on the ODHS 1925. These types of multiple payments will be listed on the report, but no action by your agency is necessary for such cases.

However, some of the listed multiple payments may actually be duplicate payments for placement costs that were reimbursed through more than one of the payment systems. For example, a child placed in a family foster home was moved to a group home but the change in living arrangement was not processed on Benefits Issuance for two months. The agency billed and received payment for the group home costs incurred and also received the advance family foster home payment for these same two months through Benefits Issuance. In this case, an actual overpayment has occurred in the receipt of the family foster home advance payment and it is the agency's responsibility to repay that amount to the department.

Identified overpayments are to be repaid to the department using either the ODHS 1659 or the ODHS form 1925 as appropriate. Please note that the termination or adjustment of payment must be effective on the actual day of the month the overpayment occurred.

Questions regarding this letter or the Multiple Payment Summary Report should be directed to your district office social services coordinator.
The Child Support Enforcement Amendments of 1984 extended Title IV-D services to Title IV-E recipients of the Social Security Act (PL 98-378). This law requires states to take all steps, where appropriate, to secure an assignment of support rights to collect and distribute child support for a child on whose behalf Title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance (FCM) payments are being made.

Title IV-E recipients shall be provided all services provided to any child support assignment applicant including the establishment of paternity, the establishment of court orders and the enforcement of existing orders for support.

All public children services agencies (PCSAs) are required by Ohio Administrative Code rule 5101:2-47-32 to refer each IV-E FCM case to the local Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) upon determination of IV-E eligibility and to assign child support rights to the CSEA. The local agencies shall determine the method by which referrals shall be made and for establishing ongoing communication between the agencies. A model form, Referral of Title IV-E Foster Care Recipient for Child Support Services, is attached and may be used by the PCSA. Any pertinent court orders available to the PCSA shall accompany the referral document to the CSEA. If the PCSA has permanent custody of a child, the CSEA's only service shall be the collection of any arrearage accrued before permanent custody was granted.

The CSEA will distribute child support collections in accordance with procedures designated in the Child Support Enforcement Manual. CSEA collections representing current support for IV-E children are retained as repayment of the current IV-E payment. CSEA collections representing arrearage are retained by the CSEA as repayment of past unreimbursed IV-E or IV-A payments. IV-E collections are not subject to the $50 disregard provision.

CSEA collections in excess of the current monthly amount of the foster care maintenance payment, but not the monthly current support obligation, will be paid to the PCSA responsible for supervising the child's placement and care. The PCSA must use the excess in a manner determined to be in the best interest of the child. Uses may include setting aside the amounts for the child's future needs, subject to asset limitations of rule 5101:2-47-58 of the Administrative Code, or making all or part of the amount available for meeting the child's current day-to-day needs.

Questions regarding this transmittal should be directed to your district office social services supervisor or local CSEA, as appropriate. The information contained in this transmittal was previously issued as SSIM No. 120.

3. If the CDJFS has altered the original profile submitted in January June, the CDJFS shall submit to ODJFS, an amended profile that has been approved by the county commissioner or designee by the end of May July.

4. The original and amended profile shall be submitted electronically to the Ohio department of job and family services (ODJFS) mailbox: OFC_SSBG_Title_XX_County_Profile_Reports entered in the "Federal Reporting SSBG Title XX" system.

The JFS 01821 county profile shall include the services to be provided and for each service the estimated un-duplicated number of persons to be served or activities provided and estimated total expenditures including state, federal and local dollars. The county chooses the service(s) it wishes to offer from a catalogue of Title XX services listed on the county profile, but each profile must include one or more services directed at one or more of the following five program goals. Each individual can be counted no more than once in any service category. The count is to include primary consumers and individuals authorized to receive the service on behalf of a primary consumer. The five national goals for Title XX are:

1. Achieving or maintaining economic self-support to prevent, reduce, or eliminate dependency.

A public notice of the hearing shall be published in one or more mediums: a newspaper of general circulation, radio, television, or agency's website before such hearing is held. Comments and recommendations received from the public, as a result of the hearing, should be taken into consideration for the final county profile.
Each CDJFS has the flexibility of doing a public hearing annually or biennially and shall forward electronically a summary of the comments made at the public hearing on the proposed county profile to ODJFS, by the second week end of May.

This paragraph applies to all Title XX services except for child care services which are set forth in Chapter 5101:2-16 of the Administrative Code.

2. Social services identified in the county profile shall comply with the definitions and requirements contained in Chapter 5101:2-25 of the Administrative Code.

The CDJFS may amend its final county profile after the final CTXXSSP has become effective been submitted.
