Your application for derivative T Nonimmigrant Classification as a qualifying family member has been approved. Attached below, please find a completed Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, indicating that you have been granted T Nonimmigrant Classification for the specified period.

EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION:

If you filed a Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, in conjunction with your application for T Nonimmigrant Classification, a decision on that form will be mailed to you separately.

DEPARTING FROM THE UNITED STATES:

If you plan to depart the United States you must obtain permission to return to the United States before you leave this country by obtaining advance parole. If you do not obtain advance parole in advance of your departure, you may be unable to re-enter the United States, or you may be placed in removal proceedings before an immigration judge. You may apply for advance parole by submitting a Form I-131, Application for Travel Document, with the required fee or request for fee waiver to this office.

Please see attached additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about other cases you filed.
